The Thirteenth CHAPTER

REVELATION.

By that Reverend and Eminent fervant of the Lord, Mr. John Cotton, Teacher to the Church at Boston in New-England.

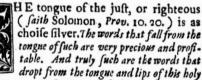

Taken from his mouth in Short-writing, and some part of it corrected by Himselfe soon after the Preaching thereof, and all of it since viewed over by a friend to Him, and to the Truth; wherein some mistakes were amended, but nothing of the sence altered.

THE READER.

Christian Reader,

and right cous man Mr. Cotton : As he himselfe had by his owne bleffed experience found the tongue of that righteoms man (D' Sibbs) as choife silver, yea better then the choisest gold of Ophir, by which the Lord was pleased to convey beavenly and eternal treasure into his soule : Even so also have many precious Soules (Some now above in glory, others still here below) found the words that have distilled from his tongue to be above much fine gold, and of more weight and value then the greatest treasure of this whole world. Divers that are yet alive, and do remain unto this present, may & can bear with fe to the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. Eut I shall crave leave to name only one now amongst the Saints at rest, who was indeed one of a thousand in his time and place, viz. that great and e-minent man, Dr. Preston, whose heart the Lord wrought powerfully upon by the tongue of Mr. Cotton, and that not long after his heart had been seized upon by the tongue of that that sweet Singer before mentioned. And because the story is so remarkable, I shall be willing to relate in briefe the substance of what I had sometimes in private from the tongue of this our Reverend Author himfelfe. He being according to his course to Preach before the University & Schollars in Cambridg, had a great conflict in himselfe a. bout the composing of his Sermon, viz. whether after the plain & prefitable way, by rayling of Doctrines, with propounding the Reasons and Uses of the same. Or after the mode of the University at that time, which was to stuffe and fill their Sermons with as much Quotation and citing of Authors as might possibly be. On the one side 'twas suggested to him, that if he should not co the former way, he should not be faithfull to the Lord in seeking his glory, but his owne, &c. And on the other side, if he should not shew his Learning, it would not onely be a disparagement unto himselfe, but also unto the Colledg which had so lately chofen him out of another to be Fellow (for he was chosen Fellow in Emanuel Colledg out of Trinity, where according to his yeare it fell out so as he could not be capable of a Fellowship) What ? is this that Cotton that was so famous, and had such a name, for a great Schollar? what a pogre choise bath Emanuel Colledg made? Thus he was toffed too and againe, pro and con in his thoughts (as I thinke he sayd) about a fortnight, the Lord seeming to try his sincerity at the first; but at length he came to a resolution to deny himfelfe, what ever the world might judge or fay of him: His Text (if I mistake not) being in 2 Cor. 2.

16. And who is sufficient for these things? Two or three Dollrines (wit seems) he raised from the words. The Schollars came generally with great expectation to heare a more then ordinary learned Sermon from him that was fo famous throughout the University and thereupon the Mafters.

fers of Art at the beginning stood up, erecitis auribus, amonest abom Mr. Preston was one; but soone perceiving which way he went, which was so extreamely contrary to their expectation, they fate them downe in great discontent. pulling their hats over their eyes, thereby to expresse their dillike of the Sermon: but before 'twas ended, something dropt from the tongue of the Preacher, which the Lord made unto Mr. Preston to be as choise silver indeed; whereby hee was so affected, that he was made to stand up againe, and change his posture, and attend to what was spoken, in another manner then he and the rest had done. These things Mr. Preston afterward, getting to be acquainted with Mr. Cotton (by coming to him under pretence of borrowing a Booke of him, which he might have easily had elsewhere, & returning it againe) related particularly unto him.

Thus our Reverend Author by denying himselfe for the Lord, had that cast in upon him (viz. the gaining of such an eminent person to Christ) which was a thousand times better then the airy appliance of the world in being accounted a learned man : Tet neither did he loose that way, but had the repute of that too (and not without cause) to his dying day; notwithstanding his continuall care to avoyd all appearance of affect ation in the course of his Ministry, either in regard of shewing Learning, or in the manner of expresfing what he did deliver : whereby the power and effect of his Preaching did appear to be wholly of God, being desirous to speak to the understanding and capacity even of the meanest, and by manifestation of the Truth, to commend himselfe to every mans conscience in the sight of God, A taste whereof we have in these Sermons of his here published.

It were too great arrogance for mee to thinke to adde any authority to these or any other of his precious labours by my commendation of them, I might as well go about to adde to the light of the Sume by my Canale : The very name of Cotton is enough to let an high price upon what ever bath that its up : Orely (being earnestly desired by the Christian brother, the publisher of this Expusi ion, who bewing the pen of a ready Writer, did take those Notes from the mouth of the Preacher, to give my testimony to the world that these were indeed the very Sermons of that holy Servint of the Lord, who fe name they Lear) I fall willingly off m and to fife (baving lived in that American wilderneffe about 13. or 14. yeares in the Towne next adjoyning to Boston, and so had thereby the bappy priviledg of enjoying the benefit of the precious labours of Mr. Jottone, in bis Lecture upon every fifth day in the week) I fay I do bere declare and testifie unto the world that these Sermons upon the 13th. Chapter of the Revelation, for the substance of them (giving allowance for such defects of the Amanvensis, which cannot but be expetied ordinarily, and yet I confesse are but very few in this Treatise) were publifbed by that faithfull fervant of the Lord, Mr. John Cotton, about the 11. and 12. moneths (if I miftake not) of the year, 1639. and the first and second of the yeare 1640. upon his weekly Ledure at B fon in New-England, where be went over the other Chapters of the Revelation, as be did this thirteenth Chapter : and indeed they that were acquainted with his Preaching, may eafily difcern bis very fpirit in them all along.

Now that the holy spirit of the Lord may breath in these holy Labours of his precious Servant, so as the Reader may experience the truth of that divine sentence mentioned in the beginning, The tongue of the righteous is as choice silver, is the unseigned desire of

EXPOSITION

Upon the thirteenth Chapter of the REVELATION.

Revel. 13. 1, 2.

And I stood upon the sand of the Sea, and saw a Beast rise up out of the Sea, having seven heads, and tenne horns, and upon his horns ten Crowns, and upon his heads the name of bla (phemy.

And the Beast which I saw was like unto a Leopard and his feete were as the feete of a Beare, and his mouth as the mouth of a Lyon: and the Dragon gave him bis power, and his (eate, and great authority.

OU have heard from the last Chapter, that when the Dragon (that is the Devill, as he ruled the Roman Pagan Empire) was caft downe out of Heaven, (that is, dethroned from his heavenly and Divine worship) he endeavoured by all meanes to apprelle the Church (that is the woman) that bronght fortha Christiah Emperour,

By perfecution. 2. By an inundation .. her and her feed. and harbanous Nations, 2. By upen of dampable Herefe 1:31

War : which open war is express in the last verse of the former Chapter, and here more fully described in this Chapter, at whereof hath been now read.

The warre which is made against the Church, is here described to be managed by two beasts which the Devill raised up; One he calls a Baft riting up out of the S.a. describ.d from the first verte to the end of the tenth. Another Bratt hee beheld coming up out of the Earth, from the 11th verte to the end of the Chapter.

Now the former of these Beatte is described by three argu-

Chap. 12.

1. By his Originall or Fountain from whence he springs; he rifeth up out of the Sea, which is amplified by the place of Tobns beholding him; I flood upon the land of the Sea.

2. He is described by his thape, here is his figure and refemblance : For his head, he had feven heads, and they amplified by honourable Ornaments (or rather dishonourable indeed, but honograble in the beafts view) namely upon his heads the name of blafphemy. 2. For his horns, he had ten horns, and they are fet forth by their Crowns which he had on his horns; He had so many horns, so many Crowns, upon his ten horne, ten Crowne. And as his fhape in fet forth by his head and horns, fo also by his resemblance, or likenesse; the whole shape or bulk of the Beaft is like a Leopard : The Leopard is of the femenine gender, and fignifies the female of the Panthers : the she Panther, spotted and ravenous, samous for her speedy race, and yet of a good smell, by which the allures other beafts to her, and as the hath occasion, doth devoure them. And as his refemblance for his whole shape is like a Leopard, fo for his feet he is like a Bear : And for his mouth, he bath the mouth of a Lyon : This is the second argument by which he is described.

3. The third argument whereby he is described is his flate, and that amplified by three arguments. 1. By the efficient cause. 2. By the variable change of it : And 3 v. by a wife conclusion and observation. For the efficient cause of it, it is faid to be the Dragon; he gave him his power and anthority. For the variable change of it, it was, 1. Great, for it is here called Power, and Seate, and great Authority. 2. One of his heads heads was wounded; I fam one of his beads as it mere mounded to death. And thirdly, this wound was healed : this is the variable change of it. 1. Great authority, bonourable feate. 2. Wounded to death. And thirdly, bealed of that deadly wound. And this healing is amplified by five Effects, or Contequents. The first was the worlds wondering : All the world wondered after the Beaft: The admiration was at this great change (to hippily archieved as they thought) that he should recover that deligerate danger. The second effect it wrought was, worthin both towards himselfe : And secondly, to the Dragon that gave bim power. The third effect of this healing was, liberry to blafphome : There was a mouth given bim to speake great things o blafphemies. A fourth effect was, Authority and Power (to do what?) First, To continue forty two moneths, vert. 5. S. condly. Power to make marre with the Saints, and to overcome them, that was the fourth effect that followed his healing. The fifth effed was amplitude, or largenesse of his Dominion : Power was given him over all Kindreds, Tongues, and Nations, verf. 7. And all that dwell upon the earth fall worfhip bim, verf. 8. Which worshippers are described by their estrangement from the number of Gods elect , whose names are not written in the book of the life of the Lamb, and the Lamb fet forth by the eternall efficacy of his death, Slaine from the foundation of the world. This is the second part of the description of the B. aft.

The third part is a conclusion, which contains a word of Caution, and Confolation, or a word of Attention and Confolation in the ninth and tenth vertes. If any man have eares to beare, let him beare; as if it were a matter worthy of observation and diligent attention, and of exact understanding and of consolation, in the tenth vers. He that leadeth into captivity is held goe into captivity; be that killeth with the sword, must be killed with the sword, must be killed with the sword, and his description.

The latter Beaft is in the eleventh verse to the end: I beheld another Beaft coming up out of the earth, &c. He is described by his variety from the former beaft: For his Original, he comes not as the other Beaft out of the Sea, but from the Earth: And for his resemblance, he hath two horns like a Lamb, and he fpake lik a Dragon. 2. He is described by his power, as in the twelfth verse, but I will not now speak surther of him.

Now for the meaning of the words; It is that which the holy Ghoft calls us diligently to attend unto; He that bath cares to beare, let bim beare : If any man have an eare to underfland, any apprehension of spirituall mysteries, any capacity of matters of Religion , let him heare what manner of beaft the Devill flirred up, and fee against the Church, to make war against the Saints, as if it were a matter that few would understand but such as were of spirituals understanding, and who will liften duly to a diligent observation of this description, the matter whereof is weighty, and challengeth all our intentions; and the more, because it is very rare to meet with that which will fatisfie a diligent Reader in the Exposition hereof; But yet so much light God casts almost into the head of every man that takes this Book in hand, especially in his name and feare (according to his promife, Cap. 1. verf. 3.) that he adds some light more than hath been before brought to his hand. Here you fee are two Beafts, what is the former? Many take it to be the Roman Empire, some take it to be the Roman Pagan, some the Roman Christian Empire, but I feare neither of them are right : It is not the Roman Papan Empire, that is, take the Empire as it was before the conversion of Rome from Pagan to Christian, in the dayes of Tyberius, and other perfecuting Emperours, till Conftantine : This Beaft was not the Roman Pagan Empire, I will give you a double resion from the Text, the firft is this.

1. The Pagan Empire was described as this Beast is, in Rev. 12.3. Behold a great red Dragon, having seven heads and tenn borns; but with this difference, The seven heads had seven Crowns upon their beads : Now this Beaft hath alfo teven heads. which make it like the other, but thefe Crowns are not upon the heads, but upon the horns, which maketh a great difference, an evident figne it is not the Roman Pagan Empire.

2. Againe, it is faid of this Beaft, that he continues 42. moneths, and that is as long as the Church was in the wilderneffe ; for the Church continues in the wildernefft (as in chap. 12. 6.) a thou and two hundred and three-score dayes, which is juit 42. moneths: And to Chap. 11. 2. It is toid, The boly City they shall tread under fost forty two moneths, all the time that the two writnesses prophecyed in sackcloath, which was a thousand, two bundred and three score dayer. Now it is certain the Roman Pagan Empire did not continue as long as the Church was in the wildernesses, for the Church went not into the wilderness till the Pagan Empire ceased to be Pagan, and was translated to Christian. Now the Roman Pagan Empire was removed as by a great Eirth quake in Consuntines time, and changed from Pagan to Christian; it cannot therefore be the Roman Pagan Empire, though many judicious Divines have gone that way.

What then, may it be the Christian Empire? Many have .

run that way, but neither is it fo:

1. For it is faid, this Dragon gave to him his power, his feate, and great authority; now the feat of the Roman pagan Emplre, indeed was Rome, but the Dragon did not give the Christian Emperors Rome for their Seat, they would never fit there; but their face at Constantineple, and prepared it to fit there, and for that end Constantine named it after himselfe, Constantinople; and if they had occasion to come into the Western parts of F-tally, they would fit at Rovenna, but at Rome they would not come, unlesse it were Guest-wise.

2. Though it be true, as they fay, the Roman Christian Emperour had a deadly wound given him by barbarous Nations; yet when it was healed, the whole world did not admire him: When Charles the great did heale the wound, yet all the world did not wonder after him; be is true, France, and Germany, and Isaly did admire him; but all the Essen parts did not submit to him, no nor England, nor Scotland, nor Sweden, nor many other parts, they did not acknowledg the Western Emperour, gave him neither civili nor religious worship.

3. Neither doth this suffer it to be the Roman Christian Empire, that it should be a note of perdition and reprobation to honour the Roman Christian Emperours; for they that have lived under the Roman Christian Emperour; have not hazarded their salvation by that subjection; but here it is faid in the eighth verse, that they that honour this beast are such, whose who fe names are not written in the booke of the life of the Lambe: So that for these reasons I dare not to conceive this Brast to be either Roman Pagan, or Roman Christian Empire.

What then, is it Antichrift? The third fort of Interpreters run that way, and I would not exclude that wholly, but yet neither dare I confent to reft in it ; for when we open the Oracles of God, we must not alwayes give the Comments and Judgments of men for Scripture truths (though the men be highly to be reverenced:) But in this place their Interpretation doth not fatisfie me, I will give my reason; Antichrist doth evidently appeare to be the other Beaft that comes out of the Earth, which is fayd to have two bornes like a Lamb, &c.

You may fay, but Antich ift may be more waves considered then one, as he is invefted with temporall foveraignty and dominion, and so he may be the former beaft : and as he is invested with spiritual supremacy, and so he may be the latter Beaft; and indeed fo, many Interpreters take it : but confider these descriptions.

i. They differ in number ; John faith, I fam a beaft rife out of the Sea; and then it is faid in verf. 11. I beheld another beaft; is is not therefore the fame.

2. They differ, as in number, fo in their originall; the first role out of the lea, the lecond out of the earth.

3. They differ in their shape; The firft beaft bad ten borns, the fecond bad but two borns like a Lamb.

4. They differ (and are apparantly diffinguished in the exercife of their power, for he exercifeth all the power of the firf Beaft in his presence : And it is said also in the 12th, werf. He causetb the earth and them that dwell therein to worship the first beaft: and be causeth them to make an image of the first beaft, and be had power to gue life to the image of the beaft, &c. So that the description seems to be different; The second beaft gives all his power to the first, and yet honours himselfe too.

But that which most of all prevailes with me, and which wholly captivates my Judgment to leane another way, is this, That whereas they fay the first beaft was the Pope, as Dominus in Temporalibus, as Lord in Temporalls; and the fecond beaft is the Pope, as he is Dominus in Spiritualibus. It is evident that the Pope did not invest himselfe with temporall authority at the first : But at first claimed ipirituall and universali Epilcopacy, over-fight over all the Churches ; he was first supream head of the Church in his spiritual! Jurisdiction, and did not claime dominion in Temporalls till after his wound was healed, and then he took tower to depote the Emperour of the Eaft, and transfired his Empire from Greece to France, this was his Deminson in earthly Monarchies which he took in the latter place : And therefore I would rather fav. that the fecond beatt is the Pope in both respects, as Lord and Soveraign, high Priett in Spiritualls, and the high Prieft also over the Kings of the world in Temporalls : Hee bad two bornes like a Lamb, as the fucceffor of Peter, and as it he had nothing bu, from Christ, but be spake like a Dragon; When he had once power by his Lamb-like borns, be then fpake like a Dragon: Therefore to fpeak that which I conceive to be the truth, I do look at this first beaft as indeed of like condition with the Pope, and very nearly joyned to him. The Pope is one of the heads and rulers of this Beaft, but yet diftinguished from the beaft it telfe, and is not the fame with the beatt.

This therefore (all things weighed according to the Text) I conceive to be the first beaft, the Roman Catholick vilible Church.

The seven heads and ten horns are a clear description of the Reason, Roman State : Now this State here is neither the Pagan Roman Empire, nor the Christian Roman Empire, as hath be n thewed. And therefore it muft needs be a third Roman State diffind from the former , and fucceeding in their Gage; and what is that but the Roman Catholicke visible Church? Of this Church the Pope is the head both as universall Bishop over all Churches, and chiefly Lord in Temporalls, that had both Swords, and obtained both Authorities, to be highest fupream head in Spirituals, as also supream head in Temporalls, he was Soveraign Governour in all : And the Romancatholick visible Church, it comes just in the room of the Roman Empire : how was it described ? The beaft that had seven heads, and ten horns, this comes in his room; the one governs all the world in his way, and the other all the Churches another way : This is the Beaft that the Dragon fire up to make War with the Saints. Now to appply this description to this Church, for the better understanding of the Text.

Qu: I fam a beaft rife our of the Sea: 7 You may aske what is the Sea from whence this beaft arifeth ?

Anim. The Sea is the collection of many waters ; The gathering together of the waters called be Seas, Gen. 1. 9, 10. And what are the waters ? The maters which thou fam ft are People, and Nations, and Languages, and Tongues, Rev. 17. 15. So then, what is the beaff here that arifeth out of the Sea? It is fome foversign State that arifeth out of the connexion of many Nations into one body as you know the Roman Catholick Church is not confined within the lifts of the City of Rome. (though there the head is feated) but the whole Roman Sea ; it is well called a Sca in that respect, it is that which comprehends all Nations, whether fubi & to the Eaftern or Weftern Emperour; yea and other Nations that did nor submit themselves to the one or other, as if they did recolled themfelves as into one Sea, all banks are broken down in the Sea, ver there is no diffinction, but all is one Sea, one valt body: And such is the Roman Catholick visible Church, all particions are here broken downe, all Churches make but one vifible Catholick Church.

And again, it is well faid to arife out of the Sea, according to the like description which Daniel makes of the foure Monarche, in Dan. 7. Hee fam the foure mindes of beaven ftrive ubon the great Sea, and foure Beafts came up from the fea, divers one from another: From the multiplyed agitations of the Sea it came to per four great Monarche did arise: Just thus, from the tumulant particular Churches did this Beaft arife ; for when they could not agree in the Churches, but some were of one minde, fome of another, it was the wildom, as they thought. of Christian Princes and Bishops (but it was but humane wifdome, and was indeed from the Dragon, and not from Christ) they thought it would be best to have but one church. and the Bilhop of Rome to be the head, though at first they divided them to four, but in the end they would have the Bifhon of Rome over all, that so they might have unity; for they fay unity forings from one head; and unleffe you have one head, you cannot have unity : Therefore, from the particular Church of a Congregation, they came to Diocelan, from Diocelan ocelan, to Metropolitan; from Metropolitan to Patriarchal. from Patriarchal to Cecumenical: And so it comes to passall Churches must be gathered into one Sea, that is, one Catholick Church : For look what reason they had to set Bishops over particular Churches: So having many Bilhe ps, by the fame reason they must have some Metropolitan, and of many Metrapolitans, foure or five Patriarchs, and of them one Chief, that is the Pope, the Father of Fathers, he must be the grand Governour of all : Therefore doth he rife out of the Sea, out of the Sea of Tumult, and Sea of Contention: And if you take Sea for corruption in Doctrine, and worship, and Government (as some good Interpreters do) it was from thence also that this beaft did arise; This beaft did arise out of them all ; for had either pure Doctrine, or worship, or Discipline been well looked unto, it had not been possible that fuch a beaft as the Catholick visible Roman Church should have bin raised up.

It is further described to have seven beads, and ten borns :] The holy Ghoft describes them so fully, that we need no further interpretation of them : He tells us in the 17. Chapter of this book, the ninth and tenth verles; The feven heads are feven Mountaines on which the Woman fitteth, which are the mountaines of he City of Rome, it is built upon feven hille, and the feven heads are also seven Kings, that is, seven Kingly governments, foveraign governments : The first were Kinge, then Confuls, then Decemvins, then Dicators, then Tribunes, and then the Cafars: Five were fallen, that is, Were past in John's time, the fixth were then extant, and they were the Cefars: the Pope he makes the seventh: Now the Pope then is the feventh of thefe Heads, but the feventh head and : the beaft are two diffinct things, though he be one that rules the beaft, and hath a great influence in the guiding of it : Hee was to receive a deadly wound, and after became an eighth? head, whereas he was but one of the feven : So that he is one : of the Heads, but there is difference between the head and the beaft, and the beaft it felfe : And it is faid , He exercifeth all the power of the first Beaft; that in conclusion, what the Pope decrees, that stands: So that it is not a general! Councell that determines any thing authentically without him, but he dixh

all that the first beatt doth ; Hee would have the Catholick Church honoured, but it is that himfelfe may be honoured. asche Lord of the Church: So therefore for the heads . thefe are the feven Headt.

And for the Hornes, he tells you they are fo many Kings, which were not then rifen to Soveraigne Power, but Toba faw it in a Myftery afore hand; But when this Beaft ariteth. this Pontifex maximus, then they receive a Kingdome at the fame time, Chap. 17. 12. And the feverall Kingdomes that then were broken off from the Roman Empire (whereof England was one) they were to many feverall Kings that all gave their dominion to the Beaft with one confent, and fo were his protectors, ver. 17. They were his Bezuty and his Strengthas the Hornes are to the Beaft : So it is true, here is a great Beaft indeed, of a vaft comprehension, here is an univerfall vifible Church, and he hath feven Heads; that is, Seven Hilles, there he fice, and feven Governments : There are feven Heads, both of the one and other, both Hills and Governments, whereof five were fallen, and the fixth was when John wrote : The feventh was to rife in their roomes. and that is, He that bath two Hornes like a Lambe, and foake like a Dragon, and doth exercife all the Power of the first Beaft : what power is in the Church, the Pope hath the ordening thereof: And it is faid here, that thefe Hornes had ten Crowns, but so had not the Hornes of Pagan Rome. The heads of Pagan Rome had foveraign Authority, and lived like Princes, but fo had not the Pope, they did not wear the Crowns though they affect temporali dominion, but leave the Crowns to the hornes, leave them to Crowned Kingsthat give their power to him.

Now upon these Heads are names of Blassberry. The old High-Prioft of the Jewish Synagogue he had a place of pure Gold, and there was graven upon it, boline is to the Lord, Exod. 28.36,37. This Beaff hath not holinelle to the Lord, but names of Clafphemy, the Pontifex maximus; His bead is fullof names of Blafberry; But the Pope exceeds all in this cafe, for who ever took upon him as he to paidon Sinne? A name of Blafchemy; To be Judge of Scriptures, a name of blafphemy : Hee hath many other names of Blasphemy ; he will dispence with Oaths of allegeance, and all civil subjection; he will dispence with marriages most incessions, and doih exalt himself above all that is called God, especially the Gods of the Earth. His heads are full of names of Blaiphemy (as we shall come to speak God willing, in the 5 and 6 verses.)

Now it is faid of this Beaft, be is like a fbee Leopard, 7 [tis in the 17 Chap, compared to a woman, to shew, that the Roman catholick visible Church is as firly resembled by a woman as a fhe Panther, & fuch is this Beaft : Can a Leopard change bis fpots, Jer. 13. 23. Isit not a State full of fpots, and the fpots are not the foots of Gods people, but fpots of herifie, and spots of Idolatry, & spots of Tyranny, and great variety of all fpots of Blafphemy : To tell the fpots of that Sea, were inteed to enter into a Sta of wickednesse, which that Church abounds withall. Can a Leopard change bis foots; This church they make account cannot erre, & fo how should they change? for they that cannot erre, to what purpose should they change? yet of a very fweet & fragrant fmel, as they they perfume their Temples with incense, and love to please ambitions minds, and to fill covetous hearts; they are fweet alfo. and faire to voluptous spirits, with their Brothel houses, &c. But for the Leopard, Bear, and Lyon, I suppose there is speciall reference to them all, in Dan. 7. 4, 5, 6. where he resembles the Monarch of Babell to a Lyon, and the Monarch of Persia to a Bear, and the Monarch of Greece to a Leopard : There the Leopard is the last of the three, here it is the first, to fhew a direct contrary course that this Beast takes in his rife to the old Monarchies. Of the great Monarchies, the first was a Lyon, full of magnanimity, the next was a Beare, full of cruelty, a Bear that devoures much flesh, and the Leopard, the fpotted Beaft comes after , cruell as the former : Now here the Leopard is first, the wholeshape is sweet and savoury; other beafts would follow him by the smell; and so this church feemes in the wole bulk fweet and favory to invesgle all unftable Soules; But where he gets hold, he layes his paw like a Beare, presseth hard, and holds fast, and will not let goe; Juft like the Perfian State, they hold fall : Never did any of the States last follong as the Papall State; The Affrian lasted, long but yet did not continue above a thousand yeares years; but this is to continue 1260, dayes, that is, fo many yeares, in a great deal of Power and Authority : And therefore as by fabrilty he drawes others to him, fo them hee holds faft, that it is marvellous bard to root out where he hath got hold ; you may cut off his head, as it is in England : but it is a wonder to fee what paines there is to have the Go. vernment of Christ brought in, and of the Beast cast out: they will make so many Statutes in Parliament, that you can have no wills confirmed, nor Marriages made, but by them, nor no Parliments Acts passe but through their hands; you have so many matters in the State depending on them, that one would think it impossible ever to root them out : you may take off the Beaft his head; you may thrust the Leopard out at windows, but he will take hold with his feet, that you shall have much ado to root him out : The great profits, and great preferments they fink deep in the hearts of carnall men. And be bath a mouth like a Lyon.] How did the Lyon of Ba-bell freak prefumptionally; what God is able to deliver you out of the firey furnace? &c... and he commands all that will not worthin his Image thould be cast into the fyery furnace: Just such is the mouth of this Beast; who so will not worship the Image of this Beast shall be killed, in the 15 v. of this chapter. So you see this is the Roman Catholick visible church.

And the Dragon gave this church power. 7 All that the Roman Emperor could doe before, that doth the Caholick church: that weh the old Roman Emperor did by force of arms, that doth the Roman Church by the power of Religion and conscience: The Dragon gave bim bis power, and Seat, and ereat Autherity. And Satan will worke by the power of conscience. making them believe that all muft be fubje to them : He gave them bis Seat : what was the Seat of the old Roman Emperor ? It was Rome, Satan gave that to the Beaft; There is his Seat, and great Authority, infomuch that all the world were deeply taken with the reverence they owe as to the Imperial mother City; So to this foveraign mother Church. & their holy Father the Pope that was the head of that Church: This is the plain description of this first Beast. I canot proceed now to open the wounding of one of the heads of this Beaft, nor of the healing of that wound, nor of his warre againg against the Saints: I am the longer in this, because the more clearly these things are opened, the more fully will the council of the holy Ghost appear in the sequell. If any main base eares to beare, let bim-beare; doe not think that these things concern Students onely, and Scollars; Bus what is this to common christians? He that bath an eare, let bim beare what the bely Ghost sainb: It is the same charge which he gave concerning the Epittles which were common to all churches; If any man have an eare let bim bear what the Spirit saith unto the any man have an eare let him hear what the Spirit faith unto the Churches: Those generall doctrines necessary for all Christians to understand, the same charge is laid upon all to heare what is spoken concerning this heast; If thou understandest Religion, it thou woulds be, or art a member of a Church of Christianow his point; If any man have an ear let him hear this.

But you will fay to me. shall we make it an Article of our Creed to believe the Carbelick Church; and shall we now make it an Article of Faith to believe it to be a Monster? I believe the boly Catholick Church, and shall we make it a Beast?

To this lanswer : The holy Catholick Church we make it an Article of our Creed, that is, a company of the Godly called out of the world; we look at them all as those for whom Christ shed his bloud : But we much not look at this as a wifible Catholick Church, much leffe the Roman Church as the Catholick Church : we believe the Catholick Church is invisible; we believe no visible Church, but Congregation ons ; and therefore if you come to heare of a Roman Catholick vifible Church, whereof the Pope is the head, and who takes upon him all this Soveraignty and power here described, we look at such a body as a great Braft: Communion of Saints wee acknowledge, and that all the Churches of Christ have one and the same power amongst them to The Church of this Congregation hath power within it selfe equall to what others have, and none have power one over another : None of us are like Leopards to other beafts, perfumed to draw other beafts after us, and then like Beares to clase them in to be subject to this Church, & then speak like Lyons, that all shall be fur ject to our commands : This is a Beaft, and this is no Catholick Chuch; This is a Catholick Church of the Devill, but not of Christ. Thus have you the Come swo first verses opened unto you.

Doa,

Come we now so gather one briefe note from the words: The vifible Catholicke Roman Church is in the efteen of the boly

Ghoff a monfirous Beaft, that is the note.

That it is the beaft here deferibed, you have heard it opened: Some Roman State it must be, and you have heard it can neither be Rome-Pagan, nor Rome-Christian: It must therefore be the Roman Church; for it is described by seven heads, and ten horns, which are the Arms of Rome, as they are described in the Revelations.

That it is in the eyes of the holy Ghoft a monftrous beaft is hercevident; for imagine a bealt fet before you with feven head and ten horns, would it not feem a monfter, and unnaturall ? that is should look like a Leopard, all spotted, and facte like a Beare ? and look at his mouth . and that's like a Lyen, is not this a monfler ? to fay nothing of his blatchemies, which makes him a wicked beaft : but look at his vifage which is here refembled, and what is here deciphered but a monfter ? It holds forth his description in other places, in Chap. 36. 12. There came forth three unclean fairns ont of the mouth of the Drugon (that is the Devill) and out of the mouth of the Beaft, out of the mouth of the falle Prophet. And you shall also read, that the beaft was taken; and with him the falfe Propher : these were two fill, they could not be made one, Rev. 19. 20. And they were both caff alive into a lake of five burning with brimfone , both the the first beaft and the latter beaft, the beaft and the falle Propher : He like a Lamb comes in sheeps cloathing, but imparally is a revening wolfer

Now why is it fuch a monftrous beaft?

If God bad made such a kinde of creature; a Leopard is no monfier, nor a Beare, nor a Lyon: Bus if you make a Beast of all theso, that will be a monster, that is contrary to the course of nature, cleare besides the ordinary course of naturall generation, that makes a shing monstrous, this then is the reason of the point.

Reafon.

A braft ingendred against the course of nature, that is a monther; especially if there be so many uncount shipes of which it is composed: And it is not so with this universall Catholics visible Church? Doe but consider what kinde of Church the Lord instituted, the Church of a particular congregation: If they brother tresposse against thee, goe and tell him his fault between thee and him, &c. If be will not bear thee, take with thee one or two more. &cc. If he fhall neglett to beare them ; tell it to the Church, Mat. 18: 15, 16, 17, 18. What, the Catholick vilfible Church, when will that meet think you ? And is it ever to be expected that when they do meet, that every brother of this countrey and other countreys muft go to Rome, and tell the Trefpaffes of his brother againft him , and fend for those that have offended him , and thus and thus plead with them? And when do you think that a Catholick Church will fieale all offences between breihren? Will not this be a monffrous beaft when the Catholick Church must heare and remote of fences? That Church which Christ hath ordained will heare the offences of brethren , and a brother hath liberty to tell his offence to the Church ; and at length the matter will be broughe to an iffue, when they they have two wirneffes, then the Church fees what is to be done : Now to have a Catholick visible Church, what a monstrous disturbance will that be to the free difpensation of the government of Christ ? and vet the rulers thereof will be the only visible Church-governours of the world.

Again, you read in 1 Cor. 14.23. When the whole Church (faith the Apostle) fall come together into one place, &c. The Church therefore which the Apostles instituted may be gathered into one place, that all may bewer, and all may be edefied. Why, is it possible that all Churches should be gethered into one place to froud all heare if they were gathered for will they be ever so gathered? what a wondrous beast will this be?

Againe, whereas Christ hath said, bis Ringdime is not of this world, and hath appointed to his Disciples, that they flohid not be Lords over Gods beritage, i Pet. 5.2, and an Mat. 20, from 23, to 25. It flost not be so anong you, let him be your Minister: and let every soile be great among you, let him be your Minister: and let every soile be gived a mong you, let him be your Minister: well now, if there must be authority of the higher powers. Well now, if there must be a Catholick Chirich; and an Officer that shill surfall into the catholist and that in so many Nations with Spirituall and Tempost soil and that in so many Nations with Spirituall and Tempost soil that a dispreportion is this to the Churches at Whistland to the Officers thereoff? Not to speak of their other monissions with the control of the head of this Churches at the teory of the head of this Churches the table of the head of this Churches to the head of this Churches to the the head of this Churches to the head of this Churches to the head of this churches the head of this Churches to he head of this Churches to he head of this Churches the head of the churches the head of the head of this churches the head of the head o

It is, how they fpeak like a Lyon, and hold fall when they get like a Beare, and are spotted like a Leopard, that they are nothing but hotch-potch, and mingle-mangle : If any man have understanding, let bin understand what kind of Church this is that is thus deciphered, and described, this visible Catholick Church. For the Ule.

It may first teach us the great and just reason which all Pro-Use 1. teffant Churches have to with-draw themselves from the fellowship of the Church of Rome, from the Catholick visible Roman Church, though they look at those that submit not to them as Schismaticks and Hereticks; I pray you consider would they have us submit to this great beaft? would they have the Lambs of Christ (for such are the Churches of Chrift) to fubmit to a Lyon, Beare, or Leopard ? Hath any Lamb in the world (much leffe a Lamb of Chrift) fo many Heads and Horns, and fuch foots, and fuch feet, and fuch a mouth? Therefore I pray you confider, it is not time for the Lambs of Christ, and for all the Churches of Christ to flye off from this Monfler, and to abandon them utterly, as having no part nor portion with fuch a beaft as this?

Secondly, let this be another Use; it may teach us how U/c 2. Christian Protestant Churches wrong themselves that leave any foothers of this government in their Courches: For than is part of the image of the beaft; for the fecond beaft, when he was advanced, he would have an image of the first beaft, they must have Provinciall and Diocesan Churches, and National Churches, and carry I know not how many hundred congregations into one Nationall Church, and there must be some Dipcefan and Metrapolitan church, and the reft muft be inferious to that: Though this be not fo great a monfter as the great Beaft, yet it is an image of this beaft; can any brother tell his offence to fuch a church? And will you have him flay till the whole National church meets? Or will you have him flay till the Diocefan church meets, and carry his offences to the Vification ? Do you think they will right his cause ehen? Are a few fuch kind of men, the Chancellor, and Regifler, and Surrogate, and Apparitor, do you think the church that our Saviour bida us tell ? Are these they that are nathen sed meether sither all may beares and all may he exteried? Do thefe ferve the Lord Jefus, and not their owne bellies? I say therefore, you may see what great reason men have to with-draw from subjection in spirituall matters to the Image of this great. beaft that in some measure represent the same flate as they.

Thirdly, let it be a feasonable advertisement to all (if I were to fpeak to Princes) to all Princes, but however to all Magistrates, how to make use of their Authority to be as Proecctors of the Church, & in refped of their fpirituall effate, as children of the church , but not to give the horns to the church (though horns be for beauty and firength ;) you fee it makes the Church a monster, and it is to make a beat of the Church : And fo if you should make Church Office Juflices of Peace, or Councellors, or proflitute your own Government to them, that if the Church condemn any, then you must do so too (as heretofore if a man were condemned by the Church, and by them delivered to the secular power. then burn him presently;) this puts your Horns upon the Churches head, unto monstrous deformity: And therefore it is necessary for Magistrates to keep their power in their owne hands, and not to take things Ipfo facto, from the Church, but to confider what is done, and then they are to confirm what the Church doth according to God; Here are ten horne. and these are tenne Kings by the holy Ghosts interpretation. and they adde to the monfirousnesse of this Beaft , by giving their power thereto. Why, doth this mishape a Christian Church, for Magistrates to Submit their crownes to the Church? No. God forbid, it is an honour and happinesse to them, when Kings are nurling Fathers to the church, and bow down their faces to the earth, Ifa. 49.23. Bus why then doth he put it as a part of the milhapen flate of the Church, that it had tenne bornes, to wit, because these Kings did give their ftrength and power to the Beaft, that the Beaft did act thefe Horns acording to the power of his luft, as Chap. 17. v. 17. as it was truly accomplished in all the Kings of Europe. that did submit all their Scepters, and Thrones, and Growns, and Dignities to the Bilhop of Rome; That if hee command this or that, there muft be room for him, what ever becomes of Princes, Laws, and Endeavours, and all acts and enterprifee of War, or Peace: He had their horns on his head, he might.

excom-

might push with them as he would : This made the Church a monfter, when foreraign power was obnoxious to the Bishop of Rome, when without Excomunication, whether a cause were of God or no, Magistrates proceeded, if she Church had censured : As a Beaft that hath horns on his head, as hee turns, fo must the power of his horns be fet and put forth: If therefore the Catholick Church, or any Officer of it shall condemn a man as an Heretick, and then deliver him to the fecular power, they never difpute the cause, but take it for granted : If their holy mother Church condemn him, the Secular Power must outh and crush him to the very Earth, and trample him under foot, and rend his bowels from his body. if he once be delivered to them. Now this makes the Church a beaft, that hath this power over the Princes of the Earth. that look what is their luft , or their ignorance, or their errour, and the contrary adjudged by them to be Herelie, that the Secular power must mayntain the one, and condemn the other. - It is a comfortable thing for Churches to be freengthned and protected by civill Magistrates : But if they captivate their power to the Church, that what Church Rulers call for not according to the Word, but their Lufts, that the civill Magistrate must confirm, that makes the Church a Beast : And therefore be wife now O ye Kings, be infructed O ye Judges of the earth, ferve the Lord with feare, and rejoyce with trembling, &c. Plal. 2. 11, 12. Kiffe the Lord Jefus, fubmit to him, and in him to the church : Lick the duft off the feet of the church. difpenting his counfell and will : But when by implicite obedience the Common-wealth muft he proficute to the Beaft, it makes the Beaft more monfrous then it is : The authority of Princes in that kind makes fuch churches to be very beaftly and ugly monfers.

Fourthly, let it be of this use so raise up our hearts in holy thankfulnesse to God, that hath delivered us from this Monfier, both our Fathers from this great beast, and our selves from the remnants of the Image of this beast, from all Diocefan and National Churches, and from Metropolitian & Catholiek visible Churches that are Images of this great beast. You know how much the civill Laws of Christian Kingdoms doe strengthen Ecclesiastical power; that if once a Church

excomunicat a man, you know the power of the Law, if once this or that court excomunicate a man, though it be but for not paying fees, when it may be he hath no money, or thinks it not lawfull to maintain them by his purse : yea when he is excommunicate, it may be for going to hear a Sermon in a. nother place, when he hath nothing but reading at home; or if a man fast with his neighbors in his house, then what power there is out of fuch a Court, civill Courts of Juffice confirme, there comes a Significavit, that if he shall live fo excommunicate: and if he continue and flav out a certain time. then the Common-wealth apprehends him, and never confiders whether the cause be just or unjust : I confesse there is a liberty to traverse such a cause; but if a man want money, or want friends, he may be taken and carryed to Prison, and there he may lie and rott for any of these mishapen Clergy men : But I fay it is a great liberty to be freed from this great beaft, that he hath no finger amongst us, we are out of his paw, and out of his smell : It was a matter in question here not long agos, whether the Court should not take a course to punish such persons as stood excommunicate out of the Church, if they should stand long excommunicate. but it was a good providence of God that fuch a thing was prevented : Let not any Court, Ipfo fatte, take things from the Church; If fuch a Law were made (the Fathers live not for ever;) and if fuch a Law were once established, that a Church-member flanding to long excommunicated, the Common-wealth then should proceed against him a were this established, it would make a Beast of the Church ; we are subject to erre, and our posterity that comes after us may erre (it may be feared) worfe ; It is therefore a mercy to be freed from the beaft from the paw of the Bear, and the mouth of the Lyon : It is such a mercy that they that got the victory over these, they flood praising God, as Chap. 14. 1, 2. The Lambs company that flood on mount Si on they stand and praise, and wonder at the gracious hand of God in this case; And therefore we should in the fear of God be unfeignedly thankfull to God for our present liberties, and withall that we may be to, Let bim that bath an eare to beare, beare; If you be of Spirituall discerning, and know what these mercles mean . you will be really thankfull ; Therefore shew this thankfullnesse, not onely in searching the true meaning of the Text, and the true nature of this beaft described in it. but alfo in flanding fast in these great liberties wherewith Christ hath made us free, Gal. 5. 1.

You shall have many poore creatures that came hither to this Country, and will be ready to go back againe, they looke at things at mean and poor here; believe it, fuch a man hath not an eare, nor an eye open, he knows not whether he goes : Hagar, Sarahs maid, whether goeft thou? faith the Lord to her : And fo may I fay to fuch, whether will you goe ? will you be gone back againe to Egypt (God forbid I (hould count all our Native Country as Egypt) but if you goe thicker, you will have much adoe to escape the paw of of the Bear : If you be once incorporated into any of their Parifhes, you will finde fuch beaftly work in Church Government (I may fpeak it without wrong to any, but that I may bear witnesse against what is corrupt) that you will then finde the bleffing of those that enjoy liberty and piety together, you must worship the beast or the Image of the beaft ; A Diocefan, or Nationall Church, it is but an Image of the great beaft, it is a plain pattern of the fame; and you will finde the body of the Church rent from you, or you will be rent from the body, if you shall walk roundly and fincerely in the ways of God; you will finde fad work to have your own officers or others to rife up against you : but we have here caule to praife God for our prefent liberties, and therefore you are to be wary what you doe. If this be caule of thankfulneffe, turn not againe to that from which the Lord by his firetched out arme hash delivered you: And this let me fay further, as it may provoke us to thankfulnefs, to to forego all the Profits of this life, rather then to be drawn to subjection to such a Spirituall Government ; you fee what the holy Ghoft counts it, feven heads, ten horns, heads full of names of blafphemy, horns crowned, and here is a beaft like a Leopard, with feet like a Bear; that all the Government of it looks like rapine and robbery, catching and fnatching, rending and tearing, this is the fum and scope of it : And therefore be not deceived; if men shall tender you faire termes that may finell (weet, you shall have liberty in this and that, and protection of a good State, but it is but the smell of a Leopard; when you have yielded to such Conditions as may be tendred, you will finde such strong hold got of you, that you will never get out: And then you shall finde what ever Conditions are put in at first, the last Edition will be a month like a Lyon: They will bring you in with subtilty, like a Leopard, lay sast hold upon you like a Beare; and before they have done, there will be a month like a Lyon: And therefore as we are to be thankfull, so we are to be faithfull to God, that hath purenased these great liberties for us, and be no more willing to be intangled with your former state, than you would be willing to fall into the mouth of a Lyon, or come under the paw a Beare.

Q. But you will suy, what is this to me, I am but a private Chri-

Answ. Private Christians must not live alwayes in a private State, for that darkens a mans estate, if he knows not the order of Gods house, nor addresseth himselse to it. It is true, if a man either were in the Temple, or looked towards it; his prayers were accepted; but if a man have no minde to know the orders of Gods house, his ignorance of Church matters will darken his own spirituall estate: And therefore whosever thou be, Sonne or Daughter; If any bave eares to beare, let them listen to what is here spoken, that so by the blessing of God, you may be the more able to sinde the free passage of joy, and the power of godlinesse in all your private or publique conversation.

Revel. 13. the latter part of the 2d. verse.

And the Dragon gave him his power, and his seate, and great authority.

de next note is this;

That the Dragon (that is, Salan) as he had the government of the Pagan Roman Empire: so being cast out of it, he gave (or procured and obtained) to the Roman Catholicke vifible Church bis power, and feate (or Throne) and great authority.

For so it is plainly here said, That the Dragon gave to the Beaft his power, and his feate, and great authority.

The Dragon, who is that? You heard, the Dragon is the old Serpent called the Divill, and Satan: but the Dragon confidered. as he sometimes swayed the Roman Pagan Empire, as in Rev. 12.3. There appeared a wonder in heaven, a great red Dragon. baving feven beads and ten borns ; they are interpreted by the Angell, Rev. 17. 3, 4. 9, 10. 12. 18. The feven heads to be the feven hills of Rome, and the ten horns, fo many Kings that arofe with the lafthead of the Beaft; Therefore he means the Dragon, as he fometimes (wayed the City of Rome, and fo the Seate and State of the Pagan Roman Empire: And being now cast out, and seeing he cannot maintaine his State and divine honour, as before, to whom doth he give his honour? what, to the Roman Christian Empire? No, his rage is against them, and the Church amongst them : Neither did he give them his Seate; they fate not at Rome, but at Conflaminoble : Neither can he eafily faften upon the civill State fuch delusions, as to cause the Christian Emperours to take to themselves divine honour, though the Pagan Roman Emperours had to done : But now hee doth choose to faften them upon the Ecclefiasticall State, and thinks he shall more prevaile with Church-men (as I may fpeak) to drinke in an inundation of Herefies in Doctrine, and Tyranny in Government, and Superflicion in Worthip, he thinks he shall fooner prevaile with the Ecclefiafticall State, then with the Civill; Therefore upon this Braft (which can neither be Roman , Heathen , nor Christian Empire, bur the Roman Church) doth he fasten his power, and seate, and great authority.

His power.] A three-fold power did the Devill fatten upon the Roman Catholick visible Church.

1. The power of fignes and lying wonders; Hee gave bim. great power to worke great wonders, 2 Thef. 2. 9. Of which chere is more spoken in the sequell of the Chapter, where some of his miracles are mentioned.

2. He gave him the power of effectual! Sophiftry, or (as the Scripture calls it, 2 Thef. 2 9, 10.) of deceit, of unrighteoulnelle; parely in the Schoolmen, and parely in their Votaries, or Cloyfter-men, and partly in their Canonifts. By the efficacy of Sophistry in School-men, he corrupted all Do-By the deceit of the Cloyster men, the Monkes, he corrupted all their devotion and worship : And by the policy of their Canonifis, he corrupted all Church-government : and this was carryed with fuch efficacy of deceit, that those School-Divines were accounted the most profound, and the Monks most devout, and the Canonists most judicious, and exquisice Polititians: Now these three did mightily deceive the Christian world by their power, and all this power Satan gave to this Beaft.

a. He gave him the power also of making war; for in vers. 7. It was given bim to make warre with the Saints, and to overcome them; putting into the hearts of christian Kings to give their power to the Beaft, and to wage all their Battels at their own charges whiles he fate still; this was the power which was given him by the Dragon.

And for his feate, what was it? It was the City of Rome which ruled over the Kings of the earth, Rev. 17. 18. And for that end he would not fuffer Conftantine, nor other Emperors to dwell at Rome : If they were in Italy, they should dwell at Ravenna: So that the Dragon granted his owne Seate or Throne, not to the Emperors, for they never cared for itbut he referved it for this Braft, to be the center and chief Seate of the Roman Catholick Church.

And be gave bim also great authority, transcendently great indeed.

Great Authority.

z. Over the Scriptures.

a. Over the consciences of men.

3. Over the treasury of the church : Over Church-Rulers, and Churches, over the merits of Chrift, over Kingdoms and Common-wealths, over Purgatory, and for mitigating the paines of Hell: All this he gave to the Roman Catholick vifible Church.

1. He gave him power over the Scriptures.

1. As Judg of them. The Church is the Judg of controverfice versies, and the head of that Church is the Judg of all places of Scripture, by his authority it is authenticall; This the Catholick Church doth challenge.

2. He doth prefer the vulgar Latine before the Originall Scripture, a transcendant power.

3. It is in his power to make Apocrypha Scripture, to be of like power with the canonicall Scripture.

4. It is his power and authority that gives unwritten Traditions like power with the canonicall Scripture.

5. He takes upon him to be the infallible Interpreter. and Judge of the meaning of Scripture, and that is Blaf-

Chap. 13.

6. He takes upon him power to dispence with Scripture. Hee hath power to difpence with the morall Law of God in point of Marriages, even in incestuous Marriages, this is a power beyond Scripture.

2. He hath great authority over the consciences of men. making Laws and Canons to bind the conscience, and releafing and loofing them from the power of Gods Lawes, either in point of Marriage, or in point of Oaths and Covenants, or in point of naturall relation : He can dispence with children in refpect of duty to Parents, if they come into Monafteries. and with duty which Subjects owe to Magistrates.

3. They have power over the Church Treasury, by which they meane the supererogation of the merits of Christ, and of the Saints : They fay Christ merited for a thousand worlds : and because he saved but a few, it is free for the Pope to take the furpluffage of merit; He can take them and apply them by Indulgences, for the pardoning of them that pay well for them. And thus they who despile Gods imputation of the righteoufnelle of Christ for justification, they take upon them to impute it to themselves, and to this and that notorious wicked man.

4. They have power over Kingdomes and Commonwealths, to depose Kings, and to dispose of their Kingdoms as they please, and to absolve Subjects from all Allegiance to civill power, and for that end to nullifie their Oath, for that end you know what the Pope Tent to Henry the fourth : Chriff (fay they) gave this power to Peter, and Peter to the Pope,

Pope, and to that end abuse. Jer. 1. 10. See, I bave this day let thee over the Nations, to root out and pull downe, and to defirey, and to throw downe, to build, and to plant,

5. They have power over the estate of the life to come.

1. Over Heaven. Hee claimes transcendent power in that, and doth abuse that place in Mat. 16. 19. To thee will I give the keyes of the Kingdome of beaven, that what foever thon (balt bind on earth (ball be bound in beaven; what foever thou shalt loofe on earth, shall be loofed in beaven : Therefore he can open the gates of Heaven to them that are dead.

2. They have power over Pargatory; Upon fo much done and given, they can help them out of Purgatory: They make account the torments of Purgatory are equall to the paines of Hell; but that Hell is for ever, and Purgatory but-sill the last Judgment.

3. They have power over Hell: they have not absolute power to deliver out of Hell (only Gregory is faid to have delivered Trajans foul out of Hell;) but though they cannot deliver out of Hell, yet they can ease the torment. The witnesses of this will hardly owns it, but it is the judgment of the most devout to that Sea.

So that he gave to the Catholick church his power of figns and lying wonders, of all kinds of efficacy of delufions, and power of making Warre, and he gave him great authority over the Scriptures, over mens Confciences, over the treafures of the Church, over Kingdomes, and Princes, and Powers of the world to come, and over Purgatory and Hell: And therefore confider, if this be not a vaft power, which is here given, and acknowledged to be given by himselfe to the Catholick visible Roman Church: You must not wonder that the Catholick Church did not claim all this at first, but came to this by degrees, and more fafter grew to this, especially at that time when this second Beast (that received in spiritualls his power, speaking like a Dragon) had got all this transcendant power. In the mean time from the very first you shal find this power in the representative Catholick Church ; They quartered them into severall Jurisdictions into Bishopricks; and when they had done that, they rested not till they had fet one over the reft, and that was this of Rome : And befides, this:

this was devillish Authority to make Laws to bind all Christian Congregations, to take their Government from them.
3ly. In every Councell they devised some new Doctrine, and tome new form of worship and Government, which was the seed out of which this transcendant power was hatched.

For the reason of the point, you may aske how hee should give all this power which he never had himself, how he should give that which never was his to a Brast, so as to carry all things with that transcendant power, for divine power he had not himself, he was cast out from it; how then could hee give this to any State in the world?

First, from Gods divine Justice, and hervy Judgment upon the unthankfull world : That look, at God in former times did give up the Roman Pagan world to be ruled by Satan as the god of it (and therefore he is called in 2 Cor. 4. 4. the God of the world) So now God gave up the Roman Christian world, as he did the Pagin world before; the Scripture tells us fo. 2 Thef. 2. 8, 9, 10, 11, 12. Becaufe they recetoed not the hor of the truth that they might be faved, be gave them up to effica. cy of deluftont to believe lies . That they all might be damined who believe not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousnesse. They loved not the simplicity of the Apollies Institutions, concer-ning Churches, and Laws, and Doctrine, and Apollolick government, but did affett high preferments, and fetled endowments, and carnall excellency. Now the Lord therefore gives Satan wonderfall power, that as of old he was once the God of Pagan Rame fo now in the Church he gives them Church power; that what he could not retaine in his owne hands, that he lubflicutes, and gives to the Roman Catholick Church, to carry it along with giene fucceffe : and that's the first Resson . the judgment of God upon the unthankfull world.

A fecond Reason is taken from the effectual means which Satan ased to advance the Roman Cherch by, to exalt his Church above all others; what we'll the means? The means were these;

First, Ignorance, raising a smook out of the bottomlesse Pie, darkning all the light of the Church, Rev. 9, 2. The Sun and the Aire were darkned by reason of it: There was a mighty dark dark mift as it were : They regarded not the love of the wuth. they fludyed it not, and to the Lord left them to palpable groffe ignorance, in fo much that at that cime when the fecond beaft arose, had we seene any that lived in the former time of Religion, and that lived now, we would not have thought they had been the fame men, fuch palpable darknefe were they left unto of ignorance; Now palpable ignorance is the mother of all Superflition and Idolatry, and the mifguidance of all things in the Church.

A fecond means which he used, was, terror of Conscience which he fet on effectually by the Locusts, Rev. 9. 9. 5. There came out of the smook Locusts, and unto them was given power at the scorpions of the Earth bave power : They had fuch a notable power to fling the Confciences of men, that men would feek for death, and could not finde it, and take desperate courses, drowning, or hanging, or any thing, rather then to live in that terrour. They that shall read Parfons Refolutions Granatenfis, shall find what terrible threats there are applyed to terrific, but never fhewed them the way to come to Chrift, to binde up fuch broken fouls : Now the Conscience broken and not healed, is fit to fow any superficion in.

A third means was the superfliction and hypocrific of the votaries, and of all affliced, but unfetled confciences. Terror of conscience makes them greatly devout ; They tell them of a flate of perfection, and that they shall shrowd themselves in such a Monastery, and there they should live devoutly, and be kept from the pollutions of the world; Many Princes have been thus taken, and have given large endowments to pray for their fouls, their confeiences being wounded.

A fourth meanes was the fubtilty and lophiftry of the School-men, Supprelling the reading of the Scriptures, and mixing Philosophy with Divinity, that they might as well have fludied a point of Arifolle as their divinity, and make se good use of the one as of the other." They left fludying of Scriptures, and read Poter Lombard, whileh was mentioned in Latine, and this was a notable meinter 1 201 h. A.

A fifth meaner was the policy of the Canonille, who had gashered cogether all those Canoni that winded to Christs powerfult Government and faftred them opon the Catholick lick Church, and the Bishop of Rome being head, he had it all committed to him , a notable means to bring in Tysanny. ...

Last of all lying miraeles, 2 Thef. 2. 9. Whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power, and fignes, & lying wonders. Thus you fee the means how the Dragon gave him his power, and Authority, and such Authority that he exalts himself above all that is called God.

The ufe is thus much ; First it weg to thew the vanity of all that admiration of the Roman Catholick visible Church. and devotion to that Church, which hath fo long for many Agea deluded the world, and with which Jefuites and Seminaries doe to this day delude devout but carnall fouls : Here is great power given to them, and great authority; but whence hath the Church all this ? They pretend they have it all from Christ, but they have it from the Dragon of the bottomleffe pit ; He gave him his power and feat and great au . thority : It never came from Chrift, he never gave this power to any Church nor State in the world, it is from the Dragon. And whereas they plead it is the keys of the kingdome of Heaven, Mat. 16.19. It is verely (as the Text calls it. Ree. 9. 1.) The key of the Bottomleffe pit , There fell a flar from Heaven to the Earth, and to bim was given the key of the Bottomleffe pit: It is he that hath power to let out smoak out of the bottomleffe pit; Not to let out men from thence; at fome have pregended, or from Limber, which is the fubuths of Hell ; But to let out smoak, damnable doctrine, and falle Government; He hath power to open it, but no power to that it; power to fling mens consciences, but no power to heal them. And therefore when Bellarmine makes the Roman Catholick vifible Church to be the true Church , he makes this the first note of a true Catholick Church swhereas our Divines make Preaching of the word, and administration of the Sacraments. and holy Dicipling he selutes them, and fets down three other, univerfall, Cuttolick, vifible Charch to be the true Church ; And the cruth is it itthe very Beaft, to which the Devill gave this great Authority and power : Wherefore let nor men be bewitched with them, but let us know they are all but efficacies of delutions what ever have been in this kinde 1. :

spoken. It any man say, shall we disclaim an Article of our Creed, to despise the holy Catholick Church ? God forbid, we doe believe the holy Catholick Church foread over all National But a Church Catholick that shall have one visible head, and be the Mother Church, verily we look at it as the greatest and uglieft beaff, that ever was raifed in the world. Take all other Monarchies that the Scripture describes, the Leopard of Greece, the Lyon of Babell, and the Bear of Persia, and they are either of them but a beaffly flate, but here all thele Beafts are mingled and confounded in one : And befides, It bath feven beads, and ten borns. A Leopard, a Lyon, and a Beare, they are orderly creatures, according to some Inflitu. tion : But here is a Beaft that runs befides all inflitution, and description of Scripture, and societies of men that ever was raifed. The Catholick visible Roman Church, is the most monfter : God forbid we should blaspheme any Church, but I do but speak Scripture; Let the world be judg, if the Scripture can be accommodated to any but to this Roman-Catholick mother Church. It is evident in Scripture, thefe feven beads, and ten borns, must be some Roman State, the Roman Pagan State it cannot be , nor yet the Roman Christian State. and a Roman State it is : but there hath been no other Roman State, but the Roman-Catholick visible Church, and that hath claimed such great power and authority, which is doubelesse as incompatible to Scripture as may be, which by the wit of man hath not been invented, but by the Dragon; and yet so goodly in the eyes of the world, which great Princes are deluded and befotted withall, and happy they that can be reconciled to that State. Secondly, Learn we to magnifie the free rich grace of God

secondly, Learn we to magnihe the tree rich grace of God that hath delivered us from this great Beaft, and the worship of it, and hath restored us in a great measure to the government of primative simplicity, that now we may meet every Lordaday, that all may beare, and all may be defeed, where every one may beign his offence (if hee cannot be satisfied in private) and may be heard, and the oale in due time searched into, and healed according to God. This is Primative simplicity, and this is direct proceeding without Lordly Prela-cy, which overwhelms all the world like a great Sea : And it is well called a Sea, for it (wallows up all like a vatt Ocean.

And the more thankfull ought we to be, that he hath de is vered us from the Image of the Beatl, as well as from the heath it felfe : A Catholick Church that beareth (way over fo many hundred Churches, and overwhelms them all : Such Lawes they shall make as shall binde all Nations , and whether they give confent or no , they huft subscribe to them in point of government. Were we lenfible how odious this Beaft were in the fight of the holy Ghoft, and of the Apostle John, it would affed us with frong thankfulneffe, and hearty enlargednesse to God, that hath delivered us from fo great a beaft, and from any image and picture of it, unto which all the world is subject, unlesse in some few placer.

Thirdly . It may teach all Church Officers not to affect any Lordly pomp and flace : For Officers of a Church to take upon them any great State, or to fee a Church composed in any fuch form . you fee in the eyes of the holy Ghoft it As a Beaft. There is nothing more dilproportionable to us, then for us to affect Supremacy, for us to weare the hornes that might pulk Kings ; to throw downe any , or to defire Magifirates to execute what we shall think fit, verily it is not compatible to the simplicity of the Church of Christ. Neither may they give their power to us, nor may we take it from them: That when an Excommunication paffe in the Church. then to leave ic to the Magistrate, that so a man being excommunicated, is left, Ipfo fullo, to civill censure, upon the Churches censure, this will cause the Magistrates to submit their power to the Church unavoidably ; that if a Church cenfure. the Magiffrates must proceed against them : Now it is good to have thele two States to joyned together, that the simplicity of the church may be maintained and upheld, and ftrengthened by the civil State according to God, but not by any fimplicity further then according to the word. Beware of all fecular power, and Lordly power, of fueb val inspection of one church over mother . Take heed of any fuch ulgepation, it will amount to fome monthrous Beaft Leave every church Independent , not Independent from brotherly counfell ; God forbid that we should refuse that; but when it comes to power, that one Church thall have power over the reft, then look for a Beaff, which the Lord would have all his people to abhor.

Chap. 13.

Fourthly, let it be in the feare of God an ufe to beware how we take Satans offers. This very offer Chrift had once made to him by this Dragon, he came to Chriff, and faid (Luke 4. 6, 7.) All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them, for that is delivered unto me, and to whom foever I will I give it ; if thou therefore will worfbip mee, all fall be thine. Hee faid thus far true, that he had a great flroke in the Kingdomes of the world (but yet it was limited to him) for it's true, hee was the god of the world, in the time of Heathenith and Popilh apoliacy ; He offere Christ he will give it all co him, if he will fall down and worthip him ; The Lord Jefus rejects him, It is written, thou fast worfbip the Lord thy God, and him only fast thou ferve. When he offers fuch baices, and barbarous temptations as thefe be, we are to rej & him. The Devill comes and offers this to the Vicar of Chrift (as they call him) ! wil gire you government over all the Churches in the world, and Kingdoms, and States ; and he in very deed takes Satans offer, and doth take all the pomp and flate of the world. Time was when Naaman the Affyrian offered large matters to Elifba for healing him of his Leprone, but the Prophet would have none of them (though he was no Pagan) for when he came home, they would aske, what did it coff you? he might fay, it coff me not a grows but what it coff me in the Innes where I lay; this is honour to Religion : His fervant Gebezi indeed runs after him . As the Lord liveth, be fall not goe fo away, but be will bave areward; He makes an excuse, There are two formes of the Prophets come, and be defires a talent of filver, and emochanges of garments; and hee very liberally faltens a great deale more on him then he asks : What, faith Elifba, Is this a time to take money, and to receive garments, and Olive-yards, and Vine-yards, and theep, and oxen, and men-fervants, and maid-fervants? Hee meant fuch money as would buy all thefe; The leprofie there-Fore of Naaman fall cleave unto thee : And fo truly the leprofie of Antichrift, and of the Catholick Church cleave to us, if we take up any thing that derogates from the simple, and naked, and theep-like government of Christ Jefus; It will be a Leprosie

a Leprofie that wil cleave to us & make us grow more & more leprous : And therefore it must teach us not to regard the profits and pleasures of this world : I speak chiefly to men, as we are Church-members; Such fimple government, though it hath horns (for the Lamb hath horns, and can tell how to pulh) yet meekneffe and fimplicity is beft : Just and faithfull Administrations becomes the simplicity of civil government. but how much more the Church of Chrift, that so this great and vaft Beaft may be kept away from ut.

Use 5.

Laftly, it may teach us all, as ever wee defire, not to grow monfrous and ugly in the fight of the Lord Jelus, to take heed of hearkning to any power of Nationall Churches, you will finde that this will grow to fuch ugly deformity, that God will turn away his face from you : You will never finde him sain times of ignorance; Though God hath pardoned what we did in ignorance, not knowing what wee did (as Christ prayed, Luke 23. 34. Father forgive them , they know not what they doe.) And I doubt not but he doth the like for many of our deare brethren, who in their ignorance do submit to the Beaft, and the image of the Beaft, and doth vouchfafe his gracious presence with them : But for us here, if we shall in our hearts turn back agains to Egypt , and be content to floop to these Superflitions, and be thus ruled, for order, and forme of worthip (believe it) then we may looke for an end of all our profperity, and liberty of the Churches here : Then look we should grow mishapen and monstrous, and look ugly, we shall then foon fee an end of all the comforts of the Churches here, As therefore God hath betrufted us with fuch a handsome body as hee is pleased to own, so continue in your profession, and in the maintenance of the same even to death.

Revel. 13.3.

And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death. and his deadly wound was bealed, and all the world wondered after the Beaft.

IN these words is described the variation of the state of the Beaft in respect of one of his heads.

1. John saw it as it were wounded to death, and all men thought it unrecoverable; that is one State.

2. A State of recovery, His deadly wound was bealed.

1. The worlds admiration after the Braft.

3. The effects of this healing 2. Their worship both of the Dragon & the Beaft.

For a little opening of the words.

I fam one of bis beads. Tyou heard before that the Braft had feven heads: Now as the Scribes asked Christ concerning the woman that had seven Husbands, whose wife shall she be of the seven? So here is a Beaft hath seven heads, and one is wounded, which of the seven must it be ? To this the Apostle John tells us, Chap. 17. That five of them were gone; they had been, but were not now, and these are the seven governments of the Roman State: These five had been Kings and Consuls. Decemviers, Dictators, Tribunes. The fixth yet was, and that was the Cafars, the Roman Emperours they were the fixth head, whether Christian or Pagan, it differs not much the state of the Government, for they were all governed by Roman Laws, under one head or other. Now therefore what is this that is here spoken of, One of his heads were as it were wounded to death? was it the Roman Emperour, whether Pagan or Christian ? you heard reasons before why is could not be Pagan, nor indeed Christian Rome.

1. That head was crowned, but this hath no Crown; All the feven heads were crowned, they governed and exercifed their Administrations in the world, Rev. 12. 9.

But here thele heads are not crowned, but the Growns are upon the Horns.

2. Neither can it be they, because of this wound upon this head. The Roman Christian Emperours they never chalenged to themselves Head-ship over the Church of Rome. Constantine doth utterly abandon it; He prosesses the ought to be judged by them, and not they by him. And Theodosiss doth submit himselfe to Ambrose censure, and doth not exercise any Head-ship over the Church: It was not therefore the Emperours, for they were not heads of the Church.

2. It is faid, the wound here given, was healed, to the admiration of the world : Now certaine it is, the wound given by the Goths and Vandalls, it was never healed to this day : but the Eastern part was swallowed up by the Turk. And for the Emperors of the West, Charles the great, and his Successors, though they healed a branch of it, yet it was far off from healing the wound of the Roman Empire, those wounds have decayed, and fall shore -. of that which was the admiration of the Nations : Nor . was it the healing of this wound from the first time it was given, that was the admiration of the world. Thereforeit mult be some head that was so wounded, as all the world wondered at it, and were captive to it ; You heard it was not the Roman Christian Emperors, it muß be him that claimes to be head over all the Churches , and who is that but Pontifex maximus? It was that which Theedofiar abhor'd, he thought it an unworthy flyle for a · Christian Emperour to be accounted the great high Priest of the Church : but what he laid down , they willingly sook up, to be accounted the great Paffor of the Church, and therefore he is the head of the Church : For if it be neither Pagan nor Christian Emperours , it muff be the government that succeeded them; they were the fixth, and hee is the feventh : It is the feventh head that was thus wounded, and whose wound was afterward healed.

Qu. 2. Now a second Question will be, If he be the seventh bedd, the head of the Church of Rome; If he he this head, then when was he wounded?

Answ.

Anim: When the Goibs and Vandalis, and Hunnes, and other barbarous Nations overwhelmed Italy, and the weftern parts.

ber in a Treatile of Hierom (faith he) The government which then was left of the Church tefore, was wholly taken away, as if a man were beheaded, and yet it fell after into worfe calamity.

3. It was after taken againe by Adulphus, who though to change the name of it, and call it Gothia.

Chap. 13.

3. It was taken againe by Genfericus Vandalus.

4. Odoacer Rugionus reigned in it fourteen yeare.

5. After him, Theodoricus King of the Goths having flaine him, his Successor Totilas destroyed it, and brought it to such desolation, that there was neither man, woman, nor child feen in it for forty dayes. Now this was fuch a wound, that all the Bishops in the world that were wont to give homage to him, they now began to neglect his Head-fhip, that was but a servant at home: They despised him, to be the head of the Church, that was a fervant to Barbarians; Infomuch, that the Bishop of Revenue, he challengeth universall Supremacy, he takes indignation at him, that he will be Lord Paramount : But so great was the wound, that indeed the Roman Bishop was utterly discouraged, and this continued for 140. yeares together; and though he would have used many meanes for his cure, and have called in help from the Emperor of Greece. yet he was not willing to help him, for they had fallen out before about worthipping of Images; he was conftant for Images, the other was against them, and so he might finke or fwim for them; fo his wound feemed incurable.

Queft: 3. When was this wound cured, and bow?

Anfw: By degrees.

1. In the yeare 555, the Lord flirred up Justinian, who by his Generalls, Beliseries and Morses, drove and deflroyed the Goths out of Italy.

2. By Julinian novell Conflictions, we decree according to the Canons of the holy Councils, the most holy Bishop of old Rome to be the first (or to have the Primacy) of all Priess.

Verf. 3.

2. Phoeas the Parricide about fifty yeares after, about the yeare 606 healed up the wound, granting to Boniface the third, that he should be universall Bishop, not only the first in order, but in honour alfo, and that all the whole world should be his Diocesse: And this was the healing of his Head, which was fo perfectly cured, that all the world wondered at the preservation of the head of this Church, and began by degrees more and more to adore both the Church, and the Head of it.

Obj. There is an Objection made against this exposition; That by this means the Bishop of Rome should be bealed before be be a head of Beaft, for this was his beauship when he was allowed to be chief Lord over all the Churches, and all the rest to be under him; and the Pope mas not this head till the Act of Phocas.

Answ. I answer, He had not the peaceable possession of this Headthip till this time, but yet it is evident in ftory that he did claim this supremacy before, he sought it ambitiously, and it was given him by the devotion of many Bishops, and Churches, and Nations, it was usually rendred to him long before that time. Socrates faith, that Ballo the Pope had broken forth into the Government over the Churches : And Bellarmine himselfe consesseth (when he is put to it) that the Bishop of Rome would never goe to any Consultation in the Eaft, but fent his Legat ; for faith he, it is not meet the head should follow the members : A second reason he gives, the Emperor (faith he) is at least Vice-gerent of the East, he well may have the material! Seat that was taken up by the Emperors, where shall the Bishop of Rome sie then ? and this he gathere out of some of their writings : So that it is evident, that he did ambitiously defire it, and the manner was (being elderly men) all his beloved and dear children they call him Father, and so he takes in good part all their honorable Titles , and he deftributes to them fuch parcells of refpect , as may fland with his own Sumpremacy, and their subjection, and therefore they need not fay, The wounded head was healed before he was a head of the Beaft, for it was in conception long before. He did from Conftantines, time feek Supremacy: They confesse, little respect was had to him in Constantines time :

Chap. 13. time ; But when order was fet in Churcher, he took all advantages for his exaltation, and did take all appeals from othere, that what others did to him in reford of his gravity, & learning, and understanding he takes as done to him as fitting in Peters Chaire, and fo did challenge headship in those times, and they thought it was meet to give it ; And after this, he was ratified, and confirmed, and established in peace, then was his wound healed. Come we then to gather a note or two from the word;

The first note you may observe is this.

The ambition and arrogancy of Church Officers clayming headship over the Church of Christ, the Lord plagues it with a mortall wound, and crusheth is even to the death.

I gather it out of these words, I sam one of bis beads as it were wounded to death; It was one of the heads of the Catholick Church ; As the body was a Monfler, fo was the head : tofet a head over fuch a vaft body it was a Monster in Gods fight: The Lord wil not fuffer him to go on in this ambitious defigne, but will meet him as he did Balaam, when he crushed his foot against the wall, and if he had gone on, he had flaine him, Numb. 22. 32, 33. So doth the Lord here meet the Bifhop of Rome; if he will be the head of the vifible Church. and animate such a Body, what will the Lord doe ? He will wound him to death, and flay him, and crush his spirituall arrogancy, that under pretence of Vicarship to Christ, will yet be the Lord of the Church.

The Reason of the point is,

From the dishonour put upon Christ, to take the headship from him to whom it belongeth. This honour to be the head of the Church is the proper right of the Lord Jefus : It is his, First by guift from the Pather, Epbef 1. 22. To be head ever all things to the Church : and Gol. 1. 18. He is the head of the body the Church. Secondly, it is his by Purchase : He gave bimfelfe to death, even the death of the Croffe ; and God bath bigbly exalted bim, and given bim a name which is above every name, Phil. 2. 8, 9. He dyed and rofe again, that be might be Lord both of the dead and living, Rom. 14. 9. So that now when the Lord bath this headship of the Church granted him, and

and also hath purchased at by his own death; now for another to claym headship, it must needs imply, either that the head is a non-resident, or electhrust out of his headship, he doth administer. And though the Lord be not present in body, yet in his spirituall presence, he is as truely present, and more effectually then any that can be devited. And therefore in regard of injury done to Christ, which the Lord will not bear, he will therefore crush, and wound such heads.

adly. From the facrilegious injury put upon the Church: It is an usurpation of all power from the Church . that If a Catholick Church be met, they will give power and Lawes to other Churches, and look what the fecond Beaft doth, he administers all the power of the first Beaft; Look what power is given to the Catholick Church, that doth the Bishop of Rome incorporate to himfelf, and he caufeth an Image of that Church to be made in Provinciall Nations; which when they have taken hold, like a Bears claws, they will not easily be footed out : Now this is such injurous usurpation, that from that day to this they have never been free ; That where the Pope hath had to doe, the Churches are spoiled of the authority that is given to them by Christ: And therefore you must not wonder if the Lord wound the head of fuch as goe on in their wickednesse, Pfal. 68. 20, 21. The jealoufie of the Lord rifeth against fuch usurpations : For a visible Catholick Church to be fet over the world, who may make Lawes to rule conscience, and make Officers for the ordering of all Churches & Is is fuch a Monfter, and the Government of icis to odious in the fight of God, that he wounds it to death.

Use 1.

For the use of the point, it may serve to provoke usual to pray heartily, and faithfully, for the repressing of all such heads as either the Bishop of Rome is, or any images of him whatsoever they be. You read of a little horn in Daniel, whose root was subbed up; wherever you read of any horns that will usure power over the Church; look artic (as it is) abominable to Ghrish, it provokes the spirit of Ghrish, Soveraign Authority is his: If the Lord be set upon the hill of Slon.

Sion, he will wound the Bilhop of Rome, or any that shall take his Image; He will give them a deadly blow, especially when they are more errogant, then his Indignation ariseth against them, to execute judgement on such. The head-ship of the Chu ch is a singular priviledge to the Lord Jetus, and incompitable to any: They must either take Christs office out of his hands, or think him negligent, or non-resident, and that he doth not sufficiently discharge his headship, and therefore they will usurpe an office in his name, but that is abominable to Christ.

Obj. But you will fay, So wee foall pluck the Crowne off from the heads of Christian Princes, for they challenge that side to be head of the Church.

An/w. I doe not know any Christian Prince that chalengeth that stile. That which was sometimes given to Saul, may be given to Princes, 1 Sam. 15. 17. When thou wast little in thine eyes, wast thou not made the bead of the Tribes of Israel? That is true, and so the King is head of all the Peeres, and the Churches are in some or other of them, that is,

i, They have power over the Church in all civill matters.

2. And I will fay thus much, that they have power to redreffe and reforme inordinate abuses in the Church, provoking Church officers to docit; If they doe not, other Churches are to treat with them; and if their corruptions be prejudicial either to the decrine of the Gospell, or if they degenerate to any Tyranny, they are to look to redresse such things, but this gives them not headship over the Church; over their persons it doth, but not over the Church; that is,

r. They have no power either to call Church-officers, or to depose them.

2. They have no power to dispence Church-censures.
3. They have no power to suspend Church liberties:

4. They have no power to appoint Church-ordinances; nor power to administer any matter further then any other member of the Church; and this did the Church of England acknowledge, and no more then this was due. Therefore we allow some power and authority to Princes, and Magistrates, in the sence spoken of ; If they claime any further, it will so kindle the jealousie of the Lord, that the Lord wil certainly wound it to the cracking of the Crowns of all that take it upon them : which may be a notable warning to all Church-men (I mean Church officers) to beware of cleeking into their hands the power which God hath not given them; the Lord will wound their heads, he will not endure it, 'cie a priviledge that he hath purchased with his owne bloud. I think there is no need here to presse it; but this let me fay, it is a just motive to pray the more ardently, and faithfully for the crushing of such heads, wherever the Lord findes any arrogant head, that any Church-officer will undertake to give Lawes to the Churches in their diocesse, that they will put Officers upon them, that they will suspend them at their pleasure, and put in, and pur out, whether the Church will or no; This kinde of infolency in such a flate, let it look for a wound, for a wound it shall have. And therefore, we are the more encouraged to pray for and to look for deliverance from thele Heads; for John tells us, 1 Fobn 5. 14. that if me aske any thing according to bis will, be heareth us; And this is according to the will of God, that all ambitious heads be wounded : What he hath done he will doe, There is no new thing under the Sun; he spares, and changes, and wounds in every change : Persons are changed, but Gods admin frations are one and the fame : If Gods indignation have been ardently kindled against the Bishop of Rome, he will certainly visite such powers as take upon them to put doctrine upon the Church; to take away Church liberties, and sometimes to scater one Church from another, the Lord will certainly visit it, we may pray for it, and comfortably expect it. The next note is this:

Doctr. 2. That though God doe wound and crush, and represse the arrogance of Church officers, affecting headship over all Churches. Churches for a time, yet he doth fometimes again heal their wounds, and binde up their breaches, and give free paffage to their ambitious defigner.

This is evident here, I fam one of bis beads, as it were wounded to death (and you have heard when, and how) and yer. which is wonderfull, His deadly wound was healed, and that to the admiration of all the world; And all the world wondred after the Beaft, to fee a wound fo really and perfectly healed; when this Church was wounded, afterwards the Pope was perfectly recovered, but the wound of Cefars head was left bleeding, both in the East and West. This head must therefore be the spiritual head of Rome : God though he represse some infolency, yet he doth many times give free paffage to their defignes at length. He did fo with Balaam, he met with him in the way, and had not the Affe hindred, certainly he had flain him , Numb. 22. 32. Because thy way war perverse before me, faith God : Balaak had fent him word, that if he would come and carfe the people that were come out of Ægipt, that he would give him this, and that; he faw he had an eye to thefe outward things; The Lord feeing his way perverfe, he would have killed him; but yet at length in v. 35. The Angell of the Lord faid unto Balaam, if it be thy minde to go . I will give thee leave, go with the men, but onely the word that I hall - freak unto thee that thou fhalt freak ; And when he comes, he doth bleffe the people to the Indignation of the King of Moab ; but afterwards when Balaam faw that he should loose all that he came for; come, faith he to the King, take some course to invite the Gallants of Ifrael to a feaft (and it was an Idolatrous feaft to the honour of Baall Peer) and fo the anger of the Lord was kindled against Ifrael, and there were foure and twenty thousand dyed of the Plague, and at length Balaam was flaine alfo : But yet you fee, he gives way to his coveteous defignes, to fatisfie himfelfe to the full, tho ugh he afterward vifited his Sinne upon him. So did the Lord here with the Bishop of Rome; he wounded him as it were to death, and afterwards he heals him, and raifeth him up again. and fent Juftinian to deftroy the Geths out of Italy ; and he being a wife man, gives him his Titles, and makes him Bishop of Bithops, inspector over all the reit, and perfectly cures him; That whereas before he had loft his Titles, and one or other wrote against him; the Emperor being loath to make their own Arch-Bilhop (that lived in their City with them) chief, for dillurbing their civill Government; They had rather conferte all that honour upon him that had been fo admired & worthiped for to many years, especially having had 22 M inafferier, & had been more Orthodoxall then all other Churches : These were great inducements to give all honour to the Pope, though they faw him desperately wounded'; but when they fee him recovered, they wonder at him, and every one submits to him, especially the Western parts; though they in the East also would consult with him, and be red and guided by him, and all their decrees in counfell were referred to him; if he did dillike them , they were antequated; if he did approve them, they were received as Authenticall Lawes of the Church.

You may aske, why the Lord would heal fuch an abominable and ugly Beaft, this visible Catholick Church ; and this Bean that was one of the heads of this Chunch ; for he had a beaftly hape; take him alone without the other Beaft, and take them together , here is a great Beatt; afterwards he is called in Chap. 17. the great where, and the fire upon this Beaff. and he bath all his supportance from her at he refleges, the Church, and the head of the Beaft to ther flate they were in before . The reason why God doth this is double.

First, in regard of his just displeasure against the backsliding spoffscies of the Church in fuch times: When the Lord fees the spirits of men are bear to apollary and backfliding. fo as that they reject the simplicity of the Gofpell of Chrift, and if they might have it they will not; now it is a rightous thing with God to plague them wish the arrogance & tyranny of Antichrift : If I come in my Fribers name, son will not receive me 3 if another come in bie own name, him you will receive 3 Now it is a just judgement of God, if Christ come and offer himself in the implicity of his Ordinances, and they think this is too mean, and does not reach the flate of an Imperial City, but they must have fuch and fuch orders in all Churche cher anit Churches muft be diftinguilhed by fuch Passons, and it b'at that one be Lord Paramount over them all and none if to he as the Bilhop of Rome ; If people dotauppn futh f fome goodly flipe, but drawn by the inventions of men') well you that! have fuch Bishops : This head that fometimes hath been thus wounded, that fome have had caufe of folemn praise for his wounding, and God hath by this means given the Churches liberty to take fome better way of worship, but they would not, well you shall have enough of him. It is one of Solomons Proverbs, (Chap. 14. 14.)-the Backslider in beart (ball be filled with his own wayer ; If you dote after inventions of men , you shall be filled with vain Superfition to the contentment of your own hearts. God out of his tender faithfulheffe to his Church he will gedeen fome, and doth give them faire opportunities to undertake their own liberties out of the usurpations of men ; butif they will rather fit under the fladow of Egypt, then feed nyon Moma, then goe you back again latth God, none of you that l'eat of that which I have prepared, that it one. Beaton; Such backfilders that delight in luch communion in such heads over their Churches, it is just with God to fill them with their own inventions.

The fecond Reason is taken from the juft judgement of Reason 2. God upon fuch kinde of heads, thet doe affect fuch ambieion; che Lord will fiew them this tayour, he will proffe stem as he did Ballam; but if their hearts be bent to go on in their mischevous courte, he gives them leave to fulfill their own luft to their own perdition; And thus he did Raham, he gave him leave not onely to blotte the people, but so draw them affide from God, for he could not have taken amount ready course to have call them out of from a varour, then to draw them to offer Sacrabotto Baal, for that was one of the world dinghill gods: It is out of Gods righteous judge. ment, when a man will not be reclaimed a when the Lord wounds, and eraffies him, and orings him so the last gafpe.

goe into perdition, that's the head of this Beaft; that is the next newes you heare of this fecond beaff here in the Text, and therefore it is called both the beaff, and the head of the beaff, where the first bealt is prefented in the form of a great whore, who is to be brought to the laft gafpe ; A whore fhe was, but he presents her to John as a great beaft; Now hee gives him leave to rife againe to his own perdition, and of many thoufands more. Thus you fee the truth of the point. Now for the ale of it. ..

Fairff, it may be a just warch word and warning to all the Use 1. Sons of men, to beware of Gods checks, When the Lord checks you, crushes your Crowns, and exposeth you to this and that danger in one kind or other, beware of this; whether you be the children of God of not, yet come home effe ausly to him; for this you half finde, it you be in difirele, and call, he is ready to heare; He will heare Ibmael; and he hears the Lyons that roar, and feek their meat of him, He will many times, once, or twice, or thrice do thus : But if the Lord once frike, and almofferufh you, beware now that you lay afide all chinall endt hird ambitious defignes; for other-wife, if you shall recover againe, and perfit in your former wayes without repentance, then the next news is, you goe on to perdition : And therefore when ever the Lord affects us. and affice us in any kind, it is heavenly wildome to be war-and by the leaff only in or his finger; be warned by any fick-nesses; crosses, danger by Land of Sea, by any thing what forver the Lord is pleased to exercise you with, this is both childrens bread, and he bread of ftrangers : Beware you goe not on fill, but it the Lord check you, then turn back again; but if you go forward, be fure you go to God-ward, and according to Gold will, and after God ends.

This is that which God calls for that you walks more exactly, and more accurately, Eppel, 5,45, See then that yee walke circum spettly, not as footes, but as wife, gedeeming the time because God hath thus and thus taken paines with you, and hath thur and thus taken paines with you, and hath thur and thus learn is a Leopard in your pasts. It is a frong speech that in Amo 3. Will disting a frage (and the word is a deadly friare) will a man lay a deadly frare, and take it up, and catch nothing? The Lord will catch a prey when he layer a trap for us, and he will not leave till he have girded our loynes and our hearts close to him, and made us more exact in our way, or otherwise if he let us slip, is will be to perdition! And therefore let all that heare the word, ever be sentible of the least wounds & checks, especially if they grow to some bulky frame: I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death, and this deadly wound was healed, and it was healed to immortall perdition, and therefore all that wonder after the Beast, they are such as have no part in the Lambs book of Life, they have no part in Christ.

Secondly, It may teach us the more earnestly to wrestle with God by faithfull and earnest prayer for any of the Churches of Christ in any parts of the world; that if the Lord give them an opportunity to wound the head of any Image of the Beaft, any of his heads or horns, then it will be necessary that all fuch Churches do take the hint and opportunity that God puts into their hands, and that they do not rather close with fuch heads whom God wounds, and be loath to lay hold of those liberties that he procures for them : But let this be the conftant care of Chriftians to desire that such heads may not be usurping: but if the Lord gives an opportunity, the Lord looks that all Christians should improve it, to vindicate themselves, when the Lord gives any hint thereof : When he giver an opportunity, then is the time; when the iron is hot. then drike : Increat God, that when he puts a prize into their hands, that they then may learn to get wisdome, and not in their hearts turn to tolerate arrogant defignes, and fuch as are ugly in the fight of God : When God wounds the head of Enemies, and cafts fhame upon them , and hath rescued his people from them; If Churches shal again comply with them, then what will the end of that be? It is a fearfull thing, fuch kind of Heads goe to perdition, and those that dote upon fuch Heads. It is a check especially for this great beaff of Rome, but it will be dangerous for other States too: This will be the finall iffue, they shall have enough of it, they shall be filled with Hirarchicall power, and with their Agents in Givill States , their feete like a Boare will raven in all, that 172 F they?

wounded Head that it never rife up more. Thirdly, this may ferve to teach fuch whose Heads have as any time been wounded; As there is none of the fervants of God, but sometimes he will have them sacrifice their Ilase, that which is most deare to them: The Lord will rend away our most desirable comforts ; he will follow us there, where we most of all are affected : And let this teach the people of God, that if the Lord then bow their hearts to unfeigned repentance, turning from all evill in their hands and hearts. how then? If the Lord will restore the wounded head of a beaft, a beaftly head, of a beaftly shape, will he not much more reftore the hearts of his fervants that feek to him for healing of all their corruptions, and scattering all their temptations, that they may walke before him according to to his will? What faith the holy Ghoft, Hof. 6. 1, 2. Hee Duit words into their mouths, come let us return unto the Lord: He hash torne, and be will beale us; be bath fmitten, and be will bind us up; after two dayes will be revive us, and the third day be will raise us up, and we fall live in bis fight. Wherein he fhewen the meanes whereby the Lord will apply this medicine so his own fervants, namely by the death and refugredion of Christ, to which he doth allude ; that at Chrift thed, and rofe the third day, to shall all that have part and portion in him . They may lye in danger, but they shall come out in due time : but however, it should be a warning to the fonnes of men how they advanture their lives by going into any danger where God calls them not ; But if you be brought into danger when the Lord doth deliver, you have cause to bleffe him, and to fander your felves and Ramilies back to him a that you may walke with more gire up spirite to God, that so he may not repent of what deliverances he vious he feth to you. : 12 mil 2 miles and appearance of the state of miles

Come now to speak of the sequell of the healing of this wound; upon the healing of it there is a double effect.

I. The admiration of the world after the Beaft.

2. A worthip, fet forth by a double objet, the Dragon, and the Beaff.

3. The saufes are fet forth that made them to worship them both; The Dragen in that he gave power to the Beaft, and the Beaft for his unmatchable power. Who is like uno the Beaft or who is able to make war with him? Here might bethree or four Notes justly gathered from hence, but because I affect brevity in mysticall Scriptures, I shall compact them into one: The note is this;

That upon the healing of the Beaft, wounded head, all the world fell into an admiration of the Beaft, and of his power, yea into an a-doration of worthip, both of the Beoft, and of the Dragon.

This containes both the latter end of the third, and part of the fourth vers.

For the causes of this Admiration, they will be juft reafons of the point.

To open the Doctrine [upon the healing of this wounded head of the Beaft] Remember the Beaft is the Roman Catholick visible Church, whereof Rome was the mother City, and mother Church, accounted of all the Churches in the world, and the Pope is the visible head of this Church, in this Chapter called the feventh head.

Observe aly, the healing of this seventh Head, wounded by the captivisy and calamity it fell into by barbarons Nations.

Upon

Chap. 13.

Upon the healing of this wounded Head, by the removal, and fcattering and subduing of these Enemics; as also by the plaufter that was put to him, when fuch Titles of Soveraign Authority were put upon him by the Emperors: Now this was the Originall of that wonder, for to it comes in : His deadly wound was bealed, and all the world wondered after the beaft: And so he expresseth it, Chap. 17. 8. All that dwell upon the earth (ball wonder when they behold the Beaft that was, and is not. and yet is. He was when he flourished, as that which was the great Authority of the world : He is not, when he is wounded in his head ; but as it were troden under foot, wounded to death, as if he had not been : But yet he is againe, that is, he is reftored : And they that dwell on the earth, when they faw that, wondered to behold the Beaft that was, and is not, and yet is; A Beaft that cannot be crushed and beaten downe with such defperate calamities, fo that's the occasion of their wonderment : now upon this occasion they fell into an admiration of the Beaft, and of his power. An admiration implies some high efteem of some great happineffe betiding this Braft , not only beyond their expectation, but transcendant , beyond their apprehension and capacity to understand. For a man doth not admire a thing, unleffe it goe not only beyond expedation, but is transcendant above his reason and underflanding. Yes, beyond any meanes he could use to bring such a thing to paffe : Therefore when they fee this great change, they fall admiring of the Beaft, and the head of the Beaft, and of the Dragen that gave power to the Beaff, and worship them both. For their Admiration then, let me foeak fomething of that ; and then of their Adoration both of the Beaff , and of the Dragon.

It was in a way of Admiration ; I will not fay what expressions some have made of it, some that were called Fathers of the Church, and have left such things in writing : It would mightily possesse one with Admiration of the Sea of Rome, looking at him as the Lyon of the Tribe of Judgh; looking at him as by his Primacy to be like Adam, for his Faith like Abrabam, for his government like Noab, gathering all the World under him; for Order like Melebifedech, for his function, to be Christ himselfe, detervedly to be God, after sometimes called the Vicar of Christ, and of God; marvellous transcendant strains cut upon him, which argues a high estream of him: But to omit such things as are but flourishes, these are reall.

1. That all the Churches of the world are to receive all their doctrine and worthip from them; Thoughic were never to superflicious, as worthipping of Angels, and Saints and making use of their mediation belides Christ: and they did receive from them more then all this, which is the life and quintifcence of all. They looked from the Father of the Catholick visible Church to receive Indulgences , and pardon of all their finnes : If he retained them, then they were retained; if he remitted them, they were remitted: This they looked for from him, not only for Doctrine and worship, but for sealing up their Pardon for to many hundreds and thousands of years. and not fealed with waxe, but with a wap of Lead, and a Scale fet on that : And this was the chiefe comfors of troubled minds in those ages, these things they received from them, and admirable bonour they put upon that Beaff, to receive all fuch things from them.

2. They made to Rome all their Appeals: What ever gowernment there was in the Christian world, from thence were their Laws, and thicher were their Appeals, as out of England and many other places, to the great disturbance of Church and Common-wealth, as also large and bountifull payments were made to them: It were a vast thing to sum up the totall sum of constant payments that were from every Kingdome repayed to the Sea of Rome: And as their Appeals & Payments went to Rome, so did their bodies on pilgrimage, and it was thought a great devotion to kilfe the feet of the Pope, and to see those blessed Shrines; Thus was their admiration of the Best.

3. They fetched from Rome the Ordination of all their chiefe Officers: Any Arch-bilhop, who ever chose him, yet he was not infalled, but he must fetch it from Rome, and pay well for it. And from thence they fetched all their their-Coronation of Kings and Emperors; and fundry fundamentall Lawes of every Catholick Kingdom were derived from thence. All their Difpenfations were fetched from thence, that Princes might marry where they would: And dispensation from Oaths, and from Marriages contracted, all thefe things they fetched from Rome: It was an admirable honour they put upon the Church of Rome, and upon the Head of it; what ever the fust Beaft did, the second Beaft also did; and so in worthipping the one, they worthipped the other; and in admiring one, they admired both.

4. They expresse their admiration in this, that they will undertake chablishing of Laws from the Sea of Rome. and perfecution of fuch godly perfons as did not fubmit. fuch as were different in their minds from the Catholick Church, if they never so little swerve from that, they undertook to execute the Laws of the Church: And if the Church declared him him to be an Heretick, there was no more to do, the Common-wealth presently pur him to death : And as they took upon them perfecution of their Subjects at home, fo the Subjects took upon them to depose their Princes, and might depose them, if they would not submit their power to the Pope, so that there was no subfifting without submitting to them. And which is a branch of this, they undertook a vast and coffly War abroad, against the common Enemy the Turke, whereas in very deed, whilst the Pope stands, it is not possible any War should prosper against him; for it was for the finne of Rome that the Turk was advanced, a barbarous and beaftly Enemy, to punish a beaftly Religion : This was their admiration.

And all the world wondered after the Beaft.] He meanes as he expounds himselfe, ver. 8. Those whose names are not written in the book of the life of the Lamb. They that were redeemed from the world, they were not of the world, though they lived in it : but those in the world that were of the world , they did, honour this beaft, and were subject to him, and gave all their devotion to the Catholick Church : And when I fay all the world.

world, I meane all the Christian world, which was the visible face of the world, the reputed world; These barbarous Nations were not then fo owned; but as for the Eiftern world. they were all willing to give way to this transcendant Ulurpation of the Bishop of Rome in a generall Councell at Asia: They looked at the reigning and Imperiall City of Rome, as the chiefest Seate of the Catholick Church, the highest throne of that Church, and were content that no Councell should be ratified but by him : If hee ratified a Councell in so many Canons, it was established; if he did not, then they were not; and the Emperors were willing it should be so, because they found insufficiency in themselves to maintaine the Royal City of Rome against barbarous Nations: And therefore they thought it State-policy to maintain the Bishop of Rome, and let him grow up to as great power as he could; It was as they thought, the preservation of their State (but it was indeed their ruine) to they willingly gave their power to the beaft: Now the barbarous Nations that had not forfaken the Country, and had builded them houses, they that were not driven out (as many rested in some parts of the Empire) they willingly closed with such a Religion as was pretty favoury to their apprehensions, they began to comply with it, and put their necks under it. Charles the Great having received the Kingdome of France from the Pope, he did his best endeavour to bring the people to yeeld themselves, but the people were fomewhat fowr and rugged that way to be wrought upon : Therefore the Pope had another fophiltry to help himtelte ; He fende three Apostles, Gregory the Great, he was one Apostle that he fent for England, and he bringe great Reformation, that is, he fways the whole State to the Bishop of Rome, and those that would not yeeld were miserably floughtered. And Bonifacius he did the like in Genevah, and in France, and Denmarke, and Germany; And where ever the world was Chrstian, it was now Catholick, all submitted to the Church of Rome; and so by this means all the world admired him', they received do arine and worthip from Rome, they will goe for pardon of Sin thicher : They make Pilgrimages to Rome, Appeals to Rome; From thence they receive their .

their fundamental Configutions, Dispensations, Persecutions, depolition of Princes; They receive and undertake generall war from thence for the recovery of the holy Land: And in one word, in fuch admiration the Braft of Rome was, that it was a Proverb among them, He ruled all the world; and therefore he ruled all the Churches , and was esteemed to be God on Earth: Thus did all the world wonder after the Braft, and admire him, and fo did they also his power : They did exceedingly admire his power; Whois like unto the Seaft ?- who is able to make warre with bim? It is not cleare adoration, but it is an attributing to the Boaft, that which is peculiar to God , Who is like unto the Lord our God ? Exad. 15.11. It is a ftyle of the high and mighty God: This admiration of this wonderfull power and holineffe it is now added to the Pope : Who is like unto the Beaft? who is able to make warr with him? Who is the Lord of bofts but our God? as if he were invincible : For they had found, that when some of the Grecian Emperoure that had given their power to the Beaft did vary in point of judgmens (as they did not love to take up the worship of Images) then the Beaft is offended, and excommunicates him, and deprives him of his Empire, and gives it to Charles the Great; takes away the Kingdome of France, puts him into a Monaftery, removes Fredericke, fi ft and second : And what he did wich King John of England, you know; He deprived him of his Kingdome, and hee makes fome of them do very hard penance, whiles he was folacing himfelfe with his Harlot: She being more compaffionate then he, befought his Holineffe to have compassion on him, and so he fent him back, yet afterwards they made him away : And his Son , when they came to Crown him, it must be with the Popes foot; and when he hath done, he dasheth it off, to shew, that he hath power to take it as eafily from him, as to fell it from his head. Though great men, and greatly beloved of the people, all is nothing, if they be alienated from the Pope : All mens affections are his; when he turns, the whole body turns; when the head moves, the whole body doth accordingly : So that it was marvellous admirable power that he had ; whom he would he fet up, and whom he would he pulled downe. Peter, he faid, gave it to him, and he did what he would to those that were on the earth, this is great power. They professe, if their holy Father carry many millions of foules to Hell, yet no man must fay, Sir, why do you so': All appeals were from him, so that there is transcendant, foveraign power, and indeed divine, fuch as no man can attaine; Power to pardon fin, power to bind Conscience, to dispence with the Law of God, to interpretand judg of Scripture as he fees caufe, and this is fuch power, as is far above the reach of man : None of them all have such power as he, not those that are called Gods : So they admire his power, what he can do to inward or out. ward man, to publique or private States. And they do not only admire the Catholick Church, and the head ofit, and adore them : but in both these they adore the Dragon that gave all this power to the Beaft. The meaning may be exprest in two branches.

1. The Dragon is expressed as animating heather Rome. for that hath feven heads and ten horns, which are the armes, both of heathen Rome, and of this Beaft : Now he is called the Dragon, as he acted heathen Rome, and as he was Lord of heathen Rome, he gave all this power to the Pope; For they thought it meet, fince it was the Imperiall City when it was Pagan, that therefore it should be the mother of all Churches : And being the Imperial City, it was the bloud-fucker of many millions of the fouls of Gods fervants, that caufed the Dragon to put that honour upon Rome.

2. But that is not all, There is another branch comes neerer the full meaning of the Text; that was for the honouring of the Bilhop of Rome, and of the Catholick Church, viz. taking another doctrine for the Gospell, their Idolatry for pure worship, their Government for the discipline of Chrift, their pardons for Justification of sinne by Christ; In all this they doe indeed give true worship to the Dragon, for what are all thele but Images, they are none of Gods Ordinances; if you referre them to the heads of Scripture, they are but Images of Christ: In stead of the Ministery of Christ, you have do-&rines Chap. 13.

Arines of men; In flead of justification by the righteoufneffe of Chrift, you have justification by worked In flead of pard on of Sin from Christ, you have it from the Pope: All things are in another forme, an Image of another forme fer up, devifed, contrary to what the word effabliffeth ; Now you fall finde this to be true; if you doe vary from the kingdome of God, and Christ, then you worship the Dragon : You read in 2 Chron. 11. 15. 7erebeam ordained him Priefts, for the high places, and for the Devils, and for the Calves, which he had made : he had no Preists but for the golden Calves, and what were they ? they were but Images, and his intendment was not to bring in another objed of worthip, but another manner of worship; Feroboam worshiped Jehovah in Images, which God had not appointed, and fo he worshipped the Divill, and not God. And you shall read. when the Turke was brought in to revenge the Idolatry of Christendome, Rev. 9.20. It is faid, The people that were not cut off with the plague, they repented not of the worke of their hands, that they should not worship Devils, and Idols of Gold and Silver, and braffe, and Stone, and of wood, which neither can fee, nor bear, nor walk : which the was, that when men worfhip Images, that is, God in Images ; is is not God that is fo worshipped, but the Divill, and all luch. worthip doth not advance the kingdome of God, but the kingdome of the Devill, therefore it is reall honour to him : and therefore this their taking all this vafi honour (all Churches receiving all from them) is . none of Gods Inflitution, but the Devils practice, for it was the Devill that gave him his power and great authority ; Therefore faith the holy Ghoft, they worthined the Dragon who gave power unto the Beaft, and they worshipped the beaft: This worthip of the beaft they gave it all to him that gave this power to him, which was to the Dragon : and therfore you read that he had the key of the bottomleffe pit, Rev. 9. 1, 2. And he opened the bottomleffe pit, and there are fe a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace, and there came out of the fmoke locusts upon the earth :

There went out Monks & Friars, and a rabble of all fuperflition.

Now if you shall aske the reason why people upon the healing of this wound did so mightily admire both the visible Catholick Church, and the head of it, and adore both, and Satan himfelfe in both ? The reason was,

First, from the wrong Interpretation of some Scriptures. which were very frequent with them in those dayes, and are fill; and that was, that the Catholick Roman Church was builded upon a rock, and that rock was the Bilhop of Rome, and into his hand the Lord Jefus by Peter had given the keys of the kingdome of Heaven, and these keys had absolute univerfall power to binde on Earth, and upon his binding on earth. Christ would bind in heaven: this was an error in judgment that did to possesse their hearts, that upon the healing of this wounded head, all the world did admire him: Therefore Bellarmine makes a large discourse; Behold, I lay in Zion a chief corner stone, and they that trust in him shall never be confounded; and fo never was there any man that was an enemy to the Catholick Church, but was confounded : nor never did any man fland for the Catholick Church, but was preserved : and so they did admire him; A great inundation of barbarous Nations were all driven out by the piety of the Bishop of Rome; they were able to overturn the Emperors of the East (and it was overturned) and bring them to his feet; and all to be at his disposing ; This was some confirmation to them, that he was the successor of Peter, that now whoever is faved, it must be by the power of this key, or else never look for any faving in this world,

A fecond reason may be taken from the correspondency Reason 2. and plaufablenesse of such a kinde of Religion and Government to carnali reason, especially when it is subdued by any terrors of confceence : for it was a feafon f and that held many years together) wherein the Prieffs, Friers, and Monks, had marvellous power to fling the confciences of men with the loathsomnesse of their sinne in the fight of God, and they had admirable dexterity therein ; Thefe foure things were all the matter of their Sermons, Vertue and vice, Heavenand:

Verf. 3,4 Chap. 13/ and Hell; Hyou be vertuous, then you shall go to Heaven; If you be vicious, then you multgo to Hell : Now they would to convince mens consciences, and upon conviction binde the conscience under terror, as eternally thut out of Heaven, for want of virtue, which they had not; that indeed when thele mens confciences are thus perplex of and wounded, here is a Religion that findes them fo many falves and medicines, as eafe the power, but not remove the cause of the dileafe; that is, they let men a courfe; well, though you be vicious, and though Hell be dreadfull, yet Purgatory may ease you by Prayer, and you may be dispensed with from going to Hell, especially by the Popes pardon, or by your own workes, by your confessions, by selfe-whippings and scourgings, or by going a Pilgrimage, you may be discharged of this burden; This was very plausable to carnall reason, especially if they gave to much to fuch a Monaftery, that they may offer fo many Sacraments for them (for they look at the bread in the Lords Supper as a propiatory Sacrament :) here were fo many means to fatisfie the confciences of those that were superflitious, as nothing could be devised to give better content to the spirits of men in those dayes : any man that knowes it, shall finde it true, that when the conscience is terrified with the curse of Gods Law, and never thewed the true way of fellowship with Christ, no man is so tender and conscionable in the performance of all duties as they : If you will have them kiffe the Popes foot, or give fo much to a Monaftery; and by this means Hell thall be fhus againff them. and Purgatory discharged : But for assurance of Salvation in Christ, they could not endure that ; they that flood good worker, away with that, faggot and halter for fuch Hereticks. Reafon 2. Thirdly, there was a third Reason, and that was from the great reverence of all Councelle, and Synode to the Sea of Rame. The City of Rome had wong to be the imperial City, now in such a case as this they thought it but reasonable; in heathenish Rome they gave all worship to them, and so let Christian Rome give all their worthip to the cheif Head there, for that, they tell them, what, you will not have men doe and so to their mother Church, all Catholicks would incourage others so to doe; and so by this means there were such incouragements laid for admiration and adoration, that you may not wonder at what the holy Ghook saith, That when the would was bealed, all the world wondred after the beast, saying, who is like unto the beast? who is able to make wor with him? Not the Emperors of the East and West, not the King of England, France, Spain, nor all that have been of greatest force, they were none of them able to hold up their heads against this great Brass. The use of this point is thus much;

Chap. 13.

Firft, you may observe from hence, that Universality. and Prosperity, though they be given for two notes of a true Church by the Papifts, yet indeed they are but sopisticall. deceitfuil delufions ; They are not fuch marks of a Church as are peculiar to a true Church ; here is Universality, All the world wondred after the beaft ; and here is Profperity, all the world adore, and admire the Beaft; Who is like unto the beaft? who is able to make war with him? Not all the Princes of the world : So that here is externall prosperity, for so they call it: here are both these concur, and they doe indeed argue a Catholick Church, as Bellarmine faith ; but note this , that Catholick Church which is vifible, (which is the Roman vifible Catholick Church) the Scripture holds it forth as a great, and ugly, and monstrous Beast : look not therefore at thefe as any good marks and fignes, by which Jefuites, and Seminaries are wont to draw to deep devotion to the Catholick Church, for all the world have run this way, there is but a handfull, a few of fuch as are otherwise minded; what is Genevab and fome others to Rome? what have they been able to doe in comparison of the Church of Rome. which is the Church of Churches, none have been able to doe as they.

Secondly, we may fee the danger of this admiration, and adoration, the deadly and desperate danger of adoring the Catholick visible Church and the Dragon. It is the cunning of these Priests and Jesuites to draw men by all means to be at least devoted to the Catholick Church, and to submit their power thereunto; for they say there is no union with the Christ of the Catholick Church.

Chrift the head, unteffe you be united to the vinble head on Earth; this is their usuall plea : Now marke what the holy Ghoft fpeaks in this Fext; he doth fay, that all the worthin of this mother Charch is but the worthip of the Dragon. Men are devoutly adicted to give up their fouls to the Devill, when they give up themselves to the Catholicke visible Church, the Lord professeth he is not honoured by them; they professe honour to he-Saints and shee-Saints, and dead Saints, and to all relicks and remnants of them; the honour of them is given unto the Devill, and not to God. That look what Paul fai h of heathen Rome, John fpeaks of christian Rome ; This I fay, faith the Apostle, 1 Cor. 10. 20. That the things which the Gentiles facrifice, they facrifice to Devils, and not to God; and I would not that ye fould have fellowship with Devil; And so this faith John the holy Aposite (equal) to the Apofile Paul, or next him, but here guided equally with Paul in the Authentical word of God) he faith, They that worfhip God according to the prescript of the Church of Rome, they worship the Devils, and not God; they worfbip the Dragon, the old Serpent. So that it is not to light a matter as Gallants at Court, and great Kinge apprehend, they will be reconciled to their mother Church, they will goe a Pilgrimage that is devised by the Pope, and perform duties as their ghofily Father directs them, and have their bead-prayers . In all this what do they doe ? This is a worthip to the great beaff, but this is the iffue, and substance of it, they doe indeed worship the Dragon; le is not the Lord Jeins, nor God the Father, nor the bleffed fpirit that is thus worthipped, but this is indeed the worthip of the Devill.

Thirdly, this may ferve to teach us, to bleffe the name of V/e 3. the Lord, that hath delivered us from this admiration and adoration, from this wofull Captivity and Galamity whereto our Fathers have been enthralled; All those of them whole names are not written in the Lambs book of life, they were all led this way and it is a marvellous deliverance that God hath wrought for us in taking our Religion from universality, and from ontward prosperity. It is sometimes a snare to Chriffians, this kinds of Government that we have, and they are apt to fay what doe any of the great Nations of the world for worthip and Government; did you ever know any fuch thing authorifed in any Kingdome? There is an inward principle in us by nature to doe as all the world doe: what, are we more wife then they ? It is a great temptation. but we have cause to bleffe God that hath wrought deliverance for us : But what if all the world did worthip the Deville as time was when they did? what if all the world worfall the Biaft, and the Dragon that gave power to the Beaft. must we doe so? And as they are not grounds of our worthin i fo they are fit grounds of unfeigned thankfulneffe to God that hath delivered us from that Religion by which all the world was bewitched to give their Crownes, Honours. Bodies, and States to the devotion of the visible Catholicks Church, and to the head of that Church : It is caufe of doorlasting thankfulnesse and watchfulnesse, notice by deladed by fine thewes of worldly men, but let us fee and know where true worthin lies, as the Lord hath declared himself in Christ. and held himdorthin the Gofpel of thuch.

. Kourthig levis teach usahl where to beflow our admirat tion, and adoration ; It was a charge that our Saviour gave to the Devill, (and which accordingly he himfelf practifed. and requires us to dot) Mat. 4. 10. Thou fall worfbip the Lord thy God, and him shely that then ferre to The Devil askes this of Christ to bow downers biarand worthout the The Fords Indignation is kindled, his holy Leale is inflamed againfel fuch a Sacriligious request; Get ther hence Satan, for it is writeten , thou falt worfbip the Lord thy God , and him onely falt thon' ferbeil And as we are to worthip him alone, and no God but! him! to we are coudmire none but him " Who is like unto thee. O-Inthumong ft the Gade a whort like unto thee glorous in bolineffe, fearfull in praifes, doing wonders, Exod. 13:11. There is matter of admiration; who is a Godlike unto the Lord that forgiveth Iniquity, Transgression and Sinne sof which you read, Mic. 7:18. and which the Church holds forth there upon chievery! ground : who is a God like anto thee? why what is there in blim that you fo magnifie him ? be is a God that forgives Infontty. Transgression, and Sime ; here is cause indeed of admiracion.

They admire and adore the Pope, why ? Because they had fatiefaction to their consciences in their way, and an ungrounded hope of a better flate in another world, and pardon of Sinne in this, and now they come to fellowship with Christ by the worship of the Devill : But who is a God like unto thee that pardoneth Iniquity, Transgression, and Sinne? So that here is indeed matter of due admiration, and let it be faffned there. When a mans foul is brought low with the sence of Sinne. and overpoured with the burden that lyes upon his confcience by reason of the guilt of Sinne; what is matter of admiration now ? who is a God like unto thee, that paffeth by Iniquity, transgression, & fin? It is not the Pope of Rome that can take away fin, it is not all the cunning of the Dragon that can do. it : And therefore to what end are all the admirations, and worthing that are put upon the Bithop of Rome and the Dragon that gave him his power ? They may please themselves in what fatisfaction they apprehend they have, but their own principles poffeffe them; that they can never come to fee the admirable goodnesse of God in forgiving their Sinnes. But now when the Lord fhede abroad a fpirit of grace and peace in the confeience, and applyes the goodnesse of Christ to the discharge of the burden of Sinne, and of quickning the heart in the peace of Christ Jefus, this breeds admiration : Bleffed be God the Father of mercy, and God of all confelation, that of his aboundant mercy bath begotten wagain to a lively bope : I fay this bleffing is worthy of admiracion; and not onely of wonderment, but of acknowledging all glory and bleffednes to him. When the conscience is not pacified by a forry duty done from man but by a fealed pardon from the spirit of God, witnessed by the breath of the holy Ghoft a this is such a mercy to the foule; as indeed raiseth the heart above all admiration of fuch a Beaft, I, so a true deteffation of this Beaft. and of the Dragon that hath fo long bewitched, and carried them captive to the imaginations of their own hearts, and in the end to their everlating perdition. But let it be the care of Gods people, as ever you defire to be bleffed from the admiration of fuch a worm-eaten Religion, fo grow to an adpiration of the God of mercy and grace : and fo we shall doe that upon just grounds, which our Fathers did without grounds, to this Beaff, and to the head of it. Upon this ground, this head being wounded, and afterwards healed, all the world wondred after him : Here is an Image of Chrift, be was wounded to death, and his deadly wound was bealed : and he riseth againe, and he proclaims all power is given him, in Heaven and Earth ; Now fee how this Vicar of Christ (as they call him) usurps; as Christ was wounded, and is risen againe; fo it is with this Beaft, he is wounded to death, and afterwards healed and reflored, and now all the world admire and worship him : Have they forgotten that Christ dyed for our Sinnes, and was raifed again for our Justification ? and doe they fland admiring at this Beaft as he that was wounded, and healed? Therefore let it be a ground of true thankfulneffe to the Lord, for the great change that is wrought in Christendome, and let us give the Lord the admiration that is due to him, that we may be preferved from those delusions, wherewith others have been deceived and may goe on in this way conflantly which the Lord hath established, and called us un-401

Revel.

Revel. 13. 5, 6.

And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things, and blasphemies, and power was given unto him to continue forty and two moneths.

And he opened his month in blashbemies against God, to blashbeme his name, and his Labernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

TAE events that followed upon the healing of the Beaft; the first war, That all the world admired him. The second was, Universall weights given both to the Beaft, and to the Dragon that gave power to the Beaft, of which wee have already spoken. The third event remains how to be spoken to, and that is, the deligation of power to this Beaft, upon his recovery, and the power given him is sour-fold.

1. There was power given him to fpeak great things, and in particular, great blafphemics.

2. There was power given him to continue, that is, as the word fignifies, to be doing, to be active, to be powerfull and efficacious in his worke 42. moneths.

3. There was power given bim to make war with the Saints, and to evercome them.

Doctr. 1.

4. Power was given him of dominion over all Kindreds, Tongues, and Nations.

First, There was given bim a mouth speaking great things.

Secondly, There was power given him to continue 42. moneths, and both these Authorities or Liberties, they are amplified by the effect it wrought in the Beast. He did effectually take that power which was given him, and employed it to the utmost. As he had a mouth given him, so he opened his mouth in blasphemies, and that amplified by the object of his blasphemy against God, and God distributed, his Name, his Tabernacle, and those that dwell in Heaven. The note then that the words do afford first, is this.

That after the healing of the wounded head of the Beaft, there was given to him power to speak great things, even blasphemies, which also be did effectually and abundantly exercise, or put forth.

For so it is here said, There was given him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, and he opened his mouth accordingly, abundantly against God, and against his name, and his Tabernacle, and them that dwell in Heaven: Every thing of God he did with open mouth blaspheme.

Let me a little open the words, and the Doctrine, for the doctrine is in a manner the words of the Text.

There was given him a mouth.] what mouth had he more then other men? The meaning is, he had such liberty of speech as no man had; There was given him liberty, and power, and authority to speak great things.

Given bim.] by whom?

Chap. 13.

1. It was given him by God in his just judgment that gave up men to efficacy of delusions, 2 The f. 2. 11.

2. It was given him by Satan, in the efficacy of whose power Antichtist comes, with all deceivablenesse of unrighteous-nesse, 2 Thes. 2. 9, 10.

3. It was given him by the generall confent of Princes and States Ecclefiafficall and Civill. In Ecclefiafficall Councels, great was the authority that was given him, none of all them thought themselves equall to him: And for the Civill State, God put it into their hearts to give their power and Throne unto the beaft, Rev. 17. 17.

What power did they give him to speak great things, and in particular blasphemies? It is an allusion to the horn in Dan. 2.8. There came up a little borne which bad a month freaking great things; whether it be the same Beast, or a type of him, I will not now fland to determine, but great things he spoke; as indeed this was a great thing that the Catholick Church had power to speak, for he did open his mouth to speak great things, that is, such things, as for other men to speake, were too great arrogance, and too much affectation of inordinate Vain-glory; but for this Church, or the head of it to speak, they had a mouth given for the same purpose.

And Blasphemies. They make many distinctions in Schools of Blasphemies, which I will not trouble you with: they may be brought to two heads, either in attributing to Good

fomething unworthy of him, shings incompatible to his divine nature. as in Alls 17. 20. It is blafphemy to afcribe to God likenesse of four-footed beatle, or creeping things, and the like. Or otherwife, if you attribute to the Creature than which properly doth belong to God, you hurt the name of God, and crush it when you so speak. Now what is it for the Beaft to open his mouth, to speak great things and blafphemies ? The phrase is very fignificant in the Hebrew : It implies three things.

1. That a man speaks upon the meditation: He opens his mouth to fpeak, that is to fay, he hath fomething to fay, and power to deliver it, and he fets himfelfe of purpose to speak it: I will open my mouth in wisdome, and the meditation of my beart (ball be of understanding, Plal. 49. 3, 4. He cells you of his meditation, and then he will open his mouth, and declare it.

2. To open the mouth implies an audable, and full, and bold, and confident expression of a mans minde, that a man doth not whifper, but lift up his voyce, and declare with o. pen mouth what he hath to deliver; as in Exed. 2. 22. Open thy mouth and tell them, that is, speak boldly: Though they be a rebellious People, and will brow-beate thee, yet open thy mouth, and speake unto them; speak boldly, and confidently, as one that goes not hehind the door, but speaks plainly: And I put in plainly with boldnesse, because they are ever concomitante. If a man speak boldly, he doth not extenuate what he hath to deliver, but speaks it plainly.

2. This opening of the mouth doth imply that hee focake fully and abundantly, his heart was full of it, and he doth accordingly powr out that which he delivers: As Eliba tella you in 70b 22. 18, 19, 20. I am full of matter, the fpirit within me constraineth me : Behold my belly is as wine which bath no vent, it is ready to burft like new bottles, &c. So the meaning is this, That as the Pope faw (which was the head of this Beaft) that he had a mouth given him; that is, uncontrollable liberty to speak what he would : He did not sodainly or rashly speake, some inconfiderate, or erroneous, or arrogant speech which he did cate in againe; but he spake advisedly in his grave and confiderate Councell, upon advited judgment he did speak great great things and blasphemies: And this he did plainly and boldly, not in ambiguous or obscure phrases, but plainly in such expressions as could beare no other meaning; and that with such confidence, that you may see he cared not who heard, nor what Construction might be made of it. And this he did, not in a word or two that dropped from him, but as flowing from him; Hee was full of matter, as 2 Cor. 6. 11. O ye Corintbians, our mouth is open to you, our beart is enlarged. He did poure forth his matter with no little State; it was flout matter that he did poure forth to the world. What did hee speake ? that which was given him to speake. What was that? Great things. As for instance, to sum up the great things he speaks: The Catholick Roman Church in Scripture is accounted the mother of Harlots, and abomination of the earth, Rev. 17. 5. There is not fuch an adulterous Church in the world.

1. And yet is not this a great word and a great blasphmy, for the mother of Harlots to hold forth her selfe as the only immaculate Spouse of Christ upon the face of the Earth? Is not this a grand word for a common Harlot, the mother of Harlots, the lewdest Harlot that ever the earth bore, for her to arrogate this stile as the only Church of Christ? And that which is parallel to this, that the Pope (who is the head of this Beast) is the head and Husband of this Church; and is without controule: He hath a mouth given him, and he is not ashamed to speak great things, and blasphemies.

2. It is a great word to make himfelfe the infallible Interpreter, and absolute judge of Scriptures, that cannot erre in derifion, or determination of any controversies of Religion; nor may it be for any mortall man to controll his judgen.

In Judgment he cannot erre: in practice, though he may erre, yet other men may be judged; but God hath put such an uncontrollable power upon him, as he thinks that none may meddle with him; Though be should carry millions of soules to Hell; yet no man must say, Sir, why do you so: Councels may not judge, Princes may not judge, inferiour States may not judge him; all the world may not judge him;

K

Verl. 5,6.

He itands and talls to the Canonilla, his owne well-fludied Canonilla have to determined it; A great word to be infallible judge of Spripture, and to be uncontrollable; it is a great matter, and greater then any man can reach unto: Never did any earthly Prince challenge that he could not erre, nor that none must controll him if he did: There have been Laws made to controll the greatest Princes: Nebuchadnezzar was taught to be controlled, that in the end Shadrarb, Mefech, and Abednego goe away rewarded,

3. The Catholick Church, and the Pope is the head of it, claimes a power of binding and loofing. To bind mens confeiences by his Laws, and to loofe mens confeiences by his Indulgences, and that not ministerially, as Ministers do from the Word, but by a Juditiary power, so dissolve the bond of naturall Obedience, incessuous Marriages, Oatha and Covenants in Marriage; Natural relations between Parents and Childeen, and morall Relations between Princes and Subjects: There is not any bond that he cannot loofe, nor any liberty which he cannot restraine: And this not over a few only, but overthe vast world so far as it is Caristian. And

4. It is a great thing he speakes (and he speakes it not behind the door) when he challengeth Soveraign dominion (in way of advancement of Religion) over all Kingdoms, so as to depose their Kinga, and dispose of their Kingdoms, leave any State to choose where he hath power as it his Crowne be to be fetched from Rome (as it was in former times when it was most active) He will set it on, but dashrit off againe, out of the plentitude of his power, to set up and though downe as his pleasure. He opened his mouth to speak great things; He is never so in his element as when he doth hold sorth such vast authority, and divine propriety, proper to the Father, Son, and holy Ghoss.

Now as he speaks great things, so blasshemes against God, and wherein? Against his Name, and Tabernacie; and them that dwell in beaven. Against his name: All these are blasshemics against Gods name, to attribute all these divine properties to a beastly man, to a great heast. And it is blasshemy to a scribe any divine honour, os to put it upon any creature: Images served.

Chap. 13. the thirteenth Chapter of the Revelation.

Letved, the noty Ghoft calls blufphemy. Ift. 55. 7. Tou have blaffbemed me upon every green bill. And lie Ezek. 20. 27, 28.

he coinclaines of the like blafphetmy, that they blafphethed him by their Idolatries. In Mat. 2.7. Why doth this man peak blafphemies? who can forgive fith but God onely? It were to speak blaf.

mies? who can forgive first but God onely? It were to speak blas. phemy in any but in Christ.

Secondly, It is against his Tabernacle; that may be either meant the body of Christ, as r John 14. He tubernacled among st is. Or it may be meant the vifible Churches, fuch as are inftituted by him. For the body of Chrift, it is blafphemy to go to every Maffe Prieft, to make him the body and blood of our Saviour. Or if you underftand the Tabernacle to be the Church; that is the Temple of God, I Cor. 3. 16. Now to call the Church of Christ a Conventicle of Hereticks and Schismaticks, it is blasphemy, and so they count all the Churches here : And for the Saints in heaven, to put upon them divine worthip, to build Temples to them, to tut up Prayers to them, to keep Holy-dayes to them, it is blafo :emie to them, it is a great dishonour. Paul and Barnabas, when they faw men to come and offer facrifice to them , Men and bretbren why doe you the fe things ? you cannot do us a greater injury. And for the Saints in heaven, that is, pure Church's, he condemns them for Hereticks, and Schismaticks, and as unworthy of Christian communion, and Christian burial. thele are blafphemies: So you fee the meaning of this Scripture : There was given him a mouth to speake great things , and to blaspheme God, in his Name, in his Tabernacle, in those that dwell in Heaven: Thus hath he done many yeares, and thus doth hee fill.

Now for the reason of the point; you see the point stands upon two branches.

1. That fuch power was given him.

2. That he did effectually and abundantly put it io: 1, He opened bis mouth: Let mee give the reasons of both. 1. Why such power was given him; it was

First, from God, in his just judgement to punish the unthankfull world that received not the love of the truth, Therefore the Lord gave them over to efficacy of delusions to believe K 2 lves.

Reason 1.

lies; That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousnesses, 2 Thes. 2. 10, 11. This is the just judgment of God, that fince they resuled the simplicity of wholsome Doctrine, and had itching eares, they should have such men as came with the subduing word of the Law to speak great things, and they should have what they aske; This is from Gods just jugement.

Reason 2.

A fecond Reason is from Satan : for God concurred , and Satan concurred, and Christian Princes concurred herein : Satan concurred for this reason, that he might be avenged of God, and despight the name of Christ, that had cast him out, and dethroned him from his divine power : That whereas he was the great God of the world, and the God of Ifrael but a puny God of the leffer Nations ; now hee is to be no God to trust on, but like a Toad or Serpent; this doth so enrage the venome of the old Devill, that he powrs forth a flood of malice and venome against the Church and Christ, as much as may be, to testifie to the world hee would be Lord, and the Lord Jefus should not prevaile : And if he may not be God, he will fet up a Beaft that shall be adored as God : And it is a great despight to Christ, to advance a B:aft, that shall carry great State and power, and dare, and will speak greater things then all the Churches of Ghrift, I, as great as the Lord himself shall speak ; look what one speaks, the other wil fpeak it all and fpeak it abundantly : As the Devill himfelfe fometimes faid to Chrift, All thefe will I give thee, if thou wilt fall downe and worfbip me. The fame doth he fpeak at this day. and he will speak without controll.

Another reason that binds Satan so to speak, is not only his old enmity to Christ, but from his malice against the Church. When hee saw that the seed of the woman had thus dethroned him, and cast him out of divine power, he powers forth a flood of malice after her, and he sends forth an ugly Beast, that if he can, may root out the sace of Christianity, and root her out from the sace of the earth, Rev. 12, 15. These are the Devils reasons that mooved him to stirre up the Beast, and to give him a mouth to speake so boldly as hee did.

But why will Christian Princes be so prodigall, to submit themselves to him? God had committed to them the care of the Churches, that all Churches should live peaceably and quietly under them, in all godlines and honesty: why would they so degenerate, and suffer the Bishop of Rome so to arrogate and speak such great blasphemies? The reasons were,

Reason 1.

1. Because they were ignorantly blinde ; It was a time of pripable darkneffe, darkneffe that might be felt : From the ninth Centuary to the tenth, both Protestant and Popish Divines complaine, that had not some lived in the 800. year, and in the thousand yeare after Chrift, they should not have known what had beene done in the nine hundred, a whole hundred years together : Men were fo full of darkneffe and ignorance, that scarce any sea pen to paper to tell us what was done in those dark times; that men did not know what were principles of Christianity, much lesse were able to difcern of Cales of Church-government, or the milterie of godlineffe which requires more diligent attendance : And thence it was that they were fo taken with the pretended claymes of the Catholick vifible Church, that it would not erre, because it was built upon a Rock, and had the keys of Peter, and he had the keys of heaven : What be bound on earth was bound in beaven ; and what he loofed on earth was loofed in beaven ; that had there not been palpable groffe ignorance, it had not been poffible fuch groffe things should have been suffered to come in.

And a fecond thing that moved them was the firange fucceffe of the Beaft in recovering of his wounded head; for that made them wonder after the Beaft, when they (aw fuch a mortall wound so throughly healed: They thought, had it not been above the power of mortall men, it had not been possible it should have been healed, but certainly there was a power above mortall men in it, and that is the reason in the Text to give him a mouth to speak great things, to speak what hee

Chap. 13.

And a third reason why Princes gave this power, was their devout superfition; many were convinced by Matchivilian policy, of their great sins, and they had in those dayes a notable dexterity to apply the Law of God, and to sting mens consciences confeiences like a Cockatrice, Rev. 9.5. and then they would do any thing for ease out of the bondage they lay under, and this was a great meanes . Then they directed them to give fo much to fuel a Monaflery, or to goe a Pilgrimage, or fall fuch a rime, and fuch devotion which a mans own unfanctified heart could reach : That when this Beaft speaks great things, that he can pardon finne, and his Shavelings will take a course for redeeming souls, and preferving them out of helthis was fuch fatisfaction to them, that you need not wonder if all Princes gave their Kingdomes to the Beaft : And fo having advanced him as supream over them all, he hath a month he may speak what he will; Princes may make Laws on this hand or on that ; but if they do not fuite with him , they are disannulled : And they must be reconciled to the mother Church, and fo this Harlot gives them all to her, and hath a mouth speaking great things, and therewithall great blas phemier. Thus have you the point, and the reasons of it.

Use 1.

For the use of it, I might from hence first speak to this poine; that it were therefore a necessary counsell to all Roman Catholicks, to consider diligently the grounds of the great priviledges of the visible Catholick Church , they firetch their authority beyond all degrees of Churches , brvond all Temporall States or particular Churches: Now neceffery it were for them to reverse all the great things which are delivered, and which the Pope hath fet open his mouth to fpeak, though they be delivered with never such fulnesse, and boldnesse, and plentitude of power: It behoves men to confider whether all thefe great words be not the words of a Beaft, and blafphemies which the head of the Beaft had taken upon him to utter, for it is not enough that they are spoken boldly and confidently, and with good advitement and grave Counsell, Provinciall Decretals and Decrees, for they are diftinathings : It behoves Catholicks not to be gulled with Titles and great things; for it is not alwayer that power which God in mercy gives to men when they dave forak great things; they think the Pope is not Antichrift; but when Autichrift comes, will be do greater things then thefe? as they faut

of Christ; when Christ comes will be doe greater worker then these? And so when Antichrist comes can be speak grater things then these? And is I were to speak to Lay-men (as they say) in their Religion, I might advise them to take heed they be not taken with the condednce of their Priests, that speak with good advisement even to impudency, and with such resolute courage, that many thousands are carryed away with it, and say, certainly men would never be so bold, if they were not possessed with the goodnesse of their cause: Let them not be deluded, the Brast hath power to speak great things, and he opens his mouth with all courage and considence, and whispers it not, but speaks with impudency, and abundance of resolution.

Secondly, This may ferve to teach us the danger of allowing to any mortall man an inordinate measure of power to freak great things, to allow to any man uncontrollablenels of fpeech, you fee the desperate danger of it : Let all the world learn to give mortall men no greater power then they are content they shall use, for use it they will : and unleffe they be beiter eaught of God, they will use ie ever and anon, it may be make is the passage of their proceeding to speaks what they will: And they that have liberty to fpeak great things, you will finde it to be true, they will fpeak great blafohemies. No man would think what desperate deceit and wick. edneffe there is in the hearts of men : And that was the reafon why the Beaft did fpeak fuch great things , hee might fpeak, and no body might controll him : What, faith the Lord in Fer. 2. 5. Thou haft spoken and done evill things at thou coulds. If a Church or head of a Church could have done worfe, he would have done it : This is one of the straines of nature, it affects boundleffe liberty, and to runne to the utmoff extent : What ever power he hath received, he hath a corrupt nature that will improve it in one thing or other; if he have liberty, he will think why may he not ufe it. Set up the Pope as Lord Paramount over Kings and Princes, and they shall know that he bath power over them, he will take liberty to depofe one, and fet up another. Give him power to make Laws, and he will approve, and disprove as he list; what he approves is Canonical,

Canonicall, what hee difproves is rejected : Give him that power, and he will so order it at length, he will make such a State of Religion, that he that fo lives and dyes shall never be faved, and all this fprings from the valt power that is given to him, and from the deep depravation of nature . Hee will open his mouth, His tongue is bis owne, who is Lord over bim, Plal. 12. 3, 4. It is therefore moft wholfome for Migifirates and Officers in Church and Common-wealth, never to affect more liberty and authority then will do them good. and the People good; for what ever transcendant power is given, will certainly over-run those that give it, and those that receive it: There is a straine in a mans heart that will fometime or other runne out to excelle, unlelle the Lord refiraineit, but it is not good to venture it : It is necessary therefore, that all power that is on earth be limited. Church. power or other: If there be power given to fpeak great things. then look for great basohemies, look for a licentious abuse of it. It is counted a matter of danger to the State to limit Prerogatives; but it is a further danger, not to have them limited : They will be like a Tempelt, if they be not limited : A Prince himselse cannot tell where hee will confine himselfe. nor can the people tell : But if he have liberty to fpeak great things, then he will make and unmake, fay and unfay, and undertake such things as are neither for his owne honour, nor for the fafety of the State. It is therefore fit for every man to be fludious of the bounds which the Lord hath fet : and for the People, in whom fundamentally all power lyes, to give as much power as God in his word gives to men : And it is meet that Magistrates in the Common-wealth, and so Officers in Churches should defire to know the utmost bounds of their own power, and it is fafe for both: All intrenchment upon the bounds which God hath not given, they are not culargements, but burdens and mares; They will certainly lead the spirit of a man out of his way sooner or later. It is wholfome and fafe to be dealt withall as God deales with the vaft Sea; Hitberto falt thou come, but there falt thou flay thy proud waves : and therefore if they be but banks of fimple fand, they will be good enough to check the vaft roaring Sea. And fo for Imperiall Monarchies, it is fale to know how far their cower extends; and then if it be but banks of fand, which is most flippery, it will ferve, as well as any brazen wall. If you pinch the Sea of its liberty, though it be walls of flone or braffe, it will beate them downe : So it is with Magistrates. ffint them where God hath not finted them, and if they were walls of braffe, they would beate them downe, and it is meet they (fould; but give them the liberty God allows, and if it be but a wall of fand it will keep them : As this liquid Ayre in which we breath, God hath fet it for the waters of the Clouds to the Earth; It is a Firmament, it is the Clouds, vet it flands firme enough, because it keeps the Climate where they are, it shall fland like walls of braffe : So let there be due bounds let, and I may apply it to Families, it is good for the Wife to acknowledg all power and authority to the Hufband, and for the Husband to acknowledg honour to the Wife, but fill give them that which God hath given them. and no more nor lelle : Give them the full latitude that God hach given , elfe you will finde you dig pits , and lay fnares. and cumber their fpirits, if you give them leffe; there is never peace where full liberty is not given, nor never stable peace where more then full liberty is granted : Let them be duely observed, and give men no more liberty then God doth, nor women, for they will abufe it : The Devill will draw them. and Gods providence leads them thereunto, therefore give them no more then God gives. And fo for children; and fervants, or any others you are to deale with, give them the liberty and authority you would have them use, and beyond that firetch not the tether, it will not tend to their good nor yours : And also from hence gather, and goe home with this meditation; That certainly here is this diffemper in our natures, that we cannot tell how to use liberty, but wee shall very feadily corrupt our felves : Oh the bottomleffe depth of fandy earth I of a corrupt fpirit, that breaks over all bounds, and loves inordinate vafineffe; that is is we ought to be carefull of

Thirdly, it may teach us to observe the hand of God in all the vast out-runings of the Sonnes of men: when you see men outragious beyondall power, wonder not at the matter, for be that is above is bigher then the bigheft; and be regardeth it. Ecclef. 5. 8. A man would wonder that a Bilhop fhould take upon him to controul all the Churches, and in very deed all the Common wealths and Nations of the world, and that in fuch bigh-things both in nature and meafure, that a man would think it were not possible for a mortali man to undertake fuch a vaft enterprize, yet they have done it, the Pope hath done ir, and the Bilhop of Rome hath done ir, but wonder not at'it . for be that le bigber then the bigbeit bath given bim this nomer, John 3. 27. not given it him in an Ordinance, but in his common Providence; This transcendant power that he is able to carry all before him without controll ; it is a frange power, he may fay what he will, and doe what he will. for fo many moneths, the time indeed is limited. that is will be of this use to us, if we fee men outrageous, and break bonds beyond meafure in any common-weath or Church, our way is to fee Gods hand in it, and to look up to him to muzzle that power : He is able to bridle the high King of Affria , that whereas he fpake great things , what is the God of Ifrael that he shall deliver you out of my hand; the Lord can put a bridle in his notifils and bring him back the way that he came. And therefore when men fpeak great things against us, from any part of the world, know, that he that is higher then the highest regardeth and our eyes must be to him, that he will muzzle fuch, and take order to cut them off. The Lord will ent out the tongue that peaketh proud things, Pial. 12. 4. He hash promifed to doe it, and he will doe it effectually. You have two places where the Lord ufeth the wond to mutale, the one is about the Sea, Marke 4. 20. the other is foolen to the Devill, Mark 1. 25. Hold thy peace, it is translitted; but the worth in the Originall is, be thou muzzled : Thou Balt not muzzle the mouth of the Oza that treadeth out the Corne; it is the fame word : It flews that the Lord hath a muzzle for the great Sea, and a muzzle for the Devils of hell, when we have to deal with them : If it be the great King of Affria, he will put his bridle in his noftrils, and make him return back the fame way he came : the Lord not above him; he lits in heaven, and laughs them to fearn. Those that have been most insolent in blaspheming, all Turkish or Popish blatphemice, the Lord will muzzle them : In the mean time it it our part to fandtihe his name that gives this wast liberty, that for so long they shall speak great things.

and no longer. Fourthly, it may teach us that there is a pronenesse in our natures, to abuse all the providences of God, whether of forciall mercies, or speciall judgements; and it warns us to beware of the fame, in the enjoyment of any mercy, or in feeling of any ftronk of God upon us : Here was this Beaft, fo wounded in one of his beads, as it feemed to be deadly : he was again healed : The Lord vifits this Church with a deadly blow, by alla of his juffice; and he also vifice ie with great deliverances, and acts of his mercifull providence, and when he hath done, see his great admiration, and adoration. would you not think this should melt the heart of a Beaft ? but the One knowes bis owner, faith the Lord, and the Affe bis maflers crib, but Ifrael doth not know, my people doth not confider. Ifa. 1.3. Though this deadly wound be healed, to the admiration of the world, yet confider what little use he makes of it: when he gives him power to doe what he will, what doth he? He opens his mouth to fpeak great things, and blafphemies, and he makes war with all the Saints of Heaven : he doth much abuse his glory. He was knocked on the head, breause he would affect fuch valt Authority to be Pontefex Maximus : the Lord cracked his Crown, breaks the head of this enemy. and wounds the hairy fealpe of fuch as go on in wickedness: He heals him again, and gives him great power; but what doth he with it ? He abufeth it against God, and against the Church of God, and speaks great things, even blasohemies : So there is a nature in us that will abuse every mercy of God, to the corrupting of our hearts, and every judgment of God, and every deliverance from that judgement; one would not think what wofull diffempers there are in our natures. If a body bestuse with choller, it will turne the whole body to feed the humour : So it is with us, we turne all the providences V/e 4.

dences of God into diffempers and outragous licentiousneffe.

But you will fay, he was a Beaft, and the Church a Beaft;

we hope Christians shall do better.

See it in Hexekiab, when the Lord had wrought great deliverances for him, brought the Sunne ten degrees back, and avenged him of his Enemies; afterwards he recovered him from ficknesse, when his soule was brought to the jaws of death : yet when the Princes of Babylon fent to him to enquire of the wonder, that was done in the Land, God left him to try him, that he might know what was in his heart. and then he thews them his great Treasures, and works, and fortifications, that he had throughout his Kingdome ; and it is faid . He rendred not according to the benefits done unto bian; for his beart was lifted up, 2 Chron. 32. 25. 31. You fee good Hezekiab is apt to forget ficknesse: It argues the depth of the body of Sinne which is not onely in wicked men (fuch as these proud Prelate be) but in the Godly, in those that are most eminent in Grace, they are not able to bear great Sailers if God shews us mercy and judgement, it is a wonder to fee what poore work we make.

Many a carnall heart will fay, if he be delivered from fickneffe, or if he be at Sea in danger, if he get a fhore; or if in Prison, if he get but liberty, God and men shall fee what a new man he will be : O the bottomleffe depth of a decelefull heart! let the Lord chastife us, and raife us up again, we forget our bumiliation, and grow to exaltation; and if God helpe us a little, we grow to fuch out-runings of spirit as we exceed therein : no gift that a man bath , no ordinance of God, but he will thus abufe. And therefore we have caufe to fit down in dust and after, that we should abuse such mer-

Fiftly, fince this is the nature of wicked men, let God give Wfe 5. them but liberty, and men give them liberty, and they will take it to the full : let God give a mouth, he will fpeak great things; and if he have liberty to fpeak great things, he will speak great blasphemies, against God, and his Tabernacle, and the Saints :. Then this will be a shame to Godly mep, if

the Lord give us great things, a mouth to speak all the good we can, and liberty to do all the good we can, if we doe not open our mouths and hearts to be speaking and doing all the good we can; It is not for us to fland inorting out the time which God hath carved out for us, but if a beaft have this liberty; if you tether a Beaft at night, he knows the length of his tether before morning; he will goe to the end of it before he have done : And you fee this Bishop the head of the Church, if God give him a mouth, he will open it : wicked men will take the utmost bounds of their liberty; will wicked men doe fo? why should not the children of God then, and all that fear his name take the like care to improve all their liberties, and power to doe all the good we can? doth God give a liberty for laying foundations, for effablithing jurisdiaions, and liberty for well ordering our Families and Town-ships; if the Lord give us opportunities, why should we want a heart to improve them ? If the Beaft hath a heart to improve his wickednesse to the utmost, why should not we improve all our Talents to Gods best advantage, to make it our whole fludy to doe all which the Lord requires, that fo we may bear plentifull witneffe in our Generations to all the liberties the Lord hath betrufted us with, It is not for men that have received five Talents, that is to fay, five opportunities, to render to God as those that have received but one or two : To whom much is given of them will much be required, Luke 12.48. And therefore it behooves us all, as to know the liberties of Church & Common-wealth, so to fet hand and affection a work to be doing all the good we can : If it were the Beaft, take a patterne from him (but they must go fast that the Devils drives) he would improve all his liberty : And why should they not goe fast whom the Spirit of God drives, and improve the liberty they have of God. And therefore it is for us to doe all the good we can, and to leave nothing to those that shall come after us, but to walk in the righteous steps of their fore-Fathers. And therefore let us not leave, nor give reft to our eyes, till in Family, Church, and Common-wealth we have fet a patterne of holineffe to those that shall succeed us.

Laffly,

Verl. 3,4. 78 Chap. 13. Laftly, it may teach us a reverend ule of the things of V fe 6. God, for all Bisiphemy against the name of God, or his Tebernagle, or those that dwell in heaven, it is blasohemy against God. It is faid here, there was power given to the Braft to fpeak great things, and blafphemyes : wherein did that lye? against Gods name, and against his Tabernacle.

and those that dwell in Heaven : So that blaspheme any of thefe and you blafpheme God : blafpheme the name of God, the Tabernacle of God, and those that dwell in Heaven, whether Saints above, or Saints on Earth, and you blafpheme God himseif. And therefore it should be farre from us to abuse any ordinance or providence of God, for it is blasphemie against God himselfe; they are the name of God ; Gods name is called on his providences : If we fpeak evill of Gods ordinances or providences, as for a man to fav. would to God I had never known fuch a woman , it is blasphemy; Gods wisedome and righteonsnesse hath ordayned it. If we be in diffresse, or in any ficknesse, and we inarle against Ged, and mutter at our poverty and fickness, it is to blafpheme the name of God; all thefe are providences of God. To fpeak evill of Churches, as if they were Congregations of Heriticks, or Schismiticks, or Congregasions of Rebels, or Libertines, and Brownills, and fuch like. it is blafohemy against the God of Heaven. Besides, it is blafphemy against the Body of Christ in the Sacrament to think every Baker can make it , that is Popish blafshemy. To fpeak evill of the Saints of God on earth, to thinke to take liberty because they are absent ; Our tongues are our owne. who is Lord over us : Little do we know how tender God is of his people: we cannot speak evill of any in the Church. but we blafpheme God : And fo if we fpeak evill of his providences, it is as much as if we speak evill of God himtelf. And therefore how precious ought the name of God to be to us, to whom our names are pretious : It is but a fcandall to a christian brother, but it is blafphemy to God, and therefore speak not evill, as thinking it shall never come to his care. If we fpeak evill of Authority, of Churches, of Saints, or evill of them that doe evill, unleffe you may take order to represse it, the Lord himself looks at it as blasphemy; and therefore we must not look at it as a light matter; our tongues are our own, and we may have liberty to speak: I, you have liberty, but not to speak blasphemies, either small or great. There is not the least blasphemy, but it is a great Sinne, and therefore greatly to be avoyded.

Revel.

Rev. 13. latter part of the 5. verf.

And power was given him to continue forty and two moneths.

This is the continuance of the description of the former Beaft which the Apostle John saw rising out of the Sea, to be the instrument of the Dregons power (that is, Satans rage) against the Woman, and her seed.

Among other parts of the description (which have been opened) this Beaft is described by the change that befell him, in his head, wounded, and healed; the effect whereof was.

1. The admiration of the world.

2. The worship of the Braft, and of the Dragon.

The third effect or event was the authority or power that the Beast did receive, and did exercise, and that power was,

a. To speake great things and his sphemies; which accordingly he did exercise, in bis spheming the name of God, and his Tabernacle, and the Saints.

2. There was a power of continuance (as it is here gran-flated) forty and two moneths.

3. There was given to bim power to make warre with the Saints, and to overcome them.

Of the first part, to speak blasphemy, we have already spoken. Now come we unto the second part of the power given him, which is his continuance; There was power given bim to continue forty and two moneths.

The note from thence is shortly this;

Doll. 2. That power and authority was given to this Beaft (that is, to the Roman Catholicke Church) to continue, that is, to be active and deing, to be buffe fortie and two moneths.

This expresses the sum and sence of the words; they are obscure as any place in the word, and therefore need your more diligent attention, and the power of the Lord Jesus to cleare clear his counsel and will in this point, who alone openeth the Seales, and none can that them.

To open the words.

Power was given to him.] The word in the Originall is ages a which properly fignines the power of Authority or Jurisdiction; a soveraign kind of power (as it is here described in the seventh verse) ever all Kindreds, and Tongues, and Nations: Such power that all the world wondered at it, and adored, especially that which they call the Christian world, did exceedingly magnifie the power and authority of this Beass, and he speakes here principally of Spirituall Authority, though it green to Temporall Power in making Warr, in the 7 vers. for he rises by degrees to surther power, but authority was given him: Given him, by whom?

1. By God, that put it into the heart of the tenne Horns (that is, the tenne Kings) to give their Kingdoms with one confint to the Beaft, Rev. 17. 17. So God by his wife and just providence gave him authority, such as God hath ordained in his word; but he put it in their hearts by his wife and just providence.

2. This authority was given by Satan, who affifted Antichrist in the mystery of Iniquity, in working signs and lying wonders, with all deceivablenesse of unrighteousnesse, till bee list ap himselse above all that is called God, 2 Thes. 2, 9,10. And indeed Satan wrought mightily, what by the sophistry of the School-men, and by the policy of the Canonists, and what by the devotion of Cloyster-men and Fryers, it was a wonder to see how he gained a mighty power against Churches all the world over.

3. This power was given him by those States, the ten Horns which gave their Crowns with one accord to the Beast, that he should rule in their Dominions. The chiefe Kingdoms in Europe are in these ten; our Native Countrey for one, France, and Spaine, and Navarre, Sweden, & Denmarke, and the rest, they did with one accord give their Kingdoms to the Beast, that in poins of Religion they should establish all Ordinances according to the wisdome of his soveraign power: And in Temporall matters they gave him greater M power to depote, and dispote of their Kinge, then the Roman Emperour had in fundry respects; for his was limted by Laws, but this was without Lawe. 2 Thef. 2. 4. He oppofeth and exalteth him felfe above all that is called God. That without all power of Laws he did out-rage out of measure. Given it was by their Devotion and Superflition, God piercing their hearts much in those times by the Ministery of their Fryars, that did wound their consciences with the sense of their murthers and lufts, that they were willing to do any thing for the peace of their Consciences, and therefore willingly gave up all their power and Kingdomes into his hands; foit was given him.

Again further, he is faid to continue.] Some Translations doe read it, to make Warre, but War is not in the best corre-And Copies, but making Warre is spoken to in the seventh ver. But mak ng War is not spoken to expresly in this fifth verfe; but power was given him to be doing; and as we call it in a generall phrase, to be (a Factorum) the onely doer of the world forty two moneths: That what he did was done, and what he did not authorize and allow, it was not done. If the Princes chose an Emperour, if he accepted him, he flood; if he did not accept of him, he was not received. If any decrees be made, if the Bifhop of Rome eftablish them (which is the feventh head) then they are authenticall; If he do not, then they are Apocrypha. So it is with Scripture; though it be fuch as God never ratified , as the Apocrypha, but what fenle he gives it is Authenticall; He hath power to be active and doing. This word then women, which is here translated to continue, doth indeed to fignific ufually, when it is joyned with words of time; you have many examples of it in Scripture, as in Acis 15. 33. it is faid, After they had tarried there a pace, the word is the fame as here, continue. So in Atts 18. 23. it is faid, After they had tarried some time; about three moneths. So in Alls 20.3. you have there continuance or tarrying expressed by the same word 2 And Paul saith, Night and day I was in the deep, 2 Cor. 11. 25, the fame word; he had his bufineffe there, there he was duely, he continued fo long, But fometimes the word ever used with this word of time, fignifies to be active and bufie : So in James 4. 13. You fay you wi# will goe into such a Citie, & continue there a yeare, and buy, and fell. and get gaine ; the fame word here and there; you will be buffe and gaining, &c. This same power therefore to continue and be doing, argues that this authority of power, absolute Soveraign power over Kindreds, Nations, and Tongues, this is here faid to continue a matter of 42. 9 0 techs.

Now for these 42. moneths.] I would not bufie my selfe in needleffe foeculations : but I finde not any word of God a neednesse speculation for the Church to search into, and understand. We have had this number three or foure times before : For it is the fame number, of which it is faid, The Gentiles shall tread under foot the boly City forty two moneths. Rev. 112 2. And 42 moneths, if they be diffolved into dayes, make up iuft the fum of a thousand two hundred and threescore days, allowing thirty dayes to a moneth as the old account was wont to do, which is the fame time of the two Witneffes prophecying, cleathed in fack-cloath, Bev. 11.3. And the fame time of a thousand two hundred and threescore dayes, or forty two moneths, is just the computation of three years and an halfe; that is, a time, and times, and balfe a time; which time it is faid the moman fled into the wildernesse, and was nourished there. Rev. 12. 6. So that all thefe are manifest to be contemporary (as they call it) to begin together in the same period of time, and to end together; The Beafts rifing and continuing in power 42. moneths: The Gentiles (which is the Roman Catholick Church) treading down the true Church of God forty two moneths: And the two Witnesses prophecying in fack-cloath 1260, dayes: And the womans flight into the wildernesse, and her continuance and abode there 1260. dayes, where the was nourified by the prophecying of those two Wienesks: So that expound aright one of these, and you clears the right Interpretation of all. Three questions therefore may be enquired into to open the durance or continuance of the authority of this Beaft.

4. Whether this be a definitive, or indefinitive time?

a. Whyat is fomenimes reckoned by moneths, and fometimes by dayes: And

2. When doch this time take his beginning, and where doth is expire and take his ending. These things spoken to, M 2 will

will reach as farre as God hath revealed to me.

Gueft: 1. An∫w.

For the fuft of these Ouestions. 1. There be that think this time is not a definite or determinate time, but indefinite; forty two moneths flewes a good space of time, known, and determined by God, but uncertaine to the Church. Now I must confesse, that meaning doth not well fink into my heart, to receive it with any faith in Gods word; for if God would have put a definite time for an indefinite : a certain time for an uncertaine, I thinke he would rather have chosen (as he is wont to do) some such phrase as is wone to expresse illimited time , if it had been feven moneths, or ten moneths: Thou ball changed my wages tenne times faith Facob to Laban; that is, many times : How aften fball I forgive my brother, till feven times ? I, till feventy times feven times : He doth not meance, to limit us, but as oft as he doth offend . forgive . if he repent ; or if he professe such repentance as you have no just exception against, forgive him : But when he faith 42, moneths, why not 600, moneths, for that is a definite time for an indefinite : why should hee fay 1260. dayes, it is not a speech used in Greek and Latine to express an indefinite number : no more is the time, and times, and halfea time, usuall in Daniel. Therefore I cannot reft in that Interpretation, though fundry have gone that way.

2. There be that take it indeed for a definite time, but they would confine it to three years and an halfe, for forty two moneths, or 1260, dayes, is just three yeares and an halfe, and that is true : But I cannot accept that Interpretation; and though it be common, yet our Divines do with one accord reject it : For this Antichrift which they fay is their Beaft (in which they fay true) that he should come out of Hierusalem three years and an halfe before the great Judge ment day , and prevaile against Rome : But that it cannot be taken for three years and an halfe, may appeare from the great authority he shall gaine in this time, and the power that he shall exercise over all Kindreds, and Tongues, and Nations 3 now for any one in three yeares and an halfe to 00 vercome all Nations, and to rule them by an Ecclesiasticall and Civill power, it is incredible. The Leopard of Greece, which was a twift Braft, and had wings, yet he did not conquer the world but in twelve yeares, and it was a great matter to overcome it then: But this Beaft is described to be a Leopard, but not with wings: now that he should do as much in three yeares and an haife without wings, as Alexander did in twelve years with wings, is not credible.

2. There is a third Interpretation that make indeed the dayer, and time, and monethe definite; that ie, determined and fet, and do limit them according to the account of the Prophets that take a day for a yeare: A like proportion of 42. monethe, of a time, times, and balfe a time, and of 1260. dayes; taking a day for a yeare, they will all come to the fame period, to the fame computation of 1260. yeares. Now . that the Prophets do sometimes fo reckon them, appears from Ezek. 4. 5, 6. where the Lord did dired the Prophet to lye upon his fide 390 dayes, according to the defection of Israel from the house of David, in all which time the Prophet did beare the burden of the defection of the People; and to represent that : Son of man (faith he) I bave given thee to lye fo long, I have appointed each day for a yeare; thou falt lye fo many dayes, as their spoftacy bath continued in yeares: For from the defection of Jereboam, to the captivity of the Land, they continued 390. years. And after that (faith he) thou fhalt turne . thee, and lye upon thy other fide forty dayer, and that was the time of the renewing of the Covenant by Josiah, in which the Lord was reconciled with his people: but the people falling into apostacy againe, it proved forty dayes more.

And so when the twelve Spyes had gone forty dayes, and searched out the Land, the Lord saith, They shall beare the provocation of their Fathers sorty yeares, after the number of the dayes in which yee searched the Land, even forty dayes, each day for a yeare, St. Numb. 14. 34. So that this is a Propheticall phrase in mysticall Scriptures; when Ezekiel is to see out a vision for God to expresse his Justice, he sets it down dayes for years: Then it is not uncouth, but very agreeable to Scripture, to say 1260, dayes is so many yeares, and forey two moneshs being so many dayes is all one, and those dayes being three yeares and an halse, if you reckon every day for a yeare, they will be juft 1260. yeares; that therefore I take to be moft agrecable to Scripture phrafe, and the fenfe of the words.

But then here grows a fecond Ouestion.

Why doth be recken some of these times by dayes, and some by Queft: 2. monetbs?

Anfw.

There may be a double reason of that.

1. When he describes what the Children of God doe's he fums up their actions by dayes. Children oflight, it is meet that their actions should be measured out by the period of dayer: The Witnesses prophecying, and the womans flight into the wildernesse is faid to be 1260. dayes : But an God gave the Sunne to rule the day, so the Moon to rule the night, Pfel. 136. 8, 9. Now therefore when you are to fpeak of superflitious devotions, they are works indeed of darkneffe, and therefore are best reckoned by moneths, by that Creature in Heaven which measures out Night, the Moon : And therefore it may be, and fo the boly Ghoff pfeth it, if he speak of the Gentiles treading under foot the holy City, though it be by day-light, yet it is a work of darkneft; They tread under foot the boly City forty two moneths, Rev. 11. 2. And if Antichrif be to continue long, all his continuance is but a work of darkneffe, and therefore he is faid to continue 42. moneths : But what the Church do , and what the Witneffes do, is reckoned by dayes, but it is the lame time, the one makes day-work of it, and the other night-work.

There may bealfo this Reafon; That the Apostle in thele Prophecyes in the New Testament, might allude to the like in the old Teffament, as to Antiochus whose dispensation was only actime, and times, and halfe a time.

Now for the third Quelt: when this may be faid to begin, and when it may be faid to end?

There I confesse lyes the greatest difficulty. 1. Some of our best interpreters pitch the beginning from the beginning of the Reign of Conflantine, when the Man-child was brought forth, that is, advanced to Imperiall dignity. which some make in the yeare 304, after Christ; though it be true, of later times, they will by no meanes grant his Reigne began began then, but two or three years after, and an eafie milfake grows there; for when they come to measure out a Princes Reign , they begin in luch a time, and a whole yeare is allowed to it, and it may be the next begins in that year, and so they bring a variation in Chronologies; but you may not wonder in luch miltakes, if there be foure or five years variation, that makes no great difference; God knows certainly: but through reckoning the last yeare of one, and the first of another, applying the fame to both, may fo netimes make a yeares difference : But holy Brightman makes the beginning of that time to be in Constantines coming to the Crown, and thence expires the authority of this Beaft in the yeare 1546. Now though his paines have been most serviceable to the Church of all that have written of this Book, and God is to be exceedingly magnified for him, and his Learn in z effeemed; that having such a Prophetical spirit, he spake so homely and plainly, that without pregnant reason I would not pervericate his judgment: Yet as it falls out ordinarily, there is fomething amiffe in the belt humane Writers that ever wrotes Therefore let me tell you what doth not fatisfie me : The first is this, that neither in the beginning nor end doth it punctually jump and fuice with all events described. First, for the beginning, it is sayd, the moman fled into the

First, for the beginning, it is layd, the moman fled into the wildernesse, and continued a time, and times, and balfe a time, after the Dragon was castout of beaven, and there was place found for him in beaven; And it is true, Constantine made warre against the Dragon, but I cannot say there was no place for him in heaven, for this was the failing of the good Emperor, that he fill allowed the Heathens Idols Temples to continue, though he shut the doors; and his Successor Julian the Apostate opened them againe, and restored the Dragon to spiritual authority, stated him in heaven as before with a great part of the Empire.

And besides this, certaine it is till Gracians time, they all kept the sitle of Pontifes maximus which was an honour belonging to the great Priest of Jupiter, or to the Devill; One-ly Gracian, and Theodosius after him, being tender in conscience, resuled it, then the Senate of Rome sayd is the will not be Pontifex maximus yet they will have him to Rome, and call him to Rome, and had it not been by a marvelous providence, they had wonderfully prevailed; for at the fame time they did reftore all the Temples as Julian had done, and establithed all the Revenues belonging to them, restored them all to the Preists, and the Devill had the place of worship as before; but the Lord putting them down by a mighty providence of his, through the prosperity of Theadonie, he utterly overthrew that title, and through the zeal of his spirit call down the Temples, would fuffer none of them to fland. rooted them out from Eaft to West; Wherever there was any famous Temples, down he throws them; he utterly renounceth the Pontifex maximus, and will have no Temples: he doth conficate the revenues to the Emperors treafury: and from that time forward indeed, they never recovered, there was no more place found in Heaven : le is true, Conflantine began that war in the Empire : but war, it is not a Skirmift or a Battell, it is not foon done, but many times continues long, as between the house of David, and the house of Saul, and that for some scores of yeares : So in this case, the war began with Conftantine, there holy Brightman takes it most right; but for the accomplishment of it, for the Dewill to be wholly cast out, and no more place found in Heaven, that was not till Theodofius time; now from that time the Emperors renouncing the title of Pontifex maximus, the Popish fore thought it was a marvellous providence for the advancing of the Roman Catholick Church, that is this Beaft; fo the next year the Pope took up that name, and holds it to this day: what ever the Popes name be, it is Pontifex meximus, that is his ordinary flyle, not Bilhop, or Arch Bishop, or Primate, or Metropolitan, these are but Images of the Beaft, but the head of this Beaft is Pontifex meximus, the chiefe Bishop of Rome : Now this was to the best observation that I can finde, in the year 395. about 90. years after Constantines time, or wanting one or two of that : Now that is therefore one Reason why I doe not conceive that thefe 42. months are only at least to be reckoned from Conflantines beginning of his reigne, for they are reckoned from the time when there was no place found for the Dragon in Heaven, which was afterwards accomplished about 90 years after. Another Reason why I cannot goe so fully with that holy man of God, is, because of the end of it, when he comes to 1546. It is evident that in that year the Councell of Trent did condemn the Scriptures, and advance the vulgar Latine to be the authenticall word of God : And Charles the fifth did prevail against the Lant-grave of Helle, & Profiefant Princes of Germany in the year 1547. So by that reafon it cannot end aright, for the Beaft hath power given him to continue to make war for 42 moneths; now he continued longer then fo, though it is true, his time was limited foon after; and therefore I cannot with fo full affurance go fo clearly with him in that, as usually I do in his Interpretation, yet fill referving this liberty, according to the gift of the spirit of Prophecy he had, you may many times read the context of the word of God, it may be sometimes somewhat more exactly according to the true meaning then allwaves is exprest; which I speak not to impeach the faithfulneffe and learning of the holy man of God, but would give every man the honour that God hath put upon them, make use of their gifts, and leave them where they may at any time mistake, the like liberty God forbid but may be left to others that come after us.

2. Therefore if you doe a little more narrowly fearch the Text, and weigh every circumstance in it, you may observe (as I take it) a double computation of this time in respect of the beginning and ending of it; for you shall read which Me. Brightman rightly observes; that the woman fled, into the wildernesse at Constantines coming to the Crown, it is true, for fo it is expresly fayd, Revel. 12. 6. She fled into the milderneffe, where fbe bad a place prepared of God : and this was before the battell was fought; and then he tells you of the battell that was fought in verf. 7, 8, 9. ; The end of which was, there was no place for the Dragon in Heaven; and now there is given two wings of an Eagle unto the woman, that the might flee into the wilderneffe into her place, where the is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time from the face of the Serpent, which is just 42 moneths. So that take both both these places, and it will appear there is a double beginning of this time ; the one from Conftantines Reigne , the other 96 or 97 years after, there abouts it was, there is the beginning of it. Now if you take it by moneths, and take it not as holy Brightman doth, the Agyptian yeare, but the Roman yeare; methinks it is most probable to take the account of the Roman Affaires to be registred by Roman computation, not Ægyptian, though it is true, Rome is foiritually called Egypt, but that's in another fence, they did not follow them in computation; and though the Egyptians count 30 dayes to a moneth, which fuits well with this, yet it is not utuall in Scripture ; for roundnesse of number fake, they pitch a certain time of the moneth, 30 dayes for a moneth; and therfore if you count to may years in the Roman Kallender, you shall come somewhat neere the account of the continuance of the Power, and transcendant Authority of this Beaft; and if you so reckon 1260. years, if you adde them to 300. and the odde four years after before Confiantine; beginning, there-abouts it was ; and computations are not clear, the expiration will fall somewhat after the beginning of the reigne of Queen Elizabeth; And especially if you take the account from more exact Chronologies, it will come in the year wherein the Pope fent a Bull, that is, an excommunication against Queen Elizabeth to deliver her to Satan. which brought forth new treasons against her that followed every year, and brought her at length the Spanish invasion, hoffile invafion; but from that time it was, that the blaft of his power was then broken; that whereas before if he had excommunicated a Prince, it was fatall, he could never have flood out, he had been everlaftingly blafted with his hopes, but from that time forward, is bath been truly faid by fome, that have spoken of this time, that from that time all the Popes Bulls were but bubles a they could not prevaile against her, though they brought the Excommunication, and faffned it upon the Cathedrall Church as they call it, and afterwards read it; the going to prayer, used the words of the Prophet, Plat. Though they curse, blesse thou, let them be confounded that rife up against me, but let thy fervant rejoyce: God heard her prayer, and marvelloully broke his power, he had not the power that the great Bihip of Rome had, who by his power should rend rocks in pelces, and blaft all' before him, he never had that power after : God delighting by weak means to bring mighty things to palle! By her hand the Lord did maintain the low Countries, that this beaft had great power over, his arme was broken there : and to against the King of Navar by her assisting him; and so in Scotland, the mightily prevailed to break his power there; and fo in Ireland, where the fet her hand, the brake mightily his power, and the power of Catholick Princes, though mightier then fhe. She renounced the Catholick Church. that is this great beaff, and cut off his head to her beft underflanding, which was about the founding of the feventh Trumpet, Rev. 11. 15. When the Kingdomes of this world became the Kingdomes of our Lord, and of his Christ : For then did begin the feventh Trumpet to found, which brought the conversion of Kingdomes and States; that though the beast fill continued, yet he fill loft his Authority which he had before; what he did approve before, that flood, and what he did not, that fell to the ground. Now he hath so much power, that if France be more pravalent, or Spaine, he will take with them, as he thinks he may with his Catholick Sons for his own fecurity : but his power is fo blafted, that though he doth continue fill, and will continue, yet a great Braft that rules all the world; that power the Catholick Roman Church hath loft, though he prevail with his supersticions inventions with those that are his in a carnall way, or from an opinion of their fathers honelty, &c. But yer the power is not left to the Bishop of Rome to doe all things, as in those former times he might; his word is not a law, nor his decrees to Authenticall, they are now confidered of even among Catholicke Princes; It is not now in his power to take up Controversies between France and Spain, if they will make war : Time was, they durft as well have eaten a Bears foot, as have ventured upon any war without his likeing; but that was the time when the armes of his power, and his jawes were not broken.

Thus if you take this Scripture as Brightman takes it, from N 2 Constantines

Conftantines coming to the Crown, it will expire then about the time when the Bull came forth against Q :: Eliz. and as they thought would be sufficient to blaft her, and allthe Huquenots with her : But yet that makes but one beginning and ending of this account, whereas the Text makes two; for in Chap. 12. 6. when the child was caught up to God, and to his throne, and the woman fled into the wildernelle . then there was a great battle ; that battle lafted 90 years, and then was the Divill cast out of Heaven, and his Flamins, land Arch-flamins were blafted with him , they had no power in Theodofius time : from that time the Dragon was cast out of Heaven, and perfecuted the woman which brought forth the man child, and there was given to her two wings of a great Eagle, that the might flee into the wilderneffe : Now I fav according to this, there is another computation of this time, there was no more place found for him in heaven wich was in the year 39 . for two or three years, we must not pinch much it is hard to keep exact account by reason of taking up one year from the Predeceffor, which in fo many years come to sometimes more, sometimes lesse: Now if you shall take the Computation from that time, (tis true from Conftantines time, the Church might fly into the wildernesse; for it is true, the Church is made a wildernesse if you fet the doores of the Church fo wide and pull down the walls, that whereas before, it was a Garden inclosed, Cant. 4. 12. now you les in valt territories, bring in the whole world, now you make it Catholick; now though it had no Catholick power; a Garden is made a wildernesse if you pull down the pales. take down the narrow watch of Officers, and let in all men that will thruft in ambitionfly to gratifie them; The Church was full of coverousnesse, whoredomes, adulteries, deceivers, haters of God, and the true power of Godlineffe, even in his time, and fo forward, was almost worn out, and never was so in all the time of persecution; but after that the Bishop of Rome had taken the stile of Pontifex maximus, and Theodofius flept with his Fathers, then the Church grew more transcendantly Catholick, and that they thought he would be Lord Paramount; but yet his transcendant power did fpring fpring as he was cheif Bishop, then he was universall Bishop, for his power grew by degrees;) Now I say, if you take this latter computation, which also the Text doth, then if you reckon from 205, years, and adde to that 1260, years, putting these two together, they will expire in the yeare, that shall be according to the Roman account 1655. I will not . be two confident, because I am not a Prophet, nor the Son of a Prophet to foretell things to come, but so far as God helps by Scripture light, about the time 1655. there will be ' then fuch a blow given to this beaft, and to the head of this beaft, which is Pontifex maximus, as that we shall fee a further gradual accomplishment and fulfilling of this Prophecy here. You must not think it strange that some Prophecies receive a graduall accomplishment; Sometimes you have a Prophecy of the 70. yeares captivity, which is accomplished by the redemption of the Church out of Babell; yet a more fu.l accomplishment shall be when the Church shall be delivered from this whore of Rome, and the Church of the Jewes shall be called againe. So it is here, according to the different computation of time, the wife God hath all seasons in his hand, he doth forefee, and foretell to his people when they shall come to paffe: So that though the arme of his glorious power be broken, and his bones broken, that he is nothing that beaft in power that he was , and hath not been fince the fending of that dreadfull excommunication, which was thought to be so dangerous to the famous Princesse I spake of ; yet a power he hath over many Chnrches, and the power given him by the ten horns, they are not all broken; as in Chap. 11, 13. The tenth part of the City fell by reason of the earthquake : There was fuch a fall, that a tenth part fell, but yet a great part stands still to this day in some measure, that will take their Religion from him as they fee cause, but not all in Religion neither, for the King of France will not yield to the Councell of Trent to this day ; it falling out that his Ambaffadors did not fit in the cheife place, he will not authorize that Councell: Thus is his power broken, but yet it continues in some measure till a further accomplishment of it, but for two or three years I cannot limit that, for there may be.

be some uncertainty by reason of the variation of Chronicles that have sometimes more, sometimes lesse in the beginning and ending of the Reign of Princes: But otherwise, about that time will be the expiration of the power and great authority of this Beast: But already we see, by the blessing of God, his power weakned, but we look for a further accomplishment.

The marker hath required fome-what large opening, but it is a counsell of God, and given of him for this end. that it may be expounded and explained : And the Lord hath promifed bleffedneffe, Chup. 1. to thofe that read and fearch this Booke; and therefore he would encourage all to fearch diligently the meaning of it, especially as God gives opportunity : le was that which John mourned for , that he found none worthy to open this book, and to loofe the feals thereof, only the Lyon of the Tribe of Judab : I think there is no man shall be diligently fludious on this Book, depending upon the Lyon of the Tribe of Judab for helpe, but he shall find fomething more then he did expect. It is true, if a man go in confidence of his own gifts and knowledge, he may foole himself; but if in modely of Christian wisdome, and in the feare of God; the foirit of any Christian Minister, or other that laves hold of this Book, he thall not be fent empty a. way : What light God hath given me in this particular . you have heard opened. The use in a word is thus much.

Use 1. Firsh, it is a word of stay so the soules of Gode people: It serves to strenthen our faith, that the Lord is exact in his Propheticall expressions: Look what he speake; though it be many a yeare or day before, he will not faile to bring it to accomplishment in his time. It is truly observed, if God tarry long, a shouland years with God is but as one day, ell the appointed time come: But when his time is come, then one day with God is as a thousand yeares: God will as soon saile a thousand yeares, as one day: Indeed till his time become, he thinks it not long, though it tarry 1260. yeares; but when it is come, then he will not faile one day. It is a memorable speech that in Exad. 12, 40, 41, 42. The sojourning of the children of Egypt was foure bundred and thirty yeares: And it came to pulle at the end of the foure bundred and thirty yeares, even the felfsame day it came to paffe, that all the boft of the Lord went out from the Land of Etypt : It is a night much to be observed, &c. Hee doth not fay they dwelt there follong, bur were foiournersthere: And it came to paffe at the end of the foure bundred and thirty yeares, even the felfe same day, it came to puffe that all the best of the Lord went out from the Land of Egypt; as if God would put some Emphasis upon it : The word in the Originall is, in the bones of the day : It is an usuall Hebrailm , the firength of a thing they call the bones of it; that is, in the face of all the people, in the strength of the day, even when it was full day: God kept reckoning to a day; he will as well faile a thou[and yeares as one day when his time is come; and till his time be come, we must think it long if he stay a thousand yeares : it must therefore ftrengthen our Faith, that God is the fame God in the New Teffament, as in the Old; that if we could know times as exactly as God knows them. we might write, in the bones of fuch a yeare and day, the bones of the Roman Catholick Church is broken, and lyes bedrid : as it is foretold, Jezebel shall be cast into the bed of afficiion, and all that commit adultery with ber into great tribulation. Let it strengthen the faith of Gods people in every time: for if God be fo exact in every circumftance, what time he fets, he will keep, then it may more strengthen us in substantiall promifes and threatnings: and what ever the Lord hath fpoken be not discouraged, the Lord will make good what hee hath spoken, he will not faile of a minute of time when his period is come.

Secondly, it may serve to encourage us the more to pray to God for a speedy accomplishment of the power of this great Beast (the Roman Catholick visible Church) that hath bewitched the world for so many ages together, and to grow this way in our prayers for the destruction of him from yeare to yeare; and the neerer the time of the accomplishment grows, the more earnest should our expectations be to see the accomplishment, and the more earnest our prayers should be.

You read of holy Daniel, that when hee understood by books, that the Lord had fet the captivity for 70. years, then he fet himfelfe by prayer and supplication to seek the Lord. in Dan. 9. 1,2,3. He takes this very occasion; he found it was written that thereabouts it would be, and he found that time was at hand, therefore he wreftles with God in fasting and prayer for the accomplishment of that deliverance : And fo ought we to do; and indeed about that time it is, that in the Exposition of other Scriptures, that holy man of God that hath given light to this Booke; fome-what after he encourageth to look for no small changes that may befall the State: So that it may encourage us to look for fuch a great mercy : It is a great mercy that the Lord hath discovered the vanity of subjection to the Roman Catholick Church, from day to day the Lord discovers it more and more to this country, and hath given us to fee the true platform of a true Church, from which the Roman Catholick Church is fo far disproportionable (to be governed by a supream head, in flead of a particular Church ordered by Paftors and Teachers, there is fuch a vast distance) that well doth the holy Ghoft call it a great Beaft, a lewd Strumpet, to undertake fuch an Inftitution. Therefore as the thing hath been odious in Gods fight long, fo let us pray that he will go on to break the power of this Beaft : It hath not been in vain, what a blow he hath given to the Image of this Beaft, by the late flirs in Scotland: True it is, before great deliverances, there will b. great afficions, whether here, or elfe-where: It is an usuall providence to the most faithfull ones of God : But what ever bitter cup the Lord may give us to drink of, yet the day of this great Beaft is coming, wherein he is to go to perdition : He hath begun to fall before the Lamb; and if he begin to fall before him, say the Magicians to the Kings Favourice Haman , Eftb. 6. 13. If Mordecai be of the feed of the Temes before whom thou haft begun to fall, thou shalt not prevaile against bim, but shalt surely in falling fall; that is, fall more and more : It's true, there may be fome pange, as a Beaft when he is going to his last gaspe, he will sling with his tayle, and with his horns; but he is falling, and leaves not falling till he finally fall; chough there be pangs, as dying creatures, to win the horse, or lose the saddle, but otherwise he will never sland, that there may be a Factorum at that time, and will grow more and more after that time.

Rev. 13. 7.

And it was given unto him to make warre with the Saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all Kindreds, and Tongues, and Nations,

Hen the Devill, that is to fay, the Dragon, could not find any longer resting place in heaven, that is to fay, he could no longer enjoy Soveraign and divine worthip as the great God (Constantine and his Succeffors having brought in Christ and his worship alone in flead of all the gods of the Gentiles;) He therefore to revenge himselse, makes warre against the Church, that were the rooters out of Pagan Idolatry : This warre, because he could not manage by himfelfe, it being very ftrong, he therefore raffeth two Beafts out of his power, the first and second Beafts in this Chapter; the first, from verf. 1. to the 10. The fecond, from verf. 10. to the end of the Chapter. It was a third Roman State, not Rome-Pagan, nor Rome Christian, bnt Rome-antichristian, that is to fay, the Roman visible Catholick Church. This is described many wayes, by a wound given him upon one of his heads for a feafon; that when Rome was facked, he was almost in a forlorn estate, and delpairing of recovery ; but being healed, the effects were

1. The worlds admiration after the Beaft.

2. Their worship both of the Beast, and of the Dragon, which is Satan himselfe.

The third event is Power, or as the word lignifies, Authority (ver. 5, 6,7.) And this Power and Authority did firetch forth it felfe to three employments.

First, He bad power given him to speake great things and blas-phemies; He might speak blasshemy oy authority.

The second power that was given him, was to continue, or to be doing, to be acting and working all in all, for the number of 42 moneths, which in the former Chapter is deferibed by dayer, and the dayes meant years, 1260. years, which have been at large spoken to. The third power and authority given him, was, To make marre with the Saints; and that not a vain and loofe war, but an efficiently prevailing war, a victorious war: It was given him to make warre with the Saints, and to overcome them.

There was also a fourth power given him, and that was dominion ever all the Kindreds, Tongues, and Nations: All Christian Kingdomes, they did all of them submit their Crowns and Sosptem to this Beast, the Roman Catholick visible Church, whereof the Pope is the seventh head, for he had seven heads, and ten horns: Five of them were fallen, the fixth then which was the Cesars, and the Pope he was the seventh. Two of these Powers have been opened; Power to blassbeme, and Power to continue, and be doing.

Epme now to the chied Power br Authority given to this Beatly and that is, so make were with the Saints, and to overcome them.

The note then is shorely this ;

The Roman withle Catholicke Church had power to make warre against the Saints, yea and to vaccome them. They are in a manner the words of the Text, explained in their true meaning.

The warre that he speake of (as I conceive) in this place, is not a spiriouall warre (though that also this beast did make, for he caused all that dwelt upon the Earth to admire and adore him, and that was spirituall war.) But he speaks of such a warre here, the effect whereof is killing with the Sword; He that killed with the frond must be killed with the sword, vers. 10. As if God would reward him in his owne kind: He that slayes many thousands of Christians with the sword, that is, by the power of warre, he himfelfe thall at length be defroyed by warre alto : So that he forake of a war fought by Arms, by flaughter and blood-find, by open ixpedicion of Military perio s fighting in the quarrell of this beaft against the Saints of God. There is another warre men. tioned in the 17. Chap. of this book, where it is faid, this Beaft , and the ten Horns, that is, the Christian Kings, that thall give their power and authority to this Braft, thall make warre with the Lamb; and they which are of the Lambs fide, are called, and cholen, and faithfull, and here they are called Saints: Bus there you shall see it is not the same kinde of warre, but differing there from what is here; for there it is fayd, They foll make warre with the Lamb, and the Lamb fall overcome them; but here it is faid. He fall make warre with the Saints, and overcome the Saints : So that one of thefe warres he fpeaks of, when he that hath smitten others, he shall be smitten himselfe; that is, towards the end of his Authority; then the Lamb thall make warre, and overcome bims but in the meane time he hath power to make warre, and overcoma them, it is therefore a bloody warre: And it is not faid that he began this war as foon as he began to do; for here are fundry acts and passages of Authority, before he comes to this transcendant power to violent warre : Hee was admired and adored in the consciences of all Roman Catholicks : Hee had done many things, spake great blasphemies many a day, and yeare together : And in the end he receives also this power. to make warre with the Saints; that he was able to muster up fuch an Army of his owne, or his Horns, that is, those Princes that were obedient to him, as he was able to make warr. Now this Scripture (I conceive) was accomplished in his wars against the Waldenses and Albingenses in the 13. Century after Christ, they held all things conformable to the Scriptures, and the Fathers, as they called them, and every way Orthodoxall, only they blafphemed the Church of Rome. this Beaft could not tell what he had againft them otherwife; but otherwise he commended them for their honefty, piety, and good dealing, and there was nothing culpable in their doing, but that they spake against the Church of Rome : now against against them did the Pope and the Catholick Church procure many expeditions of fore warre for many yeares together, and in conclusion rooted them out of the Countrey, and scattered them up and downe, some to some part of France, fome to Bebemia, fome to Germany, fome to England, and some to one place, and some to another : though the Papifts did confesse that the people were not rooted out, but scattered; and where ever they came, they propagated their Religion, that it was more and more spread where they came: but they overcame them, for they flew (as stands upon Record) about ten hundred thousands of them, and did burn up their Cities, and Cattell, fel'd their wood, that there might be no more Hereticks neftled in that wilderneffe ; and they did take a courfe that Midwives, and Mothers, and Infants in the womb, all should be slaughtered by fire and fword, that there might be no more continuance of that Generation : So that in this War the Pope did mightily prevaile, and prospered so farre, that he spread all Christendom, and in one battle did overcome a great many of the Saints: Whereupon the Waldenses being warned by a Religious man fent by the Bishop of Tholonse, to confesse the hand of God against them for Hereticall pravity, in blaspheming the Roman Catholick visible Church, and continuing so long in it, and to turn to the Catholick Church : For their defence, to answer the Temptation that was put upon them, faid they, it is written, The Beaft fhall make war with the Saints and overcome them; therefore it is no argument of Gods being against us, in respect of our Religion, for he may acknowledg us Saints, though we be flain to this day; and therefore though there were but a handful left, they would rather dye, then yeeld to conformity to the Church of Rome. So you fee the point opened : For the Reasons,

First, how this Beast comes to have this power to make Warre. Secondly, how the Saints come thus to be warred upon.

And thirdly, how they come to be overcome (for all these would be opened.) Firft, this beaft had power given him to make warre by feverall hands; Firft, the devout subjection of the ten Christian Kings to him, that gave their kingdoms and swords into his hand, Rev. 17. 17. God hath put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to agree, and give their Kingdoms unto the Beaft : The principall Kings of Christendome in those daves came and gave their power to the beaft, and by their power he was able to do wonders against all.

Chap. 12.

A second reason and cause of his power to war against the Reason 2. Saints, was, because of the prosperons successe which they had in the warre against Christians a hundred yeares before, and that was in an expedition of Godfrey of Bulloign in Greece, and Duke Dalbo, that went forth to recover the holy Land (as they call it) to overcome the Turks and Sarazens, and God. frey Bullen, a Christian Prince, as they call him, they made him King at Jerusalem, there he continued, and prospered mightily in this war, and held it for many years together : and Christian Princes seeing the prosperous successe of this War which he had raised up to recover the holy Land, and the Sepulchre of Chrift; therefore upon the fame tearms that he did procure that Expedition against Insidels, he doth procure warre against these Hereticks, and out of the same notion there were gathered an innumerable company.

A third Reafon was from the zealous Sermons of Fryars and Monks, exciting all Christendom to this Warr under the Standard of the Croffe in promise of equall pardon, as if the Expedition had been against the Sarazens, thence came he to make such authority to make Warre with the Saints, that if he call for it, it is done : He agrees upon it in his own Councell, and he gives instruction to all Abbots and Fryars, and Governours of religious Orders, that they should fend out chiefe Preachers to call upon all the people, as in Plal. 94. 16. Who wil rife up for me against the kvill doers ? or who will stand up for me against the workers of Imquity? Sometimes complayning of the flicknesse of men to holy zeale for Gods glory, and maintenance of purity of Religion, and sometimes a necessity of taking part with those that are Infidels abroad, and Hereticks and Schismaticks at home; They found their Explication amounting to that use, that whereas there had been

been many Hereticks neifled up in this Countrey, therefore it pleafed him and the Apostle Peter to firre up the Bishop of Rome to vouchfafe the like plenary paidon to those which would go to warre against these Hereticks, as those which had prevailed against Infidels; and the promite of pardon did to farre prevail, that they thortly gathered rogether 200000. that in hope of plenary pardon of finne did give up themfelves to go on upon their owne charges; they would fell goods and Lands for pardon of fin, and prace of confcience: And in those dayes men were wont to be troubled at the Sermons of the Fryats and Monkes, and never found fetled peace by pardon from Christ Jesus, and never thought to look for pardon where it was : and they told them it was to be had by bestowing their goods and lands thus; and those Fryars and Monks did so inculcate and drive the nayl to the head in the hearts of people, that they were never at reft till they went about this Expedition, there were raifed a matter often Captains, Simon Munford was one, a notable inftrument for the Devill and this great Beaff.

Realon A.

The laft Reason was, the superflition of those times, the deep devotion and dejection of spirit that was in the bodies of Christians in those dayes in regard of their spiritual estate: They being deepely convinced of finne, and sharply reproved by the Feyars and Monks, who had a notable dexterity to fling the consciences of men, and wound them by the terrour of Gods wrath, fometimes for their great exactions, fometimes for their incest; sometimes for their whoredome. and negled of the Ordinances of the Church; and they had things fo full against them, that it made them strictly devout, and so were taken up in devotion to this great Beaft, and the head of it, that all the world admired and adored him for his admirable and transcendant power, and keyes that he had to heaven (as they thought) they all yeelded them felves, fome their bodies to fight, and some that had not sufficient to maintaine themselves, other good Catholicks were ready to cast in some more, some lesse, to maintaine them, according to their abilities, and happy he that could make fomething co make warre against these Hereticks : So that lay all these together. together, and you will see how he had this great power to make war with the Saints. Here was a great and vast change from the Institution of Christ, who confined all Churches into one Congregation, that all may beare, and all may be edefied, that one Parish Church should grow to that vastnesse, to lavy 300000. To the warre, and that by a word of his mouth to have them all mayntained without grudging, for every man did thinke the worke as pious, a marvellous change: and well doth the holy Ghoss say, Hee bad great power, that the power of that Church should reach over all Churches, and shall have such an influence into Kings, that look what they shall distate, all shall be ready, body, and goods, and life, and all to maintain them; you see the reasons of it, how he comes by this power.

But secondly, how comes he to make War against the

There is a double reason for that, one is taken from the profession, and practice, and conversation of these Saines : This was their practice. They followed the Lamb, as in the next Chapter; I looked, and loe a lambe flood on the mount Sion. and with him an hundred fourty and four thouland . having bis Fathere name written in their forebeads : Thefe are they which are not defiled with women , for they are Virgins : Thele are they which follow the Lamb whether fo ver be goeth : They kept themselves undefiled of this Antichrift of Rome, were not defiled with the whoredome of this great beaft; in all things they confented with the Doftrine of the Primitive Church, and their hypocrifies, and whoredomes, and coveteoninelle, were things that would by no means be borne; therefore the Pope, who was the great head , difcerning he was thus contefled againft, and (as they fay) blafphemed, he thinks he does nothing, though he destroy Turkes, and Sarazens, and Egyptians, and whoever took the Sepulcher of Chrift, as long as those Heretickes at home were not subdued, therefore he thinks it as meritorious a worke to subdue them, as ever to fight for the holy Land. But there was another thing that made the war, for no warre can be made but by levying of Forces on both partt.

And therefore a fecond was, their taking up of Armes, in the just defence of their liberties, both of conscience and ourward man : For if the Citholick Church had raifed up all thefe Forces, and they had quietly fubmitted themfelves like theep to the flughter, there had beene no warre then, there had been maffacres : It would have amounted to that as the massacre in Paris, that a man did not lift up his hand, but they were flughtered like dogs in the freet : Though they come with fire and fword, yet unlesse they relift with fire and (word, it cannot be faid to be war : Some let in againft them. though their weaknesse caused them to presume, but it was to weak a bufineffe for fielh and bloud ; Wee wreftle not against flest and blood, but against Principalities and Powers. and spirituall wickednesses : They which truft to fish and bloud shall be deceived; as these men, they flood out, and fometimes prospered, while the Earl of Tone, and some other Princes joyned together, though they were but few, they prospered; but war is not one Battel or two, and in theend they were overcome, and this Beaft prevailed; and that's the reason of the 2d part, how he came to make warre against the Saints.

For the 3d, How came he to overcome them? Truly not by strength, he had very little that way; but

Reason 1.

First, he overcame them by their a little too much considence in the arme of siesh: when they see the King of Aragon set on, they come to be a little set on by the power of the King, and a great Battell recoyled by trusting to the arme of siesh. You read in Heb. 11.34. That by faith the Saints maxed valiant in Fight, turned to slight the Armies of the Alien; but when our faith runne in another channell, thas we grow considers not in the Lord Jesus, by trusting in him, but on the arme of siesh; we know what is said in Jer. 17.5. Curfed be the man (ye though he be a good man) that trusteth in man, and maketh siesh is arme, and who se beast departeth from the Lord: It withers, it cannot stand against the potent Army that rise up against them; though their enemies were never lesse in number, nor never lesse provided, yet they prevailed more then ever before.

The second Reason was, by their attention to politick and deceitfull Treaties of peace ; for when they faw the men were good Souldiers, valient in battell, and able to fight it out, and they found the 2000, that were to fight for plenary pardon three years, had terved out their time, and they had got as they thought, their fouls faved, they would go home now, and they had got peace by this carnall confidence of theirs : So they perceived this war would be troublesome. and the Hereticks were like to profper, therefore they gather in the cheif Leaders to Treaties about peace, and great pitty that fuch bloud should be shed; therefore for the honour of Rome it were needfull to cease the warre, and so would draw their cheif Leaders to firme leagues of Peace, and then they kept their best Generals in Prison; and thus when they had got them to yelld to their pretences, then they had their neckes under their girdles, and their throats under their axes. they might hew them out of measure : Insomuch that the King of France hearing of fuch cruell massacre, he fent to know what their Religion was ; and though he fent expresse charge that none of his Souldiers should offer violence to them, yet they concealing his Letters, they went on inmaffacring the poor Saints, and scattering them up and down, in fo much that they prevailed, partly by the Saints cleaving to the arme of flesh, and by trusting their false pretencer.

And there is a third Reason mentioned in the 10. vers.

faith he, Here is the Faith and Patience of the Saints :

It was Gods pleasure to make it the season of the Patience of the Saints : It was the feason wherein Antichrist should swell to his height, and the Saints be brought low, and their Parience be tryed to the utmost; and it being a time of the Saints Patience, it must needs be a time of their suffering ; and fuffer they did with much patience : but yet they were not utterly exterpated, for fome fled to France, and fome to England, and so propagated Christian Religion, which after turned to the conversion of many, John Husse, and Jerome of Pragues Doctrine grew and spread more, till God raised up Luiber to fet forward the power of the Gospell. Thus you fee the truth of the Doctrine.

Reason 3.

For the ule then, First it may ferve to les us fee whence is Ufe 1. the bower of waging war ; for the Text faith, it was given ; To ble it was often to make par with the Saints : All men carmos teesthe that as our Saviour faith in another cale, but they to whom it if giben. It is not an cafe matter for any to beable to wage war, it requires great store of persons, and great fore of Treasury, and Fountain to maintaine both; And befides all this, it requiren no imall measure of Willome and Policy to undertake luch delignes : all thele you fee the Lord gives, and gives them to those that his foul take no pleafure in, and to those that in his efteem are men of beaftly spirits, yet he gives them power to make warre : He may bleffe himfelf in his rule and bravery charthay were able to goe againft Infidels, and after againft Hericiche as they called them, but indetd the Sainer of God : but you fee God gave power unto this Beaft, which is therefore no cause of triumph or glorying that he hath recived fuch a power, for you fee it may be given to thefe that are enemyes to the Lord lefus.

Secondly, obferve this much, That the Lord himfelfe doth Ule 2. acknowledge even his poor children on Earth to be that which is commonly by priviledge sequestred to the holy Saints in Heaven ; He calles them Saints.

We think Saint-Ihip is a peculiar priviledge to the Saints in Heaven, when they have ended their wayes in peace and a good conscience, then they are accounted Saints and Angels ; but the Lord accounts them Saints while they live Boon the Earth', whiles they are the Church Militant. a warfaring Church ; while men undersake warre against them, and overcome them by warre, even then they are called Saints. And which is wonderfull. Saints when they are overcome, and that by their owne finfulneffe : for they loofe not the Saintship, when they loofe the victory. The Lord looks at his poorefichildren here Ms Saints, though there be a miferable body of death hang about them, that they cry out, O wretched man that I am, who shall deliver me from this Body of Death, Rom. 7. 24. Yea though they complain of their Pride, and Passion, and Luste, and Hypocrysie, and many oftences they finds against themselves, though they think themselves more shell then any, though they thinks themselves (as Paul did) Canall; fold under stimes of Rom, 7, 17, 3, yet then the Lord accounts them Salam when they are encompassed about with a body of Sin:

Yea which is worse then that, when they give way to their own Sinnes for a time, and doe withdraw their confidence from the Lord in this and that act, and put their troll in the arme of fielh : When they are fo childifh at to truft Popifh pretences when they are warred against, and overcome by enemier, and by their own folly ; as David faith in Pfal, 69. 5. O God, thou knowest my foolishaesse, and my Sinnes are not bid from thee. The Lord knew it, but yet he did not know it to hurr them, and loath them, and dithearten them; but yer they are Saints, and fuch as he account to be his, and not onely in regard of Regeneration, and the holineffe of Chrift, but in regard of the fruits of holineffe begun in them, as he faith, Rev. 14.4. Thele are they which are not defiled with women. They are fincerein their course, and keep faith and a good confcience in the main, and where they do fail, they judge themselves : Indeed in darknesse of Temptation they may be furprised, but they judge themselves for it, and God looks at them as though they were without fault before his Throne: when it comes to the Throne of God, the Lord Jefus covers it with the Robe of his Righteon Ineffe; and in the intentions of their hearts and endeavours they are according to God : if they be carried afide, it is by humane frailty.

Now this is comfort that the Lord accounts them Saints when shey are warred against, (as here in the Text) and all the world thinks it a matter justly deserving Salvation to shed their bloud like water, then doth the Lord beare witnesse this home with him, that it is not every as of anbeleif that maker a man no Saint, for these trusted too much upon the sores of others, and if they had prevaited, for God never falles any that put their crust in him; never do the Saints sail in any expedition to men but when they falle in trust to God, a John 5. 4. This is the utility that overcometh the world, even our Faith : He that belleveth in the Sonne of God for Redemption and Protection, and turnes not affide, whether he go forth with many or with few, it is all one for that a if it were but David with a fling and a ftone, he shall prevaile againk Goliab : The Lord is faithfull, never did any faithfull foul perish till his faith failed and shrunk; and then when Peters faith fhrinks, he begins to finck. But it may be a ground of much confolation to any Saint of God, the Lord doth not diffaint a man, or caft him out of the Catalogue of Saints for this and that failing, but fill they are Saints, a Saint in peace, and a Saint in warre, even when they are overcome; , when they are in calamity, and the plowers plow,upon their backer, and make large furrows, they are the Saints of God. fill leaning to the Voice and Councell of the Lord; and when they stare asside to Popish pretences : Onely when they cleave to the Lord, and truft fleadfastly upon him, then they profper and flourish; but if they begin to shrink in their faith, and to harken to pretences and terms of peace's then wonder not if you fee them overcome, yet all faith is invincible, and their cause and Religion is propagated by their dispertion, it was not deftroyed. And therefore if the Lord accounts us Saints, it behooves us to be ashamed of every passage of our lives that doth not become the Saints of God. When Religion came low, and Antichrift overspread the world, the Lord accounted his faithfull ones to be Saints; in this battel there was a Generation of Saints whom he owns : and therefore how much more should we that live in dayes of peace and liberty, bring forth fruits of holineffe in our conversation, that the Lord may account us his Saints whoever came to make war againft us.

Thirdly, this may ferve to teach us the lawfulneffe of chriflians waging warre in their own just defence. You fee it evident here, the Braft did make warre against the Saints, and did overcome them at length, though at first the Saints overcame them, and killed divers of them; they flood upon their own defence, and it it is not laid to their charge, but fill they are accounted Saints while they make warre : It is true, their confidence in the arme of flesh, and listning to Popish pretences was an argument of weak neffe, and timerousneffe, but it was not their failing to refift: and had they not hearkned to those suggestions brought to them by those that Ive in wait to deceive; had they not leaned to humane policy, and trufted to humane firength, they had certainly prospered. It is true indeed, when the Laws of a State are armed against Religion, though christians be fewer, or more in number, they are to fubmit, and not take up armes ; and that was the constant practice of the Primitive Church, the Laws of the Empire being for Idolatry, they willingly suffered, though they were more then the reft. Or secondly, when the Laws of a State are ordayned for Religion, private christians must lift up their hands, to right the abuse of the Laws, and therefore David being a private person, he would not life up his hand against Saul, the Lords Annointed, though he did against Law. But yet neverthelesse, if the Law be for the maintenance of Peace and Trueth, and true Religion; and Governours and Princes will against Law, and beyond Law. and confequently against the Oath which themselves have taken to maintain the Laws and Religion, if they will make warre against the Sainte, and Religion, and Truth, or against the way of Juftice and happineffe, which they are fworn to maintain; now in fuch a cafe as this, It is as lawfull to take up armes of defence, as it was for thele men to take up war in their own just defence.

Now they are not private persons, but in the place of the Gountry: The Lord he put the power of the sword into the head of their Guides & Leaders where they lived; and though they were by former Lawes engaged by way of Homage, yes now they may take up the sword of their own defence and maintenance, in witnesse bearing to the Truth to the last bloud: In such case the case is much altered, for their Princes and supream Governours, they are all subject to the Laws and Oath of the Kingdome, and they have no power but according to the Lawes which are made: If therefore they take up a power against Law, and contest with the people of God, then this power which these holy men did exercise to maintain their peace against all opposition to be raised against them is lawfull.

For a fourth ute, it may teach all the people of God not to measure a cause by the event, nor persons by accidents that do befall them, less they should condemn the generalism of the Just. It was a grievous temptation Asph layingder, to see the ungodly prosper, and have what their hearts could defire, and himselfe plagued all the day long, and the series were morning, Psal. 73.3, to 132, and by this meanes he coudemned the generation of Gods children: But no matter though the Beast prosper, and the Saints are overcome, yet the Beast is a Beast when he prospers, and the Saints are Saints, though they be overcome; therefore let us not judge of things according to their appearance.

Fifthly, It may teach all the Saints in this Countrey, or where ever, not to truft the pretences of deceitfull men, efpecially such as are not found in Religion, and take heed alfo how you trust upon your own strength (let me put them both together for breviey fake): We know not how foon any of us may be tempted in this kind, what warres may be raised against this Countrey (though wee have none for the prefent, nor feare none) yet in time we know not what may come : what, are we better then our Fathers ? The Beaft of Rome fill lives, his 42. moneths is not yet out (though his power he much weakned) but his Agents still live : He is able to blow a coale to those that look for salvation from him, to do this great and glorious fervice to the Catholick Church and cause : And if it please the Catholick Church. then it grows a great bufineffe to root out Hereticks, to blaft them by censures of Excommunication, and Civill State; if it were fo, we ftand upon our own defence you fee. It behooves you therefore, as you defire to be faithfull to God . to Religion, to your Churches and Common-wealths, to your Wives, Children, Effates, as you defire to be faithfull to his Ordinances, to the Kingly, Prieftly, and Propheticall Office of Chrift, to attend to that which thefe Saints negletted, that is to fay, to attend to the word of Faith, and to the wisdome of God : Trust not upon the experience of your Captaines or Souldiers, to fight by Land or Sea : Trust not upon your Caftles or Vellels by Sea, any thing you have, or may have: Trust not upon the pieces of Ordnance, they are all vaine things to fave if you fland in need (and yet of ufe) Beprepared in this kind, that you may be instrumentall to Gods providence, but trust not in them, they are but the Arm offielh: And if Wars come against New England, ic will be from Principalities and Powers, and flesh and blood will not be able to with-fland them : They will be Principalities from Hell, or the great Beaft, the Catholick Church, or from the Image of this Beaft, otherwise there is no feare of any War: but if any War do come, trust not in those means you have. nor though all the Natives in the Countrey were on your fide : and if any great Protestant States should offer you help. use them, but do not truft in them. It was the way of overcoming the Saints of God, they trufted on the arm of Flesh, and that was their great folly, and that brought the hand of God against them; therefore see your Faith be fincere. and upright to him.

Secondly, Leane not to the wildome of carnall reason, nor truft not to faire pretences, you shall have your liberties longer established, only something or other you must give way to, aud some principall ones must be fingled out to treat of peace, but it was the ruine of this State : It behoves the Saints to fanctifie God in their hearts, to truft upon his grace, to cleave to the word of God; trust what the Lord faith, and not what deceitful men fay : It was a grave faving of an ancient Prince in England; Obey according to the Law. and you obey the King : but if you obey what comes suddenly out of his mouth, or against Law, you obey not me as King : And that is it which Chriftian Religion teacheth; no Religion teaches a man more to obey Kings in wholfome Laws; to obey them, is to obey God in them, for Princes are subordinate to God himselfe. The people do concur in making some Laws in every Common-wealth, and Princes have transcendant power over the People; and God forbid any should spring out of this Countrey to plead against their Governours, and weaken their forces, but keep their Scepters fresh from one Generation to another; yet this is the best service done to Kings. fervice according to God: If Laws be made, let a man vield affive ing afide on any hand or other.

Rev. 12. latter part of the 7. vers.

And power was given him over all Kindreds, and Tongues. and Nations.

TEecomenow to the fourth thing which these words hold forth, and that is the power (or as the Greek word hath it) the authority which is here fayd to be given to the Roman Catholick Church, and that is, over all Kindreds, and Tongues, and Nations.

The note is this.

To the Roman Catholicke visible Church was given very ample Doctio. 4. inifdiction and authority over all the Christian world (if we may fo beake) or as in the Text, over all Kindreds, Tonques, and Nations.

And he meanes Kindreds, Tongues, and Nations of fuch Countreys which were wont to be subject to the Empire of Rome, which were then counted all the Civill Nations of the world.

To open it bricky: It was given bim over all kindreds tongues. and nations.

Here are three words, and one include another: Nation is the largeft; for in a Nation there may be many Tongues, and in one Tongue there may be many Kindreds. He had dominion and foveraignty over all Nasions, or over the ten Kings; that is to fay, the body of Christian Princes, and all the Nations subject to them, they all gave their power unto the Beaff, Rev. 17.17. No nation professed Christianity, but professed also subjection to the Sea of Rome, that is, to the Romon Catholick visible Church : And the Papists are large in this; Bellarmine makes it a 4th, note of the vifible Church. amplitude of power, and he gives fundry instances : Stories are evident, that all Nations did professe this Religion (specially after the subduing of the Waldencer, though they did before) fetting afide that remnant of the womans feed that were fled into the wildernelle ! Now no Nation in Christendid professe other Religion then Popery, especially from the time of Charts the Great, to Charles the fifth', which was a matter of 730. years: There was no visible profession open. unleffe in some fecret corners of the world : no Nation held forth any other Religion then Popish, nor professed subjection to any other Church. Now in every Nation there are or may be divers Tongues, as in England, you have the English, and Welfh, and Cornish Tongues, besides others that are diferenant from Euglish : But he faith not only every Nation but every Tongue, that is, every Language, they all gave their power to the Beaft : And in every Tongue we have meny Kindreds, and there is no man that could ever fay but fome of his kindred have been Popifh, or are Popifh to this day, if not all, yet fome of the anciented, and those the greater part, here is the univerfality of it.

And (I fay) further, he had ample and great power; for to have power over all argues amplitude. It is faid in the beginning of the 8 verf. (which I will take in, and open here) it is faid. They (ball worfbip bim : That's a great power when it doth amount to inward worthip, not civill, but divine worthip. It was divine worthip that he challenged, and all Nations gave him. To give Laws of faith, and worthip, and government to all Churches in Christendom , that was divine power peculiar to the Lord Jefus. It was divine power to challenge tothimfelfe imposition of Kings, and deposition of Kings without confent of the people : To provoke the people to do it whether they liked their Prince or no , this is transcendant above all created power. Besides, it was divine worship they gave, in giving him power over their Consciences, challenging to himselfe (and they also yeelding freely) a power to bind Conscience with the Laws he gave them. to loofe their confciences either from the Laws of God, in matter of Oaths; to loofe them from guilt of finne, to loofe their consciences from Contracts, from Consederacies, this is divine power; They all worthip him, whose names are not written in the booke of the Lamb, and some of them too for a seafon, but they continue not, God opens their eyes to repent ot it, and to xife from under it. It was divine power to chalenge infalibility of Judgment, to judg of Scripture out of it e Oracle of his owne braints: These were all divine worship they give to the Catholick Church, and to the head of it, the Bishop of Rome. So that marrayl not (as the Text saith) there was given, Exasis, Exola not a lame power, but an unlimited power over all people in Church and Commonwealth, and over conscience. There is nothing wherein the Catholick Church had nos power throughout all Christiendonie.

Now further, the Textells you, All this power was given: He did not wholly arrogate this power to him (though he did fo too) but it was given him, though he took it, and took all advantages to get it. No man can receive any thing, except it be given him from above. But he had it given him: Given him, by whom? by God, by the Devill, and given him by Christian Kings, Churches, and Common-wealths, and Families.

First, it was given by God in his just judgment: God gave Reason 1. them up to delusions to believe lyes, 2 Thes. 2. 11. And he gave two reasons why God gave them up to those delusions.

1. To avenge their want of entertainment of the truth in love. Because they received not the love of the truth that they mibble the sweet, vert. 10.12. Because they would not receive Christ, nor the simplicity of his government and worship (in Church-state) therefore God gave them up to Satan, and to the man of sinne, and to the Catholicke visible Roman Church.

a. That they all might be damied that have pleasure in unrighteousnesses, in the same verse. The Lord gave them up therefore to damnable distempers, damnable usurpasions and Ordnances; the Lord gave them up for these two Reasons, and they are one subordinate to another.

Secondly, this power was given by Satan also. For it is faid, The coming of Anichrift shall be after the working of Satan, with all powers, and signer, and sime winders, and with all deceive-ablenesse of sarrighteonsesse, 2 Thet. 2.9, 10. By the efficacy of delusion, which was by the jugling of those great men in O 2

those times, for efficacy of delution is by miracles, to by deceivablenette of unrighteonineffe, which is three-fold ; The fophistry of Schoolmen , the policy of the Canonists that made their Laws out of the Popes decrees, still advancing the Popish Church, and the head thereof, partly by the devotion of Monks and Fryars : And if you aske why Saran did this. there is a double reason of that.

First, to revenge the injury which the Church did him by bringing forth a Man-child, a Christian Emperour to depose him from his glory, wherein he was worthipped as the great God of the world. Now when hee fees hee is cast off from the honour he had, and there was no more place left for bim in beaven. it comes to paffe that he pours forth a flood of barbarous nations and damnable Herefies after the woman, and makes war with the remnant of her feed, Rev. 12. 13. 15.

2. A second Reason that flirred up Satang was out of the ancient enmity against Christ, and the seed of Christ, Gen. 2 15. I will put enmity between thy feed and bet feed, which is Chrift : and all the feed of Chrift, which are both publique and private Christians, he hath an inveterate enmity against them all ; and therefore he gives the Church of Rome all the power that Pagan Rome had.

The third fort of givers of this large power to this Beaf.

and the head of it, the Pope was.

The voluntary devotion of Christian Princes and States. They did voluntarily refign themselves up, and their Kingdoms, and States, and Churches, and Common-wealth, and Consciences and all, to the obedience of the Sea of Rome. Rev. 17. 17. They with one accord gave their Kingdomes to the Beaft ; God put it into their hearts to do it ; that is true, bus they were left of God, and acted by Satan, and fo were they brought about to give this power unto the Braft. Some were brought unto this by the Popes favour, and large gifts he beflowed upon them.

Charles the Great had his Empire from the Bishop of Rome. and translated it from Constantinople to France, and Germany, and therefore he had reason to stand to the Authority that fet him up. And the ten Kings of Christendom that rose upon the demolition of the Grecian Empire, which was then called the Enpire of Rome, their absolute authority did much depend upon the Bishop of Rome; if the Grecian Empire had not yeelded, they had been liable in conscience to restore theleten Kingdoms: In point of State-policy, they had caule to be much observant to the Pope : But that is not all, for they could never have done it, had not the Subjeds yeelded : And what moved them ? Truly they were all taken with the Religion of the man of finne: That flood of Herefies and Abhominations which the Catholick Church did hold forth (as in a cup of poyfon to the world) thefe earthly fort of Christians (wallowed it all up. They were carnall, and yes superflitions and devout : Carnall, for want of saving grace and regeneration : And devout, for then generally Christians lay under the terrour of the Law, as in Rev. 9.5, 6. The locufts came in, which were the Fryars and Monkes, and they had this power to fling their Confciences even to the death, that a man would give all he had for pardon of finne : Now having power to fling mens Confciences, but not to heale them; to kill, but not to make alive, they were now fitted to receive the Impression of the Popish Religion; and that religion to men fo qualified and disposed, was fit to heal them overly, and to skin the wound, of Conscience; and there are three things in that Religion that helped to ekinne over the Conscience.

1. The fuitablenesse of it to humane and naturall sences.

2. To carnall naturall reason.

3. To naturall Conscience.

For these three concur, and that strongly in this Religion. to carry all Chriffendome after it.

First, for naturall fense : All that have travayled into Popish Countreys know that their Religion is composed to neturall fence.

I. To fatisfie the eyes with goodly Images, and Pictures, and gorgeous Temples, and Veflures, that young and old are taken with these goodly spectacles.

2. For the eares; you know in their Cathedralls what curious musique they have, both vocall and infirumentall. 3. For

3. For the inell, you have incente and incer perfumit to entertaine you.

4. For the case, you have double Feasts and folemo Peasts.

many Feafts full of luxury and syot.

5. For the Touch a there is to leration of Stews, to give up their names to Stews: They will not fuffer men to live, unlesse they give up their names to be free of such unclean houses: And if you commis any lewdnesse, then it is easie to come off with some light penances; and offecially the purse, that will doe all. These things marvellously please the sense.

Secondly, for naturall Reason, it suits marvellously with natural reason.

1. To hold forth an historical & implicite faith, Historical the Devils may have: and implicite, for a man to believe as the Church believes, and hee believes this Faith hath power to quench all temptations of the Devill.

3. To hold forth such a repentance as confifts in Contrition, Confession, and Satisfaction; Judas reached all this: For contrition, his heart was humbled in sence of his sinne. For confession, I have sinned in betraying innocent blood: And for satisfaction; He brought again the thirty pieces of silver; He would not meddle, nor make with them.

3. To hold forth such an obedience as a man may be able to perform and keep the whole Law of God, which he thinks to be easie. And this doth please natural! Sence to work our own falvation.

To hold forth pardon of fin for money, and for holdly

4. To hold forth pardon of fin for money, and for bodily exercises.

5. Uncertainty of Salvation.

6. Such a frame of Church-government at keepeth all in a politick order and unity: That all Popish Churcheshe fubordinate to such a Bishop, as he is to some Meeropolitan, and they to some Primate, and all to the Bishop of Rome, And why? From one unity ascends, and it is good to keep unity: And so to look at a mans selfe as unworthy to come into the presence of God, and to call upon upon Chrift, and therefore manners would make a man cleave to fome ht-Saints or the Saints, and they shall present their prayers to Christ, and Christ to the Father, which is very plausable to naturall reason: And for our Fathers which grew zealous of that Religion, we should not damn them to hell, Reason shous that.

Thirdly, for naturall Conscience; it will counter-work with God, and walk in equipage with God all the way, that is to say, for a man to look to find according to his works, natural Conscience hath this in Nature, it is ingrasted in nature from the God of Adam, from his Ordinance in Nature, or the rudements of it restored.

1. Election of Faith, or works forefcen.

2. Redemption of all men alike.

3. Conversion by the power of free will. This is in the natures of all men, by the very Law and works of Nature.

4. Juftification by works, naturall Conscience distates that; De this and thou foalt live; do it not, and thou dost forfeir the favour of God; but receive it, and thou half fellowship with God.

5. Perfeverance by our owne endeavours.

6. Glorification by merits of works.

All these suit with natural Conscience, that Conscience is satisfied if the work be accomplished; if not, then they make satisfied if the work be accomplished; if not, then they make satisfied in: If they faile in these works by giving way to this or that arrogance that the work is not compleat, then Conscience hangs in some dispence and demur: And if they cannot satisfie all in this world, yet they should do what they can by giving to this and that good use, and do pennance for their sinne: And if all faile, they may make satisfiaction in Purgatory, and not sink downe to the nethermost Hell: These things be very acceptable to natural Conscience. Thus we see show it comes to passe, that to this Beast was given authority and power over all Kindreds, Tongues, and Nations.

Obj. You will say to me, But doth not this crosse some other Text, in Rev. 5. 9. where it is said, the Lord hath redeemed his people out of every Kindred, and Tongue, and Nation? If the Pope bad this power over ever) Kindred, Touque, and Nation, where flands Chrifts redemption?

An w.

I answer, for Christa Redemption, it is some out of every Kindred, Tongue, and Nation, whose names are written in the Lambs booke of life , but it was but a remnant : There is at this time a remnant according to the Election of Grace, Rom. 11. 4. But otherwise all Kindreds, Tongues, and Nations have been swallowed up by the usurpation of this Beaft, and by their subjection to him : So that Chriff hath his number out of all thefe ; but it is the Beaft that carryes away the body of them, for that feason especially : He did rule over them by a kinde of facred Authority, in the consciences of men, because he had this absolute power in Churches, a great power for 1260. years together : whether you reckon from Conftantines time, or Theodofine his time, he had a marvellous power in Kingdomes, Nations, and Common-wealths. But notwithstanding he had this power in those times, yet Christ kept the intereft in his own chosen, as in Rev. 14. 1. where he had 144000, that were footleffe virgins. Anfo, 2. The Lord Jefus will at length challenge all his own, purchase them into his own hand, when as the calling of the Temr, all the Kingdomes of the world shall be given to the Saints of the most high, Dan . 7. 26, 27. The Lord will take them all into his own hand, and power and jurisdiction. but he must first throw down this enemy that hath usurped over his purchased possession : But in the mean time this Beaft (wallows up all for fo many Ages together.

For the use of the point. First, it may be to refute the Papists that give this as a true note of the Church, namely, amplitude of dominion, as the Catholick Church had : They give this for an infallible note of the Church; now that note you fee is here evidently afcribed to the people that worship the great Beast, of whom the Lord faith here (ver. 8.) their names are not written in the booke of the Lamb. So that this is a note, not of an Apostolicall Church, but it may be a note of an Apostaticall Church that is fallen away from the Apostles Doctrine : It is a true description description of that State of the Church. You fee here Power was given over to the Beaft over all Kindreds, Tongues, and Natiens : And therefore amplitude of dominion is not an infeperable character of the Spoule of Christ; for it may be given to those that are not the Church of Christ, even to those that are but a Beaff in the fight of God, not his Spouse. may rather say the contrary, that amplitude of Dominion was never a note of a Church of Christ fince the world began : For in the old Teffament the State of the Church was Nationall, and they had power over one Nation, and sometimes conquered others, as in David, and Solomons time, they conquered the Philiftims, & Ammonites, and Moabites, and Edomites, but it was never over all the whole world, and that dominion which they had, they did not challenge it by Church power, but left them fill to their own Religion, for the Commonwealth propagated their power by arms, having first occasion of warre given them by their arrogance to them. In the dayes of the new Testament, the Church that Christ instituted reacheth no further then to their own members, and their own members reach no further then to one Congregation. that all might hear, and all might be edefied, 1 Cor. 14.23. So that if Church power extends no further then the bounds of one Congregation; then that Church that (welleth and firecheth forth her power all the world over, Kindreds, and Tongues, and Nations; what an out-ragious swelling Beaft is that , that reacheth fuch vast dominion beyond the proportion that the Lord gave to his Church ? If you should fee a body swell to such a vast bignesse, that his armes shall reach from one end of the world to another, would it not be counted a monfter ? So in this cafe, the Lord hath limited the power of the Church within it felfe; it is a great power that they have, but not fo great as to binde conscience, unless it be Ministerially, and so they have power to binde Kings in chains, and Nobles in lincks of Iron; but to have power, judiciary power over the Scriptures, and over the conscience, over and above the application of the word; it is fuch as the Lordnever gave to any Church, but it is arrogated, and usurped by the man of Sinne. R

Use 2.

Secondiv. is may lerve to reach you the pronenelle of your natures to the which is evill, above that which is favingly and spiritually good. This power over all Kindreds, and Tongues, and Nations, the Lord halb purchased by his death. Rev. 4. 6. He dyed and rofe againe that be might be Lord both of quick and deed, Rom. 14. 9. And upon his refurrection, all power was given him in Heaven and Earth, Mat. 28, 18. He prayed for this power, and the Lord promifed to give him is. Pfal. 2.8. Alke of me, and I will give thee the Heathen for thine Inheria rance; and the uttermeft parts of the Earth for thy Poffession. This hath the Lord bought with his pretious bloud, and paid for by the power of his eternall, Spirit; and yet never did the Lord Jefus enjoy this power to this day, which the man of Sinne hath enjoyed for fo many years together. He will enjoy it at lenght, when he shall call in the Jews, and with them the fulnelle of the Gentiles, and reigne in Soveraigne Authority both in Church and Common-wealth, according to all the Councell of his word and will : But yet it was never known to this day that fo many Nations did submit their thrones to the Dominion and Government of Christ. and to the Truth of Christ, and to worship him with the fervance of God, notwithfranding the purchase which Christ hath made of this Soveraignty, and notwithstanding the efficacy of his prayer for obtaining this power, that hee might have dominion over all. As foon as Conftanting brought the world to become Christian, the woman the fled into the Wilderneffe ! The true worshippers of Christ were foon troden under the hatches, a mountaine of corruption in Church Government overwhelmed them amain that you cannot fet the eime when fo many Nations ferved him , and were as ready to take up arms in his quarrell, as they have done for the man of Sinne. You will fay, did they not for the recovery of the holy

You will fay, did they not for the recovery of the holy Land, many Churches configure and lay their heads together, and engaged themselves for this Warre? why, when they they undertook that Warre, was it. Christ that commanded any such thing, that Churches should engage themselves, and their Estates, and Lives, and Souls, and all for the recovery of the holy City 3. Was It not meerly undertaken by the Bishop of Rome; and by the motion of the Catholick Church in a Generall Councell? The Roman Catholick Church met in a Generall Councell, and they agreed to set about this expedition; They promised pardon of Sinne to the prople, and in hope of that, and such like things they went about it. It was service to the Beast, not to Christ: God never acknowledgeth it as any service to Christs Kingdome: It was for the advancement of the head of the catholick Church; but as any grew more wise, they grew more afraid of them.

So that it is a wonder to fee; never did the the Christian world give that Authority to Christ, as they have done unto the Pope, and his Inflitutions, which are not Ordinances of Christ. Yea let me fay another word (which is above what I faid:) It hath been a very rare and fingular cafe when any man would acknowledge a particular visible Church, decending on no power, but Independant within it felfe : It is fuch a rarity that a man may here and there indeed finde it in times of perfecution (in 3000. years) : But after the Church cime to peace, it is very rare to heare fuch a matter till you come down to the Waldences, and Albedences, and those poor Churches that were fcattered in the Wilderneffe. It is very hard to finde the Church of Christs Institution to remain in the world, whereas this Roman Catholick Church reigns in the world: This is a great power, and yet this power the Church of Rome had. The Harlot reigns over Kindreds, Tongues, and Nations, whereas the true Spoule of Christ hath scarce a subsistance in the world.

So that confider, if it did not Imite with our hearts to close with the Inventions of men, with Istanicall power rather then with Christ, it were not possible there should be such aberations from the Institutions of Christ, were it not for the impetuous licenticularly of the hauts of the Sonnes of men. And therefore when there is such a wast swelling, that many Congregations shall be but one Church; how shall we go home edefied by such discourse? This belonges to all the Churches, to take the opportunities that we have; that we may not runne headlong upon the doctors of men, min " or our owne wits, to that which is fuitable to fence, and naturall reason, and walking according to the light of maturall conscience. Conscience was never so corrupt as in corrupt nature it is; and reason never so blinde as in corrupt nature it is , and sence never so luxurious. A man is ready to please sence, his pallar, his noffrile, his eve, and hand, and touch, and naturali reason, and conscience, a manis marvellous free that way ; To free, that the leffe a man difcerne it. the more he is captivated to it. And therefore let every man know that we carry about with us a principle of subjection of our selves to the Ordinances of men rather then to Christ. If it be to foeak to our owne honour and applause, we have words at will, and hearts that runne full ftream that way ; If it were to fet out our felves, or our friends, we are open hearced, and open mouthed that way : but if it shall be to give glory to God, in the presence of a particular visible Church of Christs Institution, there we are marvellous unwilling to submit to edific our brethren, and glorific God. If it were to an Ordinance of man, it is a wonder to fee how men will runne and ride to give fatisfaction to this and that Episcopal Court higher, and lower, and clear all scores there, that we may not be debarred of Christian buriall, or Church Communion, though it may be we cannot have it with mixture of corruption, and can scarse close with it, especially those that are enlightned :

But when we come to fanctifie God, & his praise, and holding forth our own shame, there is an inward principle in us to consider whether it stands with our honour, and credit, with our peace, and safety; a world of carnal reason and conscience will worke together in this case, and inwardly so reply, and muzzle the hearts and consciences of men, that it is a wonder to see what shifting and daubing there is, which they willingly give up themselves to, when they are called abous the inventions of the Sons of men.

Thirdly, it may eeach us, if the whole world have runthus mad and wild, to give their Crowns and Scepters, Churches, Common-wealths, and conficiences, to have power put upon all these of their own choise by the man of Sinne, every kindreds dred, Tongue, and Nation : what a shame will it be if we be not as truely devout in our Religion ? as it is faid of Cornelius, Alls 10. 1. He was a devout man, a Godly man given up to God & So should we give up our selves to the Lord, and facrifice our credit, and profit, and whatever wee have to the Lord. There have been men that have been content to forfit all their Kingdomes to the man of Sin ; The Emperours in Germany have given their Crowns; The Kings of Eugland, King John in his time did as much to the Popes Legat : And it hath been frequent with him, to fet the Crowns upon their heads, and dash them down with his feet : These 42. moneths it hath been frequent with them to give up their Crowns to him, but much adoe to runne any hazard for Christ, though a petty jurisdiction : And yet none did ever truely runne hazard for the Lord, but the Lord took up their Crowns, and maintayned their cause and honour, and recoverd what honour they loft.

David by making known his Adultery, and by his repentance for it, did recover what Power and Authority he might feem to loofe in the hearts of his fubjects : It is true, he had loft his Kingdome, but was it for his Repentance? No, but for his natural affection to his rebellious Sonne Absolam, and his inceftuous Sonne Amnon, that should have been cut off : He loft his Crown, not for his Repentance, but for want of executing the Law of God upon his own children, as upon others, there was his Sinne : otherwise had he executed judgement upon his rebellious Sonne Absolom, as the Lord required (thou shalt pluck him from mine Altar, that Rebell) he had not loft his Kingdome : But if so be his naturall affection over-rule him, that he doe not execute judgement, then no marvaile though they cast him out of his Kingdome, and cut his throat at length, if God doe not come between, as he did to David : But belive it, no man did ever loofe by fandifying God in his heart, by giving honour to him, and taking shame to himselse : The Lord hath maintained peace in the conscience, & hash given it when it hath bin wanting, and the Lord hath been pleased to sandifie their names, as they have fandified his before men ; whoever shall be afhamed of me.

our haires, and yet he numbers our haires, and all the comforts of the world are not answerable to it : trust him with it, as he that is faithfull, and he will certainly provide that nothing shall be lost commit your souls to him as to a faithful Creator; and the Lord finding his name fandifiedin it bifore the people, he will certainly fanctifie us and our names before them as we fanctifie his. Let us veild up onr felves to the service of his Kingdome: when men have been contrary minded, the Lord hath purfied themorith fearful judgements. You know the cafe of Nadob and Abibu, Lev 10. 1. They came before God with strange fire, and the Lord make a firange worke, and confumer them with fire. Annewis and Saphira that dealt decentfully with the Chunche fome para they delivered, but kept back pare of their fulftance : what followed followed mon that? The Lord ftruck them dead; you will fay, those were in those dayes in which God was neere to his Church. Beleive ir, the Lord is as neere to his Church now (though not in miracles as then, there needs not miracles now:) The Lord will confirme his Truch, Rev. 2, 23. All the Churches shall know, that I am he which searchesh the reignes and hearts, and I will give to every one of you according to your morkes : As men deal subtilly , he will deal subtilly a with the faithful, with plain hearted, with conscionable men. he will deat faithfully, and all the Churches hall know it: the Lord will not have his judicature in his Church biffed down with partiall, and Annanias his confession. The Lord will fet his face against those men, and cut them off from the land of the living, that fhall dif-regard his throne and Crown. And therefore it behooves all men whom it may at any time concern, to fanctifie his name; My fonne give glory to God, and tellme what thou haft done, John 7. 19. And he ingenuouilly tells him from first to last, which no body ever could tell : but faith hee, I fa wamong the spoiles a goodly Babilonish Garment, and two hundred sheekels of Silver, and a wedge of Gold of fifty sheckels weight, then I covered them, and to k them; well faith he, thou halt troubled I frael, and the Lord shall crouble thee : but yet this acknowledgement was the valley of Actor for a door of hope (Hof. 2. 15.) for their prosperity, and victory over all their enemies. So that if all Nations and Languages be thus ready to fubmie to the inventions of men, how justly doth the Lord challenge due subjection to his will, to sanctifie him in our hearts, to throw down our Crowns (if we have them) at his seet, and glad we may do so. It is evident, Rev. 4. 10. that all the Church, (the four Officers, and 24. Elders) they all cist their Crowns down before him: Though they all did weare Crowns, all had Authority, yet they cast them all down at his seet, when they came before him that sate upon the throne, and before the Lambe: There they stooped; In the presence of Christ they threw down their Soveraignthey; and let the name of Christ be magnified, and his Ordinances have free passage, but for them let their honour fall down.

Lastly,

Laftly, let it learn us thus much, to take to heart in thefe dayes the effate of our Ancestors and Fathers of old in those daves : For if every Kindred have worthipped the Beath then thy Kindred have done it, or Ancestors. We speak not in dederifion of them, but they have all done it, the body of them (though here and there fome may be left out) and all their power they have given to the Beaft, to rule Families, Churches, and Common-wealths, and all our Kindred, and efpecially our Tongues have done it; not onely those that speak Dutch and Spanish, but we have been more devoted then any Christian Nations, in giving such vast revenues, and Monasteries . and fo large devotion to the man of finne, none have been so devout as English : It is incredible to tell the great payments they made to the Pope, it is not to be numbred, And if all Tongues have submitted to the Beast, then they that fpeak Englift, as well as those that speak Scottift, or Welft, or Brittifb, the body of all Kindreds if not to this day.

It must therefore humble us in regard of this their sinne, which will be set upon our score, unlesse the Lord humble us for it: the contagion of thier sinn reaches to us, and his jealousie wil cut off root & branch. Gods jealousie is kindled by Images and supersitions; I will visit the iniquities of their Fathers upon their children: men may suffer much for their Ancestors, and for their kindred, Tongues, and Nation. And therefore it behoovs us all to be humbled for the sinne of our Ancestors; and they hoped to be saved by the intercession of Saints, &c.

This provokes the jealousse of God. Therefore if we would not have our teeth set an edge by these sour Grapes, it behooves us to be humbled, that the intaile of Gods curse may be cut off from us though it lay heavy upon them that went before us.

Rev. 13.8.

And all that dwell on earth shall worship him whose names are not written in the booke of life of the Lamb, &C.

Ou have heard that upon the recovery and healing of the wounded head of the Catholick Church, fundry effects followed; the Dragon gave unto the Beaft a four fold power, Power to fpeak great things, power to continue and to be active 42. moneths, power to make warre with the Saints and to spercome them; Power of foveraignty and Authority over all Kindreds, Tongues, and Nations, and that even to worthip, that all that dwell on the Earsh shall wor ship him. believing as the Church believes, and neither more nor leffe, submitting themselves in conscience to all their decrees, and expeding their falvation in the fellowship of that Church, which is divine worthip peculiar onely to the Lord Jefus. the words now read, you have these that worship the Beaff. that is, that give this divine honour to the Catholick Church. to believe as they believe, to submit their consciences to the power of this Beaft, taking up all their observations for worhip, for Government from them, not from God, and look ing for their falvation in reconcilement with this Church; I fay thele men that doe thus worship this Beaft, they are described here by their flate, by their spirituall and eternall flate; that is to fay, they are described by a deniall of their elect estate, and that is express in a deniall of the proper adjunct of that flate, and that is, the writing of their names in the Lamba book of life, for that is the proper adjunct of all the elect people of God, that their names are written in the book of life of the Lamb; these men men therefore being denied this proper adjunct of an elect flate , they are the refore here described by their damnable condition and state; now this therefore is here predicated of them all, that their names are not written in the booke of the life of the Lambe, who ever they be that worthip this Beaft; and he faith, All did worthip bim, fave only onely they wise names were written in the Lambes booke of life: They that did worthip the B. att, had not their names written in the Lambs book of life. So then this book in which their names are faid not to be written, it is let forth by the end, and by the fubject of it.

1. By the end, It is the Book of life: Not that it was a living book, but because they that are written in that book, are written unto life, that they may live to eternity to grace and glory.

2. It is described by the Cubject, It is the Lambs Book of life ; either he is the possessor of it, God giving it to him that he might take notice of all the names therein, and keep them fafe to falvation : or elfe he is the fubject of it, as being the first and principall person who is written in it; for he of old hath been oblerved to be the head and cheif of the elect of God, in Epbel. 1. 4. He bath cholen us in him before the foundation of the world, therefore he chose him full, and us in him, as he is well pleafed, fuft with Chrift, and in Chrift with us, Mat. 3. 17. whether you freak of Gods everlasting complacency, or of the manifestation of it in effectuall vocation, it is in Christ that he is well pleased; fif with Christ, and in his name with us; fo he is faid to be fore, ordained before the foundation of the world, 1 Pet. 1.20. So therefore it is faid to be the book of the Lamb, the Lambs booke of life, because that the book is given to him, and because also that he is the principal person, that is first, and primarily, and fundamentally written in this book. fay it is fiff given to him , as if all the persons that Godintends life unto, he did give them as it were in a scroul or book to the Lord lefus, (but of that I shall speak a little more by and by.) In the mean time I fpeak now to the Analysis of the Text ; but if you shall not traffice it, whose names are not written in the Lambs Book of life (but as it is here and indeed fo it holds in the Originall) the Book of life of the Lambe ; Though it be the like fence, then it may hold out a further notion and medication, and that is this.

1. That the Lambe is the subject of that life whereof it is said, it is the Book of life of the Lamb.

2. He is the Author of it, to the ekel people of God, în John 14.19. that holds forth both that he is that life to us: Chrift 20 GodChap, 13.

God-man is the fubject of this fpirituall and eternall life; and his man-hood, fo receives it as a common veffell to all his elect members, and because he lives, we shall live also, therefor the is the Author both of giving and preferving this life to his heavenly Kingdome.

Now by this Lambe, I need not tell you is meant Christ the Limbe, without fot, John 1. 29. We are redeemed by the precione . bloud of Christ as of a Lambe without fot, 1 Pet. 1. 19. This Lambe is here described by his suffering which was flain, was put to death, a violent death : and that fuffering of his is amplified by the ancient vigour and officacy of it, fain from the beginning of the world.

Now the note that first offers it felfe from this verfe is this.

That fuch whose names are written in the lambs book of life. Dallr. 1. they all and they onely are preserved from the worship of the Beaft : For here it is faid, That all that dwell upon the Earth shall worship bim, saving they whose names are written in the Lambes Book of life, they hall not worthin him; but all whose names are not written in the book of the life of the Lambe, they shall worship the Beast : So then they whose names are written in the Lamber book of life, they doe not worship him, (for if their names be written there, they are expressy exempted ;) but they that doe worship him, they are said not to have their names written in the Lambes book of life : So that fuch whose names are written in the Lambes book of life, they and all they, and they onely are preferred from the worthip of the Braft. It is a speech to the like purpose that you read in Rev. 17. 8. and upon the like occasion : The Beast that thou sames was, and is not, and shall a scend out of the bottomelesse pit and go into perdition, and they that dwell on the Earth Bull wonder (whose names were not written in the Book of life from the foundation of the world, &c.) They admire and adore him, where he cells you of an ancient act, hee doth not tell here when it was written, there he doth, that ancient book wherein from the foundation of the world they were written, and therefore before the world such as were written in the Lambes book of life, were lockt up to be preferved from the adoration of the Beaft, and S 2

all the reft were lett to worship the Braft.

Chap. 12.

For opening this point, here a Quellion or two may be moved for explication of the termes of the Doctrine (which have

Queft. 1. Then it may be demanded, what is this Book of life? Answ. You read in Scripture of fundry books according to which our eternali flate flands or falls (if I may fo call them) that are faid to be opened at the judgement day, whether at the last judgement, or some representation of the last judgement, it is all one for the Dodrine : In Rev. 20, 12, it is favd. When the Thrones were fet the Books were opened; and another book, which is the Booke of life : So here is one book, according to which, his Saints were judged, besides the booke of life, but that also was opened. These bookes are truly observed by others, to be first the book of Gods Providence, in Pfal, 129. 16. which is also called in Mal. 2. 16. the booke of Gods Remembrance, wherein he takes notice of all persons and actions : that is, keeps as exact account of them as if they were written before him in a book, which day by day were fashioned, oc. In the providence of God there was a deliniation of all greatures and actions that should come to passe. There is truly also the booke of conscience; for also in that God registers all our actions, according to which we shall be judged, te conscience bearing witnesse about our persons and actions, so farre as they are enlightned by God. And you read also of another booke; The word that I have spoken, that shall judge them at the last day , John 12. 48. he will judge all the world by it , Rom. 2. 16. In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by fesus Christ according to my Gofpel: Thefe books will be opened; the booke of Gods Providence, the booke of the Scripture, and the book of conscience, by which we shall be judged.

But there is also the booke of Life, by which wee shall be judged, in Rev. 10. 12. Now for the book of life that hath a double exception in Scripture, for sometimes is is put for the Church register, in which all are registred, as those that were the living in Jerusalem. Isa. 4.3. It is said, Every one that semaineth in Hierusalem shall be called boly, even every one that is written among the living in Mierusalem: Or as the word is in the margent or bigger Bibles written, To life in Hierufalem; In the Originall it is capable of both confiructions, Every man capable of life is written in Hierufalem:

There is a book written of them that live there, of which is is faid, Pfal. 87. 6. the Lord will recount when he writerh up the people, that this or that man was born there : Of this book alfoyou read in Ezek. 13.9. where the Lord doth threaten the false Prophets, that his hand shall be upon them that see vanity, and devine lyes; they shall not be as members of my prople, nor shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel; they shall neither have fellowship with Church nor Common-wealth : There is a writing, therefore a Register. a Record of them, which in the Old Testament were counted Geneologies, and very carefully did they keep them; that if they could not flew their pedigree from this Geneology, they were as polluted. Egra 2, 59, as also verf. 62. where he tells you of fundry that came in among the people of I frael; but because they could not find their names in the Register, they were left afide till they could finde further proof of their pedigree; they might be received as other Profelytes, but not as native Hraelites, who were counted of the Church from the line of their Parents, and fome of the fonnes of Barzilli , fome of the Prieffs, they thought it more honour to fetch their pedigree from their father Barzilli, whom David had advanced to fit at his Table; and they thought it more honour to be counted of the house of Barzilli, then of the order of Aaron : And they, when they would have presented themselves to the Priefts office, they were not received : why ? because they were not found in the Churches Register, and they had no direction from the Word to take Noble mens fons to be Priefts, but only of the fone of Aaron: So this is the book of Life, it is called The writing of the living in Hierusalem ; This is the book of life, the Church-book, it is nothing but a counterpane of the book of life, but not exactly agreeing to it; fometimes we put in more then God doth , and sometimes leffe : There be that belong to life whom we do not receive : Others they do not present themselves, or we do not receive through some failings in them or us ; but if they belong to life, they are written in the Lambt book of life, they may not be writsen in the Church book ; but this is not the book here fooken of the book of the life of the Lamb : The Church is the body of the Lamb, but they cannot difcern who are his : The Lord knows who are bis, fo do not we, nor the members of the Church , therefore you heare here of a diffinct booke of the Lambs book of life, of which book it is expresty written. Rev. 20. 15. That whofoever was not found written in the Lambs book of life, was cast into the lake of fire.

All men therefore that are written in the book of Life, or in the book of the Lamb, they are written to life. Now this we cannot fay of the Church-book; for as bath been observed of ancient time, there are many wolves within, and many fleep without : Sometimes the Church bath caft out her moft precious members, both Officers and Members. fad experience hath made it true in our times, therefore that is not a certaine rule, that if a man be left out of the Church, he is left everlaftingly, unleffe there be fuch concempt of mear a of grace, as in those whom the Lord hath branded for such whom he takes no pleasure in to eternity : For it is faid, who. ever was not found written in the Lambs book of life was call into the take of fire : Therefore this is some other then that booke of the Church : What book is that I no other but the eternal! record and register of Gods election, that is, the Lambe book. whoever is not found, he is indeed caft out into the lake of fire, being faut out from falvation by Christ, and then what hope of falvation is there in himfelfe?

Now ofthis book it is, of which Mofes speaks, Exe. 22.22, If thou wilt not for eine the fin of thy people, then blot me out of the book which thou haft written; not which the Church hath written. but which thou haft written, which the Lord hath written of life in Chrift, in which the Lord hath written all the names of his Elect : This is the book out of which hee defires to be blotted out of: fuch was the extafie, I cannot fax of his zeale. but he was filled with fuch ardent zeale, that rather then fuch a reproach should be cast upon God, that he was not able to bring them to the Land of Canaan, let him be blotted out of the book which he had written, let damnation it felfe fall upon him, rather then the name of the Lord should be repros-

ched by the uncircumcifed Heathens; and in that sence Paul wilheth himselfe separate from Christ, for bu breihren, bis kinfmen according to the fleft, Rom. 9.3. He doth not fay, he would be call out of the Church; but he found, that zeale for the whole Church , and for the Lord Jefus, that rather then the Gospel of Christ should be hindered, if it may stand with Gods liking, he could rather with fuch a wretch as he should be cutoff, then that the whole body of his people should be cast off : This is the Lambs book of Life, called the book of Life, not because the Lord flands in need of a book, but because those whom in his eternall purpose he hath decreed to save, his unchangeable purpofe doth fixe them as fast in his remembrance, as if they were written in a book before him : For that end his decree hath taken fuch particular notice of them , that if they were written in a book before him, they could not be more fledfafily and particularly recorded.

It is a phrase borrowed from men, that when they would remember fuch a man, or fuch a freind, they fet them down in a booke; God flands not in need of books, but his clear, and everlasting love to them is such, that they are engraven as on the palmes of his hands, as the Shew-bread was prefent before the Lord continually, which represented the 19. Tribes, that his eye might be upon them from one end of the week to another, and the word which the Septuagints ule for Shew-bread it is translated as the word which the Apolle uleth, Rom. 8. 28. and the Greeke Translators and Hebrew expresse it, it is the bread of Gods purpose, or of Gods face, and what is his purpofe ? it is not with him as it is with us, that whiles we foeak of one man, we forget another; but his purpose is alwayes the fame; and these being the bread of Gods purpose, they are ever before him from one end of the week to another, and from one end of the year to another, now that is the meaning of the Quellion, what is the Booke of life? It is the booke of Gods eternall election, that is, it is the register or record of the names of all whom God hath chosen to life and salvation in Christ.

Aufp. First, because the Lord harn given this booke to Chrift and all the names of his cleet by name to be brought to falvation and kept in a flate of falvation to imortality, and sherefore you shall read in Scripture, when God puts forth an eternall love to his people, wrought eternall falvation for us I mean when he did eternally elect us to grace and glory in this eternall election of his there was accompanying an eternall donation in giving them to Christ, Christ knew his fathere counfel from eternicy, and the Lord gave them to Christ by him to be brought, and he undertaking that they shall be brought to falvation, the Lord requiring that he should keep them to immortality; he shall work the means and apply the fame effectually to the end of the world : This is evident from those Scriptures that speak of the grant, and of the gift of them to Chrift before their effectuall calling, though donarion go before that; for from that love of God by which he gives us to Christ in our effectuall calling, he gives us Christ. and faith to receive Christ; but before this, there is a giving, a donation of us to Chrift, as John 6. 37. All that the Father giweth me, shall come anto me; So this coming to Christ is believing on Chrift, and it is to exprest in ver. 35. He that cometh to me fall never bunger, and be that beliveth on me fall never thirft: To come to Chriff, is to belive on his name; thus much doth hee expresse himselse ; that all that the Father giv him in his eternall counsell, they shall come unto him, to wit, in effectuall calling him : the Father will draw none but whom in his eternall counsell he bath given to Chrift; and whom be drawes, I will not caft out, in ver. 37. to 44. So then when this act of Gods eternall election paffed on those whose persons are defigned to grace and glory, hee gave all by name to the Lord Jesus, as if they were particularly registred in a booke : And he promised, that in fulnesse of time, he would'draw them to him, and required that the Lord Jefus should keep them under his wing to imortality; it is called therefore the Lambs booke of life, because he is the subject receptive of it.

Answ. 2. And again, it is called the Lambs booke of life. because he is the head of all Gods elect; they are all elect in him, not befides or out of him, not as advally believing in him, for it is long before any work of ours, Rom. 9. 11. Not of worker, but of him that calleth, the children being not yet born, neithen baving done good or evill, that the purpofe of God according to e. lection might stand. Election is before any worke of ours, God gives us in his eternall councell to Christ, but we are not then in him by faith; faith is an effect of our election, not the cause of it : As many as were ordained to eternall life believed, Ade 12. 46. 48. But this is the thing; It is a true diftinction that some give in that case; we are in Christ, not by actuall existence in beleiving; nor as so considered, but by virtuall comprehension : the Lord looks at us as in him, we are not in him by faith; but the Lord comprehending us in his everlafting decree, we are in him by Gods charter, even children not born, the Lord hath wrapped us in his everlafting armes, in his electing love, promiting in time to give us faith to beleive on him, and therefore to come to him, and to give him to us that wee may live in his fight; therefore it is the Lambs book of life as he is the fonne of man, the fonne of the Virgin Mary, to be united to the second person in Trinity, long before his humane nature was in being.

Answ. 2. And it is called also the book of the life of the Lambe; if you have respect of referring to Christ this life, then vou take Chrift as he is the subject of this life, in Jobn 14. 19. Because I live, you shall live also; I live, and then you live : and he is the author, the efficient, the procreant, and confervant cause of life in us to eternity; the Lord hath given us eternall life, and this life is in his fon; He that bath the fonne bath life, 1 7ohn 5. 12. So you fee the meaning of thefe words, these persons that are thus given to Christ, elect vessels to grace and glory that are given to Chrift, they are preserved from the worship of the Beast, and none but they, they onely ; for this purpose you read that false Christs (whereof Antichrift is cheif) Mat. 24.24. They (ball deceive many, yea if it were possible the very elect : It implies thus much, that none of them shall be deceived by all falle Christs, but all others shall be deceived; earthly minded men, and fuch whose names are not written in the Lambes book of life, they shall be deceived, the

Verf. 8 An Exposition upon Chap. 13. Beaft fall go into perdition, and they with bim, Rev. 17. 8. Not but that for a time they that are Gods elect may be taken with a fond admiration and adoration of the Braft, to beleive as the Church of Rome believes, and may look for peace of confcience from the dispensations of the Church of Rome : it may be fo as Bilney and Latimer, that were marvellous devout to that Church ; though it pleased God that Bilney, you may read it in his Epiffle to Bishop Tonftall, that being troubled in conscience, he had taken all the courses that their Religion enjoyned him; had made confession to the Preiste, and they enjoyned him pennance and whipping of himselfe, but for all thefe his wound bled as fresh as before; till in the end he took an English Testament, as it was translated by Erasmus, not with any intent to finde any thing in it that might ease his trouble, but because he was a persect Latinist; but reading that place in 1 Tim. 1. 15. thefe words did fo affect him, that immediately the Lord letting him fee his love in Christ Jefus : The Lord (faith he) let me fee that I had taken a wrong course all this while; I have fought for falvation where it was not to be had. and praved those to whom he spoke, not to take it ill, for it was not out of any neglect of them, but out of his faithfulness, having had experience, that the course they prescribed a that was not the way ; but it fo farre prevailed, as that he was marvelloufly efteemed; but he was taken up by Latimer, he made Bilney hear him Preach a most fearfull Sermon against Luiberaus, that were then better then he; yet Bilney faw that he had zeal, but not according to knowledge; and he knew not how to come within him; but he went to him in private, and defired to foeak with him, and he must not say him may; then he up and tells him what a miferable wretch he had been. how he had wounded his conscience; how he had consest his fin to this and that Preift; how unprofitable all those meanes were to him which they prescribed; and there was no means in the world to finde peace till the Lord applyed that everlafling redemption in the bloud of Christ; why faith Latimer. he comes to feek for pardon from me to his foul : and faith he, I faw I flood in more need of being caught by him, and therefore stiles him in his Sermon Saint Bilney, that caught his foul foul, and revealed that to him which he never heard of. Therefore it is possible that Latimar and Bilney may be devout Catholicks for a time; but now when this electing love of God outs forth it felfe in the fruits of it, which is effectual callings now they are fully fatisfied that all this devotion, beleiving as the Church beleives, they fee they are fo farre out of the way, as faith is contrary to fence and reason : So that those whom God referved and chosen to life, they are preserved from totall and finall adoration of the Beaft, they may for a sime through ignorance worship the Beatt, as the best of Gods fervants in those times did, and many times have been moft zealous for the Catholick cause; and yet when the Lord hath called them effectually to his grace, then, not one that are written in the Lambs book of life doe worship him; so that though they worship him before, yet now they do not, when they come to fee their folly, and have the love of God made known to them. .

The Reason is first taken from the experimentall knowledg Reason 1. of every child of God effectually called, from the evident experience that he hath of the vanity of the Roman Catholick Church, and of the emptinesse of calling on any to look from Church power, to heale or wound the conscience, as of themfelves, further then they dispence the Ordinances of Christ: and then it is not they, but Christ in them, aud for them to look for falvation in the communion of that Church, and in reconcilement to that Church; They are fo experimentally beaten off from that, and possest of the contrary by their own experience, that you need not take them from adoring the Beaft : for they fee it is a Beaft, and they shall as wel utterlydefroy their fouls, as worthip the Beaft; and therfore the love of Christ constrains Bilney, and he draws Latimer, and Latimer draws others, till they have propogated the truth of God to all ages. But that, though it be one reason, yet it is the Icast.

Let me fhew another reason why the elect of God, after the electing love of God comes to be dispensed to them in outward execution : For, before it may come to passe, they may worship the Beast, but then they will not doe it finally : but when the electing love of God is shed abroad in their hearts, then they will not do it; and the reason of that (you cannot give a demonstrative reason but from this) to prevent imposfibility, it is not possible that they should : now there are three fundamentall reasons of the impossibility of it; two properties there are in Gods electing love : There is in Gods election. first, immutability, as God himselfe is unchangeable, Mal. a. 6. to are his decrees unchangeable, the foundation of God ftands fure, 2 Tim. 2. 19. and what he hath purposed, he will bring to paffe : The counfell of the Lord is true for ever, in Pfal. 33. 10, 11. he disappoints all the decrees of men, but his own counsels they take place for ever in every age, therefore it is not possible that any of his should perish; and perish they thould, if they should worship the Beaft ; but it is not possible, his unchangeble decree keepes them.

Again, there is another property in his electing love, which is the efficacy of it, for Gods electing love doth choose us out of the world, John 15.19. And if he choose us out of the world. the efficacy of that is, that it delivers us from the evill world: God eleding us out of the world, hath redeemed and delivered us from this present evill world, Gal. 1.4. Now if the electing love of God be of fuch efficacy, that when he electe men of his grace, he will in fulneffe of time deliver them from the world, then they shall not run headlong to the worship of the Beaft, whom their hearts cannot close withall; the Lord redeemes them from that vaine conversation received by tradition from their Fathers, I, though there be fuch efficacy in the bloud of Ancestors, yet the electing love of God redeemen them from that : But that will more appear in the second Reason.

And that is the faithfulneffe of Chrift, and the efficacy of of his redeeming bloud. All that the Father hath given me (ball come unto me, and those that doe come unto mee, I will by no means caft ont, John 6.37. Of those that thou hast given me, I have lost none, but the fonne of perdition, that (but) is not an exceptive, but an adversative; he that was never given, was loft, he did not bring him on to falvation; For this is the will of the Father that fent me, that of all that be bath given me, I foodid loofe nothing, &c. John 6. 37, 38, 39. That is, his faithfulneffe, and with

with his faithfulnesse there is such efficacy in his bloud, that though the bloud of Anceftors run very warme, that a man would choose to live no better life, nor keep a better house then his Father or Grandfather, but wish their souls might be but as fafe as theirs, when men are once redeemed by the bloud of Christ, and that is sprinkled upon their consciences, then the bloud of Chrift is warmer then the bloud of Anceftors : though the Religion of our Fathers thould be flrong in the hearts of devout Catholicks, as in Bilney or Latimer, then alaffe for our poor Fathers, what is become of them ? they pity them, and fee plainly, that unleffe the Lord led them a further way then the Religion of those that taught them, they are gone everlastingly, and then they wonder that God should ever choose such a dunghill, thee and me, that they see a broad difference between the Religion of their Ancestors, and that which they fee now; but that is the efficacy of the blond of Chrift, there is that efficacy in it, that it washeth away all relations to Fathers, to antiquity, and universality, he is crucified to them all; God forbid (faith the Apostle) that I should glory fave in the croffe of our Lord Jefm Chrift, whereby the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world, Gal. 6. 14. So that though all the world runne after the Beaft, they will not; the world looks at them as bale unworthy creatures, and so they look at the world. And there is a third fundamentall Reason, and that is ta- Reason 3.

ken from the power and presence of the Spirit of Gods grace, in the hearts of his people. We are kept by the power of God, through faith unto salvation, I Pet. 1. 5. That is, by the spirit of God, and by the power of that spirit, he keeps our saith, and by faith keeps us in the way of his ordinances, and in the way of sandification to salvation: Little children, yee are of God, and you have overcome these Antichrists; why? for greater is be that is in you, then be that is in the world, I John 4. 4. The power of God is in you, they are of the world, and the world is carryed away with them; you are of God, and you hear them not; for greater is be that is in you, then be that is in the world. These are three sundamentall Reasons which are indeed the demonstrative cause of the impossibility of them to be sinally

carried to the worship of the Beast, the election of God will not fuffer it, the unchangebleneffe thereof, the faithfulneffe of Chriff. the efficacy of the blood of Chriff, and the power of the foirit, and that which flower from it is the experience of Gode love, and the vertue of their falth in Chriff : Their faith is unchangeble, not possible to be rooted out, in Luke 22. 31,32. I have prayed for thee that thy faith faile not : It may be thaken. but it shall not finally fail ; I will put my fear in their bearts that they fall not depart from me, Jer. 32. 40. and that is the proper act of faith : Be not bigb minded, but fear ; his mercy is fufficient for us, truft fleadfaftly on the grace of Chrift; and though Peter feemed not to truft on the grace of Chrift, yet in his work flare he knew that all the courfes of Satan were vanity, and he durft not but in his heart beleive that Christ was the Meliab : fo all the elect of God know the Beaft is a Beaft, and the Catholick Roman Church is a Beaft, and the head of that Beaft is a beaffly head, and they know that their Doctrine is fenfuall. and carnall, and that they all shall go into perdition; and withall, their experience doth evidently convince them, that were it not in a pang of temptation in which they are not able to abide by it, yet by a renewall of the blood of the Lord Jefus forinkled on their fouls, they are brought a fresh to fee the work of Gods grace firred up in them ; but otherwise their conflant course is, as in Rev. 14. you hear them coming as on a flage, representing the Lambe in their carriage and converfation, and follow the Lambe wherefeever be goes ; but for the Beaft, a ftranger, they will not follow; but both their faith and experience yeild them a third cause, and that is, the spirit of God carying them an end : My fbeep bear my voyce, and they follow me ; but they know not the voyce of ftrangers, they fee a difference between good and evill; and therefore if they hear a man fpeak, and doth not fpeak of falvation by him, but of the world, or of himfelfe, they will not follow him, John 10. 45. Thus you fee the Reason why none of them worship the Beaft : But on the other fide, all the reft of the world doe, meaning where Antichrifts power comes, fpeaking of those times when there was great power given to him, to speak great things, and no man might say, Sir, why do you so: In that time when helpad power to be active fourty two months, when he had power to make Warre with the Saints, and to overcome them, and when all Nations worshipped him, and did not shake off that Religion; but in former times, before reformation of Religion, this was an universal practice; they all, Nations, Kindreds, and Tongues gave their power to the Beafi, and the reason of that was, from Gods just judgement, for their not receiving the truth in love, therefore be gave them over to strong delusions to believe lyes.

Secondly, from the efficacy of Satan in the power of deceitfull fophistry, and doing wonders.

And thirdly, by the plaufibleneffe, trumpery, and bravery of that Religion, so suitable to carnal reason, that they were carried away thereto, and it could not be, but they should be carried away by the man of Sinne.

The use first may then be thus much ; If all that dwell on Earth, whose names are not written in the book of life. do worship the Beast, and none are excluded but those whose names are written in the Lambs booke of life, then this will unavoidably follow, that a Papist by his Religion cannot go beyond a Reprobate; what he may, and renounce his Religion, is another matter, as Bilney and Latimer fomtaimes did; they were written in the Lambes booke of life : but by his Religion, take them that do believe, as the Catholick Roman Church believes, and believe no more, but practice thas which that Religion directs them to, and goe no further. and they continue and live and die in that, then I must pronounce it from the Text, they cannot go beyond a Reprobate, the reason is evident from the Text; for if none of them whose names are written in the Lambs booke of life doe worship the Beaft, and onely they do worship the Beaft, whose names are not written in the Lambs booke of life, then if they be not written in the Lambs booke of life, the Text is very firong & clear in Rev. 20.15. Who feever was not found written in the Lambs Book of life , was caft into the lake of fire and brimftone: But those that worlhip the Beaft, are not written in the Labins booke of life, that is in the Text : Here are two propositions 716-very evident; All that are written in the Lambs booke of life doe not worlbip the Beaft : But those that worthip the Beaft, are not written in the Lambs back of life. Then the conclusion is, They fball be cast into the lake that burneth with fire and brimstone : That if it appears that this Beaft is the Roman Catholick Church. and the head of this Beaft is the Pope : The conclusion will be most evident, that no man living and dying a Papist, can go beyond a Reprobate: I dare not fay, but some that are ignorant, whom devotion hath carryed to that Religion; it is possible some of them when they come to death, may fee the vanity of that Religion of worthipping Saints, and of confining their Faith to them, but that is not by their Religion : but if they dye in that Religion, and if their faith and worthip be thrust upon them from the Roman Catholick Church. and they worship Saints and Angels , and believe in their owne merits for their justification, I do pronounce to you. that a Papiff, living and dying a Papiff, cannot go beyond a Reprobate; I meane fuch an one was not written in the Lambs booke of life: And they that are not, are cast into the lake that burns with fire and brimflone, that is the iffue : And therefore what a fearfull thing is it in fuch that do all they can to reconcile Nations to the Church of Rome, and are mad upon Romith religion? what desperate service do they undertake. to bring men to fuch a religion as defroys many millions of foules ? It is true, Those that are written in the Lambs booke of life : God loofeth none of his three : but it is evident they are bloody Butchers of many Christians not chosen, yet devous Christians, many an one under pang of Conscience, with fence of many finfull passions and lusts, are not able to get out but by a Priests absolution; and if they be covered with a Fryare coule, they hope they shall do well enough : Such a

as these, if they know no more, such cannot be saved.

I will not enlarge it, but it were necessary to be pressed and urged in some places, look not at it as a matter of curiosity and circumstance what Religion a man dyes in, and think as some States-men doe, that if it were not for hot-spur'd Jesuites on the one side, and hot-spur'd Puritans (as conscience as can be opened and healed by such wooden keys

they call them) on the other fide , Protestants and Papitla might be eafily reconciled. These are the whisperings of fl-th and blood abut that which is written in the word, doth bear expresse testimonie against such a conclusion : For if Jesuites were removed, and Puritans too, yet if there were any lefe that thought they could worship the Church of Rome, as they require, that you must believe as they believe, your faith in built upon the Church, and upon the dispensation of the keyes of that Church, fuch a faith and obedience as fals fhore of Chrift Jefus, that all falvation is to be expected from him. if both Jesuices, and those they call Puritans were removed. if there were none, but that take up their faith and obedience in that worthip they hold forth : I fay there is not any one of them that to live, and to dye, knowing what they believe, that can be faved. Indeed you read in Rev. 3. many know not the depth of Satan, and it is another matter what God may difpence to them in private; but men that know what they do, and believe according to the doctrine of that Church, and worship according to the direction of it : I fav. men living, and so dying, there is not one of them whose names are written in the Lambs book of life, and therefore [ball be cast into the lake that burns with fire and brimstone. This may teach us a true ground of any mans preferva-tion from the pollutions of the world, bewitching pollutions ; fomesimes a Catholick Strumpet carries all the world after her, as in those times : Sometimes the world swallows up the Church, and every man thinkes him happy, if hee may be clad with thick clay; others are taken up with provifions for their belly, and sensuall Epicurean luste, there be a world of fuch people : Now what doth preserve the people of God, that they are not carryed away either with the Catholick religion, or with worldly ambition, they are not taken with thefe: but fee the vanity of them; what, are any of us better then those that have been bewitched by these? but what puts the difference ? The originall difference is , God hath written them in the Lambs book of life, and what bee bath written, be bath written, as Pilate fayd : Hee hath written fuch to life, and his decree is irrecoverable: My counsell shall stand.

are preferved and faved from those fearfull temptations that overcome others , and all the world are over-whelmed . It may teach us the marvellous freedome of the love of God; and therefore to admire the wonderfull love of God. the cause of all this our preservation from such prevailing eville as swallow up the whole world ; how doth it appeare? why, I pray you confider, when the Lord wrote down thy name Jormine, or any mans name, who flood by at his elbow (if linay to fpeak) to put him in mind of my name or thine? he thought of us, if our names be there, and he fet us downe, and he delivered us to Christ Jefus by name; what ever thy name is , he took notice of thy name ; fach a man in fuch a place he will live in this on that Countries, he is one, take: riotize of him , lay down a price for him ; in fulneffe of ciane fench' foirit inco his heart e if he live in a Pobish Countrey, fave him from Popery ; If in a worldly Countrey, fave him from the world : where ever he lives, fave him from himfelf; and bring him to my treatenly Kingdom'; but what was therein us that could commend us to God ? or what could there in us but whathe appointed , but whathe fould put into us; he could not fore fee any thing, but that hee must work it, therefore it must certainly be his undeferved love that must rake notice of them, and give them to to come to Chrift, und all that the Father bath given bim fall come unto bim? The Lord will draw them, and then they thall come; in the meane time he keeps them trom his Fathers eternal donation, in John 17. 17. Thofe whom thou haft given me, I bave kept. Hee hath not loft any, but one that was not given him to keep, he prays to God to keepe them through his own name, he keeps them by his own spirit, and this was agreed on from the foundation of the world, when this book was written a and it was not written yesterday, but before the foundation of the world, Rev. 17. 8. His thoughts were about thee and me; and whoever is written therein, a matter of much praife. and glory to God, that he should have such marvellous precious thoughts to us. Pfalm. 129. 17. How precious are this thoughts to me O God. And fo in Pfal. 40. 5. we read of the precious thoughts of God towards us; that hee should have fuch thoughts, when time yet was not neither we nor our fathere; and all he did fore-fee in thee and me, would but provoke his wrath; what was good he must work, and that was from his counsell : If you see any vanish away, or fall away from his grace, and from his Saints, and he hath no pleafure in them, they are not given to Christ, you fee he is the giver of them; but if men be not given to Chrift, they will fall a. way : All that the Father gives me shall come unto me; it is my Fathers will I should not loose one of them. If men will not hearken . to the Bishop of their souls, the Lord Jesus Christ, fee the def. perate danger thereof, and the originall root, They are not written in the Lambs book of life.

It may be of fingular comfort to all the elect of God, whose names are written in the book of Life: It is a great comfort that a man is written to life; hee might have been written to death, had not the Lord been pleased for doce: You read in the Epistle of Jude, vers. 4. Of certaine men crept in manageres, who were of old ordsined to condemnation: The word in the Originall is, fore-written, written afore-time to destruction: Now I say, that a man is not written to destruction, but to life, and to life in Christ; not as Adam, that was to stand by his own strength, and so long as he useth grace well, he shall live; but if not, he shall dye and he so used it, that if God give him not life in Christ, he dyed for ever: This is in Adams covenant, not in Christs, that was for a man to live by his own righteousnesse: Do this and thou shall live, Levit. 18. 5. ten to life, and to life in Chrift; that is, Because bee lives, we (ball live alfo: I am the way, the truth, and the life: And by this being written in the Lambs book of life, that the Lord should think upon us, when we had no thoughts of him; nay had no being, that he should then undertake for us; that when the Father gives us, he will receive us; and by receiving us, keep us footleffe to his heavenly Kingdome, that he wil preferve us from possibility of damnable Errors: They shall seduce if it were possible the very Eled, Mat. 24.24. But there is no poltibility; what a marvellous matter is it , that it is not possible that any of those that are given to Christ should be seduced; it is such a mercy that may swallow up all discouragements, all afflictions, all blasphemy of a mans good name and flate, and wealth, and health, and all whatfoever; this may support him, that it is not possible he should be seduced: For the Lord knows who are his, the foundation of God ftands fure; the Lord hath written it, and he is more conflant then Pilate, or the Kings of Persians and Medes : The Law is written and established by the Kings Ring, and God is more fledfaft then any of the Kings of the Earth, what he hath written shall be accomplished; the Lord will draw them to Chrift, and Christ will keep them, not one of them shall perifh, not one of them shall worship the Beaft; or if they do, they soone see their folly, and are recovered out of all fnaces, they shall not prevaile against them.

le may be of infiruction and exhortation, to provoke you to make your election fure, then you make your falvation fure, and prefervation from Popery and the world, and from the Devill, and from your own corrupt Nature, fure that you shall not be carried captive with the polations of the times and places you live in though hundreds run from God one way, and ten thousands another way, & fall off hither and thither, yet you shall fill be preferved: in John 6.68, where our Saviour asked his Disciples, will ye also go away? when many of those that were his Disciples went away and fell off from him, being offended from something which he had spoken to them, and that was that Doctrine that we have now in hand, and some other covolaries from it, they walked no more with him; then faith Christ to the reft, will yee allo go away? Peter answered in the behalfe of the reft; Lord, to " whom thall we go, thou haft the words of eternall life : As who should say, whether shall a man go to mend himself? Thou baff the words of eternall life? and having the words of eternall life, how shall they do better else where ? so it behooves us then as we defire, to be preferved from all apoftacy and backfliding from God, notwithstanding all the temptations of the flattering world, or bufie world, or from the defiroying world, by perfecution, and flattering by prosperity and bufie world, by the cares of the world, and continuall cumber about the world, and diffempers in our hearts on that ground, in such a case as this what shall preserve us? If our names be written in the Lambes book of life, truely we shall be preserved, that neither the world, nor our passions and lufts shall prevail againft us. My father (falth Ghrift) is greater then all, and no man is able to pluck them out of my Fathers band : and I and my Father are one, my Father and I will keepe them, Joh. 10. 27, 28.

Obj. You will say, it is a needlesse exhortation to make our election sure, if shat be not done long ago; for it is not begun in this world, but long before; it is concluded long before, or else we are not written in the Lambes book of life; one of these two is concluded in Heaven: Christ knows those that are given to him by his Pather, before he knows them by name, John 10. 14. It is worthy of memory that Christ knows them all by name, that argues the particularity and singularity of them, as he knows all the Stars in Heaven; so doth he much more know all his elect; if he know them all by name, hee then particularly observes them, and prevents us with blessings of goodnesse, and preserves us from prevailing evills, but if it be recorded of God, is it not in vain so exhort to make it fure.

Answ. If it were in vain, methinks the Apostle she u'd not have used it, 2 Pet. 1. 10. Then that is it that lyes upon all Christians; some think it is not possible, but then it were a vain exhortation, Make your calling and eledion sure; if you do, a wide and open door of entrance shall be ministred unto you, vou; well then though I cannot make fure my election in it felfe, for it is fure in it felfe ; but the Queftion is, whether it: it is fure to me, that is my duty, for he knowes who are his. and knows them by name, and keeps them in his name, and hath given his Angels charge over us, and they will all watch over us, and therefore our Saviour in Luke 10. 20. faith to his Disciples, Rejoyce not in this that the Devils are subject unto you, but that your names are written in Heaven. Our election in ture enough in heaven, no ftormes will alter it there : But now (in a word) can we make our election fure? the Apostle intimates when you make your calling fure, you make your election fure : your calling, that is but the actuall execution of this eternall election ; but they are fo neere, that many the Lord puts them one for another, he tells his Disciples, you bave not chosen me, but I have chosen you, John 15. 16. he means of his felection, his calling them out of the world, then he doth communicate his electing love to fuch; it is wrought for us before in Christs death, in Gods councell, and in his efficuall redemption, wrought for us on the Croffe : butvet it is not manifest to our consciences till calling, but make your calling fure, and then election is fure : When you are called according to bis purpofe, Rom. 8. 28. that is this book of life, that is his purpose, that we are in Gods purpose written to life, look to that he hath faved us, and called us, Not according to our worker, but according to his own purpose and grace which was given us in Christ Jesus, 2 Tim. 1.8. that is the book of life and grace; of free grace, purpofing us to life; and you read in Rom. 8.30. Whom be predeftin sted, them be bath called; and whom be called, them be justified - now if a man be effectually called to grace that doth fearch election, let me breifly touch it, that which makes fore calling.

1. In our effectuall calling, there is a declaration of Gods love to the foul in Chrift Jefus by the spirit of grace, in the dourine of the Gospell, for that is Gods call; in our calling, God calls for his part by his grace and spirit, and we answere that foirit, by that faith, which by the call of God is wrought in our hearts; I say, God calls effectually to his grace by manifelling the rich grace of God in Chrift, eleding freely, calling calling freely, from the obedience of finne and Sitan, to the liberty of the fons of God, as to those in Quen Maries times when they wandered up & down like Limbs in a large place ? Bilney he ferches in that one word in his loft and forlorn condition : He read this promise, and the spirit of God applies it : Christ Telus came into the world to fave finners, of whom I am chiefe : This being applyed by the spirit, it falls on him with power, and he fees the goodnesse of God in Christ, and the vanity of all things elfe : and feeing fo much glory in Christ. and in particular to him alfo, this lets him fee the vanity of all other courfes; for this manifestation of Gods foirit doth effe Qually and manifestly open our eyes to see, and hearts to believe what the Lord offers, for faith is faid to receive what the Lord gives of grace; here is then that which makes calling fure, for otherwise how can we know it, but by the manifestation, and declaration, and revelation of the Spirit : The things that eye never faw, nor eare heard, nor cver entred into the heart of man , but he hath revealed them by his fpirit, 1 Gor. 2. 9, 10. As no man knows the things of man, but the fpirit of man, fo no man knows the things of God, but the foirit of God : And we have not received the fpirit of this world, but the fpirit which is of God, that we may know the things that are freely given us of God. The Spirit of God it is that fearcheth all things, even the deep things of God, and reveals them tour, and lets unfee the treasures of grace, and lets us fee them thus applyed, this is the ground of effectuall calling, God calling by his spirit, and we answering that call, and from both these springs another fruit of our effectuall calling, which is likewise a certaine pledge of it that being thus called: Blef-Red be God (faith the Apofile) that bath called us to the fellowship, of bis fonne actually and effectually.

2. Thence it comes to passe, that wee choose the Lord for our God: We have none in heaven but him, nor none on earth that we desire in comparison of him: Away then with those beautifull Strumpers, and all works of iniquity, and wayes of darkness, wayes of ambition, these are all blasted; now I desire to know nothing but Jesus Christ and him crucified, I Cor. 2. 2. and now it is, that he rejoyceth in nothing, saus in the Cresse of our Lord Jesus Chrift, Gal. 6. 14. Now this electing love in that we elect God, we could never choose God, had not he chofen us, and in fome measure discovered what his electing love was to us, this brings the heart back again to choose him, and none but him : now that is another fecurity of our election, and therein is differs from all others; a man may have a kinde of fanctification by common gifte, which will leave him fill to work for himselfe, but this is to abuse the very gifts of God, which the spirit hath wrought in us, though they be not fuch as accompany falvation, fill we are not lift up above our felves, but when we are called effectually to Chrift: now no motion swayes us, but as we see the will of God in it. we cannot beleive as the Church beleives : but we beleive our brethren and the Church , as we fee the Church follows the foot-fleps of the will of God ; If I now please men (faith she Apofile) I am not the fervant of Chrift, 1 Thef. 2. 4. Nor of men fought we glory, when we might have been burdenfome, as the Apofiles of Chrift : If a man be left to faft for himfelfe, or pray for himselfe, or worke for himselfe, and all is for himfelfe, that he works from a principal refpect unto himfelfe, truly this will darken a mans effectuall calling; andif it be his conflant course, doubtleffe his heart is not right with God : It is true, in a pang of temptation a man may be wheeled about, as Peter and David, yet the fight of Gods tlecting love quickens them to fee their finne, how farre they are turned atide from God; but there the foul is bent, as it were, with the point of a compass touched with a Load-stone. it may be jogged by winder and flormes, yet it lookes fill to the North pole; though you may shake it from its course. get let it but fland a while, it will directly look to the North pole, there it will fland ; fo it is with all the children of God, they cannot but worke; for Christ in John 16. 14. He (ball glorifie me, for be fball receive of mine, and give it unto you : So that the heart that is fincere, it workes from Chrift, and for Chrift, and with Chrift; I laboured more abundantly then they all, yet not 1, but the grace of God which was with me, I Cor. 15. 10. So that you fee what the manner of Gods people in this case is, they are from Chrift, and for Chrift, and with Chrift. Christ, and it is a seal of Gods election; the highest seal is, God knowes who are bis, and that seal he manifests by his spirit in the Gospel, it is the spirit that seals up our adoption, and here is another seal we set to our seal, while we cleave to him with all our heart and soul, and seek after him, and have none in beaven, but him, nor on Earth that we desire in comparison of him.

And thirdly, the last assurance of a mana election and calling (which I hall name at this time) is that which Peter himtelfe doth expresse, in 2 Pet. 1. Give all deligence to make your calling and election fare; How shall they do that? he tels us in ver. 5. Moreover adde to your faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge. &c. He reckons tundry fores of graces, and he calls upon them to adde grace to grace and one degree of grace to another; and (faith he) if the fethings dwell in you, and abound, by this means an open entrance shall be ministred unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdome of our Lord and Saviour Jefus Chrift, as if men that did not grow in grace, and grow from grace to grace; if they get to heaven at length, they must mend their pice, thrust and croud for it; but if these things be in you and abound, so an open entrance shall be ministred unto you; as if the great gates of Heaven were opened to you : there must be a growing, you are blind elfe, and cannot fee afar off; you shall not fee your fate, unleffe you grow from faith to faith and from knowledge to knowledge, then an open entrance thalf be willifited to you that you shall die in full affurance of faith, and of the love of God : And thus shall a man make his calling and election fure; and by fo doing, he shall make fute to himselfe his prefervation from this world, and shall be translated to everlafling reft with the Lord in due time; where there fall he nelther falle Propher, nor Jefuite, nor worldlings, whose names are not written in the Lambs book of life.

First, in respect of his innocency.

2ly. In respect of his meeknesse and patience. 1. His innocency.

1. In his birth : That boly thing which shall be born of thee, swall be called the fonne of God, John 1.35. Inno2. Introcent in his life. It bebooves us (faith Christ to loth) to fulfill all righteou fielfe, Mat. 3. 15. And in 1 Pet. 2. 22. He did no finne, neither was gulle found at his mouth, "ith

3. Innocent alto in his death. Pilate bare him that recoid, Mat. 27. 24 when he had heard all things that were

And as he was thus innocent as a Lamb: So he was meeke and patient as a Lamb: and the holy Ghoff hath refrect unto it, Alis 8, 32. He was leaves, o opened be used by mouth. And therefore there is fomething respected in his filence and quiet fully extens to the flughter knife: And his patience or meekenelle doth expresse it telf in two things chiefly.

1. In submitting not himself only, but his will to his fathers will. Father, saith Chriss (in his agony in the Garden) if it be possible, let this cap passe from me, neverthelesse not as I will, but as show will. And if this cap may not passe away, from me except I drinke it, thy will be done, Mar. 26. 39. 42. And that is properly after Gods own heart, when a mans heart is subdued to the will of God; in which respect he did not nurmure at his Fathers hand, nor did expostulate his being delivered into the hands of wicked men, 1 Pet. 2. 23. Who when he was revited, revised not againe; when he suffered, be threatned not, but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously: And so meck was he in this very kind, as that he prayed for his very enemies and persecutors. Luk. 23. 34. Then said Jesus. Father foreive

2. His patience and mecknesses flood in keeping filence in his own just desence. As a Lamb dumb before the shearer, keeping silence before his Accusers, and Judges, and Condemners. He answered nothing before the high Priess; any thing that might tend to his crucifying, as he doth expresses if they will make it a point to crucifye him, because he said, He was the son of God: Saith he, I came into the world to bear winness unto that. When Pitate did accuse him, he answered nothing, and the Governour wondred at it, knowing that hee could tell what to answer : He marvailed that fo juft a man, in fo juft a safe did not answer a word which did fo narrowly concern him : But he did nor know what the cause was, that he was as a Lamb dumb before the fhearer, and before the flaughter ailo.

What might be the reason then of this Lamb-lik innoceney and meeknesse of Christ? (They are principles, and ought to be incultated often :) The first ground is.

Chap. 13.

To fulfill the types that went before of him, Exed. 12.5. Reason 1. The paschall Lamb was without blemish. And Exod. 29. 39. The daily Sacrifice was to be a Lamb without spot and blemift, therefore Chrift muft be fuch.

The second Reason is taken from his personal union with Reefon 2. the (econd person in Trinity: For in bim dwelletb all the fulneffe of the God bead bodily, Col. 2. 9. that is personally : So that Christ must be a finner , if in any thing Christ had failed either in doing or fuffering (which were blafphemy to (ay): And hence fprings an utter impossibility of his manhood , afting any thing without the G d head afting by him; for the Son can do nothing of himfelte, but as he feeth the Father do.

Thirdly, there is a further necessity of his I amb like inno-Reafon 3. cency : From our necessity of fuch a Sacrifice , and fuch an high Prieft as was holy, and blameleffe, and und filed, Heb. 7. 26, 27, 28. Such an high Prieft ir behooved us to have: Yea, it was requifite the Sacrifice fhould be blameleffe, Levit. 1. 3. And the Prieft that offered it to be fo alfo, Levit. 21.18. For otherwise he could not make attonement for us, nor could his attonement be accepted.

But why was he thus patient, filent, and meek ? a double reason of that.

First, That his Sacrifice might be voluntary, and so ac-Reason 1. cepted of the Father. Sacrifice and offering for finne thou moulds not . neither badf pleasure therein, which are offered by the law; Then faid he , Loe I come to doe thy will, O God, Heb. 10. 8. 9. Whoever was to offer a Sacrifice, was to bring it himfelfe, and deliver it up, and himfelfe with it, and it must be offered willingwillingly: Wheeher it was the Congregation that had committed a finne, or whether it were any particular person, they were to bring their oblation: Any Sacrifice that a man would have accepted, he must bring it to the door of the Tabernacle, Lev. 4. 4. 14. 23. The Priest must not fetch it: Is any would bring their Sacrifice they might; but if they were extorted from them, they were not accepted: So the Lord Jesus must come and freely offer up himselse, as one that was to be presented in the stead of all the Elect: Hee offered himselse a Surety of the Covenant; we should have brought it, but we had it not in our hearts: But hee brings himselse, and layes downe his life of himselse, and takes it up againe, John 10. 18.

And 217. why did he expresse his patience in that filence of his? The reason was from this very cause, even

From the want of fufficient matter to give a just Answer in our behalfe by all things that he could alledg for us. If hee had flood in his own person, and had had nothing to do but to cleare himselfe, he had had a world to have answered for himfelfe, and this Pilate faw ; for he faid that he was a King, but a King of another world, and Pilateknew that there was no Gelarian Law that did forbid a Kingdome in another world : but flanding in our persons, hee knew not what to answer : What could there be charged upon Christ. but we have been guilty of it? Can it be layd that none of the Elect of God did blafpheme? and that none of them did destroy the Temple of God ? and can it be justified that all the Elect of God have been fre d from commotions ? Can any undertake that defence for the elect of God? What finne can you charge upon him, but some of the servants of God have been guilty ofit? Therefore it is, that the Lord Jefus anfwers not : He dorn not deny , he doth not out-face them in the bufineffe : It is not fo with him ; He is not fuch an Advocate: He pleads with a good confcience when he pleads, and he is clear , bur he cannot clear his Elect once from Churchcensure, and Civill censure: Nor doth he plead with God about any kind of haid-fhip, in putting upon him that extremity, he knew the elect of God had deserved such : And though shough he knew that they dealt wickedly, yet flanding in dur room, hee had not a jufficient plea, let them charge him with what they will : A man cannot charge him with any firme but fome of his Elect have been guilty of it; and theretore what can be antwered ? Therefore he was not willing to excuse himselfe : He doth neither deny nor extenuate any Crime that can be layd ag inft him ; but take it in its full rigour, and the acculation doth fland good : They fland not good againft the Principall , but againft the Surety , as hee is a Surety, they fland good againft him ; for as itis in Job 9.2,3. How fould man be just with God ? If be will contend with bim , be cannot an foer bim one of a thoufand.

Let a man fland before the Tribunall of the juffice of God. and he cannot answer one of a thousand : And if Christ be to fland for all the elect of God, hee cannot answer one of a thousand : And therefore when the King came to fee the man in the room that had not on the wedding Garment, the man was fpeechleffe ; which plainly thewes us , that if Chrift fland in the room of Gods people, the cafe flands fo , that Chrift cannot answer for us, to excuse us. Tob could not answer one of a thousand, though he was the perfectelt man in his Generation (and I know not whether any man after him that was more innocent then he:) And what shall others of Gods called ones be able to doe ? and what they are not able to doe, the Lord Jefus Chrift hee doth carry it in the fame manner, as one that cannot excuse them from being guilty of those finnes, no more then himselfe can.

Thus you fee the reasons both of Christs innocency and patience.

The use of the point is,

First, to convince us of the guilt of all the elect people of Go i, and their guiltineffe even of violent death, and unexcufablenesse under that death. If fo be we had been innocent. what needed Chrift to have been fo patient as hee was, fo Lamb-like in his innocency ? His Lamb-like innocency is an argument of our guiltineffe : The fervants of God, especially fuch as take any more narrow fearch of their own wayes, they fee themselves full of blemishes, spots, and wrinckle.

and many fuch things, 1/a. 64 6. We are all as unclean things, and all our righteoufpeffer are as filtby ragges. They are all as the clouts of a mentimous women, even all our best righteonsneffe : This this the condition of us all, full of uncleaneffe. and pollution, and deformity : And which is worfe then that. unexcuable in all : for if wee cou'd have told what to fav. and to fay juftly, Christ would have tayd it much more fully then we could; for he is our Advocate, and it were a shame for an Advocate, if the party of the cause could defend his caufe better then his Advocate : Chrift is more skilful in the Lawehen we's but his filence doth' profeste, that he knows not what to fay, to fland out in our defence. He might have excused some of Gods elect from this or that actual grouse Sinne; but he could have excused none from a guilty proneneffe to all manner of Sinne : There is a vicious pronenaffe in us to all finne, and therefore Christ could not sell what to And as there is a proneneffe in us to all finne, fo there is an actuall commission of many sinnes., And in many things. we finne all, James 3.2. And there are few or none of Gods slech; that if fo be a man that is privy to all their dealings. were to give an account of them, he could not juftifie them from the guilt, and flain of all finne. Now this is the case of Chriff, he hath been acquainted with all our wayes; and if he be examined of what nath been done wickedly , before the Church, and before the Common-wealth, he is not able to deny, but both Church and Common-wealth might proceed against us all. And this may cast a holy blushing apon us in the prefence of the Lord, and of this Lamb : Christ could have told what to have answered, if ought had been to be answered ; but when he ftands in our room, he ftands filent : he could not with truth bear witneffe unto any of us touching our gulleineffe : knowing what he knew by us, it would make us unfit for both focieties, either of Church or Common-wealth. And it is a just humilistion for a man to know that he flands in such a flate, of which no good account ean begiven : Aman that is skilful indeed, and knows the Law. as well as Christ did, standing in our room, he hath nothing to answer for himselfe, and the Lord knows it, and time was when:

when this confidered did muzzel his mouth, be was like a lamb dembe before his sheater: you cannot rake up such a base acceptation against him, but he knows where the dint of it will fall, and therefore he is very sensible of the truth of all that is laid unto his charge. Let God come upon us with spiritual differtions, we must know that it is just with God to differe us; and though the Church should spue us, and the Common-wealth cut us off from the land of the living, who can plead for us? If Christ shand in our persons, he hath nothing to plead.

Secondly, it doth teach us, where to look for all our juffification and reconcilement with the Father. Truly brethren not in our own righteouineffe, for the Lord himfelfe that knowes it better then we do, he knows that it will not hold our before the judgement teat of God. He might have pleaded, that David was a man after Gods own heart; he might have pleaded the wifedome of Solomon; and the truth of fofine heart, and the zeal of Phinem, and the patience of fob: but he knowing the Law well enough, and what they have been. (and we have all been) he hath nothing to plead; and therefore we must not plead our own righteousnesse : let no man think that his own pleading will reach his own justification, whereas Chrift himfelfe could not reach it for him. All have finned, all have been out of the way, and there is none that doth good no not one, Pial. 14. 1, 2,3 he fpeaks of us by nature, and we were natural, before we came to be fpiritual : Therefore faith the Apofile, What things foever the Law faith it faith to them who are under the Law, that every mouth may be flopped, and all the world may become guilty before God, Rom. 2. 19. It is the use the Apostle himselse makes of it, Vers 23, 14, 25. We bave all finned, and come fort of the glory of God, being justified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Jesus Christ; whom God bath fet forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood. to declare his righteou neffe, for the remission of sinnes that are past. through the forbearance of God. So that (I fay) this is the rife of our juffification; the Lord Jefus hath borne, and fuffered for us when he was filent in our behalfe, and could not tell what to fay. Papiels can bring you many arguments to iuftifie Chap. 13.

inflife themtelves; they will bring you many inflances of this Saint, and that Saint, (and of the Virgin Mary above all othera) of their purity, and righteoufneffe, and how able they are to plead for others : They may be wife for themfelves, and do as Proders are wont to do, regard their fees, and not their Caufe : but the Lord Jefus is faithful, and yet he cannot plead as guiltleffe : Nor must you think, as sometimes poor chriftians will do ; I cannot fay much for my felfe, but fuch a brother, fuch a fifter, they may indeed give a better account of me then I can do of my felfe; but truly, nothing to fatisfie Gods juffice, can any give account, for Chrifthimfelf could not do it : And indeed fo marvelloufly did God accept this kinde of defence that our Saviour makes, that he hath crowned this faithfulneffe of Chrift with everlafting honour unto all ages : he hath fo fully, fo gratioully accepted him, as that he hath for ever ratified it in Heaven, that no man hall ever paffe away righteous from the judgement feat of God that can plead any righteousnesse of his own : Whoever he be that will not frand righteous before the judgement feat of God by any righteouspelle of his own, he muft fland mute as Chrift himfelte flood : and if he be juft, he must be just by his righteouinelle. Christ could plead nothing for us of our own, not our active obedience, nor any passive obedience of ours : but he having fuffered for us, the punishmens that all the wickednesse of the Elect have deserved, Now be doth ever live to make interceffion for to, Heb. 7:25. Now he hach arguments enough to plead : If any man fin now, we have an Advocate with the Father, Tefus Chrift the righteous, 2 John 2. 1. Why did he not plead before? Truly he could not open his mouth before, because he had not vet suffered : but now he hath suffered. the just for the unjust, and now that he hath borne the censure of Church and Common-wealth, now he hath enough to plead in the behalfe of the poorest christian. And if to be that any plead against his Saints and servants, and say that they are guiley of thefe & thefe fine, God wil fay, Beliver bim from going down to the pit; I have found a ransome, Job 33. 24. He now pleads fatisfaction to the juffice of his Father; and having fatisfied for all, there is a fufficient plea in his mouth for for all the Elect of God : whatever our actual transgreffions have been, the Lord hath aboundant plea for all his people: that fo he may both obtain of the Father, the spirit to beflow good things upon us; and having given us fuch things, as taith, and love, and repentance, he may plead our fincerity of heart, and that argues communion with himfelfe, and faith in his blond : But that which doth make us fland righteous before him is this, that he himselfe was a Lamb without from and yet did not plead his own innocency, but did bear all for us, and for us all, that we might ever be righteous in the light of God. And thus will God have all his fervants plead, or elfe they shall not have falvation.

First to plead filence: That then then mayest remember, and be can founded and never open thy month any more, because of thy frame. when I am pacified towards thee, for all that then bulk done, faith the Lord God, Ezck. 16.63.

Secondly to plead our iniquity, Pfel. 51. 3, 4. I seknowledge my transgression, and my some is ever before mee : Against thee onely have I finned and done this evill in thy fight, that thou might eff he juffified when thou freakoft &c. But purge me with hy fore and I hall be clean.

Looke therefore unto this point mainly and principally, that if we come to plead before the Lord our God, her doth require we should examine our selver, and in the end be so furprised (when we have done) as not to have what to anfwer. Christ could not cell what to answer, and we must not wonder, if wee doe not finde what to answer: For here God magnifical his love in feeting forth himfelfe unto a believer, to be a God justifying him that cannot justifie himfelfe : He feeth there is the way of the grace of God, the Lord hath done this in Christ , and the manifestation and declaracion of it doth to possesse the hearts of Gods children, that it causeth them to cleave unto him for all their righteousnelle and peace: And this is of great necessity, and of contimuall practice for the Saints of God to attend unto , that we might not be at a loffe in this great question of our foules. Conscience cryes out unto us, and wee know not in the world what to fay, for wee are wicked beyond meafure in che

the fight of God, our own fincerity will not plead our righrequineffe before God : Bat all it will do, will come to this end, that we shall be convinced, we have nothing to fav : (Nay an Angel, nay the Sonne himfeife could not tell what to fay for us) but wee look to be juflified freely by his grace: And the God of all grace doth fo justifie Christs cause . that all the world that are justified, shall be justified by his plea. who hath done all things for us that concern our everlaffing falvation.

For a third use of the point, it may be for reproof to unconscionable Advocates (but I have not I thinke so much caufe to fpeak of it here, but in most places of the world I might speak of it) It might teach all Advocates to take heed of bolffering out a bad Cafe by quirks of wit, and tricks and quilets of Law, the Lord abhors fuch things. If you will have the Lord to fmell a favour of reft, plead the caufe of the faithful, and of the widow, but thou shalt not accept the person of the poor, nor of the rich. And for men that professe Religion (as many Lawyers do) to use their conques as weapons of unrighteoufneffe unto wickedneffe, it is a profeffed practice against the doctrine of mortification : For a man to give his tongue (his glory, as David calle it) to become a member of unrighteouineffe, to plead in corrupt Caufes, and to frain the Law to that purpole, were I to forake in place where, I should think it meet to fpeak more. But I shall not be accounted a good Lawyer, may some say : No. Chrift was the best Advocate that ever was, and yet he could not answer : Let the cause be what it is, where the tree fals, let it lye : If Chrift do keep filence in point of our righteoufneffe, let us keep filence alfo in point of our own.

Fourthly, It may be a use of instruction unto all those Ufe 4. that professe fellowship with Chrift, and the faving knowledg of Chrift Jefus: You fee here how Chrift is described, a Land flaine from the foundation of the world; None more innocent, and yet none more merk and partent.

If you fpeak of Chrift as a Minister, the spirit of a Dove doth come upon him. For the Sacrifice, he is a Lamb. The wolfe fall dwell with the Lamb, and the Leopard fall lye downe with the Kid; and the Calfe, and the young Lyon, and the Fatling together, and a little child fall lead them. And the Cow and the Reare (ball feed , their young ones fall lye down together' : and the Lyon (ball cate fram like the Oxe, and the fucking child (ball play on the bole of the Afpe , and the weaned child fall put bis band on the Cock-atrice den. They fall not burt nor deftroy in all my boly mountaine, Ifa. 11. 6. to 9.

Doe you fee'a man boyfterous in his fpirit, and in his own will and wayes, and will not be willing to fee a difference in himselfe from the spirit of Christ Jesus (as it is possible that a child of God may be rough in his way, yet hee dare not allow himselfe long in it, it is a body of death : But) if you fee a man that doth allow himfelfe in a paffionate frame of fpirit, that a man will have his owne will (and will not be croffed in it) whether it be right or wrong, doubtleffe this is not the fpot of Gods children : le is not the foirit of those whose names are written in the Lambs book oflife. God did not indeed eled us, because either we are fuch, or would be fuch, but he did elect us to be made fuch first or last, before we come to enjoy the everlasting Inheritance which this book hath written us downe unto. And therefore is muff cut offall our boyferouines and churliffines of fpirit; all this rugg dneffe and churlifhnefs it muft be taken off; The wolf (ball dwell with the Lamb and the Leopard (ball lye downe with the kid , and a little child shall lead them : Therefore all bitterneffe of contention, and pange of passion that prevaile, that are farre from the fpirit of love, must be removed : But this will prevaile in all Gods people, that God will carry an end your fpirite, in conformity to the fpirit of his own. Be of that foirit therefore in all your Transactions, that is to fay, mild, and patient, and innocent : And fo it will require all the children of God in the fame kind to keep Lamblike filence, when you are charged with any fault whereof you are guilty.

It is a dangerous finne when men are found in a fault, they have a thousand excuses for it, and utter denyal of such things, fo as they will cut you a Weavers beame unto a very moste : But you fee the fpirit of Chrift Jefus will not doeit, nor will he confesseit, for they charged it upon him in his own perfon, and fo he could not confesse it : Hee could not deny it, because then he should not have stood in our room as he did. And therefore it behooves those that are young or old; if you be innocent, then you may excuse it; if you be guilty, beware of denying, for if you do, you shall leave a difficult travayl upon Jefus Chrift to plead your caufe : He that knoweth the heart, and the truth of the thing, he is afhamed of fuch a proud spirit, that so defends himself as you doe.

Laftly, it is a ground of fingular comfort to all whose names are written in the Lambs booke of life, and brought on to this Lamb-like frame of heart, in the greatest horrour of foirit. whereas the foule in this or that man is confounded, and he knows not what to fay : Here is comfort for fuch a foule laid up, for here is a sufficient plea before Gods Judgment seate, the Lord Jefus Chrift hath been filent at it , he hath born and fuffered for it. It will come unto this paffe with a foule under fpiritual confusion : Wee shall lye downe in our shame, with our confusion upon our faces, as in Fer. 3. 24, 25. Wee cannot deny it, nor excuse it, and therefore we are ready to conclude, woe to us that ever we were born ; That is not a just conclusion though, for truly this we must come unto, if ever we come unto Chrift : And therefore it is a way of ju-Affication, and of life for a man to be confounded in himfelfe for his fin, for the Lord doth never juftifie a finner, untill hee hath confounded him.

Many a man many times will fay, it is true, godly friends have had a good opinion of me, but they are deceived by my expressions, performances, and ourward carriage; Here the foule is mady times apt to finke, and would fink, if the Lord Tefus flood not at a non-plus in his room; for Christ could not tell what to fay , till hee had made fatisfaction : neither could be acknowledg the faults that were layd to his charge, because himselfe was guiltlese; nor deny them, lest he should and our fignes are gone, the cafe is now defperate, when wee are in a defperate taking : But though wee cannot tell prefently what to fay, yet the Text and the Gofpel tels you, Bebeldthe Lamb of God that taketh away the fins of the world. He himfelf could make no words about our justification, it was a cafe paft words , excufes would not heale us , then therewas fomething to be suffered, and that to the utmost: This he hath fuffered, wherefore be it able to fave them to the utmoft that come unto God by him , Heb. 7. 25. He is now able to do it ; but when he tood before Pontine Pilate, he could not cell what to fay, but now he hath fuffered in Family, Church and Common-wealth. In his family, they for fook him, and denyed him, and forfwore him; therefore now having made periect fatisfaction unto the exact juffice of his heavenly Father, by being condemned to death, crucified upon the Croffe, dead and buried, now his mouth is ever open to make interceffion : There is a flay and flaffe unto a Chriftian : Looke unto me, and be yee faved all the ends of the earth. Ifa. 45: 22. Now here is the brazen Serpent lifted up , That who foever believeth in him, fall not perifb, but have everlafting life, John 3. 14, 15.

Reft not now in a naked knowledge of this but look up to Heaven with your inner man, be confounded because of your hame, and yet fee the Lord offering you Chrift, and giving you grace to receive him and to reft there, that whatever cavils and temptations the Devil may make, and your own consciences may make, yet there is hope in Israel concerning this: The Lord is righteons, but I and my boufe are wicked, may a man lay, my wayes are corrupt, and my heart worft of all : But the Lord bath laid upon bim the iniquities of us all, and by bis ftripes we are healed, 1fa. 53.5, 6, 7.

There is nothing that will cleare him before God, when he flands in our case, but he must stand ashamed and contounded for us all : And though wee be thus and thus guilty in our owne apprehensions, and culpable in the fight of men, yet the Lord bath made fatisfaction for us , and therefore faith, Deliver him, for I have received a ranfome : And where there is any feede of God, there will be a fecret quieting of the heart upon this very ground, which the Lord doth dart into the foule, by caufing it to reff upon him, and cleave to him, and hang about him, where onely Redemption, Reconciliation, and Attonement for us are so be found.

Rev. 13.8. latter part of the vers.

Hriff is here described. Firft by the fimilitude of a Lamb. 2. By his passion, a Lamb staine. Thridly, his passion is amplified by the antitiquity of it, flain from the foundation of the world.

We flewed the laft time , that Chrift was as a Lamb. Now we come to the next part of the description of Christ; the next note then concerning Christs passion is this.

Christ though a Lamb was slain and slaughtered.

Though a Lamb. That is to fay, though innocent, meek, and patient, yet flain and flaughtered : So you read in Alls 2.23. Him being delivered by the determinate councell and foreknowledge of God, yee bave taken, and by wicked bands bave crucified and flain ; and in Alls 7. 52. You bave flain them which fo wed before of the coming of the just one, of whom you have been now the betrayers and murderers. He was a Lamb murdered, flain, and flaughtered ; He was led as a Lamb to the flaughter. Slaughter implyes a violent death put upon him , partly by the juffice of God, partly by the wickednesse of men, and partly by the malice of Satan. By the juffice of God : the word is very firong in Ifa. 53. 10. It pleased the Lord to bruise bim, it is tranflated, but it fignifies properly to grind him : the fame word is tranflated deftruction in Pfal. 90. 3. Thou turneft man to defruttion : and fo it pleafed the Father thus to grinde him to powder that he might have nothing of chaffe; he ground him to dust with grief, and horror, anguish, and agony, and terrour, and pain, Ifa 53.6. The Lord laid upon bim the iniquity of us all : and fo he ground him to dust for our transgressions. I mean to diflolution of foul and body. And so by the wickednesse of men, he was accused, condemned, and accordingly executed. What think you of him saith Caiphas, you have heard his his specimies; and they answered and sayd, he is guilty of death, Mat. 26. 66. And Pilate himselfe, though he thought him to be guiltelse, yet delivered him to be crucised, Mat. 27. 26.
And the people sayd, We have a Law, and by our Law he ought to dye, John 19. 7. Thus was he delivered by the wickednesse of men: and Pilate knew they didit of entry, Mat. 27. 18. So that it was a great wickednesse in Pilate to gratise the people, and to suffer such an innocent Lamb to be crucised; yet rather then he will loose the savour of Gesar, and of the people, he delivers him to be crucised.

And which is more then fo; as he dyed by the justice of God, and the wickednesse of men, so by the malice of Satan: for our Saviour faith in Luke 22. 52. This is the very bour and power of darknesse. The gates of Hell were opened to powre upon him all the vengence they were able. It was fore-tould in Gen. 2. 15. It fall bruife thy bead, and thou fhalt bruife bis beel. The Serpent should bruise his heel, that is Chrift, the feed of the woman. His heel, you will fay that falls far short of death; to pinch a man on the heele, it may make him go lamely, but not kill him : but the holy Ghoft intends, that all the mifchief that Satan works against Christ or any of his members, it doth but reach to the bruifing of the heele. It bruifed his heele, that implies, that Christ should have a body like ours: and his heele, that is the lower part of Chrift, his humanity, Satan should bruife it. And be shall break thy bead; it is the fame word , and therefore you may take them both for breaking, or both for bruifing : therefore Peter expounds it well (in 1 Pet. 3. 18.) when he tells you Chrift fuffered for finne, The just for the unjust, that be might bring us to God, being put to death in the fleft : His heele was brufed, that is, his flefh. So that though the Lord fuffered unsupportable misery, to be forfaken of his Disciples, betrayed by one, and forsworn by another, to be forfaken of his Father in regard of any comfortable fellowship he had with him : Though he suffered all this, in inward and outward man, to fuch extremity that made Chap. 12.

made him invest drops of blood, and in the end to give up the ghoft, yet all this was but the heele, the lower part of Christ as it were; for his personal union is not in the least measure intercepted; his head and councel stands sure, and all his indeavours will finde a blessed accomplishment. Whereas the Lord breakes the head of Satan, not onely cuts him off from all hope of fellowship in grace, but all his plots shall be disappointed at length, and all execution of his designes, they shall be brused; the Sonne of God comes to dissolve the works of Satan, to undoe them. Thus comes the Lamb to be slaine. The reason of the point is double.

Reason 1.

First, to fulfil all the former types of the Legall Sacrifices. The Israelites were to slay the Paschal lamb in the evening (as the ninth hour of the day) Revol. 12. 6. about the same time he was slain: And all other Sacrifices for reconciliation were to be killed, necessary therefore he should be slain; The daily Sacrifice which confisted of a Lamb in the morning, and a Lamb in the evening, were both slaine, though without blemist, and so was Christ. But that was but a shadow, for Christs suffering was rather the cause of them: but it is the Scripture phrase, this was done, that this and that may be suissified, because such a shing in after times was suffiled.

Secondle the christ reason who it was requisite Christ should

Secondly, the cheff reason why it was requisite Christ should be slaine, and why he would be slaine, was

Reason 2. his

That he might lay down his life for a ranfome or price for his people, Mat. 20. 28. The Sonne of man came to give bit life a ranfome for many. A ranfome of what? or price of what? The Scripture holds forth a price of Redemption, and a price of Purchase.

A price of Redemption; We are not redeemed with Silver and Gold, but with the precious bloud of Christ, as of a Lambuithout blenish and without spot, 1 Pet. 1.18, 19, 20. He paid a price for our redemption, that so he might discharge the debt of our sinnes which lay upon us, Rom. 6.23. Gen. 2.17. What day sever those eatest thereof those shall surely dye. And partly-by this means to satisfie the justice of God, who had threatned according to the curse of the Law, that cursed is every one that continues.

continues not in all things written in the Law to doe them : Bchold, faith the Lord, I fet before you life and death; obey it and live. do it not, and dye; This is the fanction and ratification of the Law of God throughout the books of Moles. And therefore that he might fatisfie the Law, and the wrath of God (Ezek. 18 20. The foul that finneth, it fhall die) that he might discharge the debt weeran into, and tatisfic for our defecte, it was necessary to pay this price of redemption, to fave us from death, and all evils that drew on death. And configuently therefore he hath faved us from finne, Rev. 1. c. He bath loved us, and washed us from our sinnes in his bloud. He hath redeemed us also from the world, Gal. 1.4. Who gave himselfe for our finnes, that he might deliver us from this prefeut evill world: and be bath also given himselfe unto the death, that be might deftroy through death, him that had the power of death. that is the Devill, Heb. 2. 14. So this is one part of the reason, and the sum of the ends why Christ gave himselfe to be flaughtered, and his life as a price of redemption to redeem us from evill. for redemption is from captivity and bondage from finne and Satan, and the world. This was a principal end of his death; but it was but pare of it. Here is a price to redeem us from evil, from fo many captivities wherein we were overwhelmed. But there is a price given of purchase, to the praise of his glory, Ephef. 1.14. It is a price of purchase of some glorious possession: and for that end it was also given in a principal manner. Now what is the purchased possession which the Lord hath given his bloud as a price to pay? Truly as the Lord hath redeemed us from the three great enemies of our fouls, fo he hath purchafed the three greatest bleffings the fennes of men are capable of, and they are the greaten bieffings they can reach to.

1. He hash purchased reconcilement with the Father. He bath reconciled m by the death of his San, Rom. 5. 10. God loved us indeed from eternity when he chose us, bit we were by nature children of wrath a well as others. How came we to be reflored and reconciled to the Father, from whom we fell as much as we could, by the bloud of the Lamb, that hath reconciled us to God.

Secondly, by his death, he hath paid a price of purchase for union, and possession of union with the Sonne. So doth the holy Apoftle teach us , Epbef. 2. 13. to 16. You that were sometimes farre off, are made nigh by the blood of Chrift : For he is our peace who hath made both one (Jewes and Gentiles both one) and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us : So that he hath made Temes and Gentiles one houshold of God, and hath built us upon Jesus Christ the cheif corner stone.

This is the fecond purchase which the Lord hath given his blood for the price of. We had never been united to Christ, nor by Christ been brought to the Father, but by the bloud of his croffe : his blood hath flain all enmiry between God and us.

Thirdly, by the same price he hath also purchased us the holy Spirit. Thefe are the three persons in Trinity, a postefion of Chrift to be our head : of the Father to be our God and King, and our Father, as his Father; therefore he tels his Disciples in John 20. 17. faith he, Touch me not, for I go to my Father, and your Father, to my God, and your God.

As foon as he had by death overcome death, now I go tomy Father and your Father : He hath purchased the poffession of Gods fatherly love : he hath also purchased union with himselfe, and therefore he prayed that his passion might be available to this end, that all that should beleive through the Apostles preaching should be one with them, John 17. 21, 22. That they all might be one , as thou Father art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us , that the world may believe that thou baft fent me.

And the glory which thou gaveft me, I have given them , that they may be one, even as me are one. So that this is the purchase which the Lord by his blood hath purchased, reconciliation with the Father, and union with the Sonne, and also the inhabitation of the holy Ghoft, as I Cor. 3. 16, 17. Know yee not that yee are the Temple of God, and that the fririt of God dwelleth in you. And as he cels us in Epbe f. 2. 18. Through bim we have an accesse by one spirit unto the Father. So that this is a purchase of unspeakable bleffinge which the Lord hath given his his blood for. It was not meet the blood of the Sonne of God should be spilt in vain (it were abhomination to God) therefore he gives it to avoyd the greatest evill that can befall us, to cleanse us from finne, and Satan, and to redeem us from the cutile of God; and to free us also from death, and bell, and the world, and all the enemies of our fouls.

Hegave his blood for all this, not to redeem us from crosses, but from the curse in crosses, and that is the part which drives us from God, Month. 25. 41. Depart from me yee cursed. So farre as any affiliation might separate us from God, he bath redeemed us from it.

Now from thence, as Christ hath given his blood for reconciliation with the Father, and for union with the Sonne, and for communion with the holy Ghost; so he hath given his blood for the purchase of some blessings that flow from these. For by communion with the spirit we have.

1. First communion with Christ in his death, mortifying sinne, and communion with him in his resurrection raising us up to righteousnesse. Whence the Apostle professet, that he desires to rejoyce in nothing but the cross of Christ, whereby the world is crucified to him, and he unto the world, Gal. 6. 14. And in Rom. 6. 6. Our old man is crucified with him, that the body of death might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sinne.

So there is the power of the spirit of Christ applying his death, killing and crucifying sinne and the world in us, crushing the head of the Serpent, and consequently all the power of the Beast, of the Catholick Church of Rame, and the head of that Beast which is the Pope. He did therefore shed his blood that he might destroy all the power of the enemy. That we being delivered out of the bands of our enemies, might serve him without search all the dayes of our life, Luke 1.74. This is the mighty power of the spirit applying the warme blood of Christ to our soules.

2. The second fruit that flows from union with the blessed Trinity, is ratification of the Covenant of Grace. And Christlayd downehis bloud for that end to ratificall the promises that a reconciled God hath made; and that is God in a Covenant

Covenant of Grace, That be will write his law in our bearts a thet be will forgive our finnes, and remember our iniquities no more : that me fall know bim . Jer. 31. 33, 34. Christ gave his blood to ratifie this Covenant, Heb. 9. 15, 16, 17. And as the Teflament of a Teffator flands not in force till the death of him that made it, fo the death of Chrift ratifies this Covenant : and as all the Covenants were confirmed by bloud, fo hath Christs blood done in a speciall manner. And when he speaks of ratifying the Covenant, he doth not onely speak of ratifying of it in word, but cheifly in the hearts of Gods people ; and no price could have done that, but the blood of the Sonne of God, by which he hath ratified all the promises of God to the consciences of Gods people: That when the heart and conscience of a sinner is overwhelmed with inward agony, and fear of the wrath of God, and the curse of the Law. the fear of death and Hell : now what shall satisfie a christian in this, but the death of Christ? and what shall ratifie it? His death hath purchased reconciliation with the Father, union with the Son, and communion with the holy Ghoft; now be bath feed his spirit in our bearts, whereby we cry Abba Father, Gal. This spirit of God works faith in the hearts of Gods people, whereby all thefe promifes are confirmed : they are all certainly made good, because such is the value and virtue of the death of this innocent lamb of God, they are now free from the terrour of death. It was not possible the bloud of Buls and Goats should take away sinne, therefore fill they had new facrifices, for the conscience had loft the copy by which it pleaded reconciliation by the spirit of God: now he applying the death of Christ to the foul, doth fully pacifie the conscience, and ratifie the Covenant to the foul, that now all the promifes of Grace belong to this or that ftrwant of Christ: and I pray mark it, because it is as weighty as any point of Religion : And of all the doctrines of Relimion, there is none fanctified fo effectually, and immediatly to beget faith in the foul, as the preaching of the croffe of Chrift : All the doctrines of the Gofbel are for the begesting of faith, but they have no efficacy this way, further then they are sprinkled with the blood of Christ : other promises do confirme faith, and they may also beget it, but it is with reference to the croffe of Chrift. That which gives fatisfaction to Gods justice, that gives latisfaction to our consciences. for conscience is convinced, that if God deal in inflice (as he knows no reason but he should) then he of all men is most miserable : the burden of this lies heavy, and is ready to plunge him to hell : what will fatisfie the confcience now ? nothing in the world except it fee fome reason why Gods iuflice (hould be fatisfied; and how shall that be done? onely by the death of the lamb of God. So that well doth the Apofile make the croffe of Christ the ratification of the Covenant, for that cuts of all finne, and curfe, and the rigor of the Law, hell and death, and devill, and damnation, and all evil. that can befall us in this or another world, and doth fatisfie the juffice of God that it might remove all thefs, and bears the whole burden of the defert of our finnes, purchafeth reconciliation with the Father, union with the Sonne, communion with the holy Ghoft. But what is all this to me, will the foul fay, unleffe thefe be fo given that faith be wrought in my heart to difeerne all thefe, and finde them? The Lord doth indeed all thefe; the spirit of God comes and so preacheth the Gospel, and so applyes the Gospel, as that in preaching these things, he doth beget faith in the heart to believe that all these things are indeed belonging to such a soul, and to every one whom he is pleased to accept, to the benefit of the croffe of Chrift, and to fellowship therein : and now indeed is the whole Covenant of Grace confirmed when by the death of Chrift the virtue of it is applyed by the spirit to the soul : Not that there is a reconcilement to God before faith, and union with the Sonne, and communion with the holy Ghost before faith : It is before in Gods purpole, and Christs purchase, but when the spirit comes to apply this (whose work it is to give accomplishment to the work of the other perfons;) he applying this, works faith, and ratifies the Covenant, and thereupon the heart is fatisfied, and the justice of God fatisfied, and the fpirit at reft from unsupportable anguishes which did before plow up the tender heart of a christian that he lay forawling as it were in his blood.

An Exposition upon Chap. 13.

2. A third benefit that flower from the former in refort of the price paid; and in regard of the virtue and efficacy of the price when it comes to be applyed: you have not onely lawfull right unto the creatures to eat and drink, oc. but fome right and title to them by the blood of Christ. And he hath also paid a price for the possession of eternall glory. the redemption of the purchased possession unto the praise of his glary. Epbel. 1.14. Untill doth argue, that there is a purchase we do not yet receive : and when shall that be received? when both we our felves, and the creatures shall be redeemed to the glorious liberty of the fons of God. Then thall we receive the full benefit of the price which he hath paid whiles he fuffered upon the Croffe. Therefore wonder not, that though Christ being a lamb yet he was flain, that he being flain we might be redeemed, and might enjoy the purchased possession. redemption from all evill in every kinde, from forrow, paine, &c. from the evil of them. And his blood also was a price for a purchased possession of reconciliation with the Father, of union with the Sonne, of communion with the holy Ghoft: dominion over all finne, ratification of the Covenant to our foules, and at length the possession of everlasting glory. This was the reason why the lamb was slaine, and had it not been for these divine, and supernatural, and blesfed ends, he would not have profituted his life to fuch a bitter and shamefull death, as the death of the Crosse was. It was not meet the onely begotten Sonne of God should come down into the world to lead a miserable life, and to dve an accurfed death, but for noble and glorious ends, and youhave the fum in thefe particulare.

For the use of it.

U/e 1. Firft, it is a cause of just humiliation to us, whose sins were fo out of measure finful, as that there is no ransome to be given for them, but such an invaluable price, as the blood of the Sanne of God. All the Gold of Ophir; all that the world can give, what is it, to this invaluable blood of the Sonne of God ? Yet this was our case, and estate, that if we had had many worlds for our inheritance, and given them all for the redemption of one foule, it had not been sufficient. This

This was our effate, and this is the effate of all fuch as yet live in finne to this day. It is a desperate effate that cannot be repaired, nor themselves rescued from by ransome, but the blood of Chrift. If our finnes had been of a leffe nature, a leffe price might have made fatisfaction : And yet fuch is the pride of the hearts of the fonnes of men; that because we live civil lives (though yet natural) we have good natures, are fo well bred, do fo many good offices, that we think it is not fo dreadful a matter, nor that we are fo dangerous for our effate as others : If it go ill with us, what will become of desperate roaring ruffines ? whatever becomes of them, it is a frivolous matter to you, or to fuch as are civil, and hinder the free paffage of the grace of God : but if our natures be fo good, and our carriage to comely, I pray you what need such an invaluable price be given? If a small matter would have saved us from the world, what need fuch an invaluable price be given to rescue us from it ? You will say, I hope I am not so addided to the world, I would drive a bargaine home to the head, and would not be cheated. But is that all you know by your felves ? certainly there is more; for if the Lord did not fee that inveglement which the word hath of us, and that close combination of us to it, the Lord would not have thought it needful to fend his onely Sonne to redeeme us from this prefent evill world. Frugality is not a vice in any, but a virtue; and if there were no more but good hufbandry, furely there need not fuch a price to be paid to redeeme us from the world : But certainly the Lord fees fuch power of worldlineffe, and untemperance in us, and fuch nower of passions and lusts, that no means would rescue us therefrom but the power of the blood of his Sonne ; and the world hath fuch hold of us, and we of it, that if it were not for the blood of the Sonne of God, we flould never be relcued from that engagement. And therefore let all flesh know, there is that power of finne, and of the world, in the best natures, and best education, that unlesse the Lord come with the blood of his Sonne, we thould be wedded to the world, and our fine, and lufts, and perish everlaftingly.

him in Brotisme, and promise it, or some other in your

But if there were not a firong power of Satan in us, how comes it that the blood of Chailt must be shed, to destroy him that had the power of death, that is the Devill, Heb. 2, 14, And therefore consider of it, so strongly did the curse of the Law threaten us, such power hath sin over the best nature,

And therefore connect out, a total only that the utile of the Law threaten us, such power hath sin over the best nature, that were it not for the blood of the Sonae of God, is were not possible we hould be redeemed from them. Therefore if thou hast a good opinion of thy selfe, that the world hath no hold of thee, nor thy passions and lusts, and the Devill least of all, whatever the Law of God saith: know that there was nothing could redeem us from this, but the blood of the Sonne of God; and if thou dos not believe this (however thou art thus naturally born) the truth is, thou rramplest under foot the blood of Christ, as not worth the spilling: If men be thus exact in their courses, so equal in their dealings, if the Devil have no power over you, to what end did he through death destroy the Devill that had the power of death? If since have no dominion over you, wherefore did he shed his blood, that the power of sinne should be destroyed? And therefore all the while a man is out of Christ, and the warme blood of Christ is not applyed thes, thy soule is a bleeding to death.

That look as it is with some men when in a consumption, the have little hope of recovery, then stry wilkill some lamb

That look as it is with tome men when in a confumption, & have little hope of recovery, then they wil kill tome lamb, and white it is warme, will take the warme body of the lamb, and faffen it to them that they may be repaired. Truly thus doth the lord with us, he knowes we are farm confumed, in a flate of worldlinesse, and assay. Thou with the Lord rescue us, and repaire us? No way but this, here is an innocent Lamb, he weaps him about us, warmes us with his blood, and so he recovers us against from our confuming condition, consuming with study lusts, and passione, and Satansea delutions. Look as Physicians, they will soon ghessewhat the disease is by the receipt: If the Lord prescribe such a receipt as this, the blood of the innocent Lamb of God, then know it for a certain truth, we were in a desperate condition.

Lamb) for us.

And indeed this will yet humble us the more, in cafe the Lord make it appear that all this is done for me, and thee; we may fay as Mephibofbeth, 2 Sam. 19. 28 what are we, bus as dead dogs in the light of God, that the Lord should give his onely. Sonne to recover such dead dogs as we from that wofull effate in which we and our fathers, lived, and many of them dyed in, yet the Lord bath been more mercifull to us; but what are we all but that the Lord might have cut us off? Herein the Lord commends his love to us, that when we were finners Christ dyed for w. Rom. 5. 8.

Secondly, it may ferve to teach us, the wonderful and unspeakable love of God and of his Chrift to us; the one, that was thus willing to fend his Sonne, the other thus willing to go, that his blood should be thus spilt like water upon the ground, and himfelfe cast aside of men for the while (but for ever accepted of God) that we might be laved .. Herein the Lord magnifies his mercy to mankinde ; his justice, that he will be fatisfied ; his mercy, that he will have fatisfaction in his Sonne, and doth not require it of our persons. It is rich Grace, that to we may frand, and wonder that the Lord should ever do je to fuch as we, to give his Sonne (an inn cent

Thirdly, it may teach us for ever to loath and abhor all finne, as that which fo deeply displeaseth God, so as no satisfaction might be made for finne, but the blood of his own Sonne; and no blood could fatisfie bur that , and this fin hath been the flaughterer offehe innocent Lamb of God. It provokes God greatly, and flughters his own Sonne; this is the power and venome of Sinne. And therefore unleffe we take delight in the deep displeasure of God, which is unappeasable, but in the blood of his Sonne, bow shall we that are dead to finne, live any longer therein? Rom. 6, 2. He means dead through Christ; Christis dead, and we in him, and with him, all that have fellowship with him.

foules, and breaking forth in fierceneffe of the Lords indignacion? How shall we dare to tread under foot the blood of the Covenant, as if it were an unboly thing? If there were no other argument to discourage from finne, this alone might prevaile, the nature of finne, that so deeply displeaseth God, as there is no fatisfaction but by the blood of Christ; and to confider, that finne hath flaughtered Christ Jefus. And therefore the meditation of the flaughter and death of Chrift, mould be as a flaughtering knife to cut afunder all temptati-What is it that all pleasures and profits can ons to finne. put upon us, to countervaile the loffe of the favour of God. and the blood of the Lamb? can any finne procure the favour of God, or any thing answerable to the favour of God? or can any allurements of the world, or temptations that can put upon us, or Satans fuggeftions; can they make the blood of Christan unworthy thing ? or give us greater matters then the blood of Christ hath purchased ? And therefore how shall we finne against the love of God? bow shall we commit this great wickedness, and sinne against God? finne against the blood of this immaculate Lamb of God. Thefe very confiderations are enough to cut off all finne.

Fourthly, this may ferve therefore to teach us all so give up our felves back again to Christ, that we may now live to him. A That we may now live to the father, and to the Son; that we may not live to finne, to Satan, to the world, But to bim that bath died for us, and given binfelfe for us; I live by the faith of the Some of God, Gal. 2. 20. Chrift fuffered for finne, be dyed for m, that we might not now live to our felves, nor to the lufts of men. but to the will of God, 1 Pet. 4. 1, 2, 3. 2 Cor. 5. 15. So that this is that which the Lord now cals us to, to wit, to live now no longer to those things from which we were redeemed by an invaluable price.

We are redeemed from the bondage of finne, and Satan. and from the world : and not onely redeemed from thefe, but purchased to life, as a reconciled people to God, to be as the friends of God : Abraham was called the friend of God. Though a man make no bones of breaking our against an enemy; yet now being reconciled especially to him in whom we live, or move, and have our being, it is for us to walke as those that are reconciled to God, as those that are united to Chriff, as those that are fandified by his Spirit, an those that have the grace of Christ applyed to our soules, as those that are dead to finne, and alive to righteou fresse; It is for us to walk as those that look for a purchased possession to the glory of Gods grace when this life shall be no more. If we be dead with Christ, why are we not free from all that which is evil. and free to all that is good ? Col. 2. 20. It is a ftaine and blemith to the blood of Christ, to fee a child of God live in any durty corruption, to fee a child of God a worldling, to yelld to any temptation, it is a fraine to the blood of Christ : To fee a child of God fet loofe from the Father, or the Sonne, or the Spirit, it is a flaine to the blood of Chrift; for the blood of Christis a purchase to redeem us from all evill, and to pur-

For a fifth use, it may teach us to apply effectually the Use 5. . blood of Christ : as we for our parts in our Ministery, fo you in your meditations, and repititions; there is the ground of your peace. No conscience that hath been troubled with fence of finne, but there lies his grief, the wrath of God that is upon his unbeleiving foule. He is condemned; the wrath of God abideth on bim. If you ransack it to the bottom, there is it that crusheth the spirit : all other will be cast off in case we be clear in this principle, about the fatisfaction of Gods justice provoked against us by our many and great transgresfions : what shall satisfie the soule now? There is nothing in the world fo fit to beget faith, as the preaching of the crofs of Chrift : If I be lift up from the earth, I will draw all men unte me, John 12. 42. If Christ be drawn up on the Croffe, held forth for his drawing of people that are troubled about the wrath of God, and the removing thereof, and about fatisfaction to God about all our iniquities, this will draw foules unto him : For how will you uphold any man to bear his burden of the apprehension of Gods wrath with any tolerable ease? No way but by holding forth Christ the innocent Lamb of God, crucified upon the croffe, and his blood foile as a price of fatisfaction to Gods justice, as a price of redemption

tion from all evill, and purchase of all good : then saith the foule, me-thinks there is fome hope, even for me; For who. shall hinder the power of the blood of Christ? and who shall hinder the free paffige of Gods grace? if the Lord I fus hath undertaken it, and hold it forth especially to men that are fick, and oppressed, and cust downe, and ready to perish for want of fuccour : In fuch a cafe, while this is held forth, there is the blood of Christ held forth, which was thed to purchase the spirit of grace; as it is written in Gal, 3, 12,14. Christ bath redeemed us from the curse of the Law, being made a exile for w. that we might receive the promise of the Spirit. The same blood of Chrift, that hath redeemed us from the curfe, and hath purchased the communion of the spirit, he is wont in the presching of the croffe of Christ, to open Heaven to the soule, to open the doors of the heart to beleive on this blood, thus held forth, and fo by this means you shall finde a sup. port, some satisfaction to all turmoils, and agonies of consciende. It is a wonder to fee how this blood of Christ is mighty through God to make our peace, while the spirit doth conveigh the efficacy thereof to the quieting, and establishing the foule, in fellowship with Christ, and reconcilement with the Father; that the foule fees, Chrift hath not dyed in vaine. that he hath not heard the word in vaine; nor waited upon Christin vaine, but fees there is life, and peace, and all in the blood of Chrift. And therefore wonder not now that the Apostles were so carefull in preaching the crosse of Christ. ther's the ground of all our reconciliation : That fatisfies the justice of God, and that fatisfies the foule, the spirit applying it begets faith to receive it; and there is they flay of the foul.

So this is the principall duty, as for us to teach, so for she people of God continually to attend unto, to ponder upon this : especially those whose hearts are at a losse about fatisfaction of Gods wrath, and pardon of their finne; It is that which in a speciall manner they fland in need to attend unto.

For a fixth use : If any man shall aske, how shall I know that all this belongs to me? what is is for thee we cannot yes tell. tell, in case a man have had no impression upon his soule yet it may be to thee for ought thou canst tell, because all the Elect are not yet called home, but are to be called: Therefore it is not the thing, to say they have no hope in it, because they are not yet washed by it, for they may be before they dye.

But if for the present you would know whether you have part in it or no: you see what the nature of it is, where the blood of Christ comes, where it is sprinkled, you see what it doth; it hath a redeeming power in it, and a purchasing power: It doth redeem thee from all evill, from the power of sinne, and Satan, and of this world, and of thine owne heart, and withall from the wrath of God, and the curse of the Law, so that the Conscience is more pure and peaceable then before, and both thefe go together.

But mind what I say further, if this blood hath had this free paffage in thine heart, is hath purchased reconcilement with the Father, union with the Sonne, communion with the Spirit, conformity to Chrift, and comforting thee in Chrift : Conforming thee to Chrift in his death, and comforthing thee in Christ and the fruits of his death, the favour of God, and the pardon of finne, and the bleffed priviledes that his death bath purchased. I say this is the efficacy of the blood of Christ where it is received in power: If these fruits be in us, they are lively pledges of the love of God in our hearts : If these things be smothered and d tubed, and overwhelmed with many Temptations, and worldly bufineffes, diffrading cares, and temptations; though it is true, the children of God may be at many loffes, yet mark what I fay, the blood of Christ is a living Spring, and a running Fountaine; though it may be troubled, yet it will runne cleare againe; if it do not, it is a figne it was not from the blood of Chrift, but from a delusion : But if it were from the blood of Chrift, thou shale finde hee will purifie and pacifie thy conscience, for he will not loose the value and efficacy of that rich blood ; great is the power of it, and he will not lonfe the vertue of it.

I know there may be many pange to Temptations and Christians in this new world may meet with new Temptations, and Christians are at a losse because passions breake in. we have loft all our peace, and comfore of our union, and the power of it; it may be fo, it is not unufuall; but (minde what I (ay) truly if the blood of Christ have any efficacy in ne, or power upon us, you will find that the fountaine of the blood of Christ is higher then any other fonntain

A fountaine that fprings from a low place may be stopped, bus if it comes from a high place, higher then the highest, no creature here below can hinder it, nor created thing below it can intercept the flowing of it : The Lord will redeeme thee from the world, and from these passions and lufts, and from the Satanicall, and malignant diffempers, and the Lords blood will reflore thee to reconcilement with the Father, and bring thee to union with the Son, and the comfort of the Spirit, and the sence of it. And therefore know, if he have left thee to live in such diffempers, and thou doft bleffe thy felfe in them, and canft not looke further, and there is nothing in the blood of Christ that much takes up thy heart, for redemption from evill, or purchasing good, it is much to be feared thou haft not yet tafted of the blood of Christ: what there may be in heaven wee know not , but no man on earth can give thee a comfortable figne of a good eftate. a post of the bolt allows and post an

It's man bleffe himfelfe in thefe engagements, and in thefe imbondagements to the enemies of his loule, and thinks his captivity is his liberty, hee doth not know what the Lord Jefus hath purchased, there is little hope such a man hath redemption from the blood of Christ ! This is the condition of all the people of God in the greatest temptations, unlesse it bein some extreame hurry of passion, it is a captivity to him, and a burden to him that he wante Christ Jefus, and. that is a good figne of a mans liberty purchased by Christ: This Christ who hath reconciled others to God, and done great things for them in a way of grece, and hath also reconciled him to God, and delivered him from death to fee this captivity, and to groane under it, it is a figne this man bath.

hatt bad fome other liberty in times paft: For other wife there is no man naturally but he thinks this is his freedom to have his owns minds not croffed, to have his full liberty in the world to have good bargains, and not to be pinched in this and that and not for conscience to fly in his face; it is a fign a man is yet a natural born captive. But when a man feels . his captivity, and looks at it as his burden, that he feeles not the favour of God, and union with Christ, and communion with the Spirit: It is a figne God hath called him to liberty. but he hath fold himself for a captive again ; & now he cryes as the Apofile, Rom. 7.24. Omiferable manthat I am, who shall deliver me from this body of death : There he is carryed captive. I fee another law in my members warring against the law of my minde, and bringing me into captivity to the law of finne which is in my members, verl. 22. Here is a fign of redeeming love by the blood of the Lamb.

O the wofull captivity that naturall corruption is to a redeemed foule, and the great liberty it is to a carnall heart, that hee thinkes it a liberty to have his thoughts free, and none to tell him: But to a good confcience that hath been washed and redeemed by the blood of the Lamb, the body of death is a wofull bondage to him.

This body of death it is not actuall transgressions, but a powerfull body of carnall corruption that hangs about us; that though we do not break out into actuall sinnes as other men do, yet we see a body of death in us, and this is our captivity. So then, if the Lord hath redemed a soul, and purchased these comfortable blessings as brings us to the sence of our wofull condition by reason of the loss of this liberty, all these are witnesses of the redeeming love of Christ.

Laftly, it may be a use of consolation to every such soule thus farre (even so farre as there is no bounds and limits to it) it is a marvellous satisfaction to a soule in temptation, nothing more then this Lnow speak of. One would think it were a great misery to live in horrour of conscience continually, and so it is: but if a man be redeemed by the blood of this Lamb, then it is not terrour of conscience that can B b feparate thee from God 3, for Christ himfelfe was under serrour of confelence as much, and more then thou are without in 3, that he swear drops of blood, and cries out and hemoans it in a holy manner. Why will you say, but will you have me fee such things at my heele? the descritons of God at my heele? Is the favour of God to be set as the heele? it will not hinder your union with your head, though you have loft the sense of it.

All that Chrift fuffered, all his desertions, it did not hin. der his fellowship with the second person in Trinity, neither will it hinder yours. The Serpent bruifeth our heel, makes us go heavily and lamely. Pfal. 42. 2. Thou art the God of my Arength, why doft thou c. ft me off & why goe I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy? It makes us go heavily while God fortakes us, as a man goes that is crushed by an enemy. but yet it will not break his head. And what great confolation is this, it is not terrour of conscience that can separate a man from Chrift : Nay I may speake a greater thing then that . it is not the power of your corruptions that can break wour head, though they will make you go more lamely and heavily, yet pride and passions, &c. do not separate union. It must therefore raise up the heart of a Christian above his temptations, above corruptions, above the world, above all the enemies of his foule, what can they all doe? If the Lord be with us, who can be againft us ? He that delivered up his owne forme to death for us, bow fiell be not with him freely give w all things ? Rom. 8. 31, 32. So that wee are freed from all annovance from the curse of the Law, the rigour of the law. free from defertion and corruption, and the Lord hath given us himfelfe, and his Son, and his Spirit, and his Covenant, and Kingdome, and his Church and people, and Ordinance, and all is yours, 1 Cor. 3. 22, 23. And how comes all to be ours? By the blood of the Lamb that hath purchased all good things, and the removall of all evill, therefore how comfortable may the foules of Gods people be, if they did attend to the blood of the Lamb.

And therefore let not those that have any part and portion in the blood of Christ Jesus be discouraged; let them in Gods

feare meditate more of this blood, and of the power and vertice of it: As you defire your lives may be more comfortable and feviceable to God and man, and your death more peaceable, so be much in meditation of this blood: And if you be doubtfull of your spirituall estate, then more seriously meditate of it, who bath suffered, and what, and for what end he layd downe his life, and lay all together, and fee if all will not amount at length to the begetting of Faith where it is wanting, and to the reviving of it where it is, that we may live fruitfully, and holily, and dye comfortably.

ER E is something yet to be handled in this Verse. and that is the antiquity of the fufferings of Chrift.
He doth not only fay that Chrift was a Limb, and flaughtered, but his death is described by the antiquity of it, From the beginning of the world : Or as it is here translated (and very fiely) from the foundation of the world; though I would not put any great weight in the very nick of the foundation, for the foundation of the world was laid the first day of the creation, when the Lord made the highest heavens, and the lowest earth : the highest heaven, the kingdom of the bleffed Saints and Angels, of whom it is faid, Come yee bleffed of my Father inherit the kingdome prepared for you from the beginning of the world : There was a kingdome in the foundation of the world, and therefore the Angels were created the firftday : and it is true Chrift was flaine even then alfo, elle those Angels had not been in that kingdome : But whether you take it for the foundation in the creation, or in the nick of the creation, it is not greatly material, for the death of Christ reached both to the fall of Adam, and in some refred before it, and the explication of that will flew the truth thereof, and I would not be exquisite nor curious in opening of it.

So it is said here, The Lamb (that is Christ, The Lamb of God) staine from the foundation of the world: the Lamb is Christ, evident it is that in fulnesse of time he was slaughtered about shout 4000. years after the world was made, but yet the holy Ghoff laith, He was flaine from the foundation of the world; to that though it was actually accomplished and performed in full felfe of time, yet as time began, the fuffering of Christ began also; flaine he was therefore from the foundation of the world.

First, In respect of Gods eternall purpose, who from the foundation of the world, and before the foundation of the world appointed Christ to this slaughter. We are redeemed, (aith Peter) not with silver and gold, but with the precious blood of Christs of a Lamb without but, was manifest in the se last times, fore the foundation of the world, but was manifest in the se last times, and from the foundation of the world, and from the foundation of the world, many times in Scripture are both one in meaning; before the foundation of the world he was ordained to be slaughtered; the Apossics words are expressly so, as of a lamb slaine he was ordained, and from the foundation of the world implyes long before the time he was slaughtered, and then you know not where to put the possible, but some reference it hath to the foundation of the world.

Secondly, He is truly faid to be flaughtered from the foundation of the world, in regard of the promife of God made to Adam fines the world began; the same day that Adam was created he fell, or certainly soon after, but most probable the sameday: the same day that he fell, it is clear the Lord gave him a promise of the death of Christ, in Gen. 3. 15. for that is the meaning of the promise: He sall break thine head, speaking to the Serpent, he shall crush the head of the Serpent: For the feed of the wordan shall break the Serpents head; Thou shall bruise his beel. Heel implyes the humanity of Christ, which was to be troden upon, and indeed it was all that the tempter could doe, but that bruising the heal was the crushing of his humanity, his soul and body was rent as under, that was promised from the foundation of the world.

Thirdly, From the foundation of the world, Christ was flaine in the foreruning types of him; for it is faid, that Abel brought of the firstlings of his flock, and of the fat thereof, and that was a type of this Lamb, Gen. 4.4. the facrifice of Abel was a speof Christ fuffering: now because offering that facrifice was by faith, Heb. 11.4. And faith hath ground from the word of God, though there was no written word, yet there was from the mouth of God to Adam, that taught Adam, he and his somes to offer facrifice in type of Christ that was to be slain, who should break the head of the Serpent, and therefore as a type of the bruising of the heel of the promised feed which God had fet before them, they were to offer facrifice, to shadow forth that great worke of Christ: Abel beleived on Christ, how far expressly or diffinctly I do not know; but had he not beleived, he had not facrificed by faith, nor had not been accepted.

Fourthly, He was flaine from the foundation of the world, in regard of the virtue and efficacy of his death : from thence. the lively virtue and efficacy of the death of Christ did expresa it felfe from the very foundation of the world, that Abel did offer a more acceptable facrifice then Cain, it was from his faith : what was his faith faftened on, by which his facrifice was accepted ? (for it is faid, the Lord bad refett to bim, and to bis offering) it is Christ alone, is implyes he looked not for acceptance by his facrifice; it is impossible that the blood of bula should take away finne, but he looked to be accepted in Christ Islus: fo Enoch is faid to have walked with God, Gen 4, 24. and no man can walke with God except he be reconciled with God, Amora a. And is there any reconciliation but in the blood of the Sonne of God? We are reconciled to God by the death of bie Sonne, Rom. 5. 10. It is faid of Abraham, that by fairb be left bis country and bis fathers boule, and bis kindred, and went out, not knowing whether be went, Heb. 11. 8. Gen. 12. 1. How comes Abrabam to be redeemed and rescued from the blood of his A ceffors and from his fathers house? We are redeemed from our vaine conversation received by tradition from our fathers, not with filver and gold, but with the precious blood of Chrift, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot, 1 Pet. 1. 18, 19. Which argues plainly and evidently that Abrabam himfelf, if he had not been washed in the blood of this Lamb, he could not have been faved from hankering after the blood of his Ancefors:

Ancestors; if the blood of Ancestors had been more warme in him then the blood of Christ, he would not have been redeemed from his fathers house : but now in his old age he leaves his country and goes to feek that feed in whom they all should be bleffed in that country. It is faid in Gen. 15. 6. That be beleived in the Lord, and it was counted to bias for rightoon for fe : and all just ffication is by faith (faith the Apostle) in the blood of Christ, Rom. 3. 23, 24, 25. We all have sinned, and are deprived of the glory of God, being justified freely by bir grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, Oc. For all the finnes that have paffed us from the beginning of the world. the Lord received atonement for them in the blood of his fonne : and our father Abrabam, if he were juftified, it mas by fairb in the fonne of God. How came it to paffe that Tofeph was able to overcome the firong and subtile temptations of his Miftreffe, in Gen. 39. 9. How fall I do this great wickedneffe, and sinne against God ? Can he mortifie a lust by any power of his own ? No, let the Apostle answer it, in Gal. 5.20. They that are Christs have crucified the fleft with the passions and lusts ; for fo it is, it is not affections, but all the finful passions that hang about the foules of men, the Lord frees us from them all by the blood of his Sonne : So that if you fee Joseph crucified to his luft, and Abrabam weaned from his fathers house and justified; if you fee Abel offering a more acceptable facrifice then Cain: Look at all thefe as lively fruits of the blood of the Lambslaine from the beginning of the world, whence also springs their faith ? heavenly mindednesse, their sandification? their power of godlinelle was as great (and in many things greater) as in those that have lived fince his crucifying on the croffe.

Now if it had not been as effectua'll and reall before his coming, as when he did come, doe beleffe the efficacy of his death would have been leffe powerfull and more weak in them that lived before his combing; but when you fee such livelinesse spring from the virture and power of it; then you see the efficacy of it from the frandation of the world, onely the manifestation of it was unit to clear as afterwards, whence it comes to passe that they generality of Christians now are, or ought to be, more cleare and more pure then the general ey of Chriftians then ; but in fome men , you have had them that exceeded those that lived in Christs owne time, and fince.

s. There is a fifth respect in which Christ is said to be flaine from the beginning of the world, and that is in respect of the faith of Gods elect who lived from the beginning of the world: As foon as there was a man on the earth. the same day the Lord put empity between the seed of the woman and the Serpent; now the feed of the woman looks for falvation in the feed of the woman, and they did even then look to the Lord Jesus the Messar as much as we do fince. in John 8. 56. Your father Abraham rejoyced to fee my day, be fam it and was glad : that was the day of the coming of Christ into the world to be an attonement for the finnes of his people : If Abrabam faw it , then Enoch, Noah, Abel, and Adam, and Eve; and who ever lived by Jefus Chrift, they all faw Christ afer off, yet they saw him notwithstanding, they saw his day, the day of his Incarnation, and Passion, and Resurrection : and it is faid in Heb. 11. 1. That faith is the fubliftence of things hoped for, and the evidence of things not feene; that is, it did give the Fathers before Christ, as clearly to fee Christ already present to them, as if he had been actually come in the flesh, and so it is with all the Saints at this day; look as we do, as really believe the Refurrection of the body, that by faith gives it subfifiance as verily as if it were present, and as we believe the falvation of our foules, as verily as if it were accomplished; and it is as clear, I meane, as certaine as if it were already done, and in some measure as evident; for so he faith, It is the evidence of things not feenthe speaks in the Apofile words, The confidence and evidence of things not feen. Hence it comes . That the fathers faw the promifes & embraced them, but did not receive them, Heb. 11.39. That is, did not receive them accomplished (for they never saw Christ in his death) but they were perswaded of them, and embraced them, and did verily look for them in expectation, as if they had been prefent with them; that is, if Christ had been come, they would not have done nor suffered more then they did; which argues that that faith gives a batis and subfiftence to what it layes hold on ; and makes it fo reall, that we shall neither do more, nor inffer more, if it were prefent; They did believe that the time would come, when the Meffin being bruifed himfelfe, he would break the Serpents head.

Thefe are the feverall refpects in which Christ is faid to be the Lamb flaine from the foundation of the world : In regard of the purpole of God, in regard of bis promile, in regard of the types of bim, in the Sacrifices that were fbadower of Chrift, and did really hold bim forth; in regard of the vertue of it, and in regard of the faith of Gods people that lived from the beginning of the world : in regard of all the fe Christ was staine from the beginning of the morld,

All the ways and respects I have spoken to, are as so many Reason 1. Reasons; yet if a man should stand upon a Reason, I would first fav this; the first may be from the eternity of that which is infinite : what ever is infinite, is eternall : Now the value and vertue of the death of Christ is infinite, as being the blood of the some of God, Acts 20.28. Now that which is infinite. as well reacheth that which is before, as after it ; infinite it is, or elfe it cannot be eternall : and infinite it had need to be, or elle the infinite wrath of God could not be fatisfied thereby ; but being infinite, it was of eternall efficacy, and therefore he was a Lamb flain , and flaine from the foundation of the world : So that all that are elect were in Christ before the foundation of the world. Epbef. 1. 4. Hee bath chofen us in Christ before the foundation of the world; in Christ, and in Christ crucified before the foundation of the world; for being of infinite value, it must of necessity be eternall; there is nothing infinite, but is eternall, they are co-incident : that which is finite will end, it began in time, and will end in time : But that which is infinite muft needs have refped to eternity ; and therefore faith our Saviour, John 8. 38. Before Abraham was I am : So that take him whether as G.d, or in point of the vertue and efficacy of his mediation , he was before Abrabam; it could not be eternall, if it be not infinite; and if it be infinice, it muft neede be eternall.

From the presence of all future things to Christ , I soeak in proper foetch . It is truly faid, there is nothing future to Christ: I confesse the point is unconceivable to finite capacities, but to God all things to come are present, as if they were in actuall being : All things are naked and open unto the eyes of bim with whom we have to doe, Heb. 4. 12. It is an ancient fpeech, Eternity is like a circumference about a Center that compaffeth it round about, that if you fit on the Center. you fee all the lines: Suppose a great tower as high as the clouds, and one fitting thereupon, he fees one man coming this way, and another another way, he fees they will meet in one place; they know nothing of it, it is future to them. but present to him : So the Lord that fits upon the clouds of eternity (if I may use such a word) he sees all things as if they were present to him; and certaine it is, God is not one day older then he was from the beginning; the Angels are older, and Satan, but God is not older, nor is capable of being older; time addes nothing to him, his evernity (wallows up all; that which hath been, is, and shall be, it is fresh Rill to him; that which is past, and that which is to come, whence it is faid, Before Abraham was I am, he doth not fav I was; but his past time is not lost to him, no time is past with God : Before Abraham was I am : a thousand yeares are but as ve-Berday; when it is past, all are one time to God, Pfal. 90. 4. So then, if you look at Gods account of things that hath entred into such a Covenant from eternity, hath written so many in the book of life to be brought on to God by the death, and refurrection, and afcention of Chrift, he knew the person of the God-head would certainly take the humane nature of Chrift; it was present to him, and therefore hee doth to elect, and govern, and dispose of creatures as he that had received a ransome before the world began : And therefore Elibu his speech is weighty, in Job 33. 23. That if an interpreter, one of a thou fand come to a ficke man, and (bem to a man bis righteou nelle, and that then God is gracious to bim, and faith, deliver bim, for I have found a ransome (to wit, in the blood of the Lamb) then will he fay, deliver bim : What, had he received a ransome in Jobs time? Job lived before Abraham? sruly then he hath a ransome, as a man hath a bond from a good furety; but so it was in his apprehension, not only because Christ was a good surety, and would make good payment in time, but the thing was as present with God, and really performed; All times with God are but as now, pass, present, and to come; all times with God are one and the same, fest, and to come; all times with God are one and the same, fest, and to day, and to day, and for ever; Yesterday before the Law, and to day, both under the Law, and especially under the Gospel, and for ever the same, of the same vertue and efficacy, and power: So you see the truth of the Point.

First, it shows you the dangerous and damnable estate of the world from the foundation of the world; the deep depravation and corruption of the world from the foundation of it; it is faid by John, I John 5. 19. We know we are of God, and all the world lyes in wickednesse: Did it lye so in Johns cime. when all the great Nations of the world worshipped the Devill, Apollo, Hercules, and Jupiter, and fuch dunghill gods? Did it not then lye in wickednesse? Truly it was so fince the world began, it was never better from Abraham to Mofes, from Moles to Christs time, and from Christs time to this, the whole world lyes in wickednesse; for otherwise to what end should Christ be slain from the foundation of the world, if there were no need of a Redeemer, else there had been no need of his facrificing from the foundation of the world There were all errors in the world, not as God made it, but they suddenly corrupted themselves. Man being in bonour abideth not, but is like the beaft that perifbeth, Plal. 49. 20. The word in the Original is, be fall not fleep in it, nor lode in it, meaning that hee shall not take one nights rest, but become like a beaft, and clad with the skin of a beaft: So this is the condition of civill men that are like bruit beafts from the foundation of the world : The Lord looked down from beaven, and beheld the children of men : And the Apostle interprets it of all men; He looked downe and beheld all the children of men, to fee if there were any that did understand and secke God: They are all gone afide, they are all become filthy, &c. Pfal. 14.2,3,4,5. This is the case of all men by nature. The Aposile expounds

it of all, Jewes and Gentiles by nature, in Rom. 3. 10. to 16. And in Gen. 6. 5. The Lord looked upon the earth, and behold it wis corrupt. And in Gen. 11. v. 12. The earth alfo was corrupt before God, &c. And God fum that all the imaginations of mans beart were evill, enely evill, and that continually. thanflaced, Imaginations, in the Originall is, The frame and bent of bis thoughts is evill, and onely cuill, and that continually; bent to back-fliding from God, not a good thought in any mans heart fince the world began; take him as hee is by nature, not a good thought rifeth in any mans lieart , not a good word from his lips, nor a good action from his hands a Take him without the vertue of Chrift fince the world begin, there never role a good thought in all mens hearts; if there did, it was by the vertue of this Lamb of God that was flaine from the foundation of the world. The beart of man. (Teremiab complained long before Christs time) is deseitfull above measure, and desperately wicked, who can know it, Jer. 17. 9. Who can know the bottomleffe depth of it. This is the very flate of all the world fince the world began; the whole frame and state of the world is enmity against God, Rom. 8 7. It is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be, and that in such a deep measure, you may see by the medicine that the Lord prepares for it; it flews the depth of the depravation of the world from the beginning, it hath been corrupt and incurable, unleffe it wereby the vertue of the death of Chrift, by the sonne of God made man, taking upon him mans nature ; and the great neffe and infiniteneffe of the vertue of this remedie doth evidently argue the bottomleffe depth of the corruption of the world fince the world begin: No man would bespeak a Smiths great hammer to break an egg-shell, a man would think it a marvellous vanity if he should. Truly the Lord hath prepared the strongest iron hammer to break the Serpenis head; and which is wonderfull, this iron hammer, the Lord Jefus, that breaks all before it; The ftone cut out of the mountaine, that breaks, the iron mountaine of Rome, Dan. 2. 34. It is the fame it was : it makes men many times wonder how they came to be well conceited of the old Religion, when Antichrift re gued ; then were golden dayes

(as they fay) then there was nothing but every man regarded other mens good as their own; precious golden feasons in the old world, then an easie matter would have perswaded them all : but to what end was Chrift flain from the beginning of the world, if it were not full of wickednesse? if it were not fo tough that this hammer of hammers must come to break it in pieces? If men were fo tractable, children to Parents, fervants to Mafters, and yoke-fellows to abundantly in sweetnesse and amiablenesse, what needed Christ to be crushed in pieces? Say not, faith Solomon, Eccles. 7. 10. what is the cause that the former dayes were better then these, for thou dost not enquire wifely concerning this : It is not a wife question; for theltruth is, thou are decieved to think the elder times were better ; it is true, it is possible men by the policy of Satan may grow worfe; But take them at the best, had there not been a Lamb flin to rescue the same from the corruption of it, no flesh had been saved. It is true, in some ages, when the Gospel found free passage, there was some difference. It was fo in Davids time, better then in Sauls and Solomons, for a time better then in Davids; and fo in Hezekiab's time, better then in Zedekiah's, and fo it hath been up and down : but take it the best, all flesh have corrupted their wayes, there is not a good thought, not a good word, nor a good practice fincethe world began. Sometimes in morall vertues men have more exceeded, when the Davill knew they were farre off from spiritual grace; he tempted them not when he knew he had them faft in a golden and filken chaine, or cord of morall vertues (fo I may call them) he led the prisoners of those dayes in a golden chaine. The strong man armed kept the house all the time of the Grecian and Persian Monarchy long before Christ and if any were delivered, it was by the death of Christ as well as now. It is true, we read in ancient Poets, I think it was fetched out of Daniel from Nebuchadnezzars dreame; there was a golden world, and then a filver world, and then a braffe, and fometimes iron, there was all. The Babylonian Monarch was gold : but when it was gold, it was but golden fetters of finne, and a land of wickednelle that held men clofe to the Devill; and the filver Monarch

Monarch of Perfia was but filver fetters; and the braffe Monarch of Greece it was but brazen fetters.

It is true, when Religion brake forth, then hee put upon them more chaines, firong beaftly lufts, men with men committing filtbineffe, Rom. 1. 17. Thefe were iron chains to cary men captive to Satan : He fees Learning break forth, and thereforehe layes fironger chains and bands upon them : Be no more fliffe-necked, left your bands encrease, saith the Lord: and fo from golden bands you have filver, and from filver, braffe. and from braffe, iron, and all to lead you captive to your last execution : And what is the difference ? if a man be pynion'd with a golden cord, or a filver, or a brazen and iron cord, the one is more glittering then the other, but all bring to deftruction: Therefore look at all the world living in wickednesse fince the world began, or else in vain was the Lamb flain: The very frame of mans transgression brought in a necellity of a like remedy, and therefore a like need of the blood of Christ.

And it is a vain Question, as Solomon faith, why the former times should be better then these : fo it is a vain apprehension that men have of themselves as good, to say, I thank God I have a good heart, and you shall finde me tractable, and reafonable, (though they be but naturall) and fo their children are very tractable, you may lead them with a twinde theerd. and need not use riolence, you may foon break them; what then are you but egginels? what need then a iron hammer to crush all the power of the enemy? do not you and your children fland in need of the virtue of the blood of the Lamb as much as others have fince the world began? That men have flood in need of the blood of the Lamb from the foundation of the world to rescue them from the power of the frong man, if they were to tractable, young or old? I know there is a great difference between spirits. God forbid we should defame the work of God in nature, but take the best spicit, there is unconceivable enmity in the best natur'd man against Christ: there is an in-bred emnity against him ever fince the world began, as is impossible to be healed, but by the blood of Christ; Christ came to crush them whiles they are in the shell, and unleffe unleffe he heal them, verily children of a span long cannot be faved : Therefore let no man flatter themselves in their good inclination; there is that in us fince the world began. that Christ must be broken and crushed to break the league between us and the Devill : Christ himselfe in his soule and body muft be firiken, he kils himfelfe by the firoke he gives to

Folly is bound up in the heart of a child, and it is not goodnesse of nature, or what ever else you can talke of, that will root it out ; nor the rod of correction, unleffe the blood of the Lamb be sprinkled upon it, and then it may be of great nfe, and any other ordinance to bring them to the wayes of Christ Jesue. Now if this were well stamped and revetted into the spirits of men, it would humble proud flesh, and not onely take them off from the free will of Popery, and Arminianisme, and a pack of such; but I hope there is leffe need of foeaking against fuch herefies, but to fet it home upon our own hearts; whatever our fathers have been, we their children are not better : Some accidentall difference there may be, but fetting afide fuch accidentall differences for the fubstance of prevailing corruptions, they have ruled and reigned in the hearts of men, fince the world began, by invincible power unable to be fubdued, but onely by the blood of the Lamb : And therefore you that are children of godly Parents, hear this word and know it; you bring fuch engagements into the world with you to the firong man, and now are fo engaged, that unleffe Christ be broken for you, and his death suffered for you, and his blood shed for you; you see how it is with younger and elder people, and let all Parents tell it to their children, and Masters to their servants, and all that have to do with the world; be not deluded with a good affection to your own nature you are in, this is the flate of all fince the world began; they are all forauling in wickednesse, and there is fuch a league between the Devil and them, that unleffe the Lamb be flaughtered, we cannot be faved.

Secondly, Let all the fonnes of nature, and all other fons Ufe 2,... of grace, know, that if Christ was flughtered from the beginning of the world, and onely to break the Serpents head, which had plotted our destruction from the toundation of the world, then certainly it is not possible we should live inthose since by which we have slughtered Christ; can any man that knows the difference between the right hand and left, commit sinne that slughters Curist Jesus, and live and die in it well enough? and think with himselfe, that notwithstanding the lewd lusts that hurry me, I shall do well enough with it? an oath is not such a great matter, or to sit tippling till we be drunk, or gaining too much in bargains, it is no such great matter: I tell thee, if it be breach of the law of God, thou canst not live in it; Christ himselfe could not, it cost his breaking.

I speak nothing to the difference between mortall and veniall fins; was it a veniall fin, think ye, that flaughtered the Son of God? they have been breaking him since the world began; and is it possible that if he lye a bleeding for fin. is it possible that this or that sinne should be venial and ought to be passed over ? be not deceived, look what slaughter it hath brought of the chiefest of the world, even the God of the world, it flughtered him; and there are none of all his people that shall be faved by him, but must be flaughtered in his lufts and passions, they must be crucified with Christiff they have any part in him; he was flaine from the beginning, and to from first to lask, they must be crucified from the power of inne, or elfe they cannot be faved. And therefore let no man bleffe himfelf, and think he shall do well enough though he continue in fin ; for the truth is , there is no fin but coft Christs breaking and crushing, and either thou must lav hold on his death, and be conformable unto him, or elfe thou hale never have part in him; it is tough work to flaughter fin : ler this flaughter of Christ cut offall out-runnings of finne, whether in thoughts, words, and deeds; let it be as a fliughtering knife to all our lufts, confidering there is no taking leave in this and that; for the truth is, it coff the very blood of Christ.

Thirdly, It may teach us the unity of our Religion with the Religion of the ancient Patriarks fince the world began; how did they look to be faved? In Atts 15. 11. they all looked to be faved by grace, and by the blood of the Lord Jeius, as we doe in doing and fuffering all for them, and we know no other way : There is no name under heaven whereby wee must be faved, but onely the name of Christ, and by that we are faved from the guilt and filth of finne, and fupplyed with grace to conforme us to Christ Jesus, and to make us like to him our head and husband; there is the old way of falvation. and it is the fame now; there is unity and true antiquity. The Papifts fpeak much of antiquities, but let them bring no other way of falvation but the blood of the Lamb, and we will look at them as Churches for point of falvation; we will grant them the right hand of fellowship if they will look for no falvation neither from free will, nor from merits of their own, nor from the intercession of Saints and Angells, nor from dispensations of the Pope, nor from the going on pilerimage, nor from the satisfaction of Saints, but that they look for talvation onely from the blood of the Lamb; truly we will give them the right hand of fellowship; let them have errours, there may be many errours otherwise : but les them hold there, and look for all falvation there, and rest not upon any other hopes of falvation, but what they receive from the blood of the Lamb by faith in him (for so alone it is received) faith in the blood of the Lamb, breeds and sheds abroad every grace in some measure and makes fruitfull. No man bath washed his roads in the blood of the Lamb but is fit to walk with Christ in white to justification, to bis fandification, Rev. 7. 14. And so you shall have a true and perfect agreement in Religion, if that we agreed upon looking there for falvation, and put not falvation elic-where : but when men magnifie nature, and pinch upon, and extenuate the blood of Christ, and in their deep devotion you shall have pictured, here is the blood of Christ, and the blood of the fonne of the Virgin; when he looks upon the fonne of the Virgin, he thinks there is perfe & salvation; but when he looks upon other things, to the milk of his mother; oh there is more fweetneffe in milk then in blood! when he looks agains to the passion of Christ, then he prifeth that; but when he looks to the tenderneffe of his my her, hee thinkes there is more in that : And thus Dα doth doth their blasphemous devotion hang between the milk of the mother, and the blood of the Lamb, which argues their religion is transported to a notion of the blood of the Lamb, and they are captive hither and thither, and any whether, rather then to the blood of Christ.

Fourthly, it may be of initruction to us, that never any evill can be fall us, but there is a remedy prepared before is come upon us: The Lamb was flaine from the beginning of the world.

Though we lived before Christs time, and much more, if after it: there is no tinne that Adam nor his wife committed, but there was a remedy prepared for it before the foundation of the world; it was of infinite value, it was provided from eternity, and promifed from the foundation of the world; it was shadowed in types, and exhibited in sundry representations, and in the lively efficacy of it in the hearts and lives of his people since the world began: All that we read of No-ab, Abraham; Isaac, and Isaac, of David, and Solomon, of Kings, Priess, and Prophets, and Apostles, what have they all been, but lively representations and soot-steps of the power of the blood of the Lamb: the Lord provided his slaughter of the Lamb, for the redemption of all his people, out of the world, before the world began.

It is many a conceit that Christians have; this and that might have fallen out better, if such means had been taken in time, such a mans life had been saved; according as Mariba said unto our blessed Saviour in John 11.21. Lord if thou bads, been bere, my brother bad not dyed; why so? Christ had been able to heal him; By what virtue shall he raise a man from death to life? Is it not by the virtue of his death and resurrection? If it be, was not his death and resurrection ? If it be, was not his death and resurrection before the world began? For it is of infinite value; and therefore though he came four dayes after Lazaru death was pass, yet he came timely enough, for he brought virtue with him; and so let no man say, it I had known as much now as before, I should not have done thus: By what virtue skould you have been preserved? if there be any saving benefit, it must be by the blood of the Lamb, for it is from that, that we look for all our redemption from all afflictions and temptations from his blood, then there was remedy enough before, but it was not applyed, because God hath some other work more heavenly and spirituall and usefull to us then the accomplishment of our hearts defire, then the repairing of our lolles and croffe.

So then this is of speciall use to us, that if his blood be shed from the foundation of the world, then the remedy is never too late: If we thinke if we had not known many things, we might have faved a world of forrow : why did we not? was it becaufe there was no balm in Gilead, or no vettue in the blood of the Lamb, or that the vertue of it is dryed up? No, God forbid ; but the Lord hath some other exercise for us to make us conformable to Chrift, he would have us more weaned from the world, and more Christ-like, and more Lamb-like; more spirituall, and every way more conformable to Chrift, and for that his blood was sufficient, for he came not to fave us from croffes, but from curles from any thing that might hurt our foules, as might break our heads, as might hurt our union with Christ, and communion with his spirit, for that is may be of value ; it was of value 4000. yeares before his coming in the flesh; and do you think it is not of value 4000, yeares after ? it is not yet 2000, yeares fince his coming, but 1600. and some odde: then be perfwaded that the blood of Chilft is fill lively and fresh to remove all finne and croffes, and to leave a gracious Tincure on all croffes, to do us more good then it we were without them; This is the efficacy of this blood which is a flay to Christians that are troubled with the power of their corruptions and temptations, they are not able to overcome and refift fuch temptations; why not able? If all the powers of hell come against you, verily there was a remedy provided long ago, and it was abundantly efficacious foure shouland yeares before, and it is of more efficacy now, though they had the Gospel before, yet not in that clear manifestation: and therefore if you read that Abraham facrificed, and he pleafed God; but I doubt my prayers and my prophecyings please not God; why do they not? Abraham knew of the meanes D d 2

meanes whereby he thould pleate God. Enoch walked with Ged, but I fhail never keep tuch fellow fhip with him ; he was reconciled to God, and there was no meanes of reconciliation but by the blood of the Land, it is able to put though Abraham he for took his Countrey and his into inble faith. Fathers house, onely because her looked at the blood of the Limb : and it be prevailed to far, why not we ? If he was fully fatished in the pardon of his finne by believing him that had promised, what ailes it that his death is not of infinite value fince as well as before ? It Jojeph was able to withfland his wanten Millerfle, doubtlefs there is the like power now ; how shall I crucifie the Sonne of God, and put him to open fhame ? Thus poor Christians work upon this infinite vertue. and lively power of the death of Christ; it wondeifully calmes and purifies the heart, it mightily ftrengthens against all corruption : and what ever rifeth in the hearts of Gods people that prevailes against them, it is because the blood of the Lambis not applyed, otherwise it could not be they should be dead-hearted and blind spirited, and many times at a loffe in this and that practice, and wreftling with this and that temptation, it springs only from want of applying the efficacy of this blood which hath been of fuch infinite vertue from the beginning of the world.

Rev. 13.9, 10.

If any man have an eare let him beare. He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: Hee that kill th with the sword must be killed with the sword, bere is the patience and the faith of the Saints.

199 F any man bave an eare, let bim beare: What should he heare? For when he doth otten use this phrase in the fecond and third Chapter , he tells you what they shall heare : Heare what the Spirit faith unto the Churches.

Now he doth not put in that objet of hearing; but yet taking his meaning, he meanes that which the Spirit hath favd unto you in the former description of the Beaft , especially that which he faid to them in the words before going, to wir. the universality of the worshippers of the Beast, and the certain destruction of those that do worship him, and the preservation of the elect children of God from that contagion.

It is meet to be heard that fuch a Beaft would come into the world as the Roman visible Church, and that he hath in him the resemblance of all the old Empires, of the Lyon of Babell, of the Beare of Perfia, of the Leopard of Greece, and of other Beafts, and of that other Beaft the old Roman Pagan Empire : And it is not unworthy to be heard, the wound that should be given gim by the Goths and Vandalls, and the time of his greatnesse, and that those that worship him shall nor be faved, only Reprobates thall worthip him : And thofe whose names are written in the booke of life, they shall either not be worshippers of him, (but beare wirnesse against him) or else they shall be rescued from it, and not live and dye in that worship. So these two verses are Corolaries, or uses, which

The first is a word of attention, and due consideration to every intelligent reader of this Prophecy : If any man have an eare, let bim beare.

The second is a word of consolation to all the Church and people of God, and that is double.

1. From the violent deftruction of this great Beaft, a double deftruction.

1. Captivity.

2. Slaughter; and both amplified by the equity of both, the Lord rendering the like vengeance unto this Braff, which hath rendered unco the Saints: Hee that leadeth into captivity shall goe into captivity. And againe, Hee that killeth with the (word (as this Beaft had done by his Warr, some millions of Saints) must be killed with the frond.

The second Consolation is a word of acknowledgment of the Patience, and Faith of the Saints that have, or thall fuffer from this Bealt : Here is the parience and the faith of the Saints ; not only of the Saints acknowledged as Sufferers in the time of the Pagan, Roman Einpire, but even fuch as fuffer under his Holineffe (as they call it) and that fuffer under this Casholick visible Church : These sufferings are here acknowledged for witneffe bearing, against the Herefies, Idolatries, and Tyrannies of that State. The Lord doth acknowledge their Sufferings to be the patience and faith of the Saints : As he did acknowledg is when the Saints were put to death in the tenne Persecutions, so likewise doth he acknowledge thefe. And this is some part of the meaning of the words: That which more concerneth it may be further opened in handling the notes that arite from them.

That is, an intelligent, understanding eare: If any man be taught of God to hear; if any man have learned of the Father to heare; if any man have a spirituall understanding (for that is the meaning of it) let him heare what God hath fayd: For it was a great word hee faid, that all the Reprobates in Christendome should worship this great Beast, and none of all the Saints of God should do it. This none can heare, but those that have cares given them to heare.

The note arising first from thence is this :

It is a point worthy of due and deep Attention and Confi- Dell. 1. deration, and yet fuch as none but intelligent Christians (taught of God) will or can understand , That a Roman Catholicke by his Religiou cannot goe beyond a Reprobate : and that an elett child of God curnor live and dye a Roman Catholicke.

This is the fumme and true meaning of the words : Thefe two points were the fum of the former verfes which the holy Ghoft had delivered with much evidence and ftrength; and vet left it fhould be flighted over by fome careleffe Readers, he doth therefore fet it on as he is wont to do the weightieft marters that concern a State: If any man have an eare let him beare : It he have the care of a Chriffian , that discernes the voyce of Christ the Shepheard of his foule, let him heare it, and mind it well, worthy it is therefore of due and deep attention , and he doth never use the phrase but in matters of fingular importance; and it doth imply. That every man bath not an eare to beare, but only those to whom God bath given eares. What shall they heare ? They shall heare this, That none of all the devout Catholicks have their names written in the Lambs booke of life, but their devous worship in the end will leave them in no better effate then a reprobate flate. If they go no further then their Religion, it leads them to the worship of this Catholick Church, but never leads them further then a reprobate condition : But for fuch, whose names are written in the Lambs booke, hee excepts them from this generality of worthip, they are not of this nu wher : It doth expressy hold forth, That a fincere bearted Christian, an elect Christian brought bome to God, and brought to fellowship with Chrift, and the fruits of bis Election are expressed in his fustification, and Santification, be cannot live and dye a Roman Catbolick. He may for a time worthip the Braft in his ignorance, and do as the reft of the world do, and fhew no difference between himfelfe and the reft of the world ; but when this ele-Aing love of God doth fhed it felfe abroad into his heart, it doth make him fee the counsell of God more; and it doth difcover discover the delutions of the man of Sinne, that he cannot, nor dare not worship him : He feeth that God requires more to Salvation, then the subjection unto the injunctions of this Beaft of Rome. And this is the point which the Holy Ghoft cells you is of fo great, and necessary, and due attention and confideration, which none but understanding eares can, or will understand, but all the world will run admiring afrer the Beaft.

The Lord did foresee that Doarine would be thought a hatfh, and peremptory, and tenforious fentence, that mortall men, and they fometimes but an handfull too, should dare to bid defiance to the whole Catholick Church to looke at them as Reprobates : and to look at those whom they condemn for Hereticks, as the elect fervants of God.

This the Holy Ghoft did fee would be accounted great arrogance, and almost scurrility, and therefore the Holy Ghoff doth put it on with a watch-word. Let bim that bath an eare beare : And he puts it on with firength , that all Chriftendome (hould worthip the Beaft, and yet none (hould wotthip him whose names were written in the Lambs booke of life.

It might be of lingular ute in some places, nor here of so much : Yet it being a part of the counfell of God , I may not lightly passe it over, because we know not what times may come, nor whether fome of us may have occasion to travell, it is meet therefore that Christians should know something of ic, more briefly, and plainly.

If you should defire any further testimony to confirm it, confider what the Holy Ghoff faith, in Rev 11.2. where he tels you of the Court that is without the Temple: Meafure it not (faith he) for it is given to the Gentiles and to the boly City, they fall tread under foot forty and two moneths. Where you shall fee that he fpeaks of the fame per fons, and of the fame distance of time : Hee would have a Temple of God measured. even in the darkeft times of Popery : But for the Court (2'luding to the outward Court of Sclomons Temple where a I the people came in) do not measure that: Look at them & not capable of measuring by the rule of the word of God. count them as given to the Gentiles : And the holy City shall they tread under foot forty and two moneths, the fame time that here the Braft is to rule : Now Gentiles are accounted without Chrift, and without God in the world, Ephes. 2. 12. He meanes Pagan Gentiles, nor Christian Gentiles, for fuch are we. And in Rev. 11.8. The dead bodies of the witneffes, they fall lye in the street of the great City; and he doth account it spiritually Socome and Egypt : Sodome for lewednesse, and beattly lusts : and Ægypt for barbarous and bate idolatry, and oppression of Gods people ; This is the efteem the holy Ghoft hath of him.

And in Rev. 17.5. Hee calls her a great whore, and the mother of harlets: And the Text is playn, and holds forth this doctrine playnely, and the Holy Ghoft would have all the Churches of Christ to know it , That none do morthip this Roman Carbelicke Church (that is, are reconciled to ir, and give up themselves to the fidelity of it) that gee beyond the state of a Reprobate : And all the Churches of God cannot do thus, and therefore cannot live and dye Roman Catholicks.

Let me name you some popular reasons: I will not make any subtile discourse of it, though it would require strong Judgement, and finewes of Reason : but take popular Reafons, and yet fuch as will bear fome waite.

The first is from their want of Christ Jesus, in whom all Reason 1. our life and falvation is laid up. He that bath not the Sonne . bath not life; it is a plaine and peremptory principle of the Gospell, 1 John 5. 12. No Christ, no felvation. There is no other name under beaven given among men, whereby we muß be faved, Ads 4. 12. Now this Roman Catholick Church, and they that worship the same, they have not Christ : How proove you that ? For Chrift is not had, nor received, but by faith in the Gospell, in a free promise of Grace unto the soule. As many as received bim, to them gave be power, to become the fonnes of God, even to them that beleive on bis name, John 1. 12. Chrift dwels in our bearts by Fanb, Epbef. 3. 17. The faith therefore by which we receive Christ whether have they that faith or no, let themselves be Judge ? They do professe that the Casholick Faith is no more but a perswasion of the truth of all the doctrines of the Gospell, and of the whole word of God : but for a particular application of Christunto the soule, they E e dο do not acknowledge it as that which is the means of receiving So that the Faith which they do in this cale hold forth, is in very truth no other, but that which James faith of the frich or D vils ; they have received as much. James 2. 19. Thou beleivest that there is one Gad, then do ft well, the Devils also helewe and tremble. A Roman Catholick beleives the whole doctrine of the world ; He does well ; the Devils know as much, and beleive as much as they do, yet no man will fav that the Devils faith receives Chrift. Now where there is no Chrift, there is no falvation. Where there is no faith, there is no Chrift : And where there is no Faith but that which the Devils may reach unto, there is no true Faith at all.

It would be endleffe to run into all the objections that they make : but let any that know Frich aright, judge whether the Faith of theirs is fuch a Faith whereby a man can receive the Lord Jefus.

Secondly, Without Grace there is no falvation. For faith the Apostle, By Grace are ye faved through Faith, and that not of your felves, it is the gift of God. Not of workes, leaft any man (bould boaft, Epb. 2. 8, 9. If therefore the Roman Citholickes fay that they are faved by workes, and they fay to, if we take workes in the worst tenour of workes, that is by the merit of works : The Apostle faith, Not of works, least any man should booft, and fay, that be bath wrought bis own falvation, : And the Apofle tels you. If it be of works, it is not of Grace, Rom. 11.6. For works cannot be joyned with grace in the merit of falvation; they are onely the way of falvation. And in that fence it is faid, Worke out your falvation with fear and trembling : For it is God that worketh in you both to will and to do, of his good plea fure, Phil. 2. 12, 13. But if a man look for falvation out of the merit of works, he hath it not from grace. Papifts reply, they have it from works and grace alfo; for they have it not from works of nature, but from works of grace, and they are net oppofire, but fubordinate. But what faith the Apoffle? He faith, workes and grace are not subordinate, but oppolite one to another : and if it be of grace, it is not of workes : and if of workes, then not of grace. And the Apostle tels you, Gal. s. 4. If ye be justified by the worker of the Law, you are fallen from grace :

grace: you have no part nor portion of the grace of Chrift:
And therefore they are fallen from grace; and if from Grace, then trom falvation.

Thefe are principles of Religion; and he that hath any understanding to hear what the holy Ghost faith in this cafe, may eafily perceive the truth of what we speak. In very truth you will finde that all which they hold, is but in a tenor of the Covenant of works. Their election they hold is from works and faith foreseen : Some of them indeed are atfraid of it, as the Dominicans; but the most prevailing are those that think Gods electing love, is but out of faith and works foresten. They look as the grace of effectuall calling to be founded upon the good inclination of a mans will, and co-operation of it with the grace of Gods calling. They professe that Simon Peter had no more grace given him then Simon Maens to become a christian. And what cut the scantling between the one, and the other? Peter had received fo much grace, that if he would, he might be faved; and fo they fay, Simon Magus did receive the fame, but God did not bow & change his will, or reason, but left them both so far suffered, as they might beleive if they would. How comes it then, that Simon Peter did beleive, and was faved? and Simon Mague did not beleive (with a lively faith) and was damned ? They will confesse it really (the body of them) that it did spring from Peters will; he did out of the freenesse of his will choose This is vocation from the working of a mans will : whereas the Covenant of Grace doth confesse, that it is not of our will, but of the Lords, that takes away our frong heart, and gives us a fost heart before any preparation.

Juffincation they look for none, but by works: nor perfeverance in a flate of grace but by their works: and everlating falvation, from the merit of their works: And this is the very doctrine of a Covenant of works. And this is all the doctrine of the Arminian: onely they do acknowledge juffification by faith, and differ in point of Faith, and the merit of works.

A third Reason may be this: The worship of creatures is a going a whoring from God, and so of destruction unto such as go a whoring from the Lord in that way. All worship of creatures with divine worship is called going a whoring from God, Hos. 4. 12. They have gone a whoring from under their God: so in Plal. 73. 27. Thou hast destroyed all them that go a whoring after the worship of Saints, and Angels, and Images, and this great Brast mentioned in the Text, and the Pope the head of it. They place their salvation in beleiving as the Catholick Church beleives: They place their salvation in reconcilement to the Catholick Church, and are more solicitous of it, then of reconcilement unto God by Christ. Col. 2. 18, 19. You read of somethere that do not hold the head, but lay hold upon Angels, and that is Idolatry: now that is spoken of the Church of Rome. For a sourch reason of the point.

Ee 2 at

Without unfeigned repentance and lively faith there is no hope of falvation, Luke 13. 5. Except ye repent ye sball all like-wise perisb. And without faith it is impossible to please God, Heb. 11.6. Now the repentance which the Roman Catholick Church holds forth, what is it but fuch as 7uder did performe? They require contrition : Judas he was deeply wounded and broken, Mat. 27 3. And they require confession : He came unto them before whom he had done evill, and faid, Ibave finned in betraying innocent blood. And they require fatiffaction : He came and brought the mony, and threw it into the Temple, and would by no means meddle with ir. Here is the repentance of the Church of Rome, and all (for ought I know) that they require. I finde no rule of repentance in this Catholick Catechife, but I finde it in Judas, which will end in despaire (which is the common end of an hypocritical repentance) as Stephen Gardner came unto it : and fo they will do, or elfe dye in Nabals ftonineffe. And for their faith : The faith of the Elect is described to

And for their faith: The faith of the Elect is described to be a confidence, and evidence, Heb. 11. 1. So expound Heb. 3. 14. If we hold fast the confidence, the word is all one with subsistance, it is such a confidence as doth give a being, and subsistance unto the thing believed: it doth as truly make them to be as if they were actually extent: But what say they to this? They look at it as presumption, and an abominaabomination: yea it wil cost a man his life to hold forth such a Faith. And for evidence, they do professe it to be incompatible to a christian; and their Faith is some conjecture but no certainty. Now gather up these things; If the Roman Catholicks have no better Faith, no better repentance then their Religion holds forth, if they receive Christino otherwise, and worship God no better, and have no more interest in God then their Religion leads them to; let all the world look to it, for there is none of all the elect of God can live and dye so.

on and attention ? that is taken

Secondly, it is a point that generally men are deaf to hear, and flow to understand, and beleive: And therefore he doth cry out, and make a solemn proclamation; If any man have an eare to hear, let him hear. Why are they so unable and unwilling to understand? They look at it as a monstrous blasphemy, to speake thus of the Roman visible Catholick Church.

Then the Reason why men are so slow of heart to beleive it, and none beleive but them which are taught of God, is

First, from the spirituallnesse of the things themselver. They are spiritual) matters, and cannot be discerned but by spiritual understanding, a Cor. 2. 14. A naturall man doth not discern the spiritual mysteries of iniquity, nor the spiritual mysteries of discerning Grace; nor can they, because they are spiritually discerned.

fijans do understand it, is taken

From Gods gift of Grace unto them to understand it. To Reason 2, you it is given to know the misseries of the Kingdome of Heaven, Mat. 13 11. But being not given unto the world, the world doth not understand it.

For the use of the point.

First it may serve to resute the damnable principle of the Roman Vse 1.

Roman Cacholick Religion which is this: That for every Nation and Kingdome to be reconciled to the Church of Rome i is of necessity to falvation. Whoever he be that hath ears to heare let him hear faith the holy Ghoff, that to be reconciled to the Catholick Courch, and fubject to that Church and the head thereof it is of necessity the way to damnation, if a fonl to live and fo dye. For this curpofe the Text is as plain as possible, Rev. 20. 15. Whoever is not found written in the book of life is cast into the lake of fire. This Roman Catholick Church hath not his name written in that book of life, and therefore of necessity, they muft be cast into the lake of fire. Let all Noble men, and Gentlemen hear this, that they may not liften unto the whitperings, and croakings of the Locusts of the bottomleffe pit. Much God hath borne with men in their ignorance; but if ever men have belonged unto God, they have known the way of a better faith and repentance, then ever Popili Religion have taught them, and the holy Ghost hath helped them in their private prayers, and reading, or in conference with others, to underftand the fame.

Obj. 1. You will say unto me, but this is a very uncharitable censure.

Answ. Whether doe you thinke it more charity to forewarn men of a desperate danger, or to be indulgent to men, and to tell them they may be saved in both Religions, when the word of God is playn against it? What charity count you that to gull men in a charitable, but a foolish conceit of their own good estate? It is cruell charity, and most uncharitable, when the Holy Ghost doth professe, Their names are not written in the Lambs booke of life, whosever worship the Beast.

Obj. 2. But you will (av, Are not all the Carbolicks in the world per maded of it, that the devotion to the Catholique Roman Church is a may of salvation? Carboliques are confident of it, and you Protestants dare not deny it: And then I pray you websther is it not safet to be devoted to that Church, wherein all confesse there is a possibility of salvation, then unto that Church in which one say there is salvation, the other not?

Answ. We answer: So farre as there is any charity, it is in God, but God hath no such charity: And if any Protestants be so charitable, they are more charitable then the word of God allows them: If they say that a man may live and dye in that Religion, and be saved; The holy Ghost doth prosesses the contrary, and would have all the world to know and believeir.

Therefore let no man build upon the policy of State Protestants. Let God be true, and every man be a lyar. If that the voyce of the Lord speak, let it be neard, and let the voyce of John be heard, That if any man be devoted to that Church, bee cannot live and dye a child of God.

Obj. 3. But what an opinion is this, to cast away our fore-sathers, that kept such good benses, and such good Christmasses, and Festivalls, and double Festivalls, to damne them all to hell: Is it not a cruell, and barbarous opinion?

Anfæ. I answer, for our Fore-fathers, their soules are in Gods hand: They lived in those times; but how farre they were devoted unto the Catholick Religion, wee know not: This we know, that there was a Temple of God; a company of Gods people in the darkeft times of Popery that did see their vanity, and did beare witnesse against them, otherwise we must not out of naturall affections destroy divine Revelation. A man must in this case for sake father and mother, Luk. 14. 26. I speak of it the more, because I know not whether some of you may have occasion to travell where you shall sinds some that will tell you a quite contrary taile to these that you have now heard out of the word of God.

For a fecond Ufe.

It may ferve to teach us the darknesse of our hearts, which Use 2, is in us generally to believe this: and indeed the impossibility that any natural manshould heare it, that is to say, so to heare it as to believe it.

He that hath an eare to beare let him heare; That is, let him know and understand it: And this doth argue evidently, that all that have not hearing eares do not believe this, else would they see the truth of these things. And let this take away all admiration from 100 Christians, who do often admire; why do not fuch great Doctors and Bithops believe these things, and see them as well as some poor despicable Puritans? and why doth not the Catholick Church fee it? The reason is playn why they do not see it, they want cares to heare, and how should they heare it? Now the Text tells you, They that worship the idells are like unto them, Plal. 115. 6, 7, 8. They have mouths, but they fpeake not : Eyes have they. but they fee not. They have eares but they beare not, &c. They that make them are like unto them, fo is every one that trufteth in tbem.

If they that worship the Beast be like unto the Beast, then it is not great Learning in the Tongues that can give men eares to heare. And lee not any man be offended, if so be they fee the world of another opinion, if they be but naturall men : The naturall man receiveth not thefe foirituall myfteries, I

Cor. 2. 14. V∫e 3.

Thirdly, how much will it lye upon the people of God, what a weight will it lay upon us all (whether in Churchfellowship, or out of Church-fellowship) to bleffe God who hath delivered us from the fellowship of this Religion : And to be everlastingly thankfull, that our next Fathers (though not our Grand-fathers) have been separated from the worthip of the Church of Rome? And how are we bound to stand for ever fledfaft from communion with them, what ever pretences are put upon us ? Be not deceived, you forfake your owne falvation if you hearken to their whilperinge. If you think your foules precious, then know it, you cannot be reconciled unto Rome, but your names are blotted out of the Lambs book of life.

Vers. 10. He that leadeth into captivity, shall goe into captivity: hee that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword.

The next note is this.

and people of God into captivity, and have flaughtered many of them with perjecution, and warre: So that state at length shall go into captivity, and finally be destroyed with warre and slaughter.

You heard before, the made warre with the Saints, and overcame them, and flaughtered many thousands of them, and shewed no mercy neither to man, woman, nor child: No nore will the Lord shew compassion upon her. In Pfal. 137. 8, 9. O daughter of Babylon who art to be destroyed! Happy shall be to that rewardeth thee, as thou bast served us. Happy shall be be that rewardeth thy little ones against the stones. It was spoken of old Babylon in Caldea, and is verified also in this Babylon. Happy shall be be that rewardeth ber as she hath served us: and that taketh ber young children and dasseth them against the stones. Rev. 17. 11. The beast was, and is not, shall goe into perdition. And vers. 16. They shall bate the whore, and make ber desolate and nawed, and so.!! eate ber stell, and shall burn her with sire. They shall drink of warre and slaughter.

Ohj. But how is it faid, that Christ shall consume bien with the

Asim., I answer, these things are subordinate, but not opposite, for ever since Luther they have been wasting: But after his coming in the brightnesse of the Gospel, men shall be clearly convinced, that this is the great whore and Beast that distroys all the world: The Lord will then mightily discover her unto Princes, that have been darkned, and vailed in their judgments about her, they shall see the state of her, and grow to hate her with utter detessation.

The reason is from the wisdome and equity of Gods juflice, expressly mentioned in the Text : For, be that leades into

All that take the fword, hall perif with the fword, Mat. 26. 52. Meaning in an unlawfull way, and for unlawfull ends.

The use is, first of terrour to all Roman Catholicks; what Vse 1. ever their devotion may be, let them know, and understand, the iffue of it will be utter detolation, and blood and flaughter will be their portion one day : And when Gods appointed is come, it will be meafared unto them, as they have measured unto the Church of God. Secondly, It may be a great comfort unto the Churches and Saints of Chrift, that have been overcome, or have fuffered any hard-ship from any of these. Those that have been troublesome to Gods Churches and people, the Lord will one day visite them all, and he will one day root them out of the land of the living. They shall one day know what pillars and scourges, and fire and faggot meanes, what torments meane, what bloody inquisitions meane : They shall be recompenced feven-fold into their bosomes.

The Lord doth as much acknowledg and accept the patience and faith of bis Saints that bave suffered under the Roman Catholique Church, as be did the faith and patience of the Primitive Saints, that suffered under the Roman Pagan Emperours, against Heathenish idolatry.

The Papifts themselves are full of acknowledgment of the Primitive Martyrs, and will write many Legends of them; as the Pharifees, they did build the Sepulchers of the Prophets, and yet killed their Successors : Fulfill (faith Chrift) the measure of your fathers: You garnish the sepulchers of the dead podies, and yet you kill their Successors. They will acknowledg them the Primitive Martyrs ; but what are those that suffered in Switzerland, in France, in England, in Germany? They look at those as Lolards, and Hereticks : But what faith the Lord of them ? Even of them as well as of those that fuffered in former times; the Lord doth accept their fufferings, and faith of them, Here is the patience and faith of the Saints. Wherein the Lord doth acknowledge the faith by which they overcome this Beaft, and patience, to be the patience and faith of the Saints. The world faith otherwise ; but the Lord faith of those that suffered under this Beaft, Here is the patience and faith of the Saints. So in Rev. 12. 13. Here is the patience of the Saints : Write, bleffed are the dead which dye in the Lord from bence-forth, as well as in ancient times : Bleffed are they that dye in the faith of Chrift Jefus, in the hotteft and highest times of Popery.

The Reason is evident,

Chap. 13.

First, because the faith of such Christians, and their patience, was the faith and patience of Christ : That is to fay, shat which both faftned upon Chrift, and bore witnife unto Chrift, and fuffered patiently for Chrift as did the Primitive Christians in the ten Persecutions : And it was such a faith. as by which they overcame the world, 1 70bn 5.4. It was f ith in Christ Jesus, even that faith by which they chos rather to fuffer affliction with the people of God, then to enjoy the pleafures of finne for a feason, Heb. 11.24, 25. It was that faith by which they despited honour. Even the same cale of Christ in Moles hand, and in their hands, and the point is of like nature: Roman Idolatry is but another Edition, and their Erors are as fundamentall subvertions to that which should be the faith of Gods elect: And their Government is directly contrary unto the Gospel-government of Christ Jesus as light is to darknesse. When their faith in the cause of Christ do carry them along in fuffering for him, it is then the acience of Christ, It was the like faith and patience of Christ to fuffer under Aunas and Caiaphas, as under Herod. It is true, in the one he tuffered as an enemy to Cefar, in the other as a blasphemer, but the case is all one. No matter what the perfons Ff2

fone by Pagan or unathan in protellion; If the cause be the caufe of Chain, it is the patience and faith of Chaift which is in his Sames under whomfoever they fuffer.

A thought Peraton is from the greater exercise of faith and Reafon 2. pairnee to delicern, and fuffer under Christians, against Chriffiane, then egainft Pagans under Heathen perfecutors. For the use of the point.

Fi.ft, it cryes downe all the scandalous sentences that Vle I. Courts have given against the Ssines of God; they lay here are the futfering of Lolards and Hereticks : Jefus Chrift from heaven faich, Here is the faith and patience of the Saints. Da not therefore count it obstinacy, and contumacy in heresie, nor pravity : It is the faith and patience of the Saints ; if Chr.ft calls it fo, his word must carry it. When they shall all appear before his Judgment feate, whose word shall stand then, his or theirs? He will fay, here is the cruelty and outrage of the perfecution of Antichrift that puts the Lambs of Christ to death.

Secondly, It may ferve to teach us, how much the Lord Vse 2. delights to honour his patient and faithfull servants : Hee writes upon their Toomb-stones as it were, fo many Saints. or faithfull Martyrs of Christ, are those who have thus fuffered : This doth the Lord Jesus Christ write upon their stakes where they are burned (in Smithfield or elfe. where) and upon the chains wherewith they are bound.

A great encouragement it is unto Christians to be constant in the profession of the Gospel, and to contend earnestly for the faith once given to the Saints. We must not therefore be afraid to fland fast in the prosession of the Truth, and to hold it to the death : If we should dye in his Cause in a way of perfecution to be flaughtered by the outrage of ungodly men; what ever the world fay of it, the Lord will from heaven beare this witnesse to it, That it is the patience and faith of the Saints.

Thirdly, it must teach all who would suffer for the name of Christ to be well affured of their cause, and then to adde confluncy to their suffering in their cause. Otherwise, unleffe it be the cause of Christ, it is no patience, but obstinacy, blindneffe, blindenesse, and ignorance : But see that your cause be the cause of Chr ft, and then cleave unto it by the invincible faith of Gods elect, to overcome the world, and look Lyons and Dragons in the face, without fear and affonishment : and look at punishment and tortour, as not worthy of the glory that shall be revealed : It looks at them as things that Christ hath endured greater, and other of the Saints of God have gone before us in the like, or a greater martyrdome.

Therefore, firft, look to the caufe, and then believe in the truth of the caule, and the faithfulneffe of Christ that will maintaine his fervants stable and firme, and cause them to hold our unto the end. But do not take up your reforma. tion upon custome, nor side with any thing for custom of the country where you are, because your Magistrates and Elders do commend it to you; for it behooves every christian man to know well, what he beleives, and practife, and to know the doctrine of Chrift, and the Government and the worship of Christ: and that not because men say so, but because you see

Then your next care is, to look that you depend upon Christ for frengch, that as he suffered for you, you may be able to fuffer for him; ther's the faith of Gods children : And for patience (I pray consider it) I do not enter into a common place of faith, and patience; but let me fay thus much of it, Patience is a virtue, mortifying and moderating greifs, and fears, or afflictions, and fubduing our wils to the will of God, not onely in contentment, but comfort. My bretbren (faith James) count it all joy when you fall into divers temptations, James 1.2. That whereas other men, or our felves in time of prosperity, when as God applies his will to our wils, are joyful (and this is no great matter.) This is the joy of Gods people when God shall apply our wils unto As Christ did comforme his will unto his Fathers will. and fay , Omy God, I delight to do thy will : It is written in thy book, I came to do thy will, Pfal. 40. 8. This indeed doth make us compleat christians.

A man is a happy man that hath his will and Gods will together in all that his heart does defire : If God would have Chap. 13.

me fuffer, then certain it is beft it should be to. And C should christians come armed with faith and patience, and with wils subdued to the will of the most high; not onely to be contented, but comfortable in fuffering all things for Chrift : And let your faith faften upon it, and let your patience moderate your greifs, and make your hearts comfortable alfo, and this is that which Goddelights in; Here is the patience and faith of the Saints.

And fo I will end with that speech of the Apostle; My brethren, be ye followers of them, who through faith and patience inhe-Both by faith of well doing, and tit the promifes, Heb. 6. 12. of fuffering evill by faith and patience. Te have need of patience, that after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promile. Heb. 10. 36. You have need of patience, that ye may be faithfull : and you have need of faith, that you may be patient : When a man is confident in Christabove all creatures, this works patience. So we shall follow the steps of our bleffed Ancestors; we shall still go on in maintayning the same faith, and worship, and Government, wherein our Fathers were taught of God to walk, and whereby they did inherit promises both in life and death.

Rev.

Rev. 1 3. 1 1. to the end of the 17.

And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth, and he had horns like a Lamb, and he spake as a Dragon, &c.

Ee come now to the description of the second Braft; I bebeld another Beaft, &c. I do not love to be large in those Scriptures that do not so narrowly concern us, as knowing how farre, and what a vast distance by the grace of God we fland in here from them : but vet because it is a part of Gods counfell, and some-what largely described, give me leave to declare the meaning of the words, and gather such notes from them as they hold forth.

Observe then, here is a description from the 11th, verse to the end of the Chapter, of the second Beast; I fam another Beaft. The Originall fees him forth by his nature; they that know the language, knows it fignifies only a wild beaft, and in proper speech it signifies such a wilde beaft as was venomous ; and therefore the remedy for the venome of this beaft, they call it Therion, a proper preservative against venome or poyfon.

This beaft is described by four arguments.

1. By his originall; He comes out of the earth. 2. By his fimilitude (or resemblance) in three things.

First, to a Lamb in his horns ; Hee bath two bornes like a Lamb.

Secondly, he is resembled to a Dragon in his speech; He spake like a Dragon.

ting of his power; He exercifeib all the power of the first beaft.

3. This beatt is described by the particular exercises of his power, or the effects of his power which are thefe :

1. He causeth the earth and them that dwell therein to worshing the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed; he procures adoration to the first Brait.

2. He doth great wonders, making fire come downe from beaven in the fight of men, vert. 13.

3. He deceives them that dwell on the earth by the meanes of those miracles.

4. He doth prevaile with them that are on earth to make an image to the Beaff, which had the wound by the fword, and did live, verf. 14.

5. He doth animate and give life to this image of the Beaft, that this image of the Beaft should have both power to speak, and to cause as many as would not worship the image of the Beaft to be killed.

A fixth effect is, he causeth all forts of men, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their hand, &c. or at least his name, or the number of his name, or otherwise hee excludes them not only from spirituall, but civill commerce,

verf. 16, 17.

For the Notes that these words afford, I will handle them all in two: They will not need much enlargement, the Explication and Application of them will reach the meaning, and scope of the words. Remember what the first Beast was, and then you will more easily know what this Beast must be. You know this first Beast being described to have seven heads, and ten horns, was taken by all for the Roman Empire; and this being not that, but another that comes in his room after him: Is is evident then that this Beast must either be the Roman-Heathen Empire, or the Roman-Christian Empire, or the Roman-catholick visible Church; one of shese three Roman States it must be.

Not the first, for this rose after that was cast down; after the Dragon was cast out of Heaven, and had no more to rule that State. Also you heard in Chap. 12. that Beast had ten crowns on the heads; this hath not Crowns on the heads, but on the norms; the Princes and heads of that State were crowned: This doth not weare the temporall Grown, but those Princes that mayntaine him, they weare the Growns.

Againe, that Beaft, Pagan Rome, did not begin his time of protperity, and flourishing, with the womans flight into the wildernesse, and the two witnesses prophecying in sackclouth, a thousand two bundred and sixty dayer; for their government ended, when the Christian Scate began, and therefore it could not be Pagan-heathen Rome; Nor could it be the Christian Imperial Roman State: For

1. It is faid in the second vers. That the Dragon gave him his power, and his seate, and great authority; but that he did not to the Christian Emperours, for they would not live at Rome, but at Conftantinople.

2. It was never made a figne of reprobation to worship the Roman Christian Emperors, but it is made a fign of repro-bation to worthip this Beaft.

It remayns therefore, that this Beaft described in the former pare of the Chapter, is the third Roman State; which being not Rome-Pagan, nor Rome-Christian, it must needs be the Roman Papall State, under the government of the Pope, and that is no other but the Roman Catholick visible Church, to which all the description you have heard ope-

Now that being the first beast, what is this second beast? This is apparantly distinct from it; and it is not so proper to say, that the first beast was the Pope, as he had soveraign authority in Temporalls; and that he is the second Beast as he hath supream power in Spiritualls; for he had his Temporall power last; and therefore that would not agree to the Papall State; he sit shad supream power in Spirituals, before he had supream power in Temporals. Now the beast here being not the Roman Catholick Church, what is it then? It is the head of that Church; and what is that? It is no other but the Pope of Rome; The heads of the Roman Catholque wifible Church, from one succession to another; they are this second beast; and shat will appeare in a double note, which will both cleare that, and the rest of the Text.

Firft,

Firft then, take this note;

That the Bishop or Pope of Rome is in the sight of God, and of Dollrine 1. bis Saints, no better then a wilde beaft, for bis Original, arifing out of the earth; for his refemblance, like to a Lamb in his borns; like to a Dragon in bis fpeech ; like to the whole Roman Catholick Church in bis power.

This is the former part of the description by his Adjunct. by his Similitude, and by his Originall : However he feems to Catholicks a holy Father, and a god on earth; yet in the fight of God, and of his Saints, he is no better then a wilde Beaft, whose off-spring is from the earth; who though he have horns like a Lamb, yet speaks like a Dragon, and thus John guided by the holy Ghoft, faw him. Let me shortly o-

1. He is here described to be a wilde beaft. The word so fignifics ; that is to fay , not fo tame a beaft as those in Ila 11. 6.to 9. that a child may lead them: Wolves, or Leopards, or Lyons that can fleep with Kide, and Calves, and little children, and they may play on the bole of the Afpe, and put their band on the Cochatrice den : He is not fo tame, that hee can be tamed by the word of Truth, or by the censures of the Church, no nor by the power of Princes; he is above them all, and beyond them all a wild heaft he is therefore.

For his Originall, He ariseth out of the earth. That implyeth, he hath it not from Heaven, but from below ; not from Chrift, but from Satan ; You are from beneath (faith Chrift) I am from above, John 8. 23. Hee springs from the earth, especially from earthly and carnall policy; that for keeping of good agreement in the Churches, they muft be folded up into-certain Metropolitans or Patriarche; and to keep unity, you must have one over them all, and that was the Bishop of Rome, for all unity they fay springs from un nits; if you have more then one Governour, you will have no peace: Now this being a carnall principle, some carnall reason being the ground for the preservation of the Church of Rome; for that the Emperours thought, if the Bishop of Rome were advanced, it would be a means to firengthen them against the barbarous Nations that come against them; this carnali cernall reason brought him to be exalted: And though his Originall was earthly for the cause, yet he ascended above the earth to Ecclesiasticall power. And

2. He arose out of the Earth, because he rose up insensibly by degrees, he makes no great noyse; As any thing that comes out of the earth, it makes no great noyse in its growing, but at length comes to a vast neight: So it was with the Bishop of Rome, this is his descent out of the Earth.

For his resemblance, He bath borns like a Lamb.

Horns expressed his power: Like a Lamb; that is, like the Lamb of God. Church-power he claims directly, no other at least for a long time; The power of binding and loosing were his two horns, to bind all, and loose all, and that lay in the closet of his own breast when to put it forth; this is but the power of the Lamb.

But be foake like a Dragon.

You have two or three severall speeches of the Dragon. In Rev. 12. 9. The old Serpent is called the Dragon: What did hee speak?

1. Venomous words to our first Parents; You stall not dye at all, Gen. 3. 4. And so the Pope hedraws the hearts of men from conscience of the word.

2. The fpeech of the Dragon, it is imperious and arrogant: All the kingdomes of the earth will I give thee, if thou wilt

And that is the speech of the Pope in Jer. 1. 10. I have set thee this day over the Nations, and over the kingdomes, to roote out, and to pull downe, and to destroy, and to throw downe, and to build, and to plant: And the Pope sends a Crown with this into spetion to Frederick the Emperour; Christ gave this power to Peter, and Peter gave it to the Pope, this is Imperiall State.

3. The Dragon hath a devouring and ravenous mouth, whereby he speaks ravenous words: Whoever will not worship the Image that I have set up, shall be cast into a hot siery furnace, and who is that God that is able to deliver you? Dan. 3. 15. And you have heard what worship the Pope claymes, and what he threatens if it be neglected. Thus you see in Gods account,

, and in the light of John, the Pope is a wild Beatl ; and the holy Ghost as he inspired John, he directs him what to fay: The holy Apostle he flood upon the fund of the Sea, and faw two bealts; one arifing out of the Sea of corruption in do-Brine, &c. And another out of the earth, out of earthly pretencis; He fees no holineffe in this Braft, nothing but heaftly cruelty, and beaftly blafphomy, nothing but argues a wilde beaft that will not be tamed, neither by the Church of God, nor by the word of God, nor by Princes and States : He fees him rifing out of faire pretences, pretending nothing but Lamb-like power; but hee speakes like a Dragon, venomous and devouring words: Damnable herefies, as being frewed out of the Dragons mouth, fuch a volume of falle worship, and doctrine, and government, as destroys the faith of the Church, and subverts the foundation of the Church : This is the very flate of the Pope as John beheld it, as he was wrap'e up in a vision by the Spirit, and he judged of it as hee faw ic.

Now because I cannot so well make use of this, before I have spoken of the rest, because they are co-incident, take this for a second Note, and so make use of both together. The note is long, but it is but the collection of the fum of these verses, the words of the Text will bring the Doctrine eafily to remembrance; This then is the note.

The Bifbop of Rome exerciseth all the Authority of the first Beatt, Doll. 3. that is, of the Roman visible Catholick Church, be causeth all that dwell on the Earth to worship that Church, he doth worke wonders, even to the fetching of fire from Heaven, and by his wonders procures all christian States to make an Image to the first Beast, and gives such life and power to the Image of the Beaft that it is able to fpeak, and it shall cause such as do not worship it to be put to death, and finally be leaves an impression, or imprints a character upon all forts of christians, and will suffer none to enjoy spirituall or civill communion with them unlesse such as will receive either his marke, or his name, or the number of his name.

I pat them into a doctrinall frame, because they are the fum of the words of the Text. Let me breifly open them all.

First, He doub exercise all the Authority of the first Beast. Let all that are a quanted either with the writings of the Romanists, or of our Divines that bear withesse against Rome, be testimonies in; this case; what is there that the Catholick Church claimes, but the Pope can do it all: There are fix or seven trascendent acts of power, which that Church claymes, and the Pope tamiliarly exercises them all.

1. The Pope hath power to convent general! Councel's corif the Emperours will call a genaral Councel, it shall not stand in force unless the Catholick Church and the Bishops meet in a representative Synod, it concludes with their determination; this he pleads for to this day, it belongs not to the Emperous, nor to Christian Princes, but to the Bishop of Rome: It is one of Bellarmines affirmations, that one Church shall have power to call all Churches, be it to Florence, or Bassell, thether they must go whether he will.

2. As the Gatholick Roman Church did usurpe power so make Laws and Canons to binde all Churches; So the Pope doth challenge the same power to make Laws to binde all Churches; he pleads for it, and will not be content without it.

3. Look as the Catholick visible Roman Church doth claime Authority of ratifying Scriptures; if they put in the Apocrypha, it shall be good Scripture; and if the Church do not approve the Gospel of Matthew in Greek, but in Hebrew, it shall be that; or if they resulte both them, and take the vulgar Latine, that shall shad : This power the Catholick Church challengeth power to do, and the same doth the Pope.

4. If the Roman Catholick visible Church challenge a power of interpreting Scripture, and judging of controversies, with infalibility of judgement: The Pope challengeth that to himselfe when he interprets Scripture, or decides controversies about Religion, he cannot erre, and so they make account he is a sit Judge therein.

5. Look as you fee the Roman Catholick visible Church had power of binding and loosing, challengeth all appleals and great things they will do by that priveledge, excommunicate some of many Churches that are absent, some they ex-

communicate for feven years, some to their death, that the thall not be reconciled : All this the Pope challengeth in a larger measure then the old Roman visible Church did challenge. This the Roman Bishop challengeth to binde conscience, to loofe oathes and covenants between Prince and people, between man and wife, to loofe yows, and oaths, and natural relations, between parents and children, if they will shrowd themselves in a Monastery, and will dispence against the Apostle Paul in case of incest: this is such a power to loose the bonds of Gods commandments, and Gods oaths, and relations to God and his fervants, it is fuch Transcendant power, the Roman visible Catholick Church never challenged greater.

6. The Roman visible Catholick Church never challenged fo great power till it was animated and acknowledged by the Pope, to take upon them to fet up one King, and to take down another , King John in England, Frederick the first, and Frederick the fecond, Henery the fourth, and Henery the fitch ; he crowns and discrowns whom he will, and this out of the

And laftly, he doth challenge this beyond the Church is felfe, Immunity, and Impunity from all Civill and Ecclefiaffical power, and judicature. The Church is above all judicial power, and the Pope the head of it is above it, and therefore may not be brought into order by any centure of any Church, nor by the civil fword : And therefore he is well called one that exercifeth all the power of the fieft Beaft, and rather puts more power to it; whatever the Catholick Church may do. that he can do; where they can dispence and make Laws, where they can bind or loofe, &c. So farre as they may go, he can go, and he doth all in the name, and fight of the Church.

And he causeth all that dwell on the Earth.] That is, carnal christians, who fe conversation is not in Heaven.

To wor hip the first Beaft.] How to worthip? He speaks of divine worship not civill adoration : This is an aberation from a Church; but a beaftly Church, it is a monfler; The Church of the first institution was of one particular congregation ; gation; and for all the Churches of the world to be subject to one Cathedral, it is far beyond all comprehension of rule : Now he canfeth all that dwell on the Earth to worship that Wherein are they to worship him?

1. It is made a matter of necessity to salvation to be reconciled to that Church; and more care is had of being reconciled to that Church, then of being reconciled to God in Chrift: All pleas of being reconciled to Chrift will not fland in their judgment, unleffe you be reconciled to them.

2. Except you be bound in conscience to that state, he will allow you no communion; he will have all the decrees of hte Church as binding the conscience.

2. This is divine worship, you shall take no doarine but that is of his flamp, nor worthip, nor Government but of his acknowledgment, nor no dispensation of them but according to his Canons : And all that dwell on the Earth muft worthip him, all run upon the Beaft; the Pope doth not fo much challenge it to himselse as to the Church, and that which is

Thirdly, He doth great wonders, fo that he makes fire come from Heaven on the Earth in the fight of men : And it is fald, Antichrift (ball come in all power of signes and lying wonders, 2 Thef. 2 8, 9. Their Legions are full of these wonders : And in particular, for this point, of causing fire to come down from Heaven: It is an allusion sure to the fire that the old Prophet fetched from Heaven : As Eliab fetched fire from Heaven to confume the facrifice, 1 Kings 18. 38, 39. And that was a fire that expressed Gods gracious acceptance, that made all the people cry, the Lord be is God : But this the Pope did not fetch fure, he never fetched any acceptance from Heaven. But you read of another fire fetched from Heaven by Eliab, and that wars. to destroy these that mocked bim, 2 Kings 1. 10. 12. Which pradife warn fames and John would have followed in Luke 9 545. 55, 56. You shall read, that they being offended with the Samaritant because they would not receive them; Master fay they, fhall me call for fire from Heaven to confume them as Eliah did? Our Saviour utterly rejects that; You know not, faith he, of what first ye are : Now minde you, that fetching fire from

Heaven, which is to deftroy mens lives, and not tave them. that James and John are taught to refuse, as being incompatible to the Gofpel : But that which they refuse, the Successour of Peter, as they call him, takes up ; if any Scribe, or Pharifee, or Samiritan refuse him, then fire comes down from Heaven, confuming hre, and vengance, and wrath, and blood-thed, and extreamity of outraged evils he cauleth to some down upon them; and in pretence from Heaven, to destroy the Church and people of God, that I take to be the cheif part of the meaning of that. But if any man will urge the letters of the Text (which you need not in myffical Scriptures) vet it is not without truth therein.

Gregory the feventh he declares this, that he had firange power, when he had much people about him, he would have shaked the fleeve of his gound, and caused fire to come down : Now it is evident it might be, for he was a Conjurer, and 22. Popes together (as their own floryes do record) they were wirches, and gave their foules to the Devil, that they might obtaine the Popedome, but they were but lying wonders; for miracles require divine power, but the Devil cannot go beyond the power of nature; so that you may take it in the proper meaning; their own men do much magnifieit, and make it one of the markes of their Churche, whereas Proteflants that want miracles are not Churches : So that those censures by which they thundred against christian Emperors. they did follow with fuch success, that they made all wonder. that none could fland against them, not Henery the fourth, nor Henery the fifth, nor Leo the Emperour, nor the King of Fraunce, none of them all were able to take up armes against him; they did all admire him; Who is able to stand against bim. and to make Warre with him? And that gave fuch free paffage to his Laws, that all christian States presently took up what injunctions he put upon them.

Fourthly, by these miracles, and the mighty successe of them, he had power to cause them that dwell on the earth to make an Image to the Beaft, that had the deadly wound, and was bealed: that is, the Roman Catholick visible Church : What is this Image of the Beaft? he caufeth all the earth, that is, all earthly States

States to receive it; he will fuffer none to be without it : what is this Image? an Image not of their own making, they must make an Image by his appointment : It is an Image of the firft beaft, not of the fecond directly, and confequently the efficers of that Beaft must represent this second Beaft, but be an Image of the first ; if the first Beaft was the Roman Catholick vifible Church; then if he caufeth all the Earth to make an Image to that Beaft, then he caufeth all Churches and Common-wealths, to frame their State and platforme. according to the Image of the Roman Catholick visible Church, and therefore he causeth all Christian Princes to ered all their Churches in a Roman Catholick way: what is that? Metropolitan, National, Provnciall, Diocelan, Cathedral, and Provincial Churches; Thefeareall lively characters of the Roman Catholick Church, referving fill pre-emenency to their mother Catholick Church of Rome; but otherwise they are the lively Image of fuch a Church, even as daughters are of their mothers : and being overcome with the power of his miracles, and deceits, and delusions (as you heard) by the Policy of Canoniffs, by carnall Policy, and by their Votaries, and by working miracles, fignes, and lying wonders; it is a wonder to fee what power he had, that all the power of the Popedome, and of the Catholick Church was in a model and representation drawn in all Churches in Christendome during the time of 42. moneths, which is 1260, years, and then a great part of his Image was marred in a great part of Chris. flendome, but yet he fill continues; so then there is a lively Image of the Roman Catholick Church, though it may br. fome are drawn from subjection thereunto; and yet though they be drawn off from Subjection to it, yet fill the Image, and representation is written in the very foreheads of such Churches; that is a fourth thing.

Fifely, He bad power to give life to the Image of the Beaft; what life? that it should both speak, and cause, That as many as would not worship the Image of the Beaft should be killed: How doth he pur this life into the image of this Beaft to speak? It is, to speak with authority, as in verse 5. A mouth speaking great things; He would speak, and speak with authority; that that now these Diocesan, Metropolitan, and Provincial Churches, they can fpeak with authority, as the Roman Catholick Church doth, and their words must take place, and he pure that life into it by his own canons and laws which they take up ; the canons and laws made by the Church of Rome, do fo animate Provincial, and Diocesan Churches, that they freak the fame language, not altogether fo corrupt, but with like authority, and require like subjection of all perfons; and by your leave, they grow to it for very confcience fake; that those things which were indifferent before, yet being laws of the Church, now they must binde conscience : this is to fpeak great things. Now they have power likewife to cause as many as will not worship the Image of the Beaft, they shall be killed; a figne none of them took that power like the beaft; but yet though they have not power to kill them, yet to deliver them to the Secular power, and they must kill them : whatever the Diocefan Church doth agree on against her Hereticks, that will not obey the Government or doctrine of the Church; what then? Then deliver him to the Secular power, then they cause him to be put to death, and they deliver him to fire and faggot, so you see the mighty power of this Beaft.

There is one thing remaining of his power, and that is the fixth and laft effect; He caufeth all, both small and great, rich and pool; free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: Kings, and Princes, Ministers and Clergy men (as they call them) high and low, whatever they be, he caufeth them all to receive a character, or marke, either in their right hand; or in their foreheads.

A marke in the hand; that character themselves call an indessible character, and they receive that who receive any orders from the Pope, and are reconciled to the Roman Catholick visible Church; This Beast causeth all to receive a marke, that is, they shall sweare sidelity, and loyalty to the Roman Catholick visible Church, this they make indesible; wherever they come, they are Priess for ever after the order of Melohesidech.

their name; their name, what is that but Roman Catholicks? or else there is no fellowship with them; and all must at length have that name, and go under the number of that name, Roman Catholicks; there is the number of that name; but I leave that to the next time (as being too large to enter into at present.) In the mean time, you see these things thus opened, touching the nature and character of this second Reast.

First, it may be an evident conviction, and demonstration, and designation of this Beast who it is : Is hath been much difputed, but all the parts of this description doth directly fall upon the Bishop of Rome; that if John had lived in thefe dayes, he would have feene all this with his eyes, which he faw in a vision : No man can tell where to bestow all this description for 1260. years, but upon the Bishop of Rome, that is of fuch a wilde nature, that no Church, no law of God, no fociety of men, no Kings, nor Princes can rule; and all the world that knows this Beaft, knows this to be true of the Pope, whose Original (all Christians know) springs from the Earth, to keep men in unity, and to preserve the Empire from inundations of Barbarians, to keep Christian Princes closer together, and in better order, all carnall policy out of which he fprings, yet incentibly, and flowly, that he is not discerned for many years together.

And be bath borns like a Lamb, that he pretends nothing but (Saint Peter as they call it) the Keys of the kingdom of Heaven ; But be fpeake like a Dragon, as if he had the Keys of the bottomleffe pit ; he thunders fuch fentences, gives difpenfations both against the lawes of Paul and Moses, to dissolve oaths, and covenants, and relations, they shall marry whom they will, their own lifters : he will venom with fuch novsome doctrine, as the breath of them will flinke : he will Speak fo terrible, that time was, when Princes were to tremble ; be bath fooken as a Dragon : The Devil himselfe as he ruled the Roman Pagan Empire, hath not spoken greater words then he : Those that spake, Whoever will not worship an Image fet up, fall be cast in a fiery furnace, it is not a greater word then Second-Hh 2 he speaks.

Secondly, this doth juilly reprove all the Popish admi-U/e 2. ring and adoring of the man of Sinne; They look at him as their holy Father, and Bilhop of Chriff, and Vicar of God. as one that bath an infallible judgment, that cannot erre, that he is above all power of centure: If he should draw millions of foules to hell, no man must fay, Sir, why do you so? they have this opinion of him: No matter what they conceive, he must be judged by the King of Kings, and by the God of Gods. and by the Saints of that God that judgeth according to the word; and they look at this Father as a Monster, as a milde beaft, whom no Scripture, no Church can keepe in awe, hur he is Lord paramount above them all; they look at him as the Dragon of the bottomleffe pit, as he that deftroys the Christian world : and however he may pretend, as if he had nothing but Lamb-like power, yet bee speakes like a Dragon; thus John faw him.

Thirdly, Observe from hence a reason of a note that troubles many Interpreters; That if this beaft have fuch power, why doth he not cause the earth to worship himselfe? why doth he not provide for his own bonour, but for the first beaft? The reason is plain; the first Beaft being the Roman Catholick Church, and the head of that Beaff, all the honour that redounds to the beaft, falls upon the head of the beaft, and it is upon himselfe ; He exerciseth all that power that the first beaff hath, and therefore no marvell if he labour to draw all men what he can to worship, not himselfe, but the Roman Catholick Church, to be reconciled to it, and receive decrees from it, and submit in conscience thereunto. and receive no worship nor doctrine but from them, nor government, but effablished by them ; no Lawes to be enjoyned and transacted but by them, for he knows that this honour will redound to him; He knows all this power doth reff in his own breaft, and it is he that acts the Roman Catholick Church, and he can do with a Councell, and without a Councell what the Church can do, and he failes not to do it from time to sime. Wonder not therefore that he puts off the honour to the first beaft, the old Roman Church , there he laves all his devotion, but in conclusion it is all for himfelfe.

Fourthly, you may see the corrupt Originall, and dangerous State of corrupt religion, and of such kind of Churches as are drawn out by the modell of the Roman Catholick visible Church, any image of that beast : I do not trouble von with what others think to be the image of the Braft (I should but weary my felfe in fo doing) but if the first beatt be the Roman Catholick Chuch, as it muft needs be. then the image must be according to it, though not of equal authority, yet of the like frame; whereas the Lord hath inflituted no other but particular Congregations to bring in a whole Nation (that may containe a thousand Congregations) into one Church, what an image is this of the Roman visible Catholick Church: It is not Catholick indeed, it is short of that, but so large as it carries a Nation, it exceeds Diocefan, and Diocefan exceeds particular Congregations : Now fee the danger of this ; you fee the first rife was from the power of this bealt. He can feth all the earth to make an Image of this Beaft : He did not bring them to make one in number, but one in England, and one in Sculland, and one in France, and one in Germany, and in every Countrey according to their divisions, and Princely Potentates ; that all that dwell in the limits of that Jurifdiction, they have one Cathedral Church. to which all other Parochiall Churches do belong; this hee causeth them to do : and when he hath done it, giveth it the very like breath of the Roman Order; though not in fo vaft a measure, yet in a faire modell, that they are like the image of this holy Father, and fo by this meanes it comes to paffe. by his Laws and Canons which he perfwades all to receive, and which is a wonder, fince they have cut him off from being head of the Church, yet fill they reteyn the life of Papacy, in the State of fuch Chancellors, and Parators, and fuch kind of Civill, and Ecclesiasticall power mingled together ; that a Cathedrall Church forty or fifty miles off. shall fend terrible censures to cut off the poor Saints of God, and they must obey it ; and if they stand in an Hereticall course (28 they call it) there is no living for them, they will kill their Propheticall life, as they did the two Witneffes; or if they do in any effe Quall manner work, they will not flick to call. them them to account, and caft them out, and deliver them to she Secular power, and they shall deliver them to fire and fword.

So then, fee the danger of fuch Conflictutions, it was wrought by the Bishop of Romel, and lives by life from him. the life of the Law of God breaths not in the pulles of it; any that know them , know how far they be from the pattern of the Scripture, how ridiculous they be to fuch as difcern the flate of them; You fee also what mighty power they have, that all civill States have been contented to deliver fuch to fire and fword, whom they have delivered up as Hereticks : They foon loofe the protection of the Civill State, if they loofe the favour of imaginary Churches; well doch he call them images, they are images of the Pope, and images which God forbids, and the inventions of the fonnes of men ; Thou falt not make to thy felfe any graven Image, in the fecond Commandement : You shall make no Images of Officers, nor Government, nor worship, but that which Christ himselfe hath fet up.

Fifthly, it lets us fee how dangerous it is, to annex civill penalties, ip fo facto, upon fuch as are cast out of the Church ; an usuall thing in Popish Churches, or in the Images of such. Firft, they suspend them from the Sacrament, but then it comes with an Excommunication, no man must buy nor fell, he hath refused to honour the image of the Beaff: It is dangerous to bring in civill Authority immediately upon Church-censure : A warning to us here, that if men be excommunicated, not to deny them civill Commerce, or to fay such as stand out excommunicated so long, shall no longer enjoy the priviledges of the State : The Church may cut them off from fellowihip with it felfe, there may be juft reason so to do; they may discover such hypocrisie as may make them unfit for the Church , but yet they may not altogether be unfit for the Common-wealth.

Sixthly, It may ferve to humble us fo farr, as in times past we had any thing to do with this Beaft, eyther in the loynes of our Fathers with this firft Beaft, the Roman Catholick visible Church, or as in our own time we have had any communion munion (I means Ecclefiafticall communion) with the image of this first Beast, that is, with Provinciall, Diocesan,

Cathedrall, National Churches.

You know it is not my manner to fall into speeches of Christe in other parts, it is best for us to look to our owner but when the Text is just fo fit, now to be filent, were to deny the children of God the bread of their portion : If it be . fuch a Church as is of the Popes deviling, as hath provoked the jealousie of God, and hath not been derived from the primitive inflitution that Chrift hath eftablifhed : then fo far as we have had to deale with them, either in office, or out of office, receiving their Sacraments, and their Censures, or have published their Censures, though God (it may be) mercifully kept us from publishing such as we did conceive unjuft : ver forasmuch as there bath been any submittance in this kind, any Church-communion, whereby we have been admitted into Church-office by the Image of this beaft, or inftalled by the ordination of the first beast, or so far as wee have submitted to the first or second Beaft; so far as we have partaked in the holy things of God, which flow from Churchcommunion, as Sacraments and Censures do, verily to farre we have cause to be humbled; though the Lord kept any of ue from thinking it any necessity to be reconciled to the Church of Rome, or kept us from fundry things in our pra-Rice, which the Image of the Beaft required; and though he kept us also from receiving all their Dictates without controll; yet for our practice in entring into our calling, and our dispensations which have been but images of the first beaft : and fo far at our fellowship in Ordinances with them have cleaved to that Church, verily the guilt of that will lye upon fuch soules as have not unfeignedly bewailed it before the Lord.

What think you might be the cause that Christians do complayn of so much deadnesse, under such plenty, and (as some say) power of Ordinances? I might as justly blame the world for as great part, that men think they are forced to lanch out in building and planting; an evill haunt and custome hath been rivetted into mens spirits, that they have much ado to be content any where; but this is not all : Nor can I lay it wholly upon over much confidence in Ordinances; we have heretofore thought men happy that had liberty of Ordinances, though but in a duty of humiliation; God will let you fee the emptineffe of all Ordinances, & that there is no life in them further then he puts in them but I will not put in neither of both thefe, though both thefe may challenge a part of the deadnesse of the Countrrey, and may be cause of humiliation : But gine me leave to fay, I feare this chiefly, that men thought it enough that they were got out of the reach of Summoners, and Pariters, and fuch like, whose offices have been by the power of the beaft, the remnants whereof hang in those places where they should not stand; I feare men have rested in turning their backs upon such troubles as they were put unto, when they have not been ferious in judging themselves for these Images of jealousie, when they are so loft to he rent from them, I feare the Lord hath not humbled them for their old contagion, and therefore they are not so dead. for what is an Image but deadnesse? truly because we are rather in bodily presence, then in heart departed from them, therefore there is fuch deadneffe : what's the reason, that upon the least motion, men are ready to remove to a new Plantation, as if they removed from old England to New in a pang: If men had a calling upon just grounds to come hither, then when we come where the Ordinances of God are, we should fit down under the Ordinances, under the shadow of the Almighty, and never look for more: But when that doth not fatisfie that we enjoy Ordinances, all that liberty wedid defire, we do enjoy, and yet it doth not fatisfie; certainly there is some sinnelyes in the breast still, for which the Lord purfues men with a reftleffe frame, they are not vet purged from the image of Romish pollution, and therefore the Lord fees it not meet to give us reft, no not in Sion , becaufe in heart we are not returned from Babell, but every new occasion puts us to a new plantation, and when we are there we cannot reft : And therefore I feare, because we have not judged our felves for our inordinate walking in polluted Churches, but have rather fought for our own peace, then puri y purity from thefe pollutions, which there have defiled us, or do not fee any great need of judging our felves in that kinde : thence it is, that to this day the Lord hath much ado to quiet our hearts in his peace and purity, and in power, but ftill we are much deflicate of inward purity and power of godlineffe, and therefore dead heartedneffe hangs about us to this day. And therefore as we defire the power, and purity, and peace of Ordinances framped upon our hearts, fo we are to bewaile the contagions we have had in this Image of the beaft with Officers or people, that so the Lord may give a reviving according to the defire of our hearts.

Laftly, let it be of much praise and thanksgiving to God, Use 7. that hath delivered us and ours, from these Contagions and pollutions, in which you fee all that dwell on the earth have been intangled and polluted in time past: That he hath delivered us from the power of this Beaft (the Roman Catholick Church) that he hath freed us from making an Image to that Beaff; we own none of his Ordinances, and that God hath removed us from the marke of this Beaft, that we defire not to be accounted Catholicks, nor Hirarchies, nor ftand members of a Diocesan, or Provinciall, or Cathedrall, or Nationall Church, but beare witnesse against them all : And also that he hath freed us in some measure from the number of his name; that many things that are of number and account with them, are not of any number with us, if there be any thing of the Beaft in it. And therefore it is matter of great praise to God; You shall read of the hundred and forty foure a joufand, that God had gotten victory over the image, and mark of the beaft, and over his name, and the number of his name, or had not left them in any bondage, they fung asit were a new fong before the Throne; It is great matter of praise that here we may enjoy no head but the Lord Jesur. (Saul indeed was head of the Tribes of Ifrael, but not of the Church, 1 Sam. 15. 17.) That the Lord hath given us to enjoy Churches, and Congregational Affemblies by his Covenant, to worship him in all his holy Ordinances; that he h. en given us to look for no Law s but his word, no rules nor forn s of worthip, but fuch as he hath fet downe in his word;

no platforms of Doctrine, but fuch as are held forth in the word of the Prophets and Apostles: It is such a priviledge, shat for 1260. years, the Christian world knew not the meaning of it, unleffe it were here and there a few whom God had fealed (this was the priviledg of a few fealed ones) but this the Lord vouchfafeth to us this day, above all Nations that have power of the civill fword : le is true, there is a great deale of these things in fundry other Churches, but yet there is a tang of the image of the Beaft, that a company of Elders and Minifters, they shall have power to impose Officers upon Churches, and to excommunicate Officers and Members; It is too much the image of the first Beast, and too much of the power of both Beafts, and therefore it is to be lamented : but that the Lord should give us such liberty, that all our Churches are not fabordinate one to another, and none arrogate nor plead Supremacy, but are preferred and kept from all contagion of the first and second beaft, this calls ue to abundant thankfulneffe, and wee are to defire that the Lord would keep us at fuch a diffance, that we may never return to the image of either of the beafts.

Rev.

Rev. 13. the last vers.

Here is wishome, Let him that bath understanding count the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man, and his number is six hundred threescore and sixe.

Hele words are some part of the description of the second Beast which arose after the former, continued from the 11th verse of this Chap, unto the end of it. The former beast (as you have often heard) is the Roman Catholick visible Church, described at large from the first verse to the end of the 10th. The latter Bean is the head of the Catholique Church, the Bishop, or Antichrist of Rome, and he is here described,

1. By his Originall; He came out of the earth.

2. By his resemblance; which is three-fold; To the Lamb in bis bornes; To the Dragon in his tongue and speech, and to the first heast in his power; He exerciseth all the power of the first heast.

3. As he is described thus by his Originall, and by his resemblance, so he is described by his great power, and his power exerciseth it selfs in diversache. First, He exerciseth all the power of the first beast. Now the first beast being the Roman Catholique Church, he exerciseth all the power of the Roman Catholique Church, that look what the Roman Gaibolick Church can do, the Pope can do with them, or without them: He can call Councels, and make their Canons authenticall; He can make Lawes to bind Conscience, he can make Lawes to bind whole Churches, as well as the Æcumenicall power of the whole Councell: He can forbid any other dostrine, or worship, or government, but what himselfe establisheth: He can adde to the Scriptures the Apscrypba, and he hat infallible power to judge Controversies: Hee can binde and loose

Conscience; he can depuse Kings, and dispote of their Kingdoms, and he can absolve Subjects from the oath of Fidelisy : He hath power to pardon finne, and to fell out pardons to them that buy them. All that the first beaft can do, he will do, and more; but yet he doth it (as the Text fayes) in the fight of the first beaft ; that is, in the face and countenance of the first b. of ; He is to modeft, that he will not take all that honour to the bead, but the whole body, and derives all that honour expressy to himself.

Chap. 13.

The third act of his power ; He doth great wonders , even to call downe fire from Heaven in the fight of men. Not the fire of Acceptance, which Eliab brought to confume the Sacrifice; but the fire of Vengeance upon the Rebellious, as the Prophet. called for five upon the Captains that came to attach him.

A. He doth by his miracles deceive all that dwell upon the earth.

. He causet been all to make an Image like unto the first beast. The first heaft (as you heard) was the Roman visible Catholiche Church, then the image of the beaft are all fuch like models and forms of Churches as are Dioce fan Churches, National Churches and Provinciall Churches.

6. He causeth all men to worship that Image, that if any will not worfbir that Image (Churches of that mold) they (ball be

Laftly, He will not Suffer any Commerce, nor civil Commerces much leffe Ecclefiasticall communion, but to them that have the mark of the heaft, or the name of the beaft, or the number of bis name.

They must swear, or perform some loyalty to the Church of Rome. The mark of the beaft, the carriage of the beaft in the Originall : All that have received Religious Orders, have received the mark of the beaft, all their religious Orders leave an indelible Character upon them , fo that all that are entred into religious Orders, are fworn Catholiques. The name of the beaft, what is it? Though |they be not of the religious Order, yet they professe themselves to be Roman Catholiques, and professe subjection to the head of that Church , and fo to his doctrine and worship, though it be be to Saints and Angels, and to his government, as that which binds the confeience, the name of the Beast is a Roman Caubolicke, submitting himselfe both to the Church, and to the head of that Church, and that for conscience sake.

But for the number of his name, it was referred to this dayes exercife: Wheras the holy Ghost having said that he would permit no man to buy or fell, but such as had received the marke, or his name, or the number of his name; he doth in this last Verse declare what this number of his name is, which at least they must have, or else they cannot have commerce: Now this number he first doth amplifie or illustrate, and then expresse it.

He doth illustrate or amplific it,

count it.

And thirdly, He doth amplifie it by the subject, or by the efficient of it, It is the number of a man: This is his illustration: It requires wisedome to count it: It is the duty (though) of them that have understanding to search it out. And when they do couns it, they finds it the number of a man.

In the Second place he doth expressly defigne or disciplier out the number, and that is in the last word, bis number is fix

The place is very obscure as any in the word, and therefore the holy Ghost tels us, bere is wisdome to finde it out: but withal, here is a command that every one that hath received the least measure or talent of wisdom should endeavour it, and he doth incourage men to find it our.

But were it not that the Lord hath faid, If any man want missome let bim aske it of God, and it shall be given bim, James 1.5. And were it not that God hath given Christ to be our wisc-dome to declare to us the whole councel of his Father, 1 Cor. 1.30. And were it not that the providence of God in the invitation of fundry brethren, bath put me upon the handling of this book, and now it fals in order to be opened; for my own part, I think I finuld never have chosen this Text to have spoken to whilft I had lived; But now fince we are come to it, in our interpretation of this book, and the wisdome of God is perfected in the weaknesse of his servants, I shall therefore endeavour by the helpe of God, and by the light of his wisdome, to expresse such medications as God hath suggested to men, and leave them to your further consideration, and spiritual discerning and judgement.

The note then is shortly thus much.

Doärine.

To finde out the number of the Beaft requires beavenly wisdome, and yet such as have received any wisdome ought to count that number, and upon the acount shall find it to be the number of a man, in sum six hundred threescore and six.

This is the fum, I wrap up all in one Doctrine, that handling the Doctrine in the parcels, all the parts of the verse may be opened therewith.

First, I say to finde out this number is wisdome, it requires heavenly wisdome; Here is wisdome : And God accounts not the wildome of this world wildome, but fooliffineffe; he speaks therefore of that which in Scripture language is wifedome, not Mathematical, nor Airthmetical wisdome; for what great wildome would it require to count this number, it ariseth out of fix, and is multiplyed by ten, this is such wisdome as any mean Arithmetition might count, fix times ten is 60. and ten times 60. is 600. and fix times one is fix, the wildome therefore lies not there. But to fee how this count disciphers the Beaft, and by that means to give more perfect intelligence of the Beaft, and of his nature, then by his marke and name alone could be gathered, that requires heavenly wildome, but wildome therefore it doth require, It requires a mans best understanding to enquire what the holy Ghost hath faid of this number : and though it require much wifdome, yet the counting of this number is both possible, and necessary : if it were not possible, the holy Ghost would not lay, Let bim that bath understanding, count the number of the Beaft : Hee is wont to fay, Let bim that bath an eare, bear what the spirit saith: but here he saith, Let him that hath understanding count the number of the Beast. And it is also necessary for him, not of necessity to salvation, without which a man cannot be saved, but necessary in regard of Goda command: Now because there are none of Gods commandements that are vaine things, but weighty, therefore they are either very necessary to salvation, or very expedient: so that a man shall be much weakened in his spiritual progresse, (especially in Popish times, or in such times where men live in the Image of Popish Churches, National or Diocesan,) if he be ignorant thereof, he shall sinde it to be much expedient to count the number of the Beast.

And further I adde, it will be found to be but the number of a man: What is the meaning of that? I will not trouble you with variety of interpretations, briefly the number of a man: I suppose it is here opposed to that which ye read of in Rev. 21.17. where he tels us, The new Jerusalem was measured, an hundred and fourly and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is of the Angel: here he doth not say so, the number of a man, that is of the Angel: but it is the number of a meere man, a carnal man, and therefore in sum this number wil proove but an humane invention, it is therefore called the

And finally, he faith this number is fix bundred three score and fix. Six hundred sixty six is not in the Original in so many words, onely three greek letters are put for these three numbers, a \(\xi \) s. Now it is true in the Greek account they do reckon numbers by the letters of the Alphabes, and from the six letter Alpha to Ista, they are for singular units, for Alpha is one, and Beta is two, &c. and they put in Sigma and make that six, Ista is the tenth letter, and so is ten in number; and from Ista to Rbo, they are reckoned by tens, as Cappa is twenty, Lambda thirty, Ma sourty, &c. and so till you come to Rbo and that is one hundred, and then the rest that follow are so many multiplied, as Sigma is two hundred, Tax three hundred, &c. and \(\chi\) six hundred. So that if these be underflood as holding out the numbers, as here the words expresse, then \(\chi\) is six hundred, \(\xi\) is six hundred, \(\xi\) is six hundred, being summed together they make up hx hundred fixty hx.

Now a man would wonder that the holy Ghoft should delight in fuch Arithmetical riddles; but fince it pleafeth him thus to expresse himselfe, we must not look at it as a cabalistical curiolity , nor as an unsearchable mystery ; but they that labour herein, shall finde that which may folace themfelves and others : For though by the arme of flesh no man thall be firong, yet by the wildome of God the fervants of Christ shall see light, and babes shall see the mystery of it. Therefore to cleare up this point, fo far as God shall give light, confider with me I pray you fix or feven feveral observable passages of the holy story of the Revel ton, the may h lp us in fome measure in enquiring and counting this sum of fix bundred three score and fix, what it may point at. Let it not be wearisome to you; for though to us that are Ministers, we think we are most properly in our element when we preack Chrift, and the need of Chrift; yet forafmuch as Antichrift is opposed to Christ, and is an enemy to Christ, the one contrary may be the better known by the other, and no part of Scripture but is worthy our confideration, we may not be fo fquemish as to negled to feeklwhat may be the councel of the holy Ghoft in this point. Observe therefore what the Scripture doth observe about this number.

First, you shall observe this, to finde out the meaning; that such as have this number they all have liberty of commerce, either in the Catholick Roman Church or in the Immage of that Church; they may trade with them, whether in spiritual or temporal businesses, they will not grudge you; you are a currant market man among them; you are a very dable commodity, and you may passe with them, and you, mony is good silver, as in Verse 16, 17. But if you be not a Press of their order, nor a Roman Catholick, nor have his number, you may not buy, nor sell; that is something

Secondly, Marke this, that this number of the name is the degree of commerce with the Roman Catholick Church, for so he doth discend, Verse 17. No man may buy or sell that those that have the marke, or the name of the Beast, or the number of his name:

name : As who should fay, they were of the lowest, they were the least fort of them, yet to them it did percaine that had the number of the name : vet there is fo much real difference between them, that he faith plainly, They that receive the mark or bis name, they hall drink of the wine of the wrath of God. which is boured out without mixture into the cup of bis indignation : And they shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the prefence of the boly Angels, and in presence of the Lamb : And the smooth of their torment fball afcend up for ever and ever, and they fhall have no reft day nor night , Rev. 14. 9, 10, 11. Which shews it they continue in it, they cannot be faved : There was a cry of the Angel with a loud vovce. If any man worthin the Beaft and bis Image. and receive his mark in his forebead, or in his band, &c. It thews the danger is very great to receive the mark of the Braft or the name of the Beaft : But the number of his name I do not read of any fuch judgement pronounced to be inflicted upon them : though it be great wildome to avoyd it, and it will wonderfuily advance their heavenly good to get free from it : For wherein lies wifdom: but in attaining our cheife good, and to know the best means that leads to that good, & that is in communion with God in his Ordinances purely difpenced; that is a second thing.

Thirdly, there is this recorded of this number of the name, that the choicest christians and the best christians, they gave God thanks for victory over the number as weil as over the Beaft , Rev. 15. 2. They got victory over the Beaft, and over bis Image, and over bis marke, and over the number of bis name, fo that they fung the fong of Mofes the fervant of God, and the fong of the Lamb, faying, great and marvellous are thy works Lord God almighty, ec. They had got the victory over the number of the name of the Braft, and they are more abundant in thankigiving for deliverance, then they that had onely victory over the marke, and that is their Preiftly order or profession of Roman Catholick Religion; fo that this will come neare some Churches, conformed to the Image of the Beaft, that is, National, Diocefan, or Cathedrall Churches; but thefe have got victory over that; not onely over the Beaft, and his Image, and his mark, and his name, but also the number of his name. The

The fourth oblivable thing in Scripture is (lam occasioned to gather up little beams of wildome which the holy Ghost bath scattred that so we may gather up this account) that this number of his name is not faid to be the number of his years ; It is neither the number of his years when he began, nor the number of his years when he shall end : They cannot make it the beginning of his years; for though there be some that thought that Antichrist did first arise to a name in the year 606, yet they cannot cleare it by flory. It is true, in 606. or rather 604. Beniface took upon him the title of cheif Bilhop, that is, spiritual advancing, which was a part of Ancichrift, yet Ancichrift was begun; and 606 is not 666. there is 60. years difference; and it is like the holy Ghoft would not have varied fo much in fuch an expresse number, therefore this number is not for the time of the beginning of this braft. Neither is it the end of his years, for the beatl continues fill to this time, which hath been almost a thoufand years fince 666. But some fay in this round number, fomething is omitted, as when we fay 88, we mean 1588, vet in Scripture phrase such small numbers are not regarded, we freak to those that know what we speak.

But the Scripture requires us to use wildome in finding out this number : but what wisdome were it for the holy Ghost to leave out a thousand, as we leave out when we say 88. for 1500, the holy Ghoft doth not fo here. And befides, I would faine learn of any man of that judgement, what vi-Gory the Saints got, either the year when Antichrift begin, or when he shall end. What victory have we got? or shall no body conflict with this number of the beaft but those that lived in the year 666? or that shall live in the year 1666? In Rev. 15. 2. They got victory over the Beaft and his Image, and over bis name and number of his name, before the pouring out of the feven vials; So that I cannot fay this is the number of the period of the beath, that those are the number of his name.

And for a fifth thing, there is this further to be observed in it, that it is not the number of the followers of the beaft, but the number of the beaft : If it were the number of his followers, then it would be leffe then the number that followed the Lamb; for they are said to be an bundred fourly and four thoufand, in Chap 14. 1. And had the beaft had no more but 666.

then he had a lesse number to sight for him, then the Lamb had to sight for him: but in Verse 8. of this chapter, he tels you, All that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the Lambs book of life: And the world was never so hapy, as to leave but 666. reproduces in it in any generation, therefore that cannot be the meaning.

Sixthly, whereas he faith, this number is the number of a man, and the number is fix bundred threefcore and fix, he doth apparently out a difference between that and the name of the beaft; for hee doth expressly distinguish them in the former verse, for he faith, The marke of the Beaft, and the name, and the number of his name, Verfe 17. They are three diftinct things : So in Chap. 15. 2. where he faith, They got withory over the beaft and bis Image, and over bis mark, and over the number of bis name : And more yet, exprelly in Chap. 14. 9, 10, 11. He denouceth vengence to them that receive his mark or name, and yet not damnation to all that receive his number; fo that the number is not his name, it is a diffinct thing from the name, as the adjunct is from the subject. Then it will follow, me thinks (but I referre it to men of better judgement) it cannot be that either Latinus should be the number of the name, or (Ecclefia Catholica) the Roman Catholick Church; yet upon there points do our chief and late Expositers run : But (lea. ving them their due honour) it doth not fatisfie me, because Ecclesta Catholica is the name of the first beaft; and the name is one thing, and the number is another thing. And Latinus is one of the names of the second beaft, of Latinus Episcopus, the name of the Bishop of Rome; therefore it being his name, it is not the number of his name : So then all thefe things be considered, these observations being laid down, attend to a seventh observation for the clearing of the meaning of the text. and for opening the true sence of it;

7. That this number is expectly opposite to the number of the Lamb in the nex verse, in the following Chapter: The number of the Beast is one thing, and the number of the Lamb K k 2 is another thing : For though this be not the number of the Beafts followers, fixe bundred three fcore and fixe, yet it is the number of the Beaft; and the number of the Lambs followers is an bundred forty & foure thousand, what will that hold forth ? You shall find what the Holy Ghost intends expresly in that number in some other parts of this book, that this bundred forty and foure thouland hath his original and rife from 12. And 12. multiplyed by 12. Will arise from fo many scores to fo many bundreds, and 12. times twelve thousand is an bundred forty and foure thousand. So that that is the number of an bunared forty and foure theuland, the balis of the number is 12. and multiplyed by 12. it will ftill be derived into the fame 12. Now thus doth the Holy Ghoff lead us by the hand to confider of more diftinaly; In Rev. 12. 14. 16. He tells us, The walls of the City had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve Apostles of the Lamb, and the City lyeth foure-square, and the length is as broad as the breadth, &c. He meafured the City with the read, 12000, furlongs, the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equall. There he layes the number according to the number of the 12. Apostles, the foundation of the Church of the living God : And further, mark how he multiplies on that 12. faith he, They are all equall, twelve thoufand furlongs in breadth, twelve thou fand furlongs in length, twelce thouland furlongs in beight : Which argueth fill, that as the City of the new Ferusalem is built npon them, so it is multiplyed from them : And when he comes to measure the wall. he cells you in verf. 17. that it was an bundred forty and foure : Juft the Lambs company ; Still the whole Fabrick of Ferufalem is 12. the foundation of the number is Apostolicall, it is numbred by 12. and multiplyed by 12. It arifeth fill but to Apostolical simplicity, their number, and their measure, and their order, in all their dementions; when you have fummed it up to the highest, their Laws and Orders that they fee up, you shall finde 12. there, and you shall finde no more. Now then what is the number of the Beaft ? You fee what the Lambs number is, An bundred forty and foure thou and : what is the Beafts number ? It is fixe bundred three fcore and fixe , it falls thore in the beginning, fixe of the first 12; There is nothing

Apoftolical in it from the first rife : And as the rife is not the Apostolicall number, and constitution, so neither is the mulstiplication of it, for fix is not multiplyed by 12. but by ten; for fixe unites being multiplyed by tenne, make 60. and ten times fixty is 600. So all the multiplications is by ten, not by 12. the Ap Rolick number is not here. It is true. 666. runs roundly, and hath a comely proportion in it; where ever ye look, ye have fixe, and it is pretty pleafing to the fancy, and eafie to remember; 144. is not fo round a number, neither for apprehenfion, nor for memory. But vet wee are not at the bottome : What should be the reason that the Holy Ghoff should fingle out the number fixe, and multiply it by ten ? why doth the Holy Ghoff put it upon fixe ? Seven had bin no Apostolical number, nor 10. multiplyed by 20. But why doth the H. Ghost pitch upon fixe, and the multiplication of fixe by ten ? Why you that are conversant in the Latine Bible : look Junius his notes, and he tells you; whereas all the Gatholique Church was formerly governed by five books of Decretalls, Boniface he did compile a fixth book of Decretalls, and called it Sextus (you that have the book of Canons may finde it) which being (faid the Pope) a perfect number, and therefore being added to the former books of Decretalls, it maketh np a certain plat-form of direction for all matters of practice and manners in the discipline of the Church, and so it is a perfect number of all things to be done in the Church, both for doctrine, worship, and government : so the Popes Canons are fummed up in his Sexius, there is the reason why he makes fixe the foundation; all their Administrations are founded and measured out from their Canon-Lawes, which. are all wrapped up in fix volumes, and the fixth is the most compleat of them all.

Now if you will aske why this fixe comes to be multiplyed by ten? If ye observe it, all the government and maintenance of the Roman State is by tenths, by tithes; all the peopeople must give the tenth to the Priest, and the Priest to the Bishop for the mayntenance of the Calbolicke Church, and so the whole Government comes to be multiplyed, maintained,

Thus you fee what the number is , and the reason why the Holy Ghoft calls it fo , and how he doth oppose it to the contrary number of that which is delivered by the bleffed Apofiles, and followed by the holy Saints of God from one generation to another. Put then all thefe together, and all will amount to this; That whereas the number of Chrift upon which both his followers are built, and his Church, and all the Dimentions and Administrations of it : Their foundation, their gates, their length, beighth, and breadth, all of them are founded in the Apostolicall doctrine : For Christ prayed for his tro lue Apostles, and all that should believe in his mine through their word, John 17. 20. It is the comprehension of all Saims to the end of the world, whereas they are built upon Apostolicall simp'icity, both for their State and Churchadministrations, they are all built upon twelve, and multiplyed and enlarged by 12.

On the contrary, all the Roman Catholickes they are built upon the Popish Lawes and Decrees, all which require subicaion to the Popill Church, and submission to that Church. and to the Pope as the head of that Church, receiving do-Arine, and worship, and discipline from that Church, and that was founded in fixe, on the fixe books of their Decrees. and it is multiplyed according to the same books, to mayntayn all the Clergy, from the Pope to the lowest Parish priest: And it is wildome to find this out, and is requires heavenly wildome to fee the dangerous flate of this, and yet they that have wisdome may finde this out; and when they search it out . They will finde it but the number of a man, not of the Angel. or of the Apostles, or of any messenger of God.

I remember the speech of one of the Saines of God, That is Parker. is a most unworthy thing that the Church of Christ thould be governed by the Lawes of Antiebrift (and fuch were all their fixe books) and it is most unworthy, that both the Church it felfe, and all the Images of it, that they are all governed by thefe fixe bookes ; and it is moft unworthy that Antichrift thould govern all the Administrations of the Church ; that if a man be cired, it shall be by a Latine writ; and if he appeare, he shall be proceeded against according to Canon

Lawes ; and if he be censured, it shall be a Canon Law, and in Latine, and to shall his Absolution be; and what persayns to their whole government, it is but founded in these fixe books of Decretale, and count them, and you shall find them but the number of a man; nothing but meerly the wir and policy of men, either to keep unity as they fay (but tyranny in governmene) or to enrich men with fees, or maintayne the honous of fome Cathedrall person, it is all but meer humane inven-Now for a man to fee not only the Roman Catholicke wiffble Church to be a Braft, but that the Pope the head of it is a beaft, and the image of that Church is a beaft ; Diocefan, Pro. vinciall, Nationall, and Metropolitan Churches are but images of this great beaft, and to fee all the numbers and rights they thrust upon the Church by Canons, they are but the number of the beaft, the number of a man, humane inventions ; what is appointed by the Church , whether Croffe or Surplice, or kneeling at the Sacrament, they are but the multiplication of Canons, Canon multiplyed on Canon, but it is fill but the power of the Canon, this is great wisdome to find it out : And it behooves those that have wildome so confider it; and they that confider it, shall find it but a meer humane device, one as well as another; and they will confider which way the State goes, and which way the State leanes : Though some poor hearts think they are bound to obey the Lawes of the Kingdom, and some good souls many times will be tampering with them too much; but he that shall observe it, thall find it but the number of a man when he doth find it : He shall find thus much, that if he do believe as God is wont to teach to his people, they shall not have the liberty of Commerce in buying and felling, nor leave in foirituall or temporall occurrances and dealings with them. For theuse of it : First, let it be some word of encouragement and comfort union all the fervants of God, that have god the victory over this number, though with their loffe, not to look at their loffes as an unexpected thing, or new matter, but prophecyed of above 1500, years agone. John wro e of it in his time, what you loft in your liberties in the Church wherein you lived, it is no more then what the Lord foretold you, that you should not have liberty to buy and fell if you did beare witnesse against the beast, and his mark, and name, and number of his name; then there is no abiding for you in any Church in Chriffendome, which is either Catholicke, or framed after the image of it, as Nationall, Diocetan, or Cathedral, or Provincial, it is not possible you should get the victoover these things, and have liberty of commerce. It is not enough that we have cast off the Pope; and what is an image of Popery (which we fometimes have submitted unto) and have born against it, and it is not enough to abhor the name of a Papift fo far as we have been corrupted : It is well that ye have born witnesse against the Hierarchy and the papall government; but may we not hearken to the Canon of the Ch urch maintained by a whole National Councel? and may we not yield to the orders of these Canons, and beare witmeffe to the number of the Name ? Suppose the Cross, or Surplice, or kneeling at the Sacrament, many Christians have firong reasonings about this, that they may keep their liberty of Commerce, their buying and felling, and will not God bave mercy and not facrifice?

Though such Godly christians in their weaknesse have such reasonings, yet beleive it we are to blesse God that hath given us to fee that there is no correspondency to be kept with Rome : If you have the number of his name, this is not that which the holy Ghoft speaks of as damnable herefie, you may live and dye in that judgment, and be faved, therefore he doth not pronounce fire and brimftone to fuch; they think in conscience they may yeild to this and that, as being the command of Cefar, or of the Church; the Lord foare you as the Apostle faith : But if a man will adore the Roman Catholick Church or the Pope the head of it, and submit in conscience to be guided by their Laws, he renounces his falvation in fuch a cafe; that a man shall pin his faith upon the Churches sleeve, and his hope, and Government, and course of life on the Churches sleeve, this is the way to everlasting damnation: And therefore in those Churches that are even Images of Antichrift, it pleaseth God to keep his servants so far, that they dare not take all their Laws for doarine without question.

nor all the ways of their Government as the Government of Christ, that God opens all the hearts of his faithful servants to see: But yet for the number of his name; It is (say they) but a sew trifling things, they are made a matter of six, as Crosse, and Surplice, and kneeling at the Sacrament, and bowing to Altars, and the name of Jesus, and ye will have six in the end, and what will be multiplyed on that six, the Lord knows: But for you here, look at it as a special mercy, that you see the vanity of receiving the number of his name, and that you have this deliverance from it; that though you have lost your buying and selling, that if you were there, you might hardly be seen in the Market; and in many of those Churches you will hardly be allowed, yet you have lost no more then ought to be for seken.

There are that have sometimes put X for the crosse, and \(\xi \) a long letter in wrinkles for the Sürplice, and \(\xi \) for the proportion of \(x \) man bowing, but I would not limit the counsell of the holy Ghost so strictly: But take all that is numbred by their Canon Law, and it will come all to one reckoning; they are but the number of the beast, whether the Pope dictate them, or they receive them; and though they cut of his head for taith, yet for discipline, and order, and circumstances they still retaine him, and these are the number of the Beast; therefore bleffe the Lord that hath shewed you these to be evils, and saved you from such prevailing evils.

Secondly, for your present condition, learn thus much, It will not be safe for yet o receive the Image of any other Church, then that which Christ hath established, and this is grounded upon 12. upon the Aposses doctrine, and multiplyed by 12. increased with the increasings of God, blessed be his name, therefore it being so, hold saft this forme, and be not removed from it: If you fall to adore National, or Diocessan, or Provincial, or Cathedral Church-government, then you will fall to number by 6. and multiply 6. by 10. in the end it will come to passe all this shall be maintained by tenths, such settled endowments and presements, and then it may be you shall have liberty of buying and selling, of traffique and trading; the Brash of Rome will allow you some liberty that way; yet believe it, it is a special part of your wisdome to know this, and the danger of it. If a man in his ignorance shall veild to thefe things, God will pardon it; but if a man know thefethings, and willingly give way to them, the Lord will require is at his hands : Confider therefore this number. and avoyd it, though it coft you all your liberties, the Lord will fay, this onely is a wife people, that renounce not onely the Beaft, but she Images of him, and his marke, and the name Catholick, and Roman Catholick, and conformity to all the number of his name; If ye establish your hearts in these spiritual refolutions, here is wildome; and thereof how should it provoke the hearts of Gods people to be fetled in confcience about such points as thefe, though it may be your countrev-men will count you fools in runing fuch desperate ventures, that you would hazard your forcunes, and at length bring a noble to nine pence ; you shall bring your fix hun. dreds to fixties, and your fixties to fixe : No matter what they think of it, to long as ye thall keep the Apostolical number, and multiply by their rule; the holy Ghoft faith, Here is wildome, and he that bath understanding, let him so esteem that here is wisdome; and it was wisdome to come hither; and he that came for this end, never made a better bargaine in his life, then to come over for this, because he would have no more to do with the Beaff, and his Image, and his name, and the number of his name; I say thou haft made a wife bargaine, if thou wilt take the word of the holy Ghoft for thy fecurity; he

Thirdly, it may teach us that are come hither to see that the Lord acknowledgeth our wisdome in the abrenuntiation which we have made from these inventions of the sonnes of men: The Lord did foretel us what should be our case, we should not have liberty to buy, nor sell, neither be seen in Church nor Market, and he counts it wisdome to remoove on these terms: but if we shall have slittering mindes to go back againe, the Lord will write upon it, bere is a sole, this their way is their folly, Pfal. 49 13. When men in their hearts wax weary of the Churches of Christ, and of the discipline of Christ, and look at them as sussement and empty things for wans want of feeling the life of Chriff, and wildome of Chriff, run on foolishly and preposteroully, and truly take a course to overthrow their communion they have with Chrisf, and make shipwrack as much as in them lies of all that which they have undergone, of all our sufferings and tryals: Saish the Apostle to the elect Lady and her children, in 2 John 8. Look to your selves, that ye loofe not those things which ye have wrought but that ye receive a full reward. That as your have made a wise bargain and a safe, & bin at so much sharge, and have been freed from the image of Antichrist, and the remnant of his image, and the remnant of his number (we have cause to blesse God for it.)

And though we may think of mending our felves here or there, yet you will finde it a difficult thing to finde 12, mulciplyed by 12. in any place under Heaven, that is, either your foundation shall not be Apostolical institution, or your administration apostolick doctrine : That christians should be the foundation of Churches, as the Apostles require, Saints by calling, and to build on fuch, and to administer such according to the word of God : Yea though the Lord should be pleased to give our Country-men free passage of a Parliament, (as now we have speech of it) and though they be a wife Nation, yet fuch is the very frame of the State, and of the Soffnes of men, that if the Lord give free passage of a Parliament, you will find it a very difficult thing, to have the State ruled by Apostolical judgment, to reject all devices of men, to thut out the greatest part of a kingdom from the Lorde Table. you would finde rebellions multiplyed exceedingly, if they were of the spirit that they were of in Edward the fixthe time. And when you are gone out of the Countrey (not that I would flatter the Countrey, the Lord knows we our felves here, have need to grow more spiritual daily; but yet in refoed of the Churches of God, and administration of things here, though we faile and go afide, we have the rule to fhew us the way back againe :) I say when you are gone, go whether you will, you will have much ado to findematerials, and more ado to finde forme and administration : as that it may be in cold blood, you will fit and mourn by the waters of Babilon, and hang your Harpes upon the willower, and fay, bor Ll2 (ball

Therefore let it provoke us to hold fall what we have rectived and not to be taken off with faire pretences, to turne ande to one hand or the other; if we be in a flate of wildome, let us keep in it, and beleive ir, whatever takes you to a contrary course to things as they fland; if the holy Ghoff say this is wiscome, then I am sure the contrary of it must need be folly.

4. Fourthly, it may teach us (in the fear of God) to have an

Fourthly, it may teach us (in the fear of God) to have an eye to our brethren in our native Country, to confider those defects that those which reformed religion before us did leave in the recovery of the Country out of the jaws of Antichriff; (you fee what the Lord requires of us, that we fould have nothing to do with the number of the Beaft) Though they cut off the head of the Beaft, from being of any foveraign power to them, yet they took too much liberty for forme of worship, and for the number of the Popes name, and of Government by Canon Laws, yea the whole Church discipline by the Popilh Canon Law, onely with this deflinktion, that whereas the Pope enjoyed it before, now the King he claims headship over the Church aswel as the civil State, and he deriweth the Church-power to the chief Bilhops, and they worke upon it more and more; and though it be true, both Henery the eighth, and much more Edward the fixth, and Queen Elizabeth, all these did set so many Counceltors, so many Divines, and so many common and civil Lawyers to cull out of the Popes Decretals fuch Canons as were moft fit for Government, and moft of fuch as cut off Popilh Jupremacy, wet they could never agree of it, and fo they admit them as the Popes Canons only ; yet fo that whereas reference of Ecclefiaftical matters was to the Pope, now it is to the King as supream head and Governour, but the Popes Canons are the government of the Church. Now what was the reason ? There was an unsafe principle in their hearts, that they thought it law. full to take the Laws of the Roman Church, and that any King might have power to make Laws to govern the Church. as well as the Pope had. It is true, he hath power to make Lawes as well as the Pope had, and better ; but the truth it.

Whatfoever is not of the non ber of 12, is superadded, and will never prosper; but this principle making them willing toadmit tuch things, though they were the chiefeft of the Kingdome, that were appointed for that worke, yet they could meyer agree : But had they received a little more light and wildome to cut off the number of the Beaft alwel as his head, it would have prevailed for the liberty of Gods Ordinances and puricy of Doctrine : I say this being wanting to them. er let it not be wanting to us; but through the mercy of God, the fervants of God have taken no small paines to clear up fuch things; what the Laws are in the Church of Christ by which Migistrates and others are to be guided, how far civil Government may reach, and how farre it may not go, fall referving this fundamental principle, to hold them close to the derection of the holy Ghoft by the 12. Apostles ; and this being the pious care of our Magistrates, and of the Churches. this wildome will in the bleffing of God be established; that that which other Nations have not attained to this day, may by the bleffing of God be reached by us and yet though the Elders are to enquire and to commend to them fuch rules as may establish it, it pleaseth God not to give as yet passage to our purpoles; appoint one day, a fforme of raine hinders ; appoint the second day formight, then a storme of snow prevents, that it is tough work to establish things of this nature: it is difficult, as if the Lord would have them established in a fpirituall way, as Mofes the Law by 40. dayes fasting, he had the fpirit of God and larger measure by much then we, yet the Lord requires ferious humiliation of him. And therefore fince I heard that there hath been a feafonable motion to commend such a thing to the State that the whole country do in special maner seek God at such a time against the confultation of the general Court; and this weighty point falling in for ripening of mens thoughts for the Laws of the Country and limitation of jurisdictions both of Church and Common-wealth, the Lord faith, he will be fought unto by the house of Israel. Therefore I think the motion is seasonable and was glad to hear of it; and thought to commend it to our honoured Governours that fit at Stern, and all other Churche ches (but we that are present have no power but in our own Church, nor that but with the confent of the Church) that if it be thought convenient this day feven-night might be let apart to feek the face of God, that we may take time both to ripen our consultations, and to prevaile with the Lord to prosper our consultations and administrations, that this matter which fo much concerns posterity may be established ; for my own part, while we live I am not greatly folicitous thereabout, yet for future we know not what Governors may arife, and what may be put upon our pofterity; needful therefore that things were put in a right frame, that whatever men fay, yet the Lord may fay here is wildome, and here is neither marke, nor name, nor number of name, but all carried according to the laws of the 12. Apostles, and this will require some humiliation, and if Mojes flood in need of 40. days, we much more of one day. And for our native countrey, we do not know what conflicts them may be there about the number of the name of the Beaft : we are come from them in bodily presence, and therefore cannot fielpe them by a word of advice; but this we may do, put up supplications to heaven, and we may increat the God of wildome, and the Prince of peace, that he would put in amongst them that they may fee the whole fabrick, voot and branch of the man of fin. that fo there may be a perfect combination of the two great Nations, that the Parliament may be for the better, not for the worfe, but purity of ordinances (if it be the bleffed will of God) may be established; however we shall finde a bleffing. and some of our brethren shall fare the better : and if things wax clearer and zeal warmer, they will begin to suspect the number as well as the name, and as the head of the beaft; otherwise the three innocent ceremonies (as they call them) they are grown to fix ; and being multiplyed by ten, they may grow to 60, yea to 600, for ought I know : Let us help them what we can by Prayer.
